QUESTIONS FOR LAURA INGRAHAM

Political Vulnerabilities

Criticisms of the Media/Press Secretary Role

Background: Ingraham has been consistently and openly critical of news outlets and journalists over the years. In radio and TV segments, she has decried the biased ‘Hillary media’ and questioned some journalists’ patriotism.

- As Press Secretary, how would you help forge what is an already sensitive relationship between the President-elect’s team and the reporters than cover the President-elect?

- Do you believe the President-elect needs a more cooperative relationship with the national media or do you believe he should continue to hold dishonest members of the media accountable?
- How would you view the role of Press Secretary in a Trump White House?

History of Controversial Statements

Background: As a result of Ingraham’s lengthy career as a radio and television personality, critics have suggested some of her commentary can be ‘controversial.’ Ingraham’s list of ‘controversial’ comments include suggesting members of the Jewish faith are not a minority ethnicity because they are “successful.” Ingraham has said President Obama only received certain votes because of his race and has implied the Clintons were going to kill FBI Director James Comey. Ingraham is also a consistent critic of Republican Party congressional leadership.

- Do you believe your career in radio and television has in any way established a record that could create public relations turbulence should you join the administration?
- Would you agree to commit to the President-elect’s desire to present a united, bi-partisan, and cooperative federal government?

Passionate Position on Immigration

Background: Ingraham has consistently advocated for stronger U.S. immigration laws and has criticized the federal government’s failures to protect U.S. borders against illegal immigration. Ingraham has suggested if the President-elect were to alter his initial immigration platform she would be disappointed.

- Would you ever allow your support of policies that ‘strengthen’ immigration enforcement conflict with a potential ‘middle ground’ found under a Trump administration?
- Do you believe you have an ability to strike the appropriate tone on immigration law should you end up in a prominent public position representing the President?

Paid Speeches Disclosure

Background: Ingraham is a speaker with the Washington Speakers Bureau, with a fee level of “5,” which coordinates with a fee of $25,001-$40,000.

- Will you agree to privately release to the campaign a full list of every paid speech you have given and who paid you to give each speech?
 - Will you provide the dates for each speech?
 - Will you provide the name of each entity that paid for a speech?

COMMENTS ON TRUMP-PENCE

Trump

Ingraham Criticized Trump's Assertion That The Election Would Be Rigged

Ingraham Criticized Trump For Saying The Election Would Be Rigged, Saying "He Should Have Said He Would Accept The Results Of The Election. There Is No Other Option Unless We're In A Recount Again." "Other Republicans quickly bemoaned the comment: 'He should have said he would accept the results of the election. There is no other option unless we're in a recount again,' tweeted conservative commentator Laura Ingraham." (Kathleen Hennessey, "Analysis Trump Needed Debate Reset, Instead Riles GOP," Associated Press, 10/20/16)

Ingraham Was Critical Of Trump's Debate Performances And Complimentary Of Clinton's

Ingraham Was Critical Of Trump's Debate Performance, Saying "I Felt Like He Was Responding To Stupid Questions Too Often." LAURA INGRAHAM, EDITOR IN CHIEF, LIFEZETTE.COM: "I think tonight Donald Trump probably learned a lot about debating. He never has done a one on one debate before. It's a different animal " SEAN HANNITY: "It is." INGRAHAM: "-- from being up against eight or 10 other people. And I think in the beginning he was like his old self. As it went on, I felt like he was responding to stupid questions too often. Like his taxes, that's already going to be litigated. He's not going to release his taxes. He's already said why. That is not the burning issue on the minds of the American public. Sean, I know you know the same thing. When the issue of cyber security was mentioned, that was begging for Donald Trump to say is this a joke question? The woman who had a private server in some bathroom somewhere that wasn't as secure as Gmail is going to lecture us on cyber security? So that having been said, those moments were left on the table, missed opportunities." (Fox News "Hannity," 9/27/16)

Ingraham Was "On Hand To Play Hillary Clinton" In Trump's Debate Prep, But Trump Rejected The Offer Because "He Really Hates These Mock Debates." PATRICK HEALY: "The first session also he had Laura Ingraham, the conservative radio host, who was sort of on hand to play Hillary Clinton. But what Donald Trump told me was that he really hates these mock debates. He finds them to be phony. He thinks there's such a thing as sort of over preparing and he said, 'I know how to handle Hillary.' This is a guy who's just got so much self-confidence around how he can be on a debate stage. But what he's still grappling with is that it's not going to be, you know, nine other people on stage like he had in the primaries, but one person, you know, who's going to have to go hard at." (CNN s "Newsroom," 8/30/16)

