QUESTIONS FOR WILBUR ROSS

Political Vulnerabilities

SEC Fees

Background: Ross' investment firm WL Ross & Co agreed on Wednesday to pay a $2.3 million fine to the Securities and Exchange Commission to settle charges that it did not properly disclose some fees it charged investors.

- Is there anything we should know about the $2.3 million dollar fine your company was charged by the SEC over fee disclosures?
- Were the procedural issues that arose surrounding fee disclosures at WL Ross & Co standard practice at your company? Could more issues/violations arise?

Ross's International Coal Group

Background: Ross own the International Coal Group at the time of the Sago Mine disaster, which was a coal mine explosion in 2006 that left 12 miners dead in West Virginia. Government records showed the mine has been cited for hundreds of federal safety violations.

- Given the President's emphasis on rebuilding America's coal industry, are they any other public relations vulnerabilities similar to the Sago mine that we should know about?

- Did International Coal Group make the proper adjustments to its safety protocols following the Sago mine incident?

Conflicts of Interest/Foreign Governments

Background: Ross served on the Board of the U.S.-Russia Investment Fund under Bill Clinton. He owns a stake in the Bank of Ireland and has many other foreign business ties and relationships.

- Are there any potential conflicts of interest with respect to foreign business operations/relationships that we should be aware of?
- Would your relationships abroad conflict with any of the foreign policy platform Mr. Trump has established on the campaign trail?
- Will you agree to cease any ongoing or existing business relationships with non-U.S. entities should you join the administration?

Past Business Relationship with Trump

Background: Mr. Trump hired Ross and paid Rothschild $130,000 a month for his services in the 1990s for working surrounding the Trump Taj Mahal.

- Do you believe any past business relationships with Mr. Trump would create any appearance of a conflict of interest were you to join the administration?

Previous Democrat and Clinton Supporter

Background: For the majority of his life Ross was a supporter of Democrat politicians including Bill Clinton. However, for the majority of the 2000s Ross has been steadfast in his support for Republicans.

- As someone who has supported Democrats including Bill Clinton in the past, do you have any reservations about working in a Republican administration?
- Do you believe the aggressive rhetoric of this past campaign season has damaged Mr. Trump's ability to govern?

Policy Questions

General Commerce-Related Policy

- As the government official who could oversee Trump's ambitious infrastructure, what experience can you bring to implement it?
- As the go-to person for businesses, how would you work with the private sector to encourage job growth and meet Trump's ambitious agenda to grow jobs in middle America?
 - What specific policies could be implemented or enforced to further job creation?
- What are the best policies or enforcement of policies to limit the number of jobs leaving this country due to outsourcing?
 - How would you work to bring jobs back to the country?

- Manufacturing has been a cornerstone of Trump’s agenda, what can be done and what policies can be implemented to spur manufacturing job growth?
 - Even as manufacturing jobs have declined, output has increased, is it possible to bring manufacturing jobs back?

Terrorism and Financial Intelligence Sector

Background: The Treasury Departments’ Terrorism and Financial Intelligence Unit can disrupt bad actors’ finances by identifying and targeting them with sanctions and financial restrictions.

- Given Mr. Trump’s ambitious focus on defeating ISIS, would you support instituting a more aggressive plan at the Treasury Department’s Terrorism and Financial Intelligence sector?
- Have you put thought into how you may do so, or how the Obama administration may have failed in reaction appropriately to terror organization?

TRUMP-PENCE REMARKS

Trump

In May 2016, Ross Was Named A “Presidential Trustee” Of The Trump Victory Committee.

