 We are going to have a trial - then hang you all.
 We know what we are going to do - with you men - before the trial begins. - We got - the example from the American government, the way the American government deals out justice.
 We are going to do to you all of the - did to Tojo of Japan - they hanged him.

 The rules of Japan.
 They got his trial - as a fake - a cover up -

Just thought I'd drop you a line from the real world, to let you know what your favorite war is like.

I'm a medic and so far, since I've been in the field,
I've treated 2 casualties with our platoon. One died.
With an battalion there been a total of 13 casualties, 4 dying. For this we have an enemy body count of zero, pending the latest returns.
It's not the lack of enemy deaths that angers me, for they're fighting for something that might be considered honorable. But what about our 4 deaths.
Do they mean anything to you. What about the other 23,000 American deaths. What crime did they commit. You've committed all sorts of crimes in prosecuting this war & you're safe is that right? If I ever meet you, I will kill you with my bare hands. If that ~~happens~~ happens, then at least one productive death will have resulted from this war.
What about the vietnamese people?

Not the puppet government, but the people. Do you realize how much they hate us. They smile when they beg or whine, but they despise us.

If an NVA or a Cong shoots at me, I shoot back, TRYING TO KILL. But at all other times I root for ~~the~~ Charlie. I want his ultimate victory to show how stupid & vain people like you are. I have never been the violent type, but I am now. Violence has its place, such as committed on your person or on W.W. Norton or on LBT. 23,000 wasted deaths. Can you believe your evil?

RE: DEAN BUSH, aka David Bush
Director of Office
Department of State
Washington, D. C.
LOYALTY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

Dear Sir:

You are instructed to conduct a full field investigation () a preliminary inquiry (X) concerning the above named individual. This investigation is to be assigned immediately and the results mailed to reach the Bureau by June 2, 1948. If converted to full field investigation, 30 days from date of conversion.

Attached for your assistance is a photostatic copy of the Request for Report on Loyalty Data furnished to the Bureau on this individual.

The Bureau files contain the following information regarding this person:

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent Lambert G. Zander dated at Washington, D. C., May 12, 1947, entitled "Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, with aliases, et al, the George - R," wherein on page 38 it is reflected that on March 20, 1947, subject Alger Hiss contacted Dean Bush (State Department, Extension 2947) via telephone Number 8793, asking him to have lunch with him tomorrow. They agreed to meet at the Metropolitan Club. Dean said, "I have been trying to see you but this Greek thing has us going around with our heads off." Dean indicated they had managed to bring the United Nations back into the picture and said he thought the United Nations pressure from the public had made a very important impression upon the Department. Hiss agreed. (65-56402-2477)

The report of Special Agent Lambert G. Zander, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1947, in the above-entitled case on page 32 reflects that Lynn White of Mills College, Oakland, California, on March 3, 1947, while staying at the Key Adams House, Washington, D. C., called Number 8793 - Dean Bush, 343 Valley

Very truly yours,

It is noted in connection with Lynn White that the report of Special Agent Lambert S. Zander dated at Washington, D. C., 3/3/47 in the same case reflects on page 15 that Lynn White attempted to contact subject Alger Hiss on January 23, 1947, that he talked to Friscilla, who took a message from White to Alger Hiss. On January 23, 1947, this Lynn White attempted to contact M. S. Vavilov at the Russian Embassy, Washington, D. C., and indicated to the PX operator that he was a very good friend of Vavilov, whereupon it was learned that Vavilov agreed to receive White at the Embassy. (65-56402-2294)

The Bureau files reflect that on February 27, 1947, subject Alger Hiss of the Gregory Case called one Col Nichols and stated, among other things, that "there is nothing definite on the Dean Rusk (phonetic) matter." (65-56402-1-1257)

It is noted that the 1947 Federal Reference Manual shows that Dean Rusk is Director of the Office of Special Political Affairs, Department of State.

The Washington Field and San Francisco Offices are requested to conduct a most discreet inquiry to determine if Rusk is an adherent to Communist Party doctrine, a member of any Communist front organization, or is engaged in any disloyal activities.

The Bureau should be advised of the results of your inquiries, and this case should not be converted to a full field investigation unless you are so instructed by the Bureau.

A Loyalty Form on above employee was received, and on May 20, 1948, the Washington Field and San Francisco Offices were requested to conduct preliminary inquiries with the utmost discretion and to refer the matter to the Bureau for instructions before converting into a full field investigation. Our files revealed that employee had been contacted by Alger Hiss, a subject in the Gregory case, and further that one Lynn White of Hill's College, Oakland, California, who apparently was a friend of U. S. Vavilov of the Russian Embassy, while in Washington, D. C. recently, contacted Rusk and also contacted Alger Hiss.

As you know, the Washington Field Office has now advised, in connection with the case entitled "Eliahu Epstein, Internal Security - R and YU", that Dean Rusk has furnished information to Charles Fahy, a local attorney and a former Solicitor General, who in turn is believed to have given it to David Wahl and Max Lowenthal, subjects in the Gregory case. The connection between the loyalty case on Rusk and the Epstein case has been called to the attention of the Washington Field Office.

I felt that you would want to know of the pending loyalty investigation in view of the information on Rusk disclosed by investigation in the Epstein case.

ReBullets to Washington Field Office, copies to San Francisco, May 20 and May 24, 1948.

A check of the indices of the San Francisco Office, several confidential informants, District Intelligence Office, 12th Naval District, G-2, Sixth Army, Presidio, and [redacted] and [redacted] provided no information reflecting that RUSK is or has been a member of the Communist Party or has knowingly been an adherent to Communist Party doctrines.

b7D

A check of the files of this Office shows that in July, 1941 one LOUIS D. BARR, then residing at 5663 Broadway, Oakland, California, had reported to this office that in 1940 he had attended a Panel Forum held at Mills College, Oakland, California, at which DEAN RUSK had lectured. BARR was unable to recall the specific statements made by RUSK at that time, but he stated that the gist of it was that RUSK had stated there was nothing in this country worth fighting for. He had implied, continued BARR, that he would not mind if the Nazi form of government came to this country. Mr. BARR stated that his reason for divulging this information was that he had noticed in the June 1, 1941 issue of the Oakland Tribune that DEAN RUSK, a Captain in the U. S. Army, was to engage once again in these discussions at Mills College under the auspices of the Institute of International Relations.

By letter dated September 15, 1941 the above information was forwarded to Colonel JOHN H. WILSON, Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, Presidio, San Francisco. In 1945, when the Army investigated RUSK, prior to his attaining the rank of Colonel, BARR reiterated these assertions to Army investigators, but again stated he could not be specific. Mr. BARR presently is unavailable for re-interview.

Information obtained from G-2 at the Presidio, DIO, [redacted] and [redacted] and an old, close friend of RUSK, indicate that RUSK, from 1936 through 1941 was a member of the Executive Board and/or the General Committee of the Institute of International Relations; in 1937 was on the Speaker's Bureau of the Emergency Peace Campaign -- Northern California; and the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco. [redacted] advised that the Emergency Peace Campaign had been Communist infiltrated in 1937, when RUSK was listed as a member of the Speaker's Bureau. However, he had nothing to indicate RUSK's activities or connections with members of this group.

[] advised that a great many of the Oakland and East Bay fellow-travelers were affiliated with this group, but he had no record of RUSK's participation. The group itself he described as an avowedly pacifist organization built up among various religious groups.

The Institute of International Relations, which is an offshoot of the American Friends, the activities of which the Bureau is familiar, has held a two-week meeting at Mills College each summer since 1935. Inasmuch as RUSK was teaching Civics and Political Science at the college he was engaged to participate in panel forums during his years at Mills College. These sessions are attended each year by approximately 300-350 persons, mainly students, high school teachers seeking teaching credits, clergymen, and members of various front organizations. [] described the organization as "a bunch of Soviet glorifiers, pacifists, Communists and misdirected Liberals who get church and educational groups interested in their schemes." [] advised he had no background information on RUSK, but felt that the Institute had been dominated by Communists and known Communist Party members.

DIO reported that in the 1940 session DEAN RUSK conducted a round table discussion on "American Foreign Policy." However, his discussion was not covered by the reporting agent. The latter reported "the effect of the entire program appeared to be either to paralyze one's capacity to arrive at an opinion, or to subdivide and diversify the mass of opinion." He added that most of the lecture hours "were pacifistic, anti-intervention, anti-armament, or devoted to the criticism of our existing government....."

Because it was not considered feasible to contact Mills College authorities, and at the suggestion of [] who described him as most reliable, HOMER T. CRAIG, 1715 Dayton, Alameda, California, former Comptroller, Mills College, was contacted for information on RUSK. He advised he had known RUSK on the closest and most friendly terms from 1937 through 1942, and could not give anyone a more unqualified recommendation as a solid, substantial American of unquestioned loyalty and patriotism. He had seen RUSK only once since the latter had returned from service with Merrill's Marauders, and presently was unfamiliar with his activities, except what he heard through mutual friends.

Mr. CRAIG said he never had attended proceedings of the Institute of International Relations, and thus was unable to comment on RUSK's specific activities within the group. However, he opined that inasmuch as RUSK had been a Rhodes Scholar from 1931 through 1934, and had spent over a year in Germany in 1932-1933, it was possible that his opinion would be solicited concerning the rise of the Hitlerian Government. Concerning the other members of the teaching groups, he said he could furnish no specific information on them other than to say that they represented a wide divergence of opinion on politics and social questions. There was no doubt, he said, that there would have been among them persons who advocated policies which ran contrary to the American democratic system. However, there had been no indication that RUSK had associated with these persons, subscribed to their beliefs, or attempted to win others over to an acceptance of these beliefs.

On the basis of the information supplied by these sources mentioned above, there is, at present, no apparent indication that RUSK is or has been engaged in any disloyal activities.

It is apropos to note that ~~LYNN TOWNSEND WHITE~~, Jr. was appointed President of Mills College in 1942 and had stated in his interview with the Army investigative agent in 1945 that he had known RUSK for several years, and that RUSK was thoroughly loyal. WHITE also is a member of the General Committee of the Institute of International Relations; a member of the American-Russian Institute; a member of the Oakland Area, Russian War Relief Committee; member of the Executive Committee of the Institute of Pacific Relations, and its successor, the World Affairs Council of Northern California. The Bureau is cognizant of the activities of these groups.

It is noteworthy that ~~LOUISE BRANSTEN~~, prominent Communist Party functionary in San Francisco, attempted in 1944 to secure the services of ~~LYNN WHITE~~ on radio programs sponsored by the American Russian Institute, and that WHITE had been invited to attend a reception to Soviet Foreign Minister V. S. MOLOTOV in May of 1945. It is suggested that if the VAVILOV mentioned in referenced Bureau letter is the same VAVILOV who worked at the Russian Consulate in San Francisco, that WHITE, through BRANSTEN, might have become acquainted with him. However, there are no indications that RUSK and WHITE were especially friendly at this time.

In compliance with referenced Bureau letter, no further action will be taken in this matter by the San Francisco Office unless specifically requested by the Bureau.

Reference is also made to Washington Field Office letter to the Director dated May 15, 1949, entitled "Lusk, David, Internal Security - R and TS", Washington Field Office File 100-15244, in which you advised that David Lusk of the Department of State, who appears to be identical with above employee, has furnished information to an individual who in turn is believed to have given it to subjects in the Gregory case.

This is called to your attention that, in connection with the Loyalty Issues Section, you will be aware of the fact that apparently the employee is involved in the Lusk case.

Captain A. C. J. Sabalot, Deputy Chief of Naval Intelligence, on August 20, 1948 requested Agent DeLoach of the Liaison Section to determine if there was any subversive information in Bureau files pertaining to the above-captioned individual. Captain Sabalot stated that the Navy Department had had considerable trouble with Rusk in conferences dealing with naval affairs inasmuch as Rusk continuously accepted the Communist Party line and refused to allow the Navy Department representative access to the handling of important matters.

As you will recall, Mr. Rusk, Chief of the Division of United Nations Affairs is an employee of the State Department. In a letter to the Washington Field dated May 20, 1948 the Bureau instructed that office to conduct a preliminary inquiry regarding Rusk inasmuch as several references in Bureau files reflected that Rusk was in communication with several questionable individuals.

The report of Special Agent Lambert G. Zander dated at Washington, D. C. May 12, 1947 entitled, "Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, was, et al; Espionage - R" reflected that Alger Hiss had contacted Mr. Rusk inviting him to a luncheon engagement. The report of Agent Zander on June 30, 1947 at Washington, D. C. reflected that one Lynn White of Mills College, Oakland, California on March 3, 1947 had contacted Rusk.

Bureau files show that on February 27, 1947 subject Alger Hiss of the Gregory Case called one Cal Nichols and stated among other things that "there is nothing definite on the Dean Rusk matter!" (File #65-56402-1-1257)

A letter from the San Francisco Division dated May 28, 1948 reflected information furnished by the District Intelligence Office, Twelfth Naval District, G-2 and Bureau informants [redacted] and [redacted]. This information reflected nothing concrete indicating that Rusk has been a member of the Communist Party and has knowingly been an adherent to Communist Party doctrines. It also appears that the Navy Department is already in possession of all information in referenced letter.

ACTION: If you approve, the attached blind memorandum regarding Rusk will be handed to Captain Sabalot of Naval Intelligence by the Bureau's Liaison representative to that agency.

DEAN RUSK

A confidential and reliable source advised that Alger Hiss contacted Dean Rusk on March 30, 1947 requesting Rusk to have luncheon with him. Rusk reportedly replied, "I have been trying to see you but this Greek thing has us going around with our heads off."

The same informant on February 27, 1947 reflected that Alger Hiss had contacted one Cal Nichols and stated that "there is nothing definite on the Dean Rusk matter."