- Ingraham Predicted That Clinton Would Do Well In The Debate Because She Would Be Prepared. LAURA INGRAHAM: "I'd be surprised if he is going to do this kind of typical preparation. I mean, I like to give unsolicited advice on my radio show everyday which I'm going to do " (CROSSTALK) MARIA BARTIROMO: "I love that about your show " INGRAHAM: "Yes, and I'm just like, here's my advice because you'll probably never take it. I think he's going to prepare in his own way. I have no idea. I do -- I do think it's going to be really important, I think Hillary Clinton is going to do well in this debate. I'll be surprised if she didn't show up and -- you know, she had every point gamed out and mood-courted, look at the way I prepare for a debate as I'd like -- I do -- I do debates." (Fox News "Mornings With Maria," 9/15/16)

Ingraham Was Critical Of Trump's "Softening" On Immigration

Ingraham "Went Beserk" When Trump Indicated He Was Softening His Stance On Immigration. FORMER CONGRESSMAN VIN WEBER: "Well, a really good question. I thought a lot about it and I talked a lot about it. I think we're going to go through a period of some turmoil and internal debate after this election, because what Donald Trump has done is fundamentally shifted the Republican Party on some very basic issues, most notably trade and immigration, and maybe some other things as well. And if you -- I saw the reaction of some of his best supporters to the perceived softening of his views on immigration. We can argue about whether he really did soften or didn't, I guess he's going to give a speech tomorrow in Arizona clarifying it. But when it was perceived that he was softening his views on immigration, some of his strongest supporters, like Ann Coulter and Laura Ingraham just went berserk. And what that said to me is that regardless of what the outcome of this election is, we're going to have big debates in the Republican Party about some of these issues. The protectionist, nativist sentiment that Donald Trump has brought to the fore in the Republican Party is not just going to go away if he gets beat. So I think we go through a period of some argument about policy.” (Bloomberg’s “Surveillance,” 8/30/16)

Ingraham Asked Trump If He Was Softening On Immigration, And Trump “[Passed] On The Chance To Disavow The Prior ‘Softening’ Narrative.” “‘You’re going to be asked this, so I might as well ask it,’ Ingraham said to Trump during a radio interview. ‘The line last week [was] you were softening on immigration, then you come out with a very specific, very pro-enforcement plan last night. Where’s the softening?’ Passing on the chance to disavow the prior ‘softening’ narrative, Trump insisted instead, ‘Oh, there’s softening. Look, we do it in a very humane way, and we’re going to see with the people that are in the country. Obviously I want to get the gang members out, the drug peddlers out, I want to get the drug dealers out. We’ve got a lot of people in this country that you can’t have, and those people we’ll get out.’ ‘And then we’re going to make a decision at a later date once everything is stabilized,’ Trump continued. ‘I think you’re going to see there’s really quite a bit of softening.’” (Nick Gass, “Trump Promises ‘Quite A Bit Of Softening On Immigration,” Politico, 9/1/16)

Ingraham Said That Her Interpretation Of Trump’s Comments Was That “We’re Not Gonna Be Running Around With Vans, Throwing People Into Vans, Unless They’re Hardened Criminals.” “Ingraham concurred, adding her own interpretation in the process. ‘Yeah, I think what he’s saying is the previous record of open border isn’t gonna exist, and you know, we’re not gonna be running around with vans, throwing people into vans, unless they’re hardened criminals,’ she said. ‘And if you’re arrested for a crime, you can’t stay in the country. But the idea that you’re gonna just run around with vans and throw fruit-pickers into the back of the vans, that’s not gonna happen. So I think that’s what he was talking about.’” (Nick Gass, “Trump Promises ‘Quite A Bit Of Softening On Immigration,” Politico, 9/1/16)