“Longtime Palm Beach County developer, power broker and political donor E. Llwyd Ecclestone and Palm Beach investor Wilbur Ross are part of a new “2016 Trump Victory leadership team” launched by Donald Trump’s presidential campaign and the Republican National Committee. The joint venture is part of Trump’s metamorphosis from establishment-trashing, largely self-financing outsider with little campaign organization to the presumptive GOP nominee who will begin hitting up donors for contributions. The first Trump Victory fundraiser will be a $25,000-a-head dinner tonight in Los Angeles. Part-time Palm Beacher Trump told The Associated Press he’s only seeking contributions because ‘the RNC really wanted to do it, and I want to show good spirit.’ Ecclestone, developer of PGA National and Ibis Golf & Country Club, and Ross, a billionaire investor who specializes in leveraged buyouts, are in an initial group of 14 “presidential trustees” on the Trump Victory Committee. Another prominent Florida Republican moneyman, Tampa developer Mel Sembler, is one of six vice chairs for the committee.” (George Bennett, “2 Major Area Financiers On Trump Train Wealthy Backers Help GOP Candidate Pursue Traditional Fundraising,” [Palm Beach \[Florida\] Post](#) 5/25/16)

As Far Back As March 2016, Ross Said He Would Support Trump If He Became The Republican

Nominee. “Billionaire investor Wilbur Ross would support Donald Trump if he becomes the Republican Party’s nominee for president, saying the frontrunner in the race will become ‘more presidential’ if he wins the nomination. ‘There will be a new Donald Trump if he gets the nomination,’ Ross said Wednesday in a Bloomberg Television interview. ‘That new Donald Trump will be a lot more presidential than the Donald Trump we’ve been seeing. The characterization of himself he’s been presenting has been what he felt was needed to stir up the enthusiasm.’ Ross, 78, said ‘of course’ he would support the billionaire real estate mogul, including financially, if Trump becomes the party’s nominee.” (David Banerjee, “Billionaire Wilbur Ross Would Support Trump If He s Nominated,” Bloomberg 3/9/16)

- Ross Criticized Former Governor Mitt Romney For Criticizing Trump. “Ross, who supported and donated to Mitt Romney in the 2012 presidential election, said the former Massachusetts governor and private equity executive was wrong last week to come out strongly against Trump in a speech and series of public interviews. ‘It was disappointing and inappropriate,’ Ross said. ‘Someone who’s been the former candidate of a party shouldn’t be promoting party divisiveness. It’s a terrible thing from a political point of view.’” (David Banerjee, “Billionaire Wilbur Ross Would Support Trump If He s Nominated,” Bloomberg 3/9/16)

In December 2015, Ross Said That He Was Not Yet Backing Trump, But That He “Like[d] Him As A Person” And That He Had Done “Some Very Good Things By Flagging” Certain Issues In The Campaign. FOX BUSINESS’ LOU DOBBS: “Are you a Trump man yet?” WILBUR ROSS: “No.” DOBBS: “Going to be?” ROSS: “I know him. I’ve done business with him before.” DOBBS: “You like him? You like him?” ROSS: “I like him as a person. I think he’s an interesting character. And I think he’s done some very good things by flagging these issues.” (Fox Business “Lou Dobbs Tonight,” 12/16/15)

In November 2015, Ross Said That He Was Not Backing Anyone In The Republican Primary, Insinuating He Was Unsatisfied With The Candidates By Joking That He Was Hoping Superman Would Run. FOX BUSINESS’ MARIA BARTIROMO: “Yes, who do you like for 2016 race?” WILBUR ROSS: “Well I have been trying to get Superman to come out of the comic books into the Republican race.” BARTIROMO: “Well we had - he wasn’t on that stage the other night.” ROSS: “No, I didn’t notice him. FOX BUSINESS’ DAGEN MCDOWELL: “Of course all candidates think they’re Superman.” ROSS: “Maybe one of them will go into a phone booth and come out as Superman.” BARTIROMO: “Seriously though, are you supporting anybody yet?” ROSS: “Not yet. There are a number of them that I think could be serious, but the silliness of the debates, which hopefully Fox will cure for the next debate, has prevented there from being any serious discussion.” MCCULLOUGH: “Yes.” ROSS: “The election really shouldn’t be about people’s hairdos or energy levels or...” BARTIROMO: “Fantasy football?” ROSS: “-- things like that.” (Fox Business “Mornings With Maria” 11/3/15)

Pence

No Known Pence Comments

Ross Was At A Palm Beach Dinner That Governor Pence Hosted In December 2014 With Top Donors. “Indiana governor Mike Pence on Friday dined with a group of about 40 top Republican donors at Palm Beach’s exclusive Everglades Club. The dinner was hosted and organized by investment manager Thomas W. Smith, who has been a generous donor to conservative causes. The billionaire investor Wilbur Ross was also present.” (Eliana Johnson, “Pence Sounds Out GOP Donors In Palm Beach,” National Review, 12/15/14)