[redacted] on August 31, 1948, approached Agent DeLoach, while over at the Navy Department, and advised that if this Bureau desired to conduct a loyalty investigation concerning Rusk, he was of the opinion that one Joseph Esrvy Johnson, Professor of History Williams College, Williamstown, Massachusetts, should be contacted. [redacted] stated that a confidential source had indicated to him that if Johnson was presently of the opinion that Alger Hiss, a subject in the Silvermaster case, was guilty of present charges lodged against him by the House Un-American Activities Committee, that Johnson would no doubt release considerable information concerning Rusk. The files of this Bureau reflect that captioned individual has in the past been known to be in contact with Alger Hiss, a subject in the Gregory Case. The extent or significance of the relationship between Hiss and employee are unknown. It is to be noted, however, that employee presently holds the position in the State Department formerly occupied by Hiss prior to the latter's resignation to become president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

The employee was formerly an instructor at Mills College, Oakland, California. In this connection Lynn White, President of Mills College, was in Washington, D. C., in January, 1947, where he is known to have attempted to contact Alger Hiss and is also known to have made an appointment to meet one M. S. Vavilov at the Russian Embassy. Lynn White was in Washington again in March, 1947, and is known to have attempted to contact employee. It is not known whether White actually contacted employee. The extent and significance of contacts between White and employee, White and Hiss, and White and Vavilov, are unknown. It is to be noted that White is a member of the American-Russian Institute at San Francisco and was a member of the Russian War Relief Committee for the Oakland, California, area. In 1944, Louise Bransten, prominent Communist Party functionary in San Francisco, attempted to secure the service of Lynn White on radio programs sponsored by the American-Russian Institute.

During the course of another investigation it has been determined that employee furnished information to an individual who in turn is believed to have given it to subjects in the Gregory Case.

On August 31, 1948, a representative of another Government agency advised the Bureau that considerable trouble had been experienced by that agency in conferences with employee inasmuch as Rusk "continuously accepted the Communist Party line."

No other pertinent information concerning employee appears in Bureau files.

Please advise whether in your opinion the above information constitutes a sufficient basis for a Loyalty investigation of the employee.

[redacted] confidentially advised Agent DeLoach on September 17, 1948 that he had received several messages from one [redacted] U.S. Navy, who is presently handling various naval affairs in Paris, France and who presumably is dealing with several representatives who are acting under the instructions of the above-captioned individual. [redacted] explained that [redacted] had advised him that one Howard Johnson, #2 man in the United Nations Division, Department of State, a subordinate of Dean Rusk, is presently in Paris convening with the United Nations Assembly, and reportedly has express instructions from Dean Rusk to object to the reopening of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission. [redacted] has stated that this procedure will, of course, be contrary to the established policy as laid down by the State Department with respect to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission. [redacted] concluded that evidently Rusk was assuming the responsibility of a misdirected policy at his own volition.

[redacted] continued that one John Elliot and James Ludlow, both representatives of the United Nations Division, Department of State, and who reportedly are "fed up" with Dean Rusk and his activities, secretly met [redacted] before his departure for Paris and advised him "God, we're glad you're going to Paris. Now you'll be out of our hair." [redacted] explained that evidently the squabbles between [redacted] as a representative of the Navy Department and Dean Rusk were beginning to take effect on the underlings of Rusk. Ludlow was also quoted as having stated, "I am definitely fed up with Rusk" and that he intended resigning his position with the State Department before [redacted] returned from Paris.

[redacted] advised that he has requested [redacted] to more or less keep an eye on Johnson while in Paris. He stated that any suspicious activities on Johnson's part that were caused by the dictates of Rusk would be promptly reported to this Bureau by ONI. He added that in addition to the above he had also learned that Alger Hiss was making all facilities of the Carnegie Foundation, New York, available to Rusk's group while they were in Paris.

The Washington Field Office by teletype dated October 20, 1948, advised that the employee has held positions of importance in the State Department and with the War Department General Staff. It is understood that his appointments to the War and State Departments were arranged by direct correspondence between George Marshall, Secretary of State, and Robert P. Patterson and Kenneth C. Royall, Secretaries of War. The letters between these agencies reflect that Rusk was personally known to and highly regarded by the above individuals. WFO advises that the following were reflected in the State and War Departments files as being the immediate supervisors or references of the employee at one time or another. Joseph E. Johnson, Chief, Division of International Security Affairs; Dean Acheson, Under-Secretary; Robert Lovett, Under-Secretary; and Ernest A. Gross, Deputy to Assistant Secretary of State for Occupied Areas, all of the above being State Department. Howard C. Peterson, Assistant Secretary of War; Brigadier General Hayes A. Kroner, Chief, Military Intelligence Service; Colonel R. S. Bratton, General Staff, Intelligence Corps, Military Intelligence Service; Brigadier General Frank D. Merrill, Chief of Staff, Sixth Army; Colonel Carlisle C. Dusenbury, Military Intelligence Service; Lt. General Dan I. Sultan, Inspector General; Brigadier General Vernon Evans, Deputy Budget Officer; Brigadier George A. Lincoln, Plans and Operations Division, General Staff, all of the above War Department.

RECOMMENDATION

In view of the above information it is not believed necessary or advisable to interview all of the individuals mentioned above, however it is thought that possibly two from the State Department and two from the War Department would be sufficient to get a picture of the employee's loyalty. If you approve the attached teletype will be directed to the Washington Field Office instructing that office to interview any two mentioned from each agency.

Mr. Wall's memorandum to Mr. Fletcher dated September 23, 1948 reflected that [redacted] should be contacted by the Liaison Section relative to obtaining full information in his possession concerning the above captioned individual. Referenced memorandum further stated that it be determined whether [redacted] desired his identity be concealed, whether he would furnish a signed statement, and whether he would testify before a Loyalty Hearing Board, in case such is desired.

Due to the fact that [redacted] was on annual leave until October 6, 1948, this matter was not discussed with him until that date. He advised at that time that all information in this matter had been referred to him by one [redacted] and that he preferred that [redacted] handle this matter from here on out. He stated that [redacted] was presently in Paris, France handling an assignment for the Navy Department, but that he contemplated [redacted] return on or around November 15, 1948. [redacted] stated that he [redacted] should be contacted by representatives of this Bureau on or around the above date and that Captain Smith would be made immediately available for interview concerning this matter.

[redacted] further advised that he was of the opinion that [redacted] would desire to have his identity remain secret, particularly because of his close dealings with the Department of State on behalf of the Navy Department. [redacted] indicated that any disclosure of information related by [redacted] which might possibly find its way back to the Department of State would undoubtedly disrupt relations by the Navy Department and the Department of State.

ACTION:

It is suggested this memorandum be forwarded to the Loyalty Section for the attention of Supervisor Coleman.

By memorandum dated October 11, 1948, Mr. Keay advised that [redacted] was reinterviewed at which time he stated that he had received all information concerning the employee from one [redacted] who is presently in Paris, France on an assignment for the Navy Department, and would return around November 15, 1948. [redacted] advised that he [redacted] should be contacted by representatives of the Bureau on or about this date and [redacted] would be made available for interview concerning this matter. [redacted] further advised that any disclosure of the information related by [redacted] which might possibly find its way back to the Department of State, would undoubtedly disrupt relations of the Navy Department and the Department of State.

b7D

In view of the above statement by [redacted] it is not believed advisable to request the State Department, as would ordinarily be done in this case, to interview [redacted] in Paris.

RECOMMENDATION:

If you approve, this investigation will be held up pending the return of [redacted] to this country on or around November 15, 1948, at which time he will be interviewed by the Liaison Section of the Bureau.

The Bureau is presently conducting an investigation on the above-named employee under the provisions of Executive Order 9835. The basis for this investigation is information submitted to the Bureau by [redacted] Washington, D. C., who stated that considerable trouble has been experienced by his department in conferences with the employee inasmuch as Rusk "continuously accepted the Communist Party line."

The facts in instant case were submitted to the Attorney General, who advised that a Loyalty investigation should be conducted on the employee.

Upon recontact by a representative of the Liaison Section of the Bureau, [redacted] stated that his information concerning the employee originated from one [redacted] who is presently in Paris, France, on an assignment for the Navy Department, and who will not return to the United States until sometime during the latter part of November, 1948. [redacted] has further advised that any disclosure of the information related by [redacted] which might possibly find its way back to the Department of State would undoubtedly disrupt relations of the Navy Department and the Department of State.

You are, therefore, requested to interview [redacted] concerning the employee and to obtain all information known to [redacted] relating to the employee's loyalty. DEAN RUSK, aka DAVID RUSK
Chief
United Nations Division
Department of State
Washington, D. C.
LOYALTY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES

III. RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

The employee's Loyalty Data Form indicated that he was employed at Mills College, Oakland, California from October, 1934 to October, 1945.

Mrs. E. S. LITTLE, Dean of the Faculty at Mills College, Oakland, California made RUSK's personnel file available. The file indicated that RUSK was employed as Assistant Professor of Political Science from October, 1934 to December, 1940 when he was given a military leave of absence. The file further indicated that RUSK also served as Dean of the Faculty. Mrs. LITTLE advised that she was associated with RUSK from 1934 to 1940 while both were faculty members at Mills College, Oakland, California. She added that RUSK took an active part in the Institute of International Relations Forum which is held each year at Mills College. Mrs. LITTLE indicated that the forum consists of discussion groups concerning various phases of International Relations. Mrs. LITTLE stated that to her knowledge there was no reason to believe that RUSK is anything but a loyal American.

DANIEL DEWEY, Ancient History professor, Mills College, stated that he was closely associated with RUSK from 1934 to 1940 as a fellow professor and socially. DEWEY advised that he and RUSK were professors in the history department. DEWEY further stated that RUSK was active in the Institute of International Relations at Mills College and numerous other activities on the Campus. DEWEY advised, however, that he had neither seen nor heard of any activity of RUSK that could be termed disloyal to the United States.

FRANCIS HERRICK, 4633 Davenport Street, Oakland, California, advised that he was a personal friend of RUSK from 1934 to 1940 while both were professors at Mills College. HERRICK stated that RUSK was active in numerous activities on the campus, including the Institute of International Relations Forum, but that he never knew RUSK to be associated with any un-American activities. HERRICK stated that in his opinion RUSK is a loyal American citizen.

HOWARD E. McMINN, Professor of Botany at Mills College, revealed that he was acquainted with RUSK socially and as a fellow professor from 1934 to 1940. McMINN stated that RUSK was well liked by his associates at the college and that he never had any reason to question RUSK's loyalty.

HOMER T. CRAIG, 1715 Dayton, Alameda, California, former Comptroller, Mills College, advised that he had known RUSK on the closest and most friendly terms from 1937 through 1942 and could not give anyone a more unqualified recommendation as a solid, substantial American of unquestioned loyalty. CRAIG said he recalled that RUSK had been active in the Institute of International Relations, but that since he (CRAIG) had never attended proceedings of the Institute, he was unable to comment on RUSK's activities within that group.

Mrs. THEODORE SANFORD, 1900 Hacienda Circle, Orinda, California, advised that in October, 1940 she attended a panel forum discussion at Mills College, Oakland, California. The speakers included Professor DEAN RUSK and two or three others whose names she could not recall. The exact title of the discussion could not be recalled by Mrs. SANFORD but she revealed that it concerned the American entry into World War II. Mrs. SANFORD did not recall any of the specific statements made by RUSK but stated that she came away from the meeting with the impression that RUSK had indicated that there are certain foreign governments that were not as bad as they had been pictured and that these forms of government had features which we could later adopt. Mrs. SANFORD advised that she did not remember if RUSK mentioned any particular foreign government in his remarks, and could furnish no further information.

The records of San Francisco T-1, another governmental agency which conducts personnel and intelligence investigations, reflected that RUSK held membership in the Institute of International Relations while he was a member of the faculty at Mills College. It was further reflected that the Institute of International Relations was founded by American Friends Society of Philadelphia and because of its sponsorship and the fact that various pacifists are closely associated with the organizations the Institute is regarded as pacifistic, but not "subversive".

a reliable confidential informant, advised that RUSK was a member of the Executive Board of the Institute of International Relations at Mills College,

b7D

SF #124-889

Oakland, California from 1936 to 1940 and that in 1937 he was on the speaker's Bureau of the Emergency Peace Campaign, Northern California. [redacted] further advised that while the Emergency Peace Campaign had been Communist infiltrated in 1937 it could not be said to have been Communist dominated. [redacted] stated he had no further information concerning RUSK's activities or connections with members of this group. [redacted] declined to furnish a signed statement or appear before a Loyalty Hearing Board.

b7D

Confidential Informant [redacted] who is reliable, advised that he had no information concerning RUSK. With regard to the Institute of International Relations [redacted] advised that the Institute forums held in the "middle thirties" had included Communists and "fellow-travelers" in its sessions and had preached pacifism and also Communist front topics such as "Freedom for India." [redacted] refused to furnish a signed statement or appear before a Loyalty Hearing Board.

b7D

The personnel file of RUSK at Mills College indicated that he resided at 4222 Mountain View Avenue, Oakland, California while he was a professor at the college.

HERBERT W. GRAHAM, 4210 Mountain View Avenue, Professor of Biology at Mills College, stated that he was a fellow professor and close friend of RUSK during the years 1939 and 1940. GRAHAM advised that he has never had any reason to question the loyalty of RUSK.

WERNER NAUMANN, 6020 Leona Street, Oakland, California, revealed that he formerly resided 4218 Mountain View Avenue, Oakland, California and was a neighbor of DEAN RUSK from about 1935 to 1940. NAUMANN stated that he only knew RUSK as a neighbor. NAUMANN advised that RUSK was well thought of in the neighborhood and that to the best of his knowledge RUSK is a loyal American citizen.

EDWARD SOLBERG, 4200 Mountain View Avenue, Oakland, California advised that he was casually acquainted with RUSK as a neighbor during 1939 and 1940. SOLBERG stated that from his acquaintance with RUSK he has no reason to believe that the employee is anything but a loyal citizen.

Mrs. LOUISE DAVIS, 4217 Mountain View Avenue; Mrs. A. W. WHALIN, 4229 Mountain View Avenue; and Mrs. W. A. NELSON, 4207 Mountain View Avenue, all Oakland, California, advised that they had only lived in the neighborhood for the past two years and did not know RUSK.

SF #124-889

The employee's personnel file at Mills College indicated that he attended Law School, University of California, Berkeley, California.

Mrs. MITCHELL, Secretary to the Registrar, University of California, Berkeley, California made available the personnel file of RUSK. The file indicated that RUSK attended the University of California Law School from August, 1937 to June, 1940. The file reflected no information concerning the employee's loyalty. Mrs. MITCHELL added that it was not possible to ascertain any of RUSK's professors at the University from the files.

Miss MARIAN MELROSE, Senior Clerk, Dean of Students' Office, University of California, advised that that office had no record of RUSK.

Miss C. I. CHAMPLIN, Senior Clerk, Dean of Graduate School Office, University of California, advised that the files of that office contained no information concerning RUSK other than he was a student in the Law School from 1937 to 1940.

The Oakland Police Department and the Campus Police, University of California, Berkeley had no record of RUSK.