Ingraham Said That Trump Should Not Argue With The Khan Family

Ingraham Said That “Whether His Attacks Are Accurate Or Not, It’s Just Not Worth Donald Trump’s Time To Be Lodging These Protests Against Whether It’s Mr. Khan Or, Frankly, Any Critic.” INGRAHAM: “Andy McCarthy wrote an interesting piece in ‘National Review’ today where he said, look, on the immigration question with the Muslim ban, there is no constitutional prohibition on that. That was meant to only prohibit there would be a religious test for public service, to work as a public official. But I think you are right, Zeke. Whether his attacks are accurate or not, it’s just not worth Donald Trump’s time to be lodging these protests against whether it’s Mr. Khan or, frankly, any critic.” (Fox News “Special Report With Bret Baier,” 8/1/16)

Ingraham Asked Pence If Americans Should Be Concerned About Trump Encouraging Russia To Hack

Ingraham Asked Mike Pence “Should Americans Be Concerned That The Republican Nominee Is Inviting A Foreign Government To Hack Into Government E-Mails.” “In a radio interview with Laura Ingraham on Thursday morning, Ingraham asked Governor Mike Pence of Indiana, Trump’s running mate, ‘Should Americans be concerned that the Republican nominee is inviting a foreign government to hack into government e-mails?’ Pence, echoing the campaign’s public posture, said several times that Trump was just being ‘sarcastic’ and he sought to reframe Trump’s remarks.” (Nicole Hernandez, “Trump Says He Was Being Sarcastic, But Thinks Putin Is Better Leader Than Obama,” The Boston Globe 7/28/16)

Pence

Ingraham Said That Pence Would Not Be Picked As VP Running Mate Because Of How He Handled The Religious Restoration Act

Ingraham Was Skeptical That Pence Would Be Picked As Trump's Running Mate, Saying "I Don't See Him After The Way He Handled That Religious Restoration Act... Pence Just Wilting On That Issue, I Don't See Him Standing As Firmly As Someone Like Christie." SEAN HANNITY: "It seems we keep reading Mike Pence, Mike Pence, Mike Pence. Why is he not on your list or in the three?" LAURA INGRAHAM: "Because Pence has not been vetted. People are concerned about Trump out there. There's some people concerned about him. We know why. Pence has never been vetted. I mean, there's liable to be -- I mean, I don't know anything -- I like Mike Pence a lot, but I don't see him after the way he handled that religious restoration act, the religious freedom and restoration act, I don't -- when Mike Pence just wilted on that issue, I don't see him standing as firmly as someone like Christie who could pretty much defend and attack anything that he's asked to." (Fox News "Hannity," 7/11/16)

GENERAL CONTROVERSY

Nazi Salute Controversy

Following Ingraham's Speech At The Republican Convention, She Waved To The Audience, Which Some Said Resembled A Nazi Salute. "I do not think it is fair to say Laura Ingraham capped off her remarks at the Republican National Convention by giving a Nazi salute. However, I do think it is fair to say that Laura Ingraham capped off her remarks at the Republican National Convention with a hand gesture that, intentionally or not, clearly resembled a Nazi salute. (Yes, individual photos can be misleading, but take another look at that video and tell me I'm wrong.) The question, then, is either how or why that happened." (Josh Voorhees, "Did Laura Ingraham Intentionally Give A Nazi Salute Last Night? An Investigation," Slate 7/21/16)

Ingraham Said Supreme Court Justice Sotomayor Has An Allegiance To Her Immigrant Family, Instead Of The Constitution

Ingraham Said Sotomayor's "Allegiance Obviously Goes To Her Family Background And Not The Constitution Of The United States. LAURA INGRAHAM: "Her duty is to defend the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America...Why do we have a Supreme Court Justice whose allegiance obviously goes to her immigrant family background and not to the Constitution of the United States." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 2/4/14)

Ingraham Called Univision And Telemundo "Toxic"

Ingraham Called Univision And Telemundo "Toxic." LAURA INGRAHAM: "Mass migration, especially Latino migration, illegal or legal, has transformed previously solid Republican stronghold counties into Democrat-leaning counties or solidly Democrat counties. And why? You can ask yourself why is that? So Latinos are just going to be more knee-jerk liberal? Well, they come from countries where big government is a way of life, and often times they left corrupt governments, and now they think they're in the United States, and the government's going to do a lot more for them and be more benevolent. And sadly, our public schools don't assimilate people into the country as -- they used to have actually a role in instilling civic pride and patriotism. That's out the window. And add to that the toxic effect of Univision and Telemundo, which are overwhelmingly left-leaning media outlets. These are not media outlets that encourage objectivity in reporting or even a positive worldview toward the American experience. No, no, no, no, no. These are Hispanic-centric networks that I think in many ways, and we've talked about this before, revile the American experience, and I think even encourage the understanding that we're living on stolen land. So the idea that, like, Univision or Telemundo are going to be great agents of assimilation into the way the framers understood our balance of powers and checks and balances in Washington, forget about it. You're not going to learn about Adam Smith on Univision. This is a left-wing outlet, and it's going to propagate left-wing views." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 11/4/16)

