English for Enjoyment

Falling Snow

See the pretty snowflakes
Falling from the sky;
On the walk and housetop
Soft and thick they lie.

On the window ledges
On the branches bare;
Now how fast they gather,
Filling all the air.

Look into the garden,
Where the grass was green;
Covered by the snowflakes,
Not a blade is seen.

Picnic Day

Sing a song of picnics,
Bread and butter spread,
Flowers all around me
And cherries overhead!

Christmas

Christmas is coming, the geese are getting fat,
Please put a penny in an old man's hat;
If you haven't got a penny, a ha'penny will do,
If you haven't got a ha'penny, God bless you.

Pancake Day

Pancake Day is a merry and tasty holiday in England. It is usually in March. They celebrate Pancake Day not only at home, but at school as well. On this day people make and eat a lot of pancakes. They also run with them.

In some villages and towns in England pancake races take place every year. There are special rules about pancake races: housewives should wear aprons, and put on hats or scarves on their heads. They run about 410 metres.

A bell rings twice before the race. With the first bell the women make their pancakes. With the second bell they start running with a pancake in a frying-pan. While running the race, they toss the pancake three times and catch it back on the frying-pan. If the pancake falls down, the runner may pick it up and toss it again. The other members of the families watch the runners and cheer: "Run, Mum, run, run quickly!"

The Cupboard

I know a little cupboard,
With a tiny, tiny key,
And there's a jar of lollipops
For me, me, me.

And when I'm very good, my dear,
As good as good can be,
There's cherry cake and lollipops
For me, me, me.

Black and Gold

Everything is black and gold,
Black and gold tonight:
Yellow pumpkins, yellow moon,
Yellow candlelight;

With a yellow blink.

Which Piece Is Mine?

The cat and the rabbit are good friends. One day in the wood they find a big piece of cheese. They like cheese very much.

Cat: You cut the cheese into two pieces. Then we'll each have a piece.

Rabbit: I'll make the pieces the same size. (He cuts the cheese into two pieces. But one piece is a little bigger than the other.)

Cat: (taking the bigger piece)
I'll take this piece.

Rabbit: Don't take it. I want this piece.
(The Fox walks by.)

Rabbit: Dear Fox, we have two pieces of cheese. I want the bigger piece. The cat wants the bigger piece too. Which piece is mine?

Fox: I'll help you. I'll bite the bigger piece so they will be the same size. (She bites the cheese, but she bites off too much.)

Cat: Now the other piece is bigger!

Fox: That's all right. I'll bite it too.
(But she bites off too much again.)

Rabbit: Now the first piece is bigger again.

Fox: I'll bite it again. Then they will be the same size. (This time she eats up the first piece. Then, as there is only one piece left, she eats it. The cat and the rabbit get nothing.)

The Lion's Den

Lion: You are all my good friends. I want you to tell me how my den smells.

Dog: Oh Lion, I am your good friend, and I am not afraid to tell you. Your den smells bad.

Lion: GRRRRR! You are not a very good friend. How can you say that my den smells bad? Get out and don't come back, or I'll eat you up!

Monkey: What a fool! I am your friend, King Lion, and I'll tell you how your den smells. It smells like flowers.

Lion: GRRRRR! You bad monkey! You are a fool too! Get out and don't come back, or I'll eat you up!

Lion: And how do you think my den smells?

Fox: Well, King Lion, I can't tell. I have a bad cold, and I can't smell anything.

Lion: You are very clever, my friend. You have saved both my feelings and your own skin.

A Summer Day

Come, my children, come away,
For the sun shines bright today;
Little children, come with me,
Birds and brooks and flowers see;
Get your hats and come away,
For it is a pleasant day.
Let us make a merry ring,
Talk and laugh, and dance and sing!
Quickly, quickly, come away,
For it is a pleasant day.

Spring

This is the season
When snowdrops bloom,
When nobody likes
To stay in the room.

This is the season
When birds make their nests,
This is the season
We all like best.

The Farmer's Treasure

Once upon a time there was a farmer. He was very ill and had only a short time to live. He was not a rich man. He worked hard all his life. But his sons were very lazy and didn't like to work in the fields.

He called his sons to his bed and said, 'My sons, I shall die very soon and you will be alone on this farm. I leave a treasure. Find it yourselves in one of the fields'.

Soon the farmer died. His sons wanted to find the treasure very much, and though they were lazy they went to the fields to dig. They dug all over the fields, but they did not find any treasure there. They were very tired and angry at first. But when they planted wheat it was much easier for them.

The harvest was very rich and they sold it and got a good sum of money. So now they understood what their father's treasure was.

The Days of the Week

You know the names of the days of the week: Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday. But do you know where these names come from? If you look carefully at the word Sunday, you may guess that it comes from Sun-day, the day of the Sun. The name of the second day, Monday, comes from the word Moon; so Monday is the day of the Moon. The names of the other days of the week are connected with the names of different gods and planets. For example, the word Thursday comes from the name of the God Thor. Thor was the German god of thunder, and even now you can sometimes meet the word Thunderday which is the other name for Thursday. The word Friday comes from the name of the old German goddess Frig who was the goddess of beauty.