The Alameda County Retailers Credit Association files reflected nothing concerning the employee's loyalty.

Confidential Informants all reliable informants having extensive knowledge of Communist activities in the San Francisco Bay area, advised they had no information concerning the employee.

b7D

The records of San Francisco T-2, another government agency which conducts personnel and intelligence investigations, were examined and information contained therein was utilized in the course of this investigation.

SF #124-889

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMANTS

San Francisco T-1 is District Intelligence Office, 12th Naval District, San Francisco, California.

San Francisco T-2 is G-2, Sixth Army, Presidio, California.

ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

The records of the Oakland Police Department and the Alameda County Retailers Credit Association were checked by Special Employee RICHARD J. ABBEY.

The interview with HOMER T. CRAIG was conducted by Special Agent JAMES T. SULLIVAN in May, 1948, as contained in referenced San Francisco letter to Bureau dated May 28, 1948.

Reference is made to San Francisco letter dated May 28, 1948, paragraph 2, page 1, concerning information reported to San Francisco Office by LOUIS D. BARR. During the course of this investigation it was determined from Mrs. THEODORE SANFORD, BARR's daughter, that BARR did not attend the meeting referred to, but that she and her mother attended the meeting. Mrs. SANFORD advised that Mr. and Mrs. BARR were presently on extended vacation in Oregon and could not be reached for interview at this time. She stated, however, that she did not believe they could furnish any additional information and it was therefore deemed inadvisable to delay this report for such interviews.

Reference WFO teletype dated October 20, 1948. Confidential Informant [redacted] has advised that AURELIA HENRY REINHARDT died on January 20, 1948.

b7D

It will be noted that in the interview with Mrs. THEODORE SANFORD she advised that Dr. GLENN E. HOOVER presided over the meeting of the Institute of International Relations held at Mills College which Mrs. SANFORD attended in October of 1940 and at which DEAN RUSK was one of the speakers. Mrs. SANFORD stated that some of the remarks made by RUSK had caused some criticism from the audience. Mrs. SANFORD added that Dr. HOOVER appeared perturbed by this criticism and explained to the audience that some of the members present had apparently misinterpreted some of the remarks made by RUSK.

In a report of an SIC agent, Ninth Service Command, dated September 24, 1945 in an investigation concerning RUSK, Dr. GLENN E. HOOVER was interviewed. At this time HOOVER stated that RUSK had no tinge of Fascism or Communism. HOOVER also stated he could not recall the forum of October, 1940.

The files of the San Francisco Office and information received from Confidential Informant [redacted] reflect that in 1938 Dr. GLENN HOOVER was Chairman of the Alameda County Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. In 1944 Dr. GLENN HOOVER was a member of "Home Front Unity Committee", a Communist front organization.

b7D

In view of the above information it was felt no purpose would be served by interviewing Dr. HOOVER during the course of this investigation.

III. RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

Professor JOSEPH E. JOHNSON, Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., advised that he had known Employee for about three years as a colleague in the State Department. He advised that during that period he had participated with the Employee in the study of matters bearing on relations with the Soviet Union. From this association he said that he could state categorically that the Employee did not entertain a trace of Communist or Soviet sympathy. It was his opinion that there could be no question of the Employee's loyalty.

The employee's name was checked against the records of the Identification Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and no criminal record was found.

He stated that during his associations with RUSK on [redacted] [redacted] he had found that in his opinion RUSK had not entirely followed the United States policy and had not, in fact, always supported even the State Department's attitude toward this problem. has ever favored international organizations over and above the interests of the United States. If he were obliged to appraise RUSK's work, he would be obliged to rate him more on the plus side than on the minus since informant is unable to subscribe to the allegation that "RUSK continually accepted the Communist Party Line", and has no reason to believe that he is Communistically inclined or disloyal to the United States.

In view of the fact that [redacted] has no derogatory information of interest to the government regarding employee's loyalty to the United States, he is therefore not prepared to submit anything in writing or appear before a Loyalty Hearing Board.

The above information was obtained from employee's personnel files at the War and State Departments and his Army Officers 201 file at the War Department.

II. BASIS FOR INVESTIGATION

Washington T-1, an informant of known reliability who declined to furnish a signed statement or testify at a loyalty board hearing, advised that in March, 1947, ALGER HISS contacted DEAN RUSK and had lunch with him. The informant advised that HISS and RUSK appeared to him to be well acquainted. However, the informant advised he did not know the nature of their acquaintanceship.

Washington T-2, an informant of known reliability who is a former member of the Communist Party, advised that ALGER HISS was a member of the CP underground in Washington, D. C. in the early 1930's. This informant declined to testify at a loyalty board hearing or to furnish a signed statement.

Washington Confidential Informant T-13, an informant of known reliability, advised that considerable trouble had been experienced in conferences with the employee inasmuch as RUSK "continuously accepted the Communist Party line".

III. RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

Washington T-1 and Washington T-2, mentioned above, were recontacted in connection with this investigation and stated they could furnish no additional information concerning employee or ALGER HISS.

ALGER HISS was formerly employed by the State Department and was Secretary General of the United Nations Conference in San Francisco in April, 1945. He left the State Department in January, 1947 and is presently the president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Washington T-13, when recontacted during instant investigation advised he had received his information from Washington T-14, an informant of known reliability. T-13 did not wish to give a signed statement or appear before a Loyalty Board.

Washington T-14, who refused to give a signed statement or appear before a Loyalty Board, when interviewed categorically denied that he had ever reported RUSK as "continuously accepted the Communist Party line", adding that he had no reason to doubt his loyalty to the United States.

He stated that during his associations with RUSK he had found that in his opinion RUSK had not entirely followed the United States policy and had not, in fact, always supported even the State Department's attitude toward this problem. Due to his difference of opinion, the U. S. members of the Atomic Energy Committee of the United Nations had had considerable trouble with him, but is unable to interpret this as a "Pro-Soviet attitude". He referred especially to RUSK's opposition to the Atomic Energy Committee's third report, in which they recommended suspension of the Committee in view of their inability to get the USSR to agree to their recommendations and plan. RUSK opposed suspension believing that so long as they continued to study the problem and consult that there would always be a possibility of Russia changing her attitude.

Informant considers RUSK extremely able, intelligent and especially conversant with UN procedure, and he gives the impression of being an internationalist and pro-UN. The informant did not definitely state that he has ever favored international organizations over and above the interests of the United States. If he were obliged to appraise RUSK's work, he would be obliged to rate him more on the plus side than on the minus since informant is unable to subscribe to the allegation that "RUSK continuously accepted the Communist Party line", and has no reason to believe that he is communistically inclined or disloyal to the United States.

Washington T-3, an informant of known reliability who is well acquainted with [redacted]

[redacted] advised that since May of 1938, DEAN RUSK has been in frequent contact with CHARLES FAHY. The informant stated that in these contacts RUSK had disclosed to FAHY information concerning the State Department's future plans and policy for handling its affairs with the Jewish Agency for Palestine and the State of Israel. The informant advised, however, that he did not know whether RUSK was aware of the fact that FAHY was turning this information over to EPSTEIN. Washington T-3 declined to testify at a Loyalty Board hearing or to furnish a signed statement.

With reference to CHARLES FAHY, mentioned above, it is noted that CHARLES FAHY was formerly Assistant Solicitor General in the Department of the

Dean Rusk's Policy Statement

This is a condensation of the widely-discussed speech delivered to the China Institute of America on May 18 by Dean Rusk, Assistant Secretary of State for the Far East.

OVER THE CENTURIES, [Chinese-American] friendship has come to be taken for granted; cordial sentiments between a free China and a free America became strong and durable because they were constantly nourished by common purposes and common practical interests.

We and the Chinese, for example, have had a vital interest in the peace of the Pacific. It was inevitable that the driving force of Japanese militarism would sooner or later bring China and America together to oppose it, just as we had moved forty years earlier to support China's independence and integrity against threats from Europe. The same issues are now posed again—and are made more difficult to deal with because foreign encroachment is now being arranged by Chinese who seem to love China less than they do their foreign masters.

Their sustained and violent effort to erase all evidence of this friendship bears powerful witness to the validity and strength of the bonds between our two peoples. American influence among the Chinese people is intolerable to those in power in Peking and Moscow because they know, and quite rightly, that the idea of national and individual freedom which is at the heart of American political thought is the greatest threat to their own evil purposes.

The freedoms of the Chinese people are disappearing. Trial by mob, mass-slaughter, banishment as forced labor to Manchuria, Siberia or Sinkiang, the arbitrary seizure of property, the destruction of loyalties within the family, the suppression of free speech—these are the facts behind the parades and celebrations and the empty promises.

The territorial integrity of China is now an ironic phrase. The movement of Soviet forces into Sinkiang, the separation of Inner Mongolia from the body politic of China, and the continued inroads of Soviet power into Manchuria under the cloak of the Korean aggression mean in fact that China is losing its great northern areas.

China has been driven by foreign masters into an adventure of foreign aggression which cuts across the most fundamental national interests of the Chinese people. Apart from Korea, the Chinese are being pressed to aggressive action in other areas—all calculated to divert the attention and energies of China away from the encroachment of Soviet imperialism upon China itself.

I find it hard to believe that the Chinese people will acquiesce in the kind of future which their masters are now preparing for them. I find it impossible to believe that our friends in China have given up their desire to live at peace with their neighbors, to trade freely with all the world, to improve their own conditions in accordance with their own needs, to maintain their independence as a nation.

There is a job to be done for China which only the Chinese can do. The rest of us cannot tell them exactly what is to be done or how. But one thing we can say—as the Chinese people move to assert their freedom and to work out their destiny in accordance with their own historical purposes, they can count upon tremendous support from free peoples in other parts of the world. [The U. S. does] not recognize the authorities in Peking for what they pretend to be. The Peking regime may be a colonial Russian government—a Slavic Manchukuo on a larger scale. It is not the Government of China. It is not Chinese.

We recognize the National Government of the Republic of China, even though the territory under its control is severely restricted. We believe it more authentically represents the views of the great body of the people of China. That government will continue to receive important aid and assistance from the United States. Under the circumstances, however, such aid in itself cannot be decisive to the future of China. The decision and the effort are for the Chinese people.

If the Chinese people decide for freedom, they shall find friends among all the peoples of the earth who have known and love freedom. They shall find added strength from those who refuse to believe that China is fated to become a land of tyranny and aggression.

Bob Hurleigh of the Mutual Broadcasting System (MBS) in Washington called me to advise that Fulton Lewis had called him last night stating he had a call from a New England industrialist who claimed he had heard a radio broadcast on MBS reporting that the President had withdrawn the name of Dean Rusk for appointment to the UN and is preparing to submit the name of Judge Charles Wyzanski. Hurleigh has checked the UP wire which they use and can find no information. Hurleigh thinks that one or two things may have happened. Either the industrialist was confused in his hearing or a local Boston station did have such an item. He thought it would be worthwhile to do some checking.

I told Hurleigh there was not much that we could do in the way of checking on a matter such as this. I seriously doubt that we should be making any inquiries, but I can see no objection to sending the attached memorandum to the Attorney General.

June 7, 1956

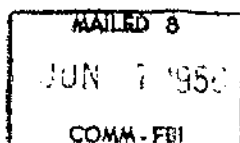

A reliable news source has informed the Bureau of an inquiry which he had received from a New England industrialist to the effect that he had heard some kind of report on the radio in New England that the President had withdrawn the name of Dean Rusk who was to be appointed to a responsible position with the United Nations Delegation and is preparing to substitute the name of Federal Judge Charles Wyzanski of Boston.

The account which came to the Bureau is obviously garbled but is something that I thought should be called to your immediate attention.

SUBJECT: DEAN RUSK
PRESIDENT, ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION
NEW YORK CITY
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING
(ESPIONAGE)

On 7-23-59 Rusk telephoned SAC, New York, and said he learned that stationery bearing letterhead of Rockefeller Foundation was being used by unknown person or persons in Middle East. SAC explained to Rusk matter did not appear to be within Bureau's jurisdiction but SAC would be glad to have agent call upon Rusk to ascertain whatever facts he had in his possession so they could be made a part of the Bureau's record and a determination made as to any possible FBI jurisdiction. SAC requested permission to contact Rusk solely on this matter on "unless advised to contrary by Bureau" basis on 8-3-59.

New York requested authority to contact Rusk in view of Bulet 2-21-59 instructing New York not to contact Rusk without specific Bureau approval in the future. The Bureau's instruction was based on the fact Rusk had been contacted in connection with [Polish exchange students] being sponsored by Rockefeller Foundation. During our contact with Rusk he was entirely cooperative, expressed desire to furnish any information to Bureau of interest to us but made statement that Rockefeller Foundation was not monitoring activities of [Polish students] since this was function of Government agency such as FBI. A loyalty investigation was conducted in 1948 on Rusk because of his association with Alger Hiss. Rusk was member American Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations. On 6-13-54 Civil Service Commission declared him eligible on loyalty. Mr. Tolson commented that we should not have contacted Rusk and the Director agreed by stating at least not until interview had been cleared by him.

RECOMMENDATION:

CLASSIFIED BY SP5 JLA
DECLASSIFY ON: 25X 1,6 #344339

Inasmuch as Rusk has furnished information to the Bureau in the past and initiated this contact, it is believed we should send agent out talk to him concerning matter set out above. New York advised this would be done unless advised to the contrary on 8-3-59; therefore no communication necessary to New York.

Reurlet 2-13-58 furnishing Bureau with results of your interviews with Dean Rusk, President, Rockefeller Foundation, and Shepard Stone, Program Director for International Affairs, Ford Foundation, both of New York City.

For your information, Bufiles disclose that a loyalty investigation was conducted in 1948 of Rusk because of his association with Alger Hiss. Rusk was also a member of the American Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations. In 1937 Rusk spoke at a meeting of an organization described as communist infiltrated but not dominated. This organization was the Speaker's Bureau of the Emergency Peace Campaign. On 6-13-49 the Civil Service Commission declared Rusk eligible for loyalty. Regarding Stone, Bufiles disclose that he was associated with persons who were on the fringe of the Kocane and the Silvermaster case.

In view of the above, you should not contact either Rusk or Stone without specific Bureau approval in the future. Furthermore, no contact should be made with the Ford or Rockefeller Foundations in security matters without specific Bureau approval.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Secretary of State has approved a Security Updating Program for all employees of the Department.