Ingraham Said Mexicans "Have Come Here To Murder And Rape Our People"

Ingraham Said Mexicans "Have Come Here To Murder And Rape Our People." LAURA INGRAHAM: "They have come here to murder and rape our people. We know that. That doesn't mean everybody has, doesn't mean everyone who comes across the border is a nasty, horrible person, but they have violated our laws." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 2/4/16)

Ingraham Said Illegal Immigrants Who Attempt To Re-Enter The Country Should Be "Shot"

Ingraham Said "You'll Be Shot" If You Are An Illegal Immigrant Who Attempts To Re Enter America. LAURA INGRAHAM: "[Governor Jerry] Brown is releasing all these criminals, because they're spending too much money in the jails. By the way, the jails are what, 27 percent illegal immigrants? Why don't we ship them back home and say you come again, and you'll be shot crossing the border? Why don't we ship them out of this country, why are we paying for these horrific individuals? They do their time, get out of the country, never coming back. Never coming back. You come back, you'll be shot. I'm sorry, this is now -- so now you have a ten day waiting period? Well, you better hope nothing happens in ten days, I guess. That's a long wait, I thought four minutes was long, now you have ten days to wait." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 12/7/15)

Ingraham Advocated For A Plan To Temporarily Subject Immigrants From Certain Muslim Nations To Significantly Enhanced Vetting

Ingraham Said That Some Christians Can Come To America, But That "All These Other People" Need To "Stay In The Middle East" Because America "Cannot Be The Warehouse" Of "Muslim People..." LAURA INGRAHAM: "The Christians who we can verifiably say are Christians, who are in the threat of being slaughtered, I'm happy to bring in some of them. I think most people would. But all these other people, they've got to stay in the Middle East. We cannot be the warehouse of all these, you know, Muslim people coming from these far-flung lands." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 11/16/15)

Ingraham Called Sex Change Surgeries "Social Experimentation" And Criticized The Government Paying For "People To Go And Cut Their Private Parts To Death"

Ingraham Called Sex Change Surgeries "Social Experimentation" And Criticized The Government Paying For "People To Go And Cut Their Private Parts To Death." LAURA INGRAHAM: "What do you think about all that social experimentation they're doing in the military? They still going to pay for those for sex change surgeries in the military with taxpayer dollars? Aren't they -- are they paying for those now, Drew? The operations for the people to go and cut their private parts to death and whatever they do? Wasn't that a push, they want the taxpayer dollars to pay for those sex change surgeries? What do you think old Mad Dog [Gen. James Mattis] is going to think about that? We've got to cut, but not that way." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 12/2/16)

Ingraham Implied That The Clinton's Were Going To Kill FBI Director James Comey

Referring To FBI Director James Comey, Ingraham Said "You Get Down With The Clintons, You're Going To Get Down In The Mud, Or Worse - Or Be Buried Under The Mud, Frankly." LAURA INGRAHAM: "I think firing would probably be one of the nicest things Hillary [Clinton] did to Jim Comey if she wins. She'll probably bring him up on federal charges. Alight, Loretta [Lynch], here's what I want you to do. Loretta, remember I kept you in at Justice Department. Work up an indictment against Comey for treason. The man is guilty of treason because he almost -- he almost kept us back out of White House. That is treasonous. Hillary Clinton is going to have heads on a platter if she wins. Are you kidding me? Firing Comey? Fire Comey? That would be a gift to Comey, fire Comey. Comey will be lucky if he doesn't find himself having to get a food taster after all this, or a remote starter on his car. You get down with the

Clintons, you're going to get down in the mud, or worse -- or be buried under the mud, frankly. It's a dangerous deal to get down with the Clintons." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 11/4/16)