RNC

Priebus Comments

In March 2016, When Fox Business Host Lou Dobbs Suggested That Priebus Needed To Do More To Tamp Down Talk Of A Brokered Republican Convention, Ross Defended Priebus. FOX BUSINESS’ LOU DOBBS: “There is a, sort of, priceless specious, sort of, approach here, that keeps everything behind the veil as far as Romney is concerned and as far as Ryan is concerned. It is a peculiar sort of semi-public theater that they’re conducting right now, and it’s disturbing because they are attacking the people who are voting. We’re even listening to delegates say, ‘Are you people naive and stupid that you think people get a vote in this thing?’ You know, it’s like the old joke, you know, ‘Relax. All the major decisions have been made.’ That was funny in the 60s, it’s not funny now.” WILBUR ROSS: “No, and it’s a very peculiar thing and it’s not going to be help (inaudible) the general election for whoever gets there, whether it’s Donald or some rigged candidate, but how can you put - as your nominee - someone who didn’t go in the primaries? How can you possibly do that as a logical thing?” DOBBS: “Yes and what do you make of the RNC? And Reince Priebus, has at various points conducted himself well and others mysteriously. It is odd to me that he is not playing the role of first the wise and, appropriately, the man representing the party to say, Please, no more of this nonsense.” ROSS: “Well, he tried a little bit the night of the Republican debate. I was down there in Miami, and I thought that was a correct and appropriate point of view for him to take. The unity point of view. That’s what the party leadership should be is unification, not bifurcation.” (Fox Business “Lou Dobbs Tonight,” 3/23/16)

In A September 2015 Interview, Ross Said That Priebus Had Been “Very Conciliatory About Trump” And That The Chairman Had Complimented Trump’s Ability To Communicate With Voters. FOX BUSINESS’ LOU DOBBS: “And I want to go back to, you had an event at your home in South Hampton.” WILBUR ROSS: “Right.” DOBBS: “And a few friends and the chairman of the Republican National Committee, Reince Priebus. From that, a number of people have said after they left the event that Trump, well he’s galvanizing he’s not going to be the guy. The conventional wisdom has been so utterly wrong here, whether the most sophisticated elites or whether the most intractable ideologues on the Democratic side. Things are changing here, what’s going on?” ROSS: “Well, I think the people, first of all, at the event itself, Reince was very conciliatory about Trump, and said that he felt as I do that Trump did a very good job galvanizing people back into interest in Republican politics.” (Fox Business “Lou Dobbs Tonight,” 9/8/15)

- Priebus Had Held A Briefing At Ross’ Estate In Late August. “That was the near-unanimous view of some of the nation’s wealthiest and most influential Republicans Saturday night as they gathered for a political briefing at billionaire Wilbur Ross’ Southampton estate with national GOP Chairman Reince Priebus.” (Fredric U. Dicker, “GOP Big Shots Aren’t Taking Donald Trump Seriously,” New York Post 8/23/15)

In July 2016, Ross Hosted A Fundraiser At His Southampton Estate For Trump That Priebus Attended. “Donald Trump, the presumptive Republican presidential nominee, is planning to attend a fundraiser in the Hamptons next week with donors to his former rivals and the head of the GOP, according to a published report. The fundraiser will be July 9 at the Southampton home of billionaire investor Wilbur Ross, Bloomberg Politics reported Saturday, based on a copy of the invitation. The luncheon will cost $25,000 per person, or $100,000 per couple. Bloomberg Politics reported those expected to attend are Pepe Fanjul, the sugar baron who backed Sen. Marco Rubio; Duke Buchan III, a Jeb Bush supporter and hedge fund founder; and Reince Priebus, chairman of the Republican National Committee.” (Matthew Chayes, “Report Trump To Attend July 9 Fundraiser IN Southampton,” [\[New York\] Newsday](#) 7/3/16)