It has been determined that reinvestigations in the case of those persons who hold Presidential appointments requiring confirmation by the Senate will be conducted at four year intervals. The Secretary and the Under Secretary do not desire to be excepted from this requirement. Since it would be inappropriate to have the reinvestigations conducted by our own Office, it is requested that the Federal Bureau of Investigation conduct an appropriate investigation to update the Secretary's and Under Secretary's security files. These investigations should include a determination of the Secretary's and Under Secretary's federal tax status with the Internal Revenue Service.

Sincerely yours,

Henri G. Grignon

SPECIAL INQUIRY -
STATE DEPARTMENT

Request received 12/18/64 by letter dated 12/15/64 from State Department for previous investigations of captioned persons, the Secretary of State and the Under Secretary of State, to be brought up to date.

The State Department letter indicates that there is now a "Security Updating Program" for employees of the Department of State, and that reinvestigations of Presidential appointees in that department will be conducted at four-year intervals. These are the first investigations we have received under this program which appears to be based on President Johnson's insistence that such investigations be made.

ACTION:

The cases have been ordered separately to the field and the field has been instructed to conduct no neighborhood investigations unless some reason for doing so arises at which time Bureau approval must be secured.

The information reported by NH T-1, indicating that DAVIS was to dine with Secretary RUSK, was, when originally received, reported in LHM and furnished to the Bureau on 5/22/61 by airtel captioned "JEROME DWIGHT DAVIS, SM-C" Bufile 100-8871. It was noted then that, at the time this information was originally received, DAVIS was organizing a tour scheduled to depart from the U.S. on 6/14/61 for Europe with an itinerary including Russia and several Soviet-bloc countries. Information concerning that tour was furnished to the Bureau by LHM dated 3/29/61, captioned "AMERICAN-EUROPEAN SEMINAR INTERNATIONAL GOOD WILL TOUR, SUMMER, 1961; JEROME DWIGHT DAVIS," (Bufile 100-434968). It was pointed out at that time that, if DAVIS should have personal contact with Secretary RUSK on 5/22/61, such contact could be in connection with the above-mentioned tour.

He commented that the above is merely a difference of opinion concerning what this country should do in foreign relations and is not a criticism of Mr. RUSK as a person.

Senator MUNDT stated that he has the highest personal regard for Mr. RUSK and considers him a fine man both professionally and personally. He stated that he would recommend him without reservation concerning his character, associates, reputation and loyalty, and for a position of trust and confidence.

The Honorable FRANCES BOLTON, Congresswomen from Ohio, United States House of Representatives, the Capitol, advised she has known the appointee, DAVID DEAN RUSK, for many, many years, on both a social and a professional basis. She advised that she considered the appointee to be very personable, pleasant, smooth, and a delightful host who has always amazed her by his capacity to absorb and remember facts. She advised she did consider the appointee to be of good character and good reputation but that she has, over the years, been troubled by his association with a "questionable organization," Americans for Democratic Action. She advised she considered this organization not to be in the best interest of the United States. She advised that she did not like some of actions taken by Mr. RUSK, such as his approval of the destruction of some of the files in the State Department under his control, which, she believed, contained much important information on subversive individuals in the country. She did not elaborate further on these files. Mrs. BOLTON advised that she would not recommend the appointee for a position of trust and confidence as she did not feel that any democrat was deserving of her trust and confidence.

SUBJECT: DAVID DEAN RUSK
SPECIAL INQUIRY - WHITE HOUSE

9- [Handwritten signature]

Enclosed for transmittal to the White House is a summary memorandum containing the results of an investigation covering the activities of captioned individual since July, 1960. This investigation was conducted in accordance with a request received from Department of State, 12/18/64. Rusk previously investigated by Bureau in 1948 under Executive Order 9835 and was subject of applicant-type investigations conducted in 1953 and 1960. The results of these investigations have been furnished to the White House. During previous investigation of Rusk, information developed indicating he was associated with Alger Hiss, and that he had been a member of Institute of Pacific Relations, a "vehicle" used by communists. One person stated Rusk favorable toward Chinese Communists and Rusk allegedly, while employed by State Department, furnished information to an individual regarding future plans of that department for handling affairs with State of Israel. That individual then turned over the information to a representative of the Jewish Agency for Palestine. No information developed indicating Rusk knew that individual was turning information over to someone else. Previous investigations otherwise were favorable and persons interviewed during current investigation highly recommended Rusk for a position of trust and confidence.

INFORMATION NOT BEING DISSEMINATED:

ENCLOSURE

In May, 1961, confidential informant advised Jerome Dwight Davis (who has been described as a name dropper) stated he was dining with Secretary Rusk on 5/22/61. Davis, an alleged Communist Party member in 1944, in 1961 was executive of organization which had indicated purpose of working with religious groups throughout the world in promotion of peace. It had been determined in March, 1961, Davis was organizer of goodwill tour scheduled to depart for Europe

Inasmuch as Davis has been described as a name dropper and since any contact he might have contemplated with Rusk could have been in connection with above-mentioned tour, this information is not included in enclosed summary.

Frank L. Kluckhohn, mentioned above, a former "New York Times" correspondent, was investigated by Bureau under Point Four program for State in 1951. He was described by several sources as a heavy drinker and an individual who lacked judgment. In 1951, he was arrested for intoxication and upon being examined by police psychiatrist was determined to be a "borderline case." Kluckhohn served on staff of Republican National Committee during 1956. In 1959, he was reportedly one of three men offering their services to Dominican Republic to obtain export licenses for shipments of arms from the United States, and to furnish information of interest to the Dominican Republic. In his book "America: Listen," he was particularly critical of President Kennedy.

In May, 1964, it was recommended and approved that no action be taken concerning the allegations submitted by Capell relative to the moral character of the highly placed persons in government, including Rusk. This information has not been included in enclosed summary memorandum. (see memorandum . Baumgardner to Sullivan, 5/6/64, attached.)

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mr. Hoover:

Inclosed is a copy of a publication by the San Diego Patriotic Society in which there is a rather lengthy discourse covering to some degree a biographical sketch on Dean Rusk. In this discourse, which apparently has been researched by the author, Frank A. Capell, there appears much as to the security qualifications of Mr. Rusk, especially so, since he is in the highly sensitive position which is Secretary of State.

Being greatly concerned as to the authenticity of the material presented, I would appreciate if you would verify either in whole or in part, any of the questionable points raised regarding Mr. Rusk's security qualifications.

I retired from Federal Civil Service nearly two years ago after more than 33 years of service in the Defense Department and I know how necessary those in our government must be unquestionably cleared regarding their security. This requirement certainly applies in my judgement equally if not greater to those holding high level positions than those in lower levels.

I would not want to see this publication spoil the minds of good people if the material is not factual. On the other hand, if such are facts, such should be done immediately to force the removal of Mr. Rusk and all others whose loyalty and security to this country would place us in danger.

An early reply to my request in the second paragraph above, together with the publication, returned and marked as may be necessary for clarification, will be greatly appreciated.

SUBJECT: PROPOSED DEMONSTRATION AGAINST UNITED STATES POLICY IN VIETNAM DURING APPEARANCE OF SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK AT AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION, PORTLAND, OREGON, 8/24/65

D'Ag...
Thompson

The Portland Office has previously advised that plans are being made by an ad hoc group, which includes one Communist Party member, for a demonstration to be held at the Memorial Coliseum at Portland, Oregon, on 8/24/65. This demonstration will coincide with the appearance of Secretary Rusk at the American Legion Convention. We have advised the White House, State Department, Attorney General, Defense Department, and Secret Service of all pertinent information developed concerning this proposed demonstration.

Detective [redacted] Portland Police Department, advised the Portland Office on 8/23/65 that although leaders of the demonstration claim that the demonstration will be orderly, he feels that they are concealing some planned surprised move which could result in their arrests. Portland has advised the State Department, Secret Service, military intelligence agencies and American Legion officials locally and this information was telephonically furnished to the White House, State Department, and the Internal Security Division of the Department of Justice today. This will be confirmed in writing.

I do not know where to find the information I seek so am writing to you.

I have noticed quite often in the past that Secretary of State Dean Rusk has made some rather poor decisions, and suggestions. Some of these have proved fatal and other's have caused friction between our Country and our Allies. What I want to know is. "Has a security check ever been made on Dean Rusk? What are his political beliefs? What does he think of our Constitution? How does he feel about Communism? Is he a Communist? I feel there is too much power in this mans hands, his glib and rather misleading advice has caused me to make this inquiry.

~~X~~ SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT OF
SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK, JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY,
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND
OCTOBER 16, 1965

The News-American, a Baltimore daily newspaper, on October 11, 1965, carried an article which reflected that a student group from Morgan State College, a predominantly Negro state school in Baltimore, and some Johns Hopkins University students and faculty, planned a demonstration protesting the appearance of Secretary of State Dean Rusk at Johns Hopkins on October 16, 1965. The article stated that a meeting of these groups is scheduled at Johns Hopkins University to formulate plans.

The News-American, on October 13, 1965, contained a story reflecting that on October 12, 1965, a nucleus of some sixty Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a strategy session in Levering Hall, Johns Hopkins University, and at this session, a plan which called for a protest within Shriver Hall where Secretary of State Rusk will speak was voted down. Instead SDS sent a telegram to Rusk requesting an "open forum" on the Vietnam issue. It was decided that immediately following Rusk's address, a faculty forum would be scheduled on the Johns Hopkins campus and that between now and Saturday, October 16, 1965, hundreds of leaflets will be distributed asserting the SDS position on Vietnam.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

from the U. S. Army based on regulations provided for discharge

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA CO MITTEE

The April , 1960, editi of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a ll-page adv usement captioned "What Is Really Happening in C " placed b e Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). " dvertisement nounced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and dec FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revoluti . neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr.
CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the afore-mentioned advertisement.

On May 15, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that [redacted] FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that [redacted] believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. [redacted] did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" in the United States t is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York Work Telegram and News" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business. Crime activity during its lifetime had been sponsored by pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the operation of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns.
Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected presidential assassin LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that [redacted] had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO AID ID
THE BLOOMINGTON STUDENTS 3

The May 19, 1963, issue of "The Indianapolis Star," an Indianapolis daily newspaper, contained an article relating that the Committee To Aid The Bloomington Students (CABS) has been formed as an outgrowth of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA). The article related that the CABS was a fund raising unit dedicated to obtaining funds for the defense of three YSA members indicted under Indiana's 1951 Anti-Subversive Law.

A source advised on September 23, 1963, that a YSA document entitled "Tasks and Perspectives for the New York Local" (YSA) disclosed during September, 1963, that a National Committee to Aid the Bloomington Students had been set up in New York City. This document stated that the National CABS in New York City would coordinate and direct the CABS activities throughout the country.

On February 11, 1964, a second source advised that the primary purpose of the CABS, organized and controlled by the YSA, was to raise funds for the legal defense of YSA members indicted at Bloomington, Indiana. Source stated that the secondary purpose of this Committee was to propagandize the Bloomington defense and utilize this case as an introduction to the aims of campus recruitment.

The second source further advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) exercises indirect control of the CABS through control over the YSA leadership which operates the CABS. According to this source, CABS work by SWP members, who are not YSA members, is considered as Party work and as a means of building the SWP.

The April 13, 1964, issue of "The Militant," a weekly SWP newspaper, page 5, disclosed that on March 20, 1964, the indictments of the YSA members, mentioned above, were dismissed. The article further relates that the National CABS, however, was continuing to operate in regard to the solicitation of contributions to fight an appeal of the dismissal of indictments made by the prosecution.

This source described the RCFI as being composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) who had split from the SWP and who were led by [redacted]. This source stated that this political unit has its main center in New York City, where it publishes "Spartacist" on a very irregular basis, but their formal meetings are held at least once a week.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" ("YS"), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication "YS."

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the "YS" have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 7, 1965, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City, by youth of various left-socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 7, 1965, YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA is located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

WHY ARE WE PROTESTING AGAINST THE WAR IN VIETNAM?

1. WE FIRMLY BELIEVE THAT OUR GOVERNMENT IN ITS MILITARY PROGRAM AGAINST SOUTH AND NORTH VIETNAM HAS OVERSTEPPED ALL THE NORMS OF RESPECT FOR HUMAN LIFE. WE CANNOT IN GOOD CONSCIENCE REMAIN SILENT IN SUCH A SITUATION. FOR THIS REASON WE PROTEST.
2. WE HAVE SEEN THAT OUR GOVERNMENT'S OFFICIAL EXPLANATIONS FOR THE WAR ARE DISTORTIONS OF THE FACTS OR OUTRIGHT FALSEHOODS. IT IS NOT A CASE OF NORTH VIETNAM INVADING THE SOUTH: IT IS A CASE OF THE PEOPLE OF SOUTH VIETNAM REVOLTING AGAINST CENTURIES OF POVERTY AND TYRANNY. IN THIS STRUGGLE OUR GOVERNMENT HAS ALIGNED ITSELF WITH THE TYRANTS. FOR THIS REASON WE PROTEST.
3. WE KNOW THAT THE WAR IS IN VIOLATION OF OUR OWN CONSTITUTION AND INTERNATIONAL LAWS AND TREATIES, INCLUDING THE GENEVA AGREEMENTS OF 1954 CONCERNING VIETNAM AND THE NUREMBERG JUDGEMENTS CONDEMNING CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY. FOR THIS REASON WE PROTEST.
4. WE STRONGLY BELIEVE THAT EVERY AMERICAN LIFE LOST IN VIETNAM IS A SACRIFICE TO A MORALLY AND LEGALLY UNJUST CAUSE. THE SAME MUST BE SAID FOR EVERY VIETNAMESE MAN, WOMAN, AND CHILD KILLED BY AN AMERICAN. THEREFORE, WE PROTEST AGAINST U.S. INVOLVEMENT IN THE WAR AND WE URGE ALL CONCERNED CITIZENS TO JOIN WITH US IN THIS PROTEST. THEREFORE,

WE DEMAND

- WE DEMAND AN IMMEDIATE END TO AMERICAN INVOLVEMENT IN VIETNAM!
- WE DEMAND THAT OPEN HEARINGS ON VIETNAM BE HELD NOW BY OUR CONGRESSMEN, SO THAT CITIZENS OF BALTIMORE CAN OBTAIN THE FACTS!
- WE DEMAND THAT THE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS BEING SPENT EACH DAY IN VIETNAM BE SPENT INSTEAD FOR SCHOOLS, HIGHWAYS, AND HEALTH SERVICES HERE IN THE UNITED STATES.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World", copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963 issue of "The Richmond News Leader", a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual", an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF
FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE
GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

On September 16, 1965, the source advised that George Lincoln Rockwell believes he has completed the first three phases in his struggle for power and is now into the fourth stage, to wit, the "attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses." The source stated Rockwell believes this because of his success in gaining a place on the ticket in the November, 1965, gubernatorial election in the State of Virginia.