Regarding Transgender Bathroom Laws, Ingraham Said That More People Will Wear Adult Diapers To Avoid Sharing The Bathroom With Transgender People

Ingraham Said People Should Wear Diapers Instead Of Sharing Bathrooms With Transgender People. LAURA INGRAHAM: "I think a lot of people are going to be walking around with just Depends on from now on. They're just not going to use the bathroom. Adult diapers, diapers for everybody. No one's going to be going to the bathroom. You have little kids, there's going to be no bathrooms. We're just going to all wear Depends. Everyone will just be happy. Then you'll be in your own bathroom. Everyone's bathroom is just their own clothes, OK? So this is what we're going to go to." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 6/29/16)

Ingraham Said Minority Voters Voted For Obama Because He Was "Half-Black"

Ingraham Said Minority Voters Voted For Obama Because He Is "Half-Black..." LAURA INGRAHAM: "There are a lot of minorities who just voted for him because he was, you know, half-black, and that was a historical milestone." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 4/26/16)

Ingraham Said That Jewish People Aren't Minorities Because They Are Successful

Ingraham Said That She Doesn't Consider Bernie Sanders A Minority Because Jewish People Are "So Successful." LAURA INGRAHAM: "Now, what if Bernie were a minority? Oh he is kind of. He's a socialist, so. But what if Bernie were a minority? What if he were a 74-year-old black man who was arguing for these? Would you think they'd be telling him to get out of the race? I don't think so. They can - I think this is ageism. Don't you think this is ageism against Bernie? Although Hillary's not any spring chicken herself, so. But I think, maybe he should just start raising that as an issue, but they say he wants to have some input on the platform, so that might be also what's going on with Bernie Sanders...Oh, OK, you're reminding me. Bernie is a minority. He's Jewish. OK. See I don't think of Jewish people as minorities because they're so successful and so. But, yeah, that's technically correct so I appreciate that correction on our Twitter feed." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 5/18/16)

Ingraham Said "A Very Compelling Case" Could Be Made That The Women's Movement Has "Set Women Back"

Ingraham Said "A Very Compelling Case" Could Be Made That The Women's Movement Has "Set Women Back." LAURA INGRAHAM: "I think a very compelling case could be made that this has set women back. The most powerful thing a woman can do is give birth, that is it. That is your power, really your power. And you can do a lot of things in your life, but that's what makes you unique, and now it becomes just kind of commodified in today's society." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 11/11/15)

Ingraham Called Meghan McCain "Plus-Sized"

Ingraham Mocked Meghan McCain As Plus Sized. LAURA INGRAHAM: "Ok, I was really hoping that I was going to get that role in the Real World, but then I realized that, well, they don't like plus-sized models. They only like the women who look a certain way. And on this 50th anniversary of Barbie, I really have something to say." (Courtside Entertainment Group, "The Laura Ingraham Show," 12/5/16)

POLICY / STATEMENTS

Ingraham Is Pro-Life

Ingraham Said That "Conservatives Who Refuse To Vote For GOP Nominee Donald Trump Explicitly Support Abortion." "Talk radio host Laura Ingraham claimed Thursday morning that conservatives who refuse to vote for GOP nominee Donald Trump explicitly support abortion. 'They're standing with the woman who stood up there today and said, 'I'm hundred percent for Roe v. Wade and partial birth abortion,' Ingraham said in reference to Democratic nominee Hillary Clinton's performance Wednesday evening at the third and final presidential debate. 'That's what 'Never Trump' stands for, I guess,' she said during an interview with Fox News' Sean Hannity. 'Roe v. Wade and partial birth abortion. Fantastic.'" (T. Becket Adams, "Laura Ingraham 'Never Trump' Stands With Clinton And Partial Birth," The Washington Examiner, 10/20/16)

Ingraham Has Said That Trump Does "A Great Job Representing The Pro-Life Movement." "Hannity, Ingraham and Huckabee agreed Thursday morning that the Republican candidate did a great job representing the pro-life movement." (T. Becket Adams, "Laura Ingraham 'Never Trump' Stands With Clinton And Partial Birth," The Washington Examiner, 10/20/16)