The last day of the week is Saturday. The first part of this word, Saturn, is Latin. It is the name of the god and the planet. The second part of the word is English. So Saturday is the day of Saturn.

There are many funny poems in English about the days of the week. Here is one of them:

Solomon Grundy

Born on Monday,
Christened on Tuesday,
Married on Wednesday,
Took ill on Thursday,
Worse on Friday,
Died on Saturday,
Buried on Sunday.
This is the end of Solomon Grundy.

Mothers Can Do Everything

It's Sunday. It's 8 o'clock in the morning. Father and the children are sitting at the breakfast table.

They are ready to eat: they are hungry. They are ready to drink: they are thirsty. But where is Mother? In the kitchen. She got up before the others. First, she made tea. Then she prepared breakfast. It began with porridge. Then she brought some warm milk to go with the porridge.

Then she cooked eggs and fish. She also toasted some bread.

After breakfast we helped Mother to clear the table - we took off the dirty breakfast things into the kitchen and put them in the sink for washing up. Then we washed up. Now, the cups and plates, forks, knives, and spoons are clean again. We put each thing in its place.

Mother is a very good cook, and Father and we are fond of the cakes and nice food Mother cooks for us. We think high of Mother's cooking.

Now, Father tries to help her with the dishes, but there are times when a plate or a cup falls down on the floor...

Who can do things better than mothers?

The Christmas Dog

One day Ronnie was rather a naughty boy. He pulled his old toys out of the cupboard on to the floor, and refused to pick them up when his mother told him to.

'Very well', said his mother, 'Father Christmas will not leave any presents this year, because a naughty boy lives here.'

Ronnie did not like that. He was counting the days to Christmas. Ronnie began to cry and rub his eyes angrily.

'Don't you want Father Christmas to come to you this year?' a voice said, and to Ronnie's surprise, his toy little white dog stood in front of him.

'Of course I do!' said Ronnie, 'But I thought you were a toy!'

'I am a fairy toy', replied the dog, 'I am a model of Father Christmas's own white dog. Father Christmas sent me to find out how many children deserve new toys. The naughty, disobedient ones are left until last, and sometimes left out altogether'.

'Oh, dear', said Ronnie sadly. Then smiling at the toy dog, he said: 'I probably was a good boy last year, because Father Christmas left You on my bed'.

'Well, why not be a good boy now? And tidy up your toy cupboard before your mother comes back. Come, I will help you.'

The little dog then helped Ronnie to pick up everything and soon his room was tidy again.

When Ronnie's mother came back she looked very pleased. Ronnie knew that the dog became a toy again. He hugged him tightly and looked out of the window. He saw a real white dog who trotted past the house. 'Hurrah!' shouted Ronnie excitedly. 'Look, there is Father Christmas's dog. I do believe he means to give me a good present.'

Four Little Words

There are four little words
That can help you a lot,
When you hurt your friend
On purpose or not.
So say the four words,
Don't wait too long!
If you've hurt your friend
Say 'I'm sorry, I'm wrong'.

Spring Rain

Rain, rain, rain, April rain,
You are feeding seeds and grain,
You are raising plants and crops
With your gaily sparkling drops.

Holding Hands

Elephants walking
Along the trails
Are holding hands
By holding tails.
Trunks and tails
Are handy things
When elephants walk
In Circus rings.
Elephants work
And elephants play,
The elephants walk
And feel so gay.
And when they walk –
It never fails –
They're holding hands
By holding tails.

Snow

The snow fell softly all the night.
It made a blanket soft and white.
It covered houses, flowers and ground,
But did not make a single sound!

How Many?

How many seconds in a minute?
Sixty and no more in it.
How many minutes in an hour?
Sixty for the sun and shower.
How many hours in a day?
Twenty-four for work and play.
How many days in a week?
Seven both to hear and speak.
How many months in a year?
Twelve the almanac makes clear.
How many years in an age?
One hundred says the sage.
How many ages in time?
No one knows the rhyme.

White Fields

In winter time we go
Walking in the fields of snow;
Where there is no grass at all;
Where the top of every wall,
Every house and every tree
Is as white, as white can be.
And our mothers
Always know
By our footprints in the snow
Where the children go.

MAGIC ENGLISH

P U P I L ' S B O O K · F O U R T H F O R M

Magic English is a new three-level course in English which satisfies the National Curriculum requirements for the Primary School in Moldova.

Magic English

encourages pupils' interaction and communication; provides a systematic development of grammar, vocabulary, reading, writing, listening, speaking and pronunciation, integrated throughout;

raises pupils' awareness of cultural diversity;

makes it possible to check progress in an informal way through activities which involve discovery, problem-solving, language use and creative response.

Each level of Magic English contains:

The Pupil's Book – a beautifully illustrated text-book with stimulating activities that are based on child-friendly vocabulary and are pupil-oriented.

The Workbook – a collection of activities that mirror the Pupil's Book content and provide additional material for classroom and home use.

The Teacher's Book – a guide for teachers consisting of detailed lesson notes.

The Cassettes contain dialogues, texts, poems, and phonetic drills as production models.