CHINA BOMB SPARKS ARMS RACE CHARGES

WASHINGTON, Thurs., AAP. — Communist China's third and most powerful — nuclear test blast has triggered a verbal exchange between Peking and Washington over who is responsible for the accelerating arms race.

The exchange came amid reports that Monday's explosion had a yield of about 130 kilotons (equal to 130,000 tons of TNT).

This is more than six times the size of the original U.S. estimate and of China's two previous tests.

The blast may prove to be even bigger as additional evidence is gathered, officials said.

The State Department admitted yesterday that the U.S. had rejected a Chinese proposal a year ago that the two countries pledge that neither would be the first to use nuclear weapons against the other.

Officials said that the Peking offer was not a constructive step toward disarmament because there would be no way of guaranteeing that either side would adhere to such a pledge.

The pledge proposal and its rejection came to light in a statement on Tuesday by the Chinese Prime Minister, Mr. Chou En-lai.

According to Mr. Chou, the rejection had forced China to continue its drive to become a real nuclear power.

In a speech Prime Minister Wen Chih

Mr. Hasluck's assertion "that is not true," was, in fact, directed at the following passage in a speech by the Opposition Leader (Mr. Catwell)—"The Minister for External Affairs has specifically stated that the Republic of South Vietnam has not invited this country to send troops to become involved in its dirty, cruel, unwinnable civil war."

SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK
VISIT TO DENVER, JUNE 14, 1966

Denver T-1 who has furnished reliable information in the past advised June 13, 1966, that [redacted] Chairman, Denver Stop the War Committee, mailed out a leaflet on that date urging recipients to participate in a demonstration at the Denver City Auditorium, Denver, Colorado, between 10:45 a.m., and 12:30 p.m., June 14, 1966, during the appearance of Secretary of State Dean Rusk who was to speak before the international convention of Rotary International. [redacted] instructed that individuals should bring their own placards protesting American foreign policy in Vietnam and advised that because of a lack of time for publicity and the time of day scheduled for the demonstration there probably would be very few people participating in the demonstration.

b7c

Denver T-2 who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that the Denver Stop the War Committee is a name used by individuals who have, during the past year, participated in demonstrations opposing U. S. foreign policy in Vietnam. This Committee has no membership, however [redacted] acts as chairman of the Committee and directs its policies. In the past members of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party and the Communist Party have participated in demonstrations with this Committee.

The above information was furnished to [redacted] Security Division, Department of State, Denver, Colorado, on June 13, 1966, and to [redacted] Intelligence Division, Denver, Colorado Police Department, on the same date.

While Dean Rusk, Secretary of State, participated in a press conference inside the City Auditorium, Denver, at approximately 11:00 a.m., June 14, 1966, four women and two men were observed a half block away from the entrance to the City Auditorium. Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed that they had placards in an automobile which bore statements as follows: "Dean Rusk Must Go," "LBJ How many kids have you killed today?" After approximately fifteen minutes the group entered the automobile and left the area without participating in any demonstration or picketing at the City Auditorium. No incidents occurred during Secretary of State Dean Rusk's appearance at the City Auditorium, during his press conference, or during his major address.

Upon the completion of his address at 12:15 p.m., Dean Rusk was driven to the Brown Palace Hotel in Denver for a private luncheon and it was determined that no incidents occurred in the vicinity of the hotel.

The above facts were furnished to [redacted] Security Division, Department of State, Denver, and Lieutenant [redacted] Denver Police Department.

Re: VISIT OF SECRETARY OF STATE

On May 20, 1966, [redacted] Commission on Hawaii, advised as follows:

b6
b7c

The Committee to Stop the War in Vietnam (CSWV) was organized in Honolulu in 1965 by [redacted] a local physician; Madelyn Murray, the nationally-known atheist who formerly resided in Honolulu; [redacted] University of Hawaii, and others. The CSWV has sponsored rallies, meetings and marches protesting United States intervention in Vietnam. The group holds small weekly meetings, and one former Communist Party member is an irregular attendant at these meetings. Some former CP members have participated in the protest marches, but they have comprised only a small minority of the participants.

HN T-1 advised as follows on June 21, 1966:

The CSWV held its regular weekly meeting on June 20, 1966, at the Church of the Crossroads, Honolulu.
During the meeting members were advised that there were no plans for demonstrations or marches during the summer months.
However, members were alerted that they should be in a position to participate in a protest march or picketing in case of an emergency, such as a quick visit of President Johnson to Honolulu.

HN T-1 stated that the CSWV is not aware of the proposed trip of Dean Rusk, but he believes the group will picket Secretary Rusk if any announcement is made in advance of his arrival in Honolulu.

During the course of Secretary RUSK's visit to Japan, this office was in receipt of information concerning demonstrations from the National Police Agency, Tokyo. This information was immediately turned over to [] Security Officer, American Embassy, Tokyo. It was local police department informant information which was allegedly advance information on demonstrations to be held. In some instances, the State Department already had the information.

The demonstrations allegedly were sponsored by the Japanese Communist Party, Japanese Socialist Party, and various leftist labor organizations. They demonstrated against U. S. Vietnam policy in general as well as in particular the bombings at Haiphong and Hanoi. No LHM is being prepared.

Rusk Met By Protest Rally

Osaka, July 4.
Mr Dean Rusk, the United States Secretary of State, flew here today from Taipei to a demonstration by Japanese trade unionists and students against the American bombing of the Hanoi and Haiphong areas.

Mr Rusk was whisked away from the back entrance of Osaka airport by car while an estimated 5,000 demonstrators were waiting at the front entrance of the airport.

He was driven to Kyoto, about 30 miles from Osaka, where he will attend the three-day U.S.-Japan ministerial level consultations on trade and economic affairs opening tomorrow.

About 300 students held a rally and about 220 of them snaked-danced towards Mr Rusk's hotel. Police said two of them had been taken into custody.

Before leaving Taipei, Mr Rusk told reporters he had had a very profitable talk with President Chiang Kai-shek. — Reuter and AP.

'YANKEE GO HOME' POSTERS GREET U.S. MINISTERS

Kyoto, July 3.

Four American Cabinet Ministers were greeted with Communist "Yankee go home" signs posted on walls in this ancient, former imperial city as they arrived yesterday for the fifth annual U.S.-Japan Ministerial Conference.

The talks will take place on Tuesday morning after the arrival of Mr. Dean Rusk, the Secretary of State, who is at present visiting Taiwan.

The Japanese Communist Party made it clear today, however, that the posters, protesting against the American bombing of Hanoi and Haiphong, were aimed at Mr. Rusk.

"Yankee Go Home" said an English language sign posted on a wall near the hotel where the American delegation is staying. Others in the Japanese language said "Rusk Go Home," "Aggressor in Vietnam," and "Aggressor Rusk Go Home."

The signs did not bother Mr. Orville Freeman, the Agriculture Secretary, Mr. John Connor, the Commerce Secretary, Mr. Willard Wirtz, the Labour Secretary, and Mr. Joseph Barr, Under-Secretary of the Treasury, who arrived here with Mr. Arthur Okun, Adviser to the Council on Economic Affairs.

But Japanese police were clearly worried about reports that Zengakuren, the powerful, left-wing dominated student organisation, would attempt to prevent Mr. Rusk's plane from landing here tomorrow afternoon.

The Zengakuren was the prime instigator of the riots which prevented former President Eisenhower from making an official visit to Japan in 1959.

"Police are taking all possible steps to cope with any student demonstrations, including the establishment of strict security measures at the hotel and the International Conference Hall, the site of conference.

Vietnam and China are expected to be the chief subjects to be discussed by the Japanese and American delegations at the conference.

China Trade

Mr. Rusk is due to meet Mr. Etsusaburo Shiina, the Foreign Minister, privately on Wednesday following the conclusion of the formal conference. He will also confer at length with Mr. Sato, the Prime Minister.

Japan is expected to make her desire for greatly increased trade with China formally known during the conference. The U.S. is not expected to voice any objections although she would reiterate, as she has done with European countries, her displeasure should the increased trade include any strategic materials.

Japan feels that increased credit exports are necessary if she is to be able to compete in the rich Chinese market with European countries such as Germany, France and Britain.—UPI.

The LCE expects DEAN RUSK to visit Mexico in the latter part of September 1966.

The LCE is attempting to obtain the cooperation of students in Mexico, DF, in organizing "cat calls" upon the arrival of DEAN RUSK. They also plan to use these students to exhibit signs which will contain anti-United States slogans repudiating the visit of this representative of "Yankee imperialism."

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 6, 1966, that Trotskyist students at the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM), School of Economics, have held a series of meetings in the recent past to exchange views concerning the coming visit of Secretary of State DEAN RUSK. It was decided that the Student Committee of Solidarity with Vietnam will be the group to coordinate activities of students who will protest the visit to Mexico of the United States Secretary of State. These students plan to prepare propaganda including murals, flyers, and other signs condemning "imperialist aggression" in Vietnam.

Leader of

On September 3, 1966, leaders of various Trotskyist student groups, including the "Bandera Roja" (Red Flag), the Partido Mexicano de Trabajadores (PMT - Mexican Workers Party), and "Miguel Hernandez," met with CARLOS MENDEZ, a leader of the LCE, to form a commission to visit schools of UNAM and the preparatory schools in Mexico, DF, to invite students to participate in activities protesting the visit to Mexico of DEAN RUSK. The letter is a nine-page handwritten letter which begins: "Being a one-quarter Cherokee Indian who is proud of his race, let me start this letter by saying that I admire you - a Negro who is proud of his race."

The letter continues for eight pages describing in detail events in the life of the writer.

On the ^{DE 11}bottom of the eighth page and continuing onto the top of the ninth page is the following statement, which is marked in yellow: "I'll be glad when somebody blows out the brains of Johnson, Humphrey, Rusk and that louse McNamara - men like them do not deserve to live - they should die like mangy dogs in the gutter - Now you are hearing real Indian hate - so magnify or multiply that by 4 and see what you come up with."

This letter then continues: "If Johnson is reelected, there will be a violent overthrow of this Government and Communism will take over without firing a shot. Everyday of my life under the present administration I become more acutely aware of the evils of said gang of hoodlums and more aware of the good points of the Communist way of life-."

In this letter Chaplin states that he is employed by Douglas Aircraft in Long Beach, California.

SEPTEMBER 30, 1966

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency;
it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 28, 1966, that a meeting was planned for 6:00 p.m. that date on the Esplanade of Humanities at the National Autonomous University of Mexico, Mexico City, to protest the arrival of U. S. Secretary of State DEAN RUSK and to urge the students to go to the dedication of the new Mexican Foreign Ministry building on September 30, 1966. It was planned that classes at the University would be suspended during that afternoon so that all possible students will be able to go to the Foreign Ministry site to take part in demonstrations against the Secretary. A further purpose of the meeting was to urge the release of various "political prisoners".

The groups at the University organizing the above meeting were the Liga Comunista-Espartaco (LCE - Spartacist Communist League), the Partido Mexicano de los Trabajadores (PMT - Mexican Party of the Workers), and followers of the Fourth International.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that the LCE has recently emerged in Mexico as one of the most important Trotskyist organizations which follows the pro-Chinese communist line.

VISIT TO MEXICO BY DEAN RUSK
SEPTEMBER 30, 1966

T-2 has described the PMT as a Marxist organization of Trotskyite character.

According to T-1, FLAVIO ZAVALA, of the PMT, was appointed coordinator of the University rally. The LCE had begun the making of banners, placards and posters with legends offensive to Secretary RUSK. Elements of the LCE are beginning to paint slogans near the site of the new Foreign Ministry protesting the visit of the "Assassin of Vietnam".

On September 28, 1966, T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the National Directorate of the Partido Comunista Mexicano (PCM - Mexican Communist Party) and the Permanent Committee for the Defense of the Political Prisoners have scheduled a meeting at the Salon "Union y Concordia" located at Magnolia 174, Colonia Guerrero, Mexico City, for the evening of September 30, 1966. Originally planned to start at 7:00 p.m., the leaders have now asked that those planning to attend arrive at 6:00 p.m. at which time they will decide whether or not to march en masse to the site of the new Foreign Ministry to protest the visit of the "Assassin of Vietnam - DEAN RUSK". In the event of intervention by the police, they will return to the Salon to hear speeches urging the release of political prisoners.

Banners, handbills and posters saying, in Spanish, "GET OUT OF MEXICO - DEAN RUSK", "GET OUT OF MEXICO - ASSASSIN OF VIETNAM" will be distributed among young communists and followers of the above Committee in order to organize picketing in front of the new Foreign Ministry. Various members of the PCM and the Committee have already departed Mexico City for other states bearing propaganda material.

NOTE: Request received from Department of State 5/13/69. Mr. Rusk, former Secretary of State, is being considered for membership on General Advisory Committee, United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. We conducted previous investigations concerning him in 1948, 1953, 1960, and 1965, the results of which have been furnished to White House and Department of State. During prior investigations it was determined he had been associated with Alger Hiss and was member of Institute of Pacific Relations. Also, one person stated he was favorable to Chinese communists. Prior investigations were otherwise favorable. During current inquiries former Ambassador Harriman stated he believes Mr. Rusk overestimated importance of Vietnam as compared to other national interests of United States and he would not recommend him for position which involved ending war in Vietnam. Investigation otherwise favorable. Investigation complete with exception of two agency checks and interviews of several persons who have been unavailable for interview.

DAVID DEAN RUSK

An investigation was conducted concerning Mr. Rusk in 1948 under the provisions of Executive Order 9835 (Federal Employee Loyalty Program). Applicant-type investigations were conducted concerning Mr. Rusk in 1953, 1960, and 1965. The enclosed summary memorandum covers the period since January, 1965. Mr. Rusk was born on February 9, 1909, in Cherokee County, Georgia.

Since February, 1969, Mr. Rusk has been associated with the Rockefeller Foundation, New York City, under a one-year fellowship.

Interviews

W. Averell Harriman, former Ambassador at Large, Department of State, was interviewed in Washington, D. C., and stated he first met Mr. Rusk in 1950 when Mr. Rusk was with the Department of State, and he, Ambassador Harriman, was serving as Special Assistant to former President Truman.