Ingraham Argued That The Requirement for Abortion Providers To Have Privileges At Hospitals Is Not Anti-Women Because It Ensures Safer Procedures. MARA LIASSON: "Not surprising. But it tells you that the perhaps the better strategy for the pro-life forces is to go after the fundamental right to say that -- to try to overturn Roe. If you just are going to talk about restrictions on abortions, which they have been successful in many states putting on, it's not going to work." BRET BAIER: "Laura?" LAURA INGRAHAM: "The reporting on this has been largely really, I think, misleading. They said, well, this is restricting women's abortion rights. These are surgical procedures where we have had women badly injured as a result of botched abortions." BAIER: "Kermit Gosnell." INGRAHAM: "Gosnell. We had horrific conditions, unsanitary conditions. So all these women's rights advocates, I'm for women's health. Oh, really? You are for women's health? So a state decides they want to have attending privileges for these "doctors," and I put that in quotes, who carry out these procedures. That means they actually are better doctors. They have privileges at various hospitals and so forth. So they are saying that's anti-women to have higher standards at clinics. Now, excuse me, what? How is that anti-women? That's making it safer that if this procedure occurs it's safer in the even that something unforeseen happens which any of us who have been in hospitals know that unforeseen happens, or medical clinics, unforeseen things happen in vein removal clinics as a friend of mine experienced recently. So the idea that this is an undue burden, and, again, George is right, made up standard, constitution was never intended to have a separate tier of rights, and I'm partial because I clerked for Justice Thomas so I think his dissent was brilliant. Alito's dissent is 44 pages long. It's quite a read but it's worth reading on what really happened with this restriction so called preventing women from getting their care." (Fox News "Special Report With Bret Baier," 6/27/16)

Ingraham Has Made Many Negative Comments About The Media Being Biased

Ingraham Has "Decried The Biased 'Hillary Media' And Questioned Some Journalists' Patriotism." "But Ingraham is different. She has been much more openly critical of news outlets and journalists over the years. In radio and TV segments, she has decried the biased 'Hillary media' and questioned some journalists' patriotism." (Brian Stelter, Dana Bash, And Jim Acosta, "Laura Ingraham Considered For White House Press Secretary Post," CNN, 11/16/16)

Ingraham Said "What's Obvious Here Is That The Media - They Will Not Cover A Story, Certainly Not Fairly Or Adequately, If It Cuts Against Their Narrative." LAURA INGRAHAM: "Sean, what's obvious here is that the media -- they will not cover a story, certainly not fairly or adequately, if it cuts against their narrative. Now, what has their narrative been about immigration? Immigration is always good, illegal or legal, because it's the great melting pot. This is the great diversity. They're citizens in everything except a piece of paper. We've heard all of these tropes for years during the amnesty debate. We hear that Donald Trump is wrong, that crime isn't coming into the country. These are patriotic American kids in everything but this citizenship formality. Well, what these protests shows is that that, in many cases, is not true. In fact, what we're seeing on the streets of California is thuggery. The left would call it a hate crime, Sean, if these types of crimes were committed against any minority group that was considered protected, whether they be Hispanics -- of course, there are other minorities, maybe gay Americans. And I would be leading the charge if that was a hate crime, OK?" (Fox News "Hannity," 6/6/16)

Ingraham Is Anti-Immigration Reform

Ingraham Argues That There Is No Defense For Immigration Reform, And That “We Should Continue Insisting That The Laws Be Enforced As Written.” “George Will is a brilliant writer and thinker-and a close friend. If anyone could put forward a conservative defense of immigration ‘reform,’ it would be Will. But even the best advocate can’t do much with a hopeless case. We should continue insisting that the laws be enforced as written.” (Laura Ingraham, “Laura Ingraham Why Conservatives Should Say No To Immigration Reform,” The Washington Post, 2/19/14)

Ingraham’s Show “Features A Segment Called ‘The Illegal Immigration Sob Story’ Alert, In Which She Reads News Pieces She Feels Are Biased Toward Illegal Immigrants.” “The rabid nature of her assault against immigration reform is a good example. Ingraham has perhaps been more strongly anti-immigration than any other talk personality except Michael Savage. Her show even features a regular segment called “The Illegal Immigration Sob Story’ alert, in which she reads news pieces she feels are biased toward illegal immigrants.” (Rory O Connor, “Laura Ingraham Right Wing Radio s High Priestess Of Hate,” The Huffington Post 5/25/11)
