AN ENGLISHWOMAN IN A TURKISH HAREM

New Introduction by Teresa Heffernan and Reina Lewis

GRACE ELLISON

Grace Ellison (d. 1935) actively encouraged dialogues between Turkish and British women at the outset of the twentieth century. Despite an impressive legacy, Ellison and her work have almost disappeared from the historical record; the republication of this 1915 work aims to address this neglect.

ORIGEN'S INFLUENCE ON THE YOUNG AUGUSTINE

A Chapter of the History of Origenism.

GYORGY HEIDL

The main purpose of the book is to demonstrate that as early as the first phase of his activity (386-393 AD), Augustine did make use of some Origenian works, and that basic elements of his early theology were derived from the Alexandrian master.

EROS AND RITUAL IN ANCIENT LITERATURE

Singing of Atalanta, Daphnis, and Orpheus

EVANGELIA ANAGNOSTOU-LAOUTIDES

The book examines the dynamic of erotic myths in ancient literature; in the myths of Atalanta and Daphnis, metaphors for "falling in love" derive from Near Eastern cults and hold the keys to the understanding of Latin Elegy and the Greek bucolic.

LITERATURE OF THE SYNAGOGUE

Edited with introduction and notes by Joseph Heinemann, with Jakob J. Petuchowski. New Introduction by Richard S.
Sarason

JOSEPH HEINEMANN

Literature of the Synagogue is a three-part introduction to the textual heritage of Jewish devotion in the formative stages of its development. Part One presents a varied selection of prayers and liturgies expressive of rabbinic theology and religious feeling. Part Two is devoted to sermons from the classical rabbinic period. Part Three is an anthology of sacred poems and devotional hymns by the great literary masters of the Hebrew Middle Ages.