David Dean Rusk

He said thereafter he had some contact with Mr. Rusk on a continuing basis, adding he worked closely with him during the administrations of former Presidents Kennedy and Johnson.

According to Ambassador Harriman, the character, associates, loyalty, and reputation of Mr. Rusk are beyond question, but he pointed out he does question his judgment with regard to United States involvement in Vietnam. He explained that in his opinion Mr. Rusk overestimated the importance of Vietnam as compared with other national interests of the United States. Ambassador Harriman pointed out, however, that he could not completely differentiate between Mr. Rusk's personal convictions regarding Vietnam and those of former President Johnson. Nevertheless, he said based on personal discussions he had with Mr. Rusk, he assumed his personal convictions concerning our involvement in Vietnam paralleled those views which were held by former President Johnson. Ambassador Harriman continued by advising that Mr. Rusk has the unusual ability of getting along well with foreign officials, adding he has an international reputation as a persuasive speaker. He concluded by stating he will highly recommend Mr. Rusk for any position with the Government, except one which involves ending the war in Vietnam for the reason indicated hereinbefore.

Llewellyn E. Thompson, Jr., former Ambassador at Large, Department of State, when interviewed in Washington, D. C., stated he first met Mr. Rusk in 1950 or 1951, at which time Mr. Rusk was serving as an assistant secretary with the Department of State. He stated thereafter he served as one of Mr. Rusk's advisers during the 1960's. Ambassador Thompson described Mr. Rusk as a man of great integrity and as one who is "absolutely loyal to the United States, almost to a fault." He pointed out that Mr. Rusk has a great sense of duty and, although he never wanted the job of Secretary of State, he felt he was obligated to accept it when he was asked to serve in that position by former President Kennedy. Ambassador Thompson continued by stating in his opinion Mr. Rusk is a man of outstanding ability, adding he believes "history will record Dean Rusk as being a very great Secretary of State." He said there is no reason whatsoever to question Mr. Rusk's character, associates, or reputation, and he recommended him without reservation for whatever position he is being considered.

David Dean Rusk

Arthur J. Goldberg, former United States Ambassador to the United Nations, when interviewed in New York City, stated he has known Mr. Rusk for many years, pointing out that during this period he has consulted with him on numerous occasions concerning issues of national importance. He said there is no question whatsoever concerning Mr. Rusk's character, associates, loyalty, or reputation, and he highly recommended him for a position of trust with the Government.

J. George Harrar, President, Rockefeller Foundation, New York City, advised he has known Mr. Rusk for many years, adding Mr. Rusk was recently granted a one-year fellowship with this foundation. In this regard he said Mr. Rusk will devote his time to writing or to other activities of his choice. Dr. Harrar pointed out that Mr. Rusk is a very capable individual and one whose character, associates, loyalty, and reputation are above reproach. He recommended Mr. Rusk for a position of trust without reservation.

William C. Foster, former Director, United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, Washington, D. C., advised he has known Mr. Rusk on a close personal and professional basis for 20 years. Mr. Foster pointed out he and Mr. Rusk worked closely together during the late 1940's when he, Mr. Foster, was directing the Marshall Plan and Mr. Rusk was an assistant secretary with the Department of State. He related that after Mr. Rusk became Secretary of State, he, Mr. Foster, consulted with him on almost a daily basis. Mr. Foster advised that based on this close association with Mr. Rusk he considers him to be a man of the highest integrity and one whose loyalty to the United States is unquestioned. He said Mr. Rusk has proven his ability to handle a sensitive position in a discreet and professional manner and he highly recommended him for a position of trust with the Government.

David Rockefeller, President, Chase Manhattan Bank, New York City, stated he has known Mr. Rusk for approximately 20 years. He said based on his knowledge of Mr. Rusk he considers him to be an extremely capable, honest, and dedicated public servant. He related he has the highest regard for Mr. Rusk's reputation, adding there is no reason whatsoever to question his character, associates, or loyalty. He highly recommended him for a position of trust with the Government.

David Dean Rusk

Twenty-one additional individuals, consisting of professional associates and social acquaintances, were interviewed and they commented favorably concerning the character, associates, loyalty, and reputation of Mr. Rusk. He was variously described as a dedicated, extremely capable, and dependable public servant whose integrity is above question. It was indicated Mr. Rusk makes decisions only after careful consideration of all the facts involved. He was highly recommended for a position of trust with the Government. 27 December 1969

Valdosta-Lowndes County Chamber of Commerce
120 West Hill Avenue
Valdosta, Georgia 31601

Gentlemen:

The enclosed letter indicates that those responsible for inviting Mr. Dean Rusk to Valdosta should be given opinions, and my letter is intended to do just that.

First of all, what stupid, cowardly idiot prepared this vicious smear and mailed it to Chamber members??? Is it at all possible that we have someone within the Chamber who considers himself smarter than the CIA or other Government Agencies who can tell you what kind of hair tonic Mr. Rusk uses?...It's very doubtful. The very idea that man could serve in such a responsible position as Secretary of State and not be detected if he were affiliated in Communism is absurd. This vicious trash is so dis-respectful to deceased President John F. Kennedy, that it should not go un-noticed by proper authorities in the nations capitol, and I have every intention of seeing that they are furnished with copies of this twisted and warped attack against Mr. Rusk.

If Mr. John W. Langdale, a native son, is narrow minded enough to swallow any of the hog-wash contained in the attached writing, then may God help us all. If present and future students at the University of Georgia are denied any of the vast knowledge and experience of Mr. Rusk, Georgia will have suffered another tragic educational set-back. Surely, Mr. Langdale will have the wisdom to check further into the matter and not be influenced by any outside sources who might call or telegraph him.

It's time that the underground political movement obviously operating within reach of this community was exposed and destroyed. Valdosta cannot continue harboring such bums within our midst. Another 25 years of standing still, and we'll all be has beens. No wonder new industry finds us undesirable.

In conclusion, this letter serves as your official notice to remove my name and the name of my business from the Chamber membership roll. Until such time as you can prove to me that our Chamber is not connected with this attack against Mr. Rusk, I desire to become dis-associated with the organization.

Yours truly,

DEAN RUSK

According to the Valdosta Daily Times, Monday, December 22, 1969, Former Secretary of State Dean Rusk is to be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Valdosta--Lowndes County Chamber of Commerce on January 6th. According to the Associated Press, Valdosta Daily Times, Monday, December 22, 1969, Former Secretary of State Dean Rusk is being considered for an appointment to the University of Georgia's faculty to take the Samuel H. Sibley professorship of international law. And if he should succeed in getting the approval of the state Board of Regents, maybe he will celebrate his victory by allowing himself to attend a cocktail party in his honor; perhaps his first cocktail party since the one he celebrated at the Russian Embassy in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the Communists' seizure of power in Russia in which he stated, "Well, for the fiftieth anniversary I make an exception."¹

"My dictionary defines a rusk as a soft, sweet, twisted bun. No definition could more appropriately describe the policies of America's Secretary of State."¹

"In the 1930s Mr. Rusk became a member of the Institute of Pacific Relations (I.P.R.), breeding ground for many of today's top Marxists...The work of the Institute of Pacific Relations was, of course, largely responsible for the sell-out of Chiang Kai-shek to the Chinese Reds, and Dean Rusk was one of the 'China hands' who played an important role in that disaster."¹

"...In March of 1950, Dean Acheson named Rusk Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs. While holding that position he delivered a speech in praise of the Chinese Communists in which he described the Peking Reds as revolutionaries comparable to the American patriots of 1776, and declared that the course of their agrarian reform was 'not Russian in essence'.¹

"In his position as Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs, Mr. Rusk was instrumental in shaping those policies of the Korean War which General Douglas MacArthur described as 'a catastrophic blow to the hopes of the free world' including the policy of giving the Communist Chinese a privileged sanctuary north and west of the Yalu River."¹

"It was Dean Rusk, finally, who recommended the dismissal of General Douglas MacArthur when he insisted on winning the war in Korea, even writing out the dismissal order for the President to sign. Following the disgraceful armistice in Korea-----a solution to surrender also recommended by Rusk-----our 'soft, sweet, twisted bun' was shuffled out of the State Department to become President of the Rockefeller Foundation..."¹

"In his capacity with the Rockefeller Foundation, Dean Rusk continued to support the Communists by recommending a $2 million grant to the Communist Institute for Pacific Relations. He also attempted to influence the Ford Foundation to make a similar grant to I.P.R., and waged constant war on the Congressional Committees investigating Communists in government."¹ "He was particularly aggressive toward the late Joseph R. McCarthy..."²

"With the election of John F. Kennedy, Rusk bounced back into federal service to lead the core of the Administration's accommodationists, holding that Communism is mellowing..."¹

"Secretary Rusk's record of providing support for the Communists is nearly incredible. For example, on March 17, 1961, at the encouragement of Secretary Dean Rusk, President John F. Kennedy lifted a ban on importation and distribution of Communist propaganda into the United States...American tax payers paid the postage for delivering this Red propaganda to schools, churches, homes and libraries all over the nation."¹

ENCLOSURE 161-3177-218

"Dean Rusk has, of course, often declared himself strongly in favor of disarmament. It was under Rusk, in fact, that the infamous State Department Document 7277 was issued. That call for "general and complete disarmament" of the United States was a nearly verbatim plagiarism of a speech delivered by Nikita Khrushchev in 1959..." 1

"Since Mr. Rusk is such a strong advocate of disarmament, it is not surprising that he was one of those primarily responsible for disarming anti-Castro Cubans. He was, in fact, among those who most effectively opposed supplying aircover for the Bay of Pigs Invasion. Pressure by Rusk also led to the cancellation of plans for the U. S. Navy to escort the fourteen-hundred-man invasion force ashore" 1

"Another of Secretary of State Rusk's 'accomplishments' was the passage by the Senate of the Consular Treaty, which allowed the Soviets to set up 'diplomatic' headquarters in various American cities... Ratification by the Senate of such a Treaty, said Mr. Hoover, would make the F. B. I.'s counter-intelligence work far more difficult." 1

"Rusk is also a vigorous advocate of American trade for Communist nations. As American boys in Vietnam were being killed by armaments from Communist Poland, for example, he released the Poles from a $26 million U. S. debt, and moved to increase trade with all Communist European nations supplying the Vietcong..." 1

"During Rusk's secretaryship, the United States has been savage in its hostility toward the anti-Communist regimes of Katanga, Rhodesia, and Portugal. The United States betrayed West New Guinea into the hands of the Communist tyrant Sukarno of Indonesia. The United States has exported socialism throughout Latin America and built up Communist regimes with financial handouts in Europe, Asia, Latin America, Eastern Europe, and Africa. And Rusk has been a leading deceiver in his utterances on the Vietnam War." 2

"The theme of the Rusk diplomacy on Vietnam has been: (1) send U. S. aid and trade to the arsenal of the Vietcong; (2) assure by international agreement a Communist sanctuary in Laos; (3) arrange with the Soviets to preserve key North Vietnamese military installations; (4) prevent the 'escalation' necessary to win; (5) provide bombing pauses whenever the enemy wearies; and, (6) negotiate a surrender to the Communists like that in Laos as soon as U. S. public opinion can be made to accept it." 1

According to the Valdosta Daily Times, Monday, December 22, 1969, new officers are to be installed at the Chamber of Commerce meeting at which Mr. Don Schutt is to replace Mr. Courtney Foy as President.

Mr. John W. Langdale is on the State Board of Regents. This board's decision will determine if Dean Rusk receives the professorship of international law at the University of Georgia.

We have presented the issues at stake. How will you act upon it as an American patriot? It is one thing to be informed but it is mandatory to act on this information now. How? By giving your opinions to those who have invited Dean Rusk to Valdosta and to those who are considering him for professorship at the University of Georgia.

As chairman of the Americanism Committee for the Valley of Atlanta, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, it is necessary for me to speak to many different groups of people on a variety of subjects concerning our country.

Much of what I have to say is personal opinion, but of necessity the use of factual information concerning many of the ills of our times is very important in trying to wake our people up.

The enclosed article has come to my attention, and before using any of it, since you are mentioned, I would appreciate your comments as to its authenticity. I believe this is very important since Dean Rusk is a Georgian and now teaching in our University and affecting Georgia Students.

Any other information you may have that will help our committee do a better job will be most appreciated.

I would also appreciate your personal opinion of "The Herald of Freedom."

THE HONORABLE DEAN RUSK

A security risk, as applied to federal employees, might be described as a person whose employment constitutes a hazard or risk to the security of the United States. In our series entitled "Interlocking Subversion" we have outlined the names and backgrounds of a long list of high placed employees in the Department of State who are serious security risks. There are many others about whom we could have written and perhaps shall in the future. Many subscribers wonder how it is possible that the Secretary of State permits this situation to exist when it is obviously doing great harm to our country. This issue is the answer to that question.

David Dean Rusk has himself been considered to be a security risk. He was first investigated by the State Department in January 1946. The F. B. I. conducted a full field investigation on him in 1948. It was not until January 12, 1949 that he was finally able to secure a "clearance" by a "Loyalty Security Board." During the first two years after he was appointed Secretary of State on January 21, 1961, Rusk waived security checks on over one hundred fifty new people coming into the State Department with the "New Frontier." The F. B. I. reports clearly showed them to be security risks but Rusk overruled the State Department's own security staff when they refused to clear them based on the F. B. I. reports and additional information.

Rusk was born in Cherokee County, Georgia, on February 9, 1909, the son of Robert Hugh Rusk and the former Frances Elizabeth Clotfelder. After graduating from Davidson College in North Carolina in 1931 with an A. B. degree, he was a Rhodes Scholar until 1934. He attended the University of Berlin in 1934 and the University of California part time from 1937 to 1940 to get his law degree.

His first employment was at the ultra-liberal Mills College in Oakland, California as a professor of Government and then Dean from 1934 to 1940. In 1940 as a Reservist he went into the Army as a Captain and rose quickly to the rank of Colonel. It has been stated that he had been protege of the "Establishment" from the time he became a Rhodes Scholar. His leftist views and inclinations manifested themselves early in life. In the 1930's he was a member of the Institute of Pacific Relations, the breeding ground of so many of our present day left-wingers. He won the Cecil Peace Prize in 1933 for his left pacifist activities.