GENERAL CONTROVERSY

WL Ross Was Fined $2.3 Million By The SEC For Failing To Disclose Fees

In August 2016, Ross’ Firm WL Ross Was Fined $2.3 Million By The Securities And Exchange Commission (SEC) For Failing To “Properly Disclose Some Fees It Charged Investors.” “Billionaire investor Wilbur Ross’ investment firm WL Ross & Co agreed on Wednesday to pay a $2.3 million fine to the Securities and Exchange Commission to settle charges that it did not properly disclose some fees it charged investors. The fine is the latest in a string of actions taken by the SEC against the private equity sector, as it seeks to improve transparency and crack down on undisclosed fee collection by some fund managers.” (Koh Gui Qing, “SEC Fines Wilbur Ross Firm $2.3 Million Over Fees,” Bloomberg, 8/24/16)

CONTROVERSIAL POLICY STANCES/STATEMENTS

Ross Has Said The Federal Reserve Needs To Hike Interest Rates Sooner, Arguing That The U.S. Is Likely To Face A Recession Soon

Ross Has Argued That The Federal Reserve Has Made A Mistake By Not Raising Interest Rates Soon, Saying In October 2016 That U.S. Is Likely To Face A Recession “Within The Next 18 Months.” “Billionaire investor Wilbur Ross is among the many calling for an interest-rate rise in December but not because everything is hunky-dory. One big reason why the Federal Reserve should hike rates is because a recession is likely to arrive within 18 months, and the central bank is in danger of finding itself out of ammunition when the next downturn hits, according to Ross. ‘We at some point, probably within the next 18 months, are likely to go into a recession, especially frankly if you have Hillary Clinton elected and she increases taxes. But with or without that, we have a great risk of going into a recession,' Ross said in a Bloomberg TV interview on Thursday." (Victor Reklaitis, "Raise Rates Before A Recession Hits In 18 Months, Wilbur Ross Says," MarketWatch, 10/17/16)

In 2010, Ross Said He Was Okay With Tax Hikes On Wealthier Americans

In A 2010 Interview With Charlie Rose, Ross Said He Was Okay With Higher Tax Rates That Obama Was Pushing As Long As The Increased Revenues Were Used For "Something Useful." "The investment turnaround artist said on 'The Charlie Rose Show' that he supports higher taxes for top earners, as long as the government spends the money wisely, CNNMoney.com reports. Under Obama's plan, the top tax rate would rise to 39.6 percent from 35 percent currently. 'I think that's OK, as long as they do something useful,' Ross said. He would like to see the money put to work in research, development and education. 'I really feel that within five or 10 years, we could be a second-rate power,' he said. 'And it isn't even just R&D.' The country also must produce more college graduates, Ross says." (Dan Weil, "Ross Higher Taxes On Rich OK If Money Put To Good Use," Newsmax 8/11/10)

BUSINESSES/ASSOCIATIONS

WL Ross & Co.

In 2000, Ross Left Rothschild To Found His Own Firm. “Wilbur Ross, an investment banker who specializes in distressed securities and financial restructuring, plans to leave longtime employer Rothschild Inc. and form his own investment firm. Mr. Ross, 62 years old, said recent management changes at Rothschild increased the chances that conflicts of interest would arise between his work and the corporate-finance and merger-advisory practice being built by Gerald Rosenfeld, who joined Rothschild in January from Lazard Freres & Co.” (“Ross Quits Rothschild, Has Plan To Start Own Investment Firm,” The Wall Street Journal, 3/14/00)

- Ross Purchased The Rothschild Recovery Fund That He Managed And Renamed IT The WLR Recovery Fund. “As a result, the Mr. Ross’s new firm, WL Ross & Co., will manage the Rothschild Recovery Fund, which is being renamed WLR Recovery Fund, and the newly launched Asia Recovery Fund. ‘This is really preventive medicine,’ said Mr. Ross, who joined Rothschild in 1976.” (“Ross Quits Rothschild, Has Plan To Start Own Investment Firm,” The Wall Street Journal, 3/14/00)
- The Rothschild Fund Was Then Worth $450 Million. “The new firm, WL Ross & Co., takes control of the $450 million in assets in the Rothschild distressed securities funds, as well as the international staff that runs the funds.” (Beth Piskora, “Rothschild s Bottom Fisher Ross Leaving,” New York Post 3/14/00)

