Dear Mr. Greenewald:

This is a final response to your 28 March 2017 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for a copy of all documents, electronic or otherwise, pertaining to the CIA's intervention in the 1948 general election in Italy. We processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 431, as amended.

We completed a thorough search for records responsive to your request and located the enclosed two documents, consisting of 27 pages, which we can release in segregable form with deletions made on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3). Copies of the documents and an explanation of exemptions are enclosed.

Additional material was determined to be currently and properly classified and must be denied in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3). Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. The relevant statutes are Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended. As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.

If you have any questions regarding our response, you may contact us at:

Explanation of Exemptions

Freedom of Information Act:

- (b)(1) exempts from disclosure information currently and properly classified, pursuant to an Executive Order;
- (b)(2) exempts from disclosure information, which pertains solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of the Agency;
- (b)(3) exempts from disclosure information that another federal statute protects, provided that the other federal statute either requires that the matters be withheld, or establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld. The (b)(3) statutes upon which the CIA relies include, but are not limited to, the CIA Act of 1949;
- (b)(4) exempts from disclosure trade secrets and commercial or financial information that is obtained from a person and that is privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) exempts from disclosure inter-and intra-agency memoranda or letters that would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) exempts from disclosure information from personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy;
- (b)(7) exempts from disclosure information compiled for law enforcement purposes to the extent that the production of the information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings; (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication; (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source or, in the case of information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source; (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger any individual's life or physical safety;
- (b)(8) exempts from disclosure information contained in reports or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, or on behalf of, or for use of an agency responsible for regulating or supervising financial institutions; and
- (b)(9) exempts from disclosure geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE SECRETARY OF STATE

SUBJECT: Suggestions Regarding the Italian Election

1. [redacted] has volunteered the following suggestions regarding the Italian election: (b)(1) (b)(3)

a. For the next month Italian language radio broadcasts should be made from the United States for the purpose of developing all aspects of the Marshall Plan. These broadcasts should emphasize the importance of the Marshall Plan to Italy.

b. During the same month an effort should be made to formulate a regular series of programs featuring prominent Italians or Americans of Italian extraction.

c. [redacted] places the highest priority on the obtaining of a short movie featuring the Marshall Plan and particularly its relationship to Italy. He advised that at least ten copies of the movie should be released simultaneously in the chief Italian cities for open air night projection in piazza meetings. The release of the films should not be later than 5 April 1948. (b)(1) (b)(3)

d. Suggestions for individuals to broadcast under (b) above include [redacted] San Francisco; and [redacted] San Francisco. The broadcasts should be scheduled sufficiently in advance to allow for publicity in the Italian Press. (b)(1) (b)(3)