Rusk was married on June 19, 1937 to Virginia Foisie of Seattle, Washington, who was one of the students at Mills College. During his career in the Army he was assigned as a Colonel to the Staff of General (Vinegar) Joe Stilwell. On the staff with him were John Paton Davies, John Stewart Service, John K. Emmerson and Raymond P. Luden. All four were State Department persons; all were security risks; all became close associates of Rusk. They, together with Rusk were pro-Chinese Communist and they agreed with Rusk's recommendation that the United States arm one million Chinese Communists.

On February 6, 1946, Rusk, who by that time had an active file with our Intelligence Service due to his strong pro-Communist sympathies and activities, was appointed Assistant Chief of Internal Security Affairs of the Department of State. Three months or so later on May 25, he was switched over to become a Special Assistant to the Secretary of War. His adverse security file evidently qualified him in someone's eyes for these sensitive positions.

When Alger Hiss was publicly exposed and forced out of the State Department, Rusk was in his place as Director of Special Political Affairs on March 5, 1947. Hiss was taken care of and rewarded for his subversive activities by being made President of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. On January 28, 1948 Rusk was given an additional assignment as Director of United Nations Affairs.

Hiss had recommended a long list of Communists for employment at the U. N. Rusk continued the Alger Hiss policy of cooperation with the Communist conspiracy by allowing the flow of American Communists into job vacancies at the U. N.

This continued until the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee exposed the practice. As a result of the hearings a number of American Communists were dismissed from the U. N. Ernest Gross, an American employed at the U. N., came to their defense and helped the dismissed Communists to prepare appeals. They won and were paid indemnities. Gross received over $30,000.00 from the U. N. for his Communist-aiding advice. The investigation had shown that at least twenty-six American Communists had gotten into key jobs at the U. N. and that some of them were actually Soviet agents.

An aftermath of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee investigation of U. S. Communists at the U. N. was a Federal Grand Jury investigation of the matter under Special U. S. Prosecutor Roy Cohn. The grand jury handed down a presentment which was severely critical of the State Department. In an effort to soften or block the presentment, Rusk had the State Department legal adviser, Adrian Fisher (another security risk and now a top official of the U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency) attempt to influence the action of the U. S. Attorney's Office. His efforts failed, however. F. B. I. reports detailing the backgrounds of the American Communists in the U. N. were in the State Department files at the time of their approval by Hiss and Rusk.

Rusk became Deputy Under Secretary of State on May 31, 1949 and Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs on March 28, 1950. It was while he was serving in this capacity that Rusk told an audience at the University of Pennsylvania that Mai Tse-tung was the George Washington of China although he knew full well that this butcher had already been responsible for the murder of millions of innocent Chinese people.

It was on the recommendation of Dean Rusk that the United States rejected the offer of Chiang Kai-Shek to supply the necessary trained troops to fight the Communists in Korea. It was Dean Rusk who made the recommendation that General MacArthur be forbidden to stop the flow of Communist troops and supplies over the Yalu River Bridge. It was Dean Rusk who formulated and had approved the "No-Win" policy in Korea. It was Dean Rusk, finally, who recommended the dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur when he insisted on winning the war in Korea. In fact it was Dean Rusk who wrote out the dismissal order for the President to sign. Many thousands of U. S. boys killed in Korea would be alive today but for Dean Rusk.

After the disgraceful armistice in Korea which was also recommended by Rusk, he led the State Department to be rewarded as was Hiss. Rusk became President of the Rockefeller Foundation. In this capacity he continued his broken record of aiding the Communist conspiracy by recommending a two million dollar grant to the Institute of Pacific Relations. He also urged the Ford Foundation to make a grant to the I. P. R. too.

When John F. Kennedy and his New Frontiersmen took over the government of the United States, Rusk, whom Kennedy had never met, was named Secretary of State. By March 17, 1961, within less than sixty days after he took office, Rusk and Bobby Kennedy recommended lifting the ban on Communist propaganda material coming into this country from the Soviet Union, even to the extent of allowing it delivered free at the U. S. taxpayers' expense.

Rusk approved of the appointment of Harlan Cleveland as Assistant Secretary of State for International Organization Affairs within one week after he became Secretary of State. Both Cleveland and Rusk were old friends of Alger Hiss. Cleveland had an active file with our Intelligence Agencies for many years. One Agency has a 135-page report on him marked "Espionage." The State Department security office, in checking Harlan Cleveland's security file, refused to clear him even on a temporary basis. The fact that Cleveland was a frighteningly serious security risk did not bother Rusk. He personally overruled the security officers and gave him his approval and clearance. Cleveland then recommended into the State Department a series of security risks, some of whom had been thrown out of other government departments. He even went so far as to approach the security officers with a request to get Alger Hiss back on the government payroll.

Rusk approved the appointment of Abba Schwartz as Administrator of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs as of September 14, 1962. Schwartz, another security risk, had first come into civilian government service on the recommendation of Eleanor Roosevelt and David Neyhaus (Neyhaus) whose security file showed him reported as a Communist, a Soviet agent and a homosexual. He and Abba Schwartz were "friends." Abba Schwartz had been employed by the Intergovernment Committee on Refugees as Assistant Director and also as a Director of the International Refugee Organization, then Special Counsel for the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration.

Schwartz was a member of the Washington, D. C. law firm of Landis, Cohen, Rubin and Schwartz. Schwartz managed to get the Inter-governmental Committee for European Migration to pay his law firm over $100,000.00 in fees while he was there but no one seems to know what the money was paid for. Incidentally the International Development Services, Inc. received over a million dollars from the same agency for unknown services. Harlan Cleveland has been a trustee of this private organization.

Julian H. Singman, a lawyer who was employed by the Commerce Department, was forced out of his job after security officials decided to press charges involving homosexuals. When Abba Schwartz went into the State Department, Singman joined Schwartz's law firm. Abba's aunt Bess Dick, is Chief Clerk for the House Judiciary Committee under Rep. Emanuel Celler (fifteen Communist front affiliations.) She is also a friend of Singman. Abba Schwartz was recently in Hong Kong trying to get some White Russian "refugees" (actually Soviet agents) from Red China into the United States. With Dean Rusk's guidance and direction, several million dollars were deposited in a Hong Kong bank for this purpose.

It was Dean Rusk who, together with Bobby Kennedy, arranged to remove Otto Otepka from his job as Chief of Security of the State Department because Otepka disapproved of the hiring of traitors, pro-Soviets and homosexuals.

In New York City over the week-end of June 18, 19, 20, 1964, "Scientists for Survival" held a Congress at the Hotel Roosevelt. There were about a hundred lecturers and panel members, including people from the U. N., the Soviet and Polish Embassies, Peace Groups, One-Worlders, Disarmament plotters and government officials. Assigned by Mr. Rusk's office to attend this Un-American activity was a State Dept. official who had been named by Col. Goleniewski, the Soviet and Polish intelligence supervisor who defected.

When the American public was told on T. V. that William Wieland had been cleared and was not a security risk, this was not exactly the truth, as is true of so many things the American public is told over T. V. The fact is that Wieland is and was a security risk and a request for his dismissal was pending at that time. After the incident Rusk caused a security clearance to be issued, approved by himself and dated back in order to cover up the deceitful lie told to the American people by their highest official. The file on William Wieland contains a report over 600 pages long and is a story of pro-Castro (the George Washington of Cuba), pro-Communist, pro-Soviet activity over a period of years.

Former H. C. U. A. Chairman Martin Dies told of the time he brought President Roosevelt a list of over a thousand Communists in government, including many in the Department of Justice and State Department, only to be rebuked with "Some of my best friends are Communists." Dean Rusk could go Roosevelt one better as some of his best friends have intelligence files showing them to be not only Communists but Soviet agents and homosexuals as well.

It was Dean Rusk who helped engineer the muzzling of the military in cooperation with Adam Yarmolinsky and George Ball by setting up a censor board inside the State Department that examined all speeches by military men and deleted anything unfavorable to the Soviet Union.

Dean Rusk is strongly in favor of general and complete disarmament and has in fact assigned State Department officials to attend left-wing Disarmament Symposiums put on by College Institutes with taxpayers' funds at which plans are discussed to bring in U. N. inspection and disarmament personnel. Two such have been held at the University of Michigan and there have been others. At these, discussions include how to control the U. S. population through Mental Health and Behavioral Science Institutes, etc. The ultimate effect will be that whoever does not want our country to give up its army and navy and be under U. N. "Peace-Keeping" Forces must be mentally ill and a threat to "World Peace."

Dean Rusk is quick to take retaliatory measures against anyone who disagrees with his policies. Paul Scott of the Allen-Scott Report has written concerning the practice of the State Department supplying call girls for diplomats from all over the world. Scott has often brought out the No-Win and pro-Soviet policies of the State Department under the leadership of Dean Rusk. Under a subterfuge that Scott was learning confidential information, a request was made to the F. B. I. to investigate Paul Scott. Rusk would have been doing his country a service by causing security risks to be investigated rather than patriots trying to bring the truth to the American public. Just as Bobby Kennedy has tried to make the F. B. I. his private Gestapo, so we find the Secretary of State causing the F. B. I. to investigate newspapermen trying to find out and inform the American public of the truth about the "mess in Washington." Censorship and muzzling are the order of the day.

Here are a few items from the June 1964 issue of the magazine of the State Department called "News Letter" -

Henry Brodie, Director of the Office of International Resources was a member of the U. S. Delegation to an Industry Meeting in Paris. (Mr. Brodie is a reported security risk.)

Philip H. Trezise, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Economic Affairs was a member of a U. S. Delegation on Trade Relations with Roumania. (Mr. Trezise is a reported security risk.)

Jacques Reinstein visited Williams College to look at the program for training foreign economic officials. He holds the rank of minister and is a reported security risk.

William C. Burdett has been designated Senior Foreign Service Inspector. (Mr. Burdett is a reported security risk.)

Two of the State Department officials who have been cited for outstanding service in the annual awards ceremony are David Klein and Sidney Weintraub. Both are reported security risks.

Promoted to higher rank on recommendation of Dean Rusk and nominated by the President and confirmed by a Senate Committee on May 28, 1964 was Bernard Rosen. He too is a reported security risk.

Achilles T. Polyzoides, State Department official and reported security risk has retired. His reported activities date back to World War II. (Chalk up one for our side.)

Foy D. Kohler, Ambassador to U. S. S. R., gave a talk to the Senate Subcommittee on National Security Staffing and Operations. Kohler and his wife were arrested for public intoxication after they were in an auto accident. In his car were a large number of confidential State Department documents. Kohler was suspended from his job for thirty days, then restored, promoted and made U. S. Ambassador to U. S. S. R.

None of the above information is unknown to Mr. Rusk.

Dean Rusk was a protege of both George C. Marshall and Dean G. Acheson. He has carried on their tradition of pro-Soviet activities. He has put William Bundy in charge of policy in South East Asia. Bundy is the son-in-law of Dean Acheson and raised funds for the defense of Alger Hiss.

There were 55,000 Americans killed in Korea and many more were permanently injured. Because of the policies and activities of Dean Rusk in refusing to allow anti-Communist Chinese troops to fight their own enemy, the Chinese Communists, we used Americans instead. The Americans were not permitted to win because of policy determined by Dean Rusk. Many Americans have been killed in Viet Nam, Laos, etc. and many more will be killed if our present No-Win policy is pursued. This follows the pattern set in China of aiding the Communists while pretending to fight them. Dean Rusk played no small part in the enslavement of millions of Chinese and the murder of millions more.

Ninety-five per cent of the personnel in the State Department are loyal Americans. Yet through the likes of Dean Rusk, Harlan Cleveland, George Ball, Abba Schwartz and 847 varieties of security risks, America is losing the hot and cold war on all fronts. Yarmolinsky is demoralizing the military while McNamara and the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency are hard at work disarming us. Their objective can only be what true Americans are fearful of and fighting against -- a disarmed United States completely policed by a United Nations "Peace-Keeping Force" under a Soviet-controlled World Government. This is not the American way of life and not what our forefathers fought to preserve for us. This is not the legacy we wish to leave our children.

The American people are rapidly becoming aware of what is and has been going on in our government and a grass roots movement for a return to God, morality and good government is sweeping across the country. We shall win.  Extra copies of this issue and many back issues including the Interlocking Subversion Series are available. RUSK 4-23 NX WITH FBI

ATHENS, GA. (UPI)--DEAN RUSK, FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE, SAYS THE DIRECTOR OF THE FBI SHOULD BE LIMITED TO AN EIGHT-YEAR TERM. BUT HE SAID HE WAS NOT REFERRING SPECIFICALLY TO J. EDGAR HOOVER.

"IN A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY, THERE MAY BE SOME POINT IN ASSURING THAT THOSE WHO CONTROL WHAT I'D CALL THE RAW POWER OF THE STATE SERVE FOR SET TERMS OF OFFICE," RUSK SAID THURSDAY.

RUSK, A PROFESSOR OF INTERNATIONAL LAW AT THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA, SAID HE WOULD BE "CONGENIAL" TO HAVING THE FBI DIRECTOR SERVE TWO FOUR-YEAR TERMS, AS THE PRESIDENT DOES. HE SAID THE HEAD OF THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA) ALSO SHOULD BE LIMITED IN LENGTH OF SERVICE.

RUSK SAID HE DOUBTED SUCH CHANGES WILL COME ABOUT, HOWEVER, AND SUGGESTED A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT AS PERHAPS THE BEST MEANS OF REQUIRING GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS TO RETIRE AT A CERTAIN TIME, SAY AT AGE 70.

"I HAVE NO BASIS ON WHICH I WOULD LEVEL ANY GRUMBLINGS AT MR. HOOVER ON PERSONAL GROUNDS BECAUSE WHILE I WAS IN OFFICE I FOUND HIM TO BE BOTH COOPERATIVE AND A MAN OF RATHER SOBER JUDGMENT," HE SAID.

Bombings Vowed If Rusk Allowed On U of A Campus

Gazette State News Service
FAYETTEVILLE—The Northwest Arkansas Times here received a letter Friday threatening bombings in Little Rock, Fort Smith and Fayetteville "if the war criminal Dean Rusk is permitted on the UA campus."

Rusk, who served as secretary of State under Presidents John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson, is scheduled to speak at 10 a.m. today at the University's observance of the 100th anniversary of its first enrollment. University officials said Rusk's speech would not be canceled, although security measures would be taken.

Words cut from various publications were pasted to both sides of a sheet of paper. One side contained the threat. The other side said "Student Socialist Movement By Any Means Necessary."