According To WL Ross & Co.’s Website, The Company Has Invested In 178 Companies As Of December 31, 2015. (“History Of WL Ross And Co.” Invesco, Accessed 11/19/16)

Rothschild

While Working At Rothschild, Ross Helped Restructure Distressed Companies Including Eastern Airlines, Orion Pictures, And Drexel Burnham Lambert. “Ross first started buying distressed companies in the late 1980s, restructuring companies like Eastern Airlines, Orion Pictures and Drexel Burnham Lambert. To date, he has restructured more than $200 billion of distressed securities.” (Beth Piskora, “Rothschild’s Bottom Fisher Ross Leaving,” New York Post, 3/14/00)

International Steel Group (ISG)

In 2002, Ross Formed The International Steel Group. “2002 - Establishes the International Steel Group (ISG), with himself as chairman of the board, through a series of mergers and acquisitions starting with Bethlehem Steel Corp. December 2003 - ISG goes public.” (“Wilbur Ross Fast Facts,” CNN Accessed 11/19/16)

International Coal Group

Ross Formed The International Coal Group In 2004. “2004 - Ross forms the International Coal Group (ICG) after purchasing the assets of Horizon Natural Resources in a bankruptcy auction.” (“Wilbur Ross Fast Facts,” CNN, Accessed 11/19/16)

- ICG Was Sold To Arch Coal In 2011. “June 2011 - Arch Coal, Inc. acquires International Coal Group (ICG) for $3.4 billion.” (“Wilbur Ross Fast Facts,” CNN Accessed 11/19/16)

Trump Taj Mahal

Ross Represented The Trump Taj Mahal’s Bondholders When The Casino Went Bankrupt In 1991. “Wilbur Ross Jr., who represented bondholders for Trump Taj Mahal, which sought bankruptcy protection in 1991, saw the brand’s value during one of his visits with Mr. Trump to the casino.” (Beth Reinhard and Peter Grant, “How The 1990s Became Donald Trump’s Personal Crucible,” The Wall Street Journal 11/19/16)

Ross Was Described As “Trump’s Chief Public Tormentor” During The Bankruptcy, But Trump Hired Ross And Paid Rothschild $130,000 A Month For His Services. “Trump’s chief public tormentor is Wilbur Ross of Rothschild Inc., a veteran bankruptcy player. Ross represents a bondholder committee that’s been talking with Trump for months. Not only has Ross taken the predictable hard line -- he’s demanding that Trump forgive the $25 million debt the Taj owes him, turn over 85 percent of the Taj’s stock to the bondholders and leave the bonds in place -- but he is driving Trump crazy by making remarks like, ‘It’s too early for Christmas’ and ‘We prefer to have the keys to the casino’ when he’s discussing Trump’s proposal to the Taj’s bondholders. Trump wanted them to eviscerate their securities in return for less than 20 percent of the Taj’s stock, an offer that’s even sillier than Ross’s proposal to him. But the funniest thing about Ross’s remarks is that Trump is paying for them; he hired Ross to represent bondholders so Trump would have someone to negotiate with. Trump is paying Ross’s firm $130,000 a month to have Ross torment him.” (Allan Sloan, “Speculators Are Enjoying The Spectacle Of Trump’s Taj Mahal Troubles,” The Washington Post, 11/13/90)

- Ross Later Said He Came Away From The Experience Thinking That Without Trump, The Taj Mahal “Would Likely Be A Lot Less Successful.” “The chopper landed on a helipad near the boardwalk. Instantly, people swarmed around a waiting car, thinking Mr. Trump was in it. ‘They were shoving video cameras at it...It was amazing the adulation he got from the crowd,’ Mr. Ross recalls. ‘It changed my whole opinion. That memory stuck with me and got me to the conclusion that the Taj Mahal stripped of Trump the individual would likely be a lot less successful than the Trump Taj Mahal with Donald.’” (Peter Grant and Alexandra Berzon, “Trump And His Debts A Narrow Escape,” The Wall Street Journal, 1/4/16)