Fayetteville activists said late Friday they feared arrest at any moment and that they believed the threat was an attempt to discredit and jail them.

Floyd Carl, city editor of the Northwest Arkansas Times, said a rural carrier reported finding the envelope containing the letter on the front steps of the newspaper offices.

The mastheads of three newspapers were on the outside of the envelope, apparently to address the message to the papers. The papers were the Times, the Southwest Times-Record at Fort Smith and the Arkansas Gazette at Little Rock. The Times-Record and the Gazette said they apparently had not received copies of the letter.

The threat read "if the war criminal Dean Rusk is permitted on the UA campus, three bombs in the cities of Little Rock, Fort Smith and Fayetteville will explode."

Traveler Reports Activist Meeting

The student newspaper, the Arkansas Traveler, reported that a small group of students, including Vietnam veterans, met Wednesday to discuss possible protests of Rusk's visit.

Marty Jordan, state co-ordinator for the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, said Friday members of his group had attended the Wednesday meeting as individuals, but had objected to any suggestions of disruptive protests and walked out of the meeting. He said 10 of the 20 persons at the meeting left during discussions of disruptive actions.

Jordan said his group had worked through the University to obtain admission to Rusk's morning speech, which will be by invitation only and to set up a special open forum for students with Rusk Saturday afternoon.

"It would be a contradiction of our own ideas and values to deny him the right to speak or to deny the right of others to listen if they choose to," Jordan said.

Joe Neal, who called the Wednesday night meeting, said persons present at the meeting had no connection with the bomb threat. He said the group had composed questions, based in part on disclosures from the Pentagon Papers, to embarrass Rusk.

Another member of the Wednesday night group said several would hand out leaflets outside the Men's Gymnasium when Rusk speaks today.

"We are not aware of any organization called the Student Socialist Movement and believe that the threat is an attempt to discredit opposition to Rusk's visit by creating hysteria," Neal said.

A member of the VVAW commented that the bomb threat was "too transparent" to be the work of students at the University of Arkansas. He said if an activist group wanted to cause disruption, it would not tip off authorities in advance.

"Somebody equivalent to the CIA is trying to get students arrested as political prisoners so that they cannot cause any more rabble rousing," he said.

ACLU Leader Calls for Arrest

Dr. Otto H. Zinke, chairman of the American Civil Liberties Union of Arkansas, released a statement Friday calling for the arrest of those making the threat "whether the threats are carried out or not."

"Threats can be and are as effective in stifling the freedom of speech as actual actions," the ACLU statement said. "Freedom of speech is guaranteed to Americans by the First Amendment to the Bill of Rights. Any effort from any direction to stifle First Amendment rights of any American deserves a wholehearted attention of all our law enforcement agencies."

Asked about the student activists charges that the bombing threat was a plot to get them out of the way, Zinke, who is a professor at the University, said "I doubt that any students that I know up here would be involved in the bomb threat."

He said the ACLU "will certainly see to it that anybody arrested gets the full measure of due process."

Rusk Opens Centennial Observance At UA Amid Heckling of Protesters

Gazette State News Service

FAYETTEVILLE — Former Secretary of State Dean Rusk opened the University of Arkansas's centennial observance here today amid the heckling of antiwar demonstrators.

Some of the guests and visiting educators responded to the hecklers by shouting for them to shut up. They did, albeit briefly.

Rusk spoke after joining a procession of more than 100 robed educators from the University Law School to the men's gym.

Approaching the gym, the procession passed a line of protesters, including members of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War who oppose Rusk's official involvement in the war as secretary of State under Presidents John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson.

The protesters, dressed in military fatigues and black shpouds, carried signs and had strung a large banner reading "Give Peace a Chance" in front of the gym.

Another banner listed the names of the Arkansas war dead.

One veteran, confined to a wheel chair, held a sign under his chin reading "Thank You Dean Rusk."

The processional members lead by Dean Virgil W. Adkisson, centennial director, University President David W. Mullins and Rusk, who wore a red academic robe, paid little notice to a demonstrator who read antiwar statements as they passed.

After the members of the academic processional had been seated in the center of the gym, the protesters filed in and took seats beside and behind the educators, occasionally shouting antiwar slogans.

At one point, some of the educators yelled back at the demonstrators to be quiet and the protesters fell temporarily into stunned silence.

As the program began, a telegram from Governor Bumpers was read, congratulating the University on its achievements and reminding the educators that the student was their first concern and the basic reason for the University's existence.

Rusk, who is a Rhodes Scholar and currently a professor of international law at the University of Georgia calmly delivered his address, after pausing a moment to tell 20 to 30 protesters that he would meet with them after lunch to discuss issues they were concerned about.

He then continued his speech, often drowning out their shouts.

Rusk said nothing about a bomb threat received Friday in a letter to a Fayetteville newspaper. The letter said bombs would explode at Little Rock, Fort Smith and Fayetteville if "the war criminal" Rusk were allowed to speak.

He briefly discussed what he considered the five biggest problems facing the coming generation: Environment, population, race relations, modification of economic expectations due to a lack of national resources and the organization of a durable peace in the world or, as Rusk put it, "the prevention of World War III."

Rusk told the group of students, alumni and faculty members, "If I could say one thing you would never forget, this is it. We had a chance to start over after World War II but we won't have a chance after World War III. There just won't be enough left."

Dr. Mullins received the first centennial medallion from Fred Pickens, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Descendants of the first eight students of the school, which was then known as the Arkansas Industrial University, also were recognized during the ceremonies.

About 50 young people talked with Rusk for 2½ hours Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian Student Center in a session arranged by the Arkansas Vietnam Veterans Against the War.

Among the participants was a woman student whose two brothers had been killed in Vietnam, whose father is a foreign correspondent there and whose fiance is missing in action.

Another participant was a crippled Vietnam veteran who told Rusk that he had fought for his country and his country was not offering him much help now that he needed it.

The VVAW has called Rusk the "chief architect of the early Vietnam war."

The session was, for the most part, a rational discussion of foreign policy, although one protester accused Rusk of representing a capitalistic system which encourages exploitation and racism.

Rusk, whose daughter is married to a black man, told the young man that he could not be accused of racism.

Rusk told the group that North Vietnam has not promised to release prisoners of war when the war is over and said he didn't think the release of POWs could be the only objective of peace negotiations.

He praised President Nixon's upcoming trip to China, but warned that Americans should not expect too much from the trip.

He said the president would have been better advised to keep quiet on the India-Pakistan war, since America had little involvement with the two countries.

FORMER SECRETARY RUSK

... draws opposition for his role in shaping war in Vietnam

Authorities Tighten Security In Wake Of Bombing Threat

Security was tight in Fayetteville and on the University of Arkansas campus today following bomb threats growing out of the appearance on campus of Dean Rusk, secretary of state during the Kennedy and Johnson administrations.

cord skepticism among law enforcement officials over a letter delivered to the TIMES Friday threatening bomb explosions at Fayetteville, Little Rock and Fort Smith if Rusk spoke.

A long-time member of left-wing political groups on and around the UA campus said the note was an effort to discredit the left-wing movement and create "hysteria."

Police investigators felt there was at least an equally good chance the bomb threat was issued by leftists to whip up interest in protesting Rusk's appearance. The planned protest had made little headway previously, they believed.

Joe Neal of Fayetteville, a UA graduate and veteran leftist campaigner, told the TIMES, "We are not aware of any organization called the 'Student Socialist Movement' and believe the threat is an attempt to discredit opposition to Rusk's visit by creating hysteria."

Police agreed the Student Socialist Movement, the name signed to the bomb threat, is something new and may well not exist. They disagreed that the bomb threat would cause hysteria, saying they had found little concern.

Rusk was scheduled to meet unofficially this afternoon with representatives of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War and to answer their questions.

Neal said he had prepared a list of questions for the students based largely on the Pentagon Papers. It was not clear whether the veterans would use Neal's questions or decide on their own course of action.

Lists Series Of Problems Facing U. S.

By RAY WHITE
TIMES Staff Writer

Dean Rusk's talk today at the University of Arkansas was interrupted several times by shouting from young people in the audience. Interrupted isn't exactly the right word. Rusk never paused as he leaned both elbows on the podium and delivered his address, the sound system drowning out most of the youths' comments.

Rusk spoke at 10 a.m. today at the University of Arkansas Centennial Convocation commemorating the 100th anniversary of the first enrollment at the university.

Before the talk, members of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War unfurled 40-foot-long banners outside the entrance to the Men's Gym where the convocation was held. One listed the Arkansas war dead in Vietnam, and the other carried the slogan, "Give Peace A Chance."

Youths stationed at the entrance passed out mimeographed sheets protesting the war and Rusk's involvement in the political end of it.

Dr. David W. Mullins, UA president, introduced Rusk. "As most Americans know," Mullins said, "Mr. Rusk served as secretary of state during a particularly difficult and turbulent time. However, Mr. Rusk speaks to us today as a member of the academic community."

SERVED JFK, LBJ

Rusk was secretary of state under Presidents John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson. He is now a professor of international law at the University of Georgia at Athens.

Rusk spoke for about 15 minutes. He said the coming generation of young people would be forced to face problems that will determine the survival of mankind.

In wide-ranging remarks he listed the problems he said the nation and the world would face in the next two decades.

"I feel very strongly that the young people who are now in school are a very special generation," he said. He said that was a traditional remark and that "your tongues may be moving toward your cheeks right now" but still he felt it was true.

SOLUTION VITAL

He said serious problems face the nation and "we must reach a definitive solution if the human race is to survive."

He listed the main problems as environment, population control, race relations, economics and peace.

Rusk said he had seen public policy and concern grow and change in regard to the first problem.

"Concern about the environment is good politics," he said. "I could not imagine 10 years ago that the congress could pass a bill requiring automobile manufacturers to clean up their engines in five years. Yet, it has been done."

Rusk said that public policy concerning population control had changed in recent years. "When I joined the cabinet in 1961 if a person had talked about family planning his ears would have been boxed."

(Rusk served under John F. Kennedy, a Catholic, that year.) Still, legislation on family planning has been enacted, he said.

He said the problem for the next generation to face was: "Shall we continue to rely on families to determine family size or shall we have to revert to coercion through law?" Rusk indicated he felt it would be a matter for legislation.

On race relation, Rusk said that "wherever races are in contact there are race problems. . . It's only by the skin of our teeth that we've been able to avoid a race confrontation between the white race and all the rest."

Rusk also said the country would have to deal with the problem of the nation's "economic expectations." He said the country has become accustomed to doubling the Gross National Product every 20 years.

CAN'T CONTINUE

"That can't continue," he said, "partly because the resources aren't there" and because other nations won't allow it.

Rusk said the most pressing problems was "the organization of a durable peace in the world."

He said there were millions of megatons of nuclear armaments "lying around in the hands of frail human beings."

"These are weapons which, if they were all fired together, could put in question the survivability of the human race," he said.

"We shall not have a chance to start over after World War III," he said. "There just won't be enough left. So now we are faced with solving the problem of the war before it occurs."

How? he asked.

Rusk said the nation came out of World War II "rather strongly committed to the principle that the prevention of war required collective security."

The principle is embodied in the United Nations Charter and strengthened by NATC and certain treaties, he said.

"Now the idea of collective security is rapidly eroding," he said. But, he said, to return to isolationism was not the solution.

AVOID OLD ERRORS

"I have told my young friends not to reject the mistakes of their fathers merely to make the mistakes of their grandfathers."

Rusk said the young people of today were perhaps equipped to deal with the problem of nuclear war.

"We have come 25 years without a nuclear weapon being dropped in anger. . . perhaps in another 25 years the idea will become unthinkable," he said.

Rusk concluded his remarks with this observation: "The family of man is finally coming into being. Not because of sentiments of brotherhood. . . but because of the sheer necessities of getting along with each other." This creates new problems, answers to which must be found by international agreement. "That's why I elected to spend the rest of my years studying international law," he said.

Rusk repeated that the next generation must find the answers. "I have no doubt that the University of Arkansas will play its part in the development of that very special generation."

Following Rusk's talk, Fred M. Pickens, the chairman of the UA Board of Trustees, commented upon the disturbances by the youths in the audience.

"To our distinguished guest I would say disagreement is one thing, bad taste is another."

Then Pickens presented a gold centennial medallion about the size of a fist to Dr. Mullins.

Young people gathered about 9:30 a.m. in front of the Men's Gym to protest Rusk's appearance on campus.

About a dozen members of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War stood in front of the Gym.

Martin Jordan, state coordinator of the group, said he had arranged with the university for his group to meet Rusk for an informal discussion at 2 p.m. at the Deep End coffee house at the Presbyterian Youth Center near the campus.

Rusk alluded to the meeting in his talk. After the first shouted outburst, he said, "It is to be my privilege to meet after lunch with some of those who have disagreed with what I have done."

LEAFLET IGNORED

The students handed out leaflets to persons entering the gym. One man with a gray beard and moustache shouldered the leaflet out of his way.

As he walked away, the youth called after him, "Hey, 200 tons of bombs were dropped on Vietnam. Ignore it if you wish."

Inside the gym, a bearded young man who identified himself only as "someone who's against war and imperialism" stood up and delivered a short extemporaneous speech on the Vietnam war.

Most persons turned to watch but could not hear what he said because the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra was warming up.

Later, he and several others chanted, "Stop the War, stop the bombing."

Dean Rusk
Summary

Captioned individual, who you advised was born February 9, 1909, at Cherokee County, Georgia, and currently resides at 1 Lafayette Square, 620 Hill Street, Athens, Georgia, was the subject of an investigation conducted by the FBI in 1948 under provision of Executive Order 9835 (Federal Employee Loyalty Program). The results of that investigation were furnished to the Civil Service Commission (CSC) and, by letter dated June 13, 1949, the CSC advised that the disposition of the case was "eligible on loyalty." He also was the subject of applicant-type investigations conducted by this Bureau in 1953, 1960, 1965 and 1969. The FBI summary memorandum dated July 20, 1960, contained the results of the previous investigations of Mr. Rusk as well as the results of that 1960 investigation concerning him.

Copies of the FBI summary memoranda dated July 20, 1960; January 15, 1965; and May 26, 1969, each concerning David Dean Rusk are attached. (77-84006-30; 161-3172-40, 213)

By FBI letter dated June 5, 1969, the White House was advised that 14 additional professional associates were interviewed and they commented favorably concerning Mr. Rusk's character, associates, loyalty, and reputation. It was variously stated that he is an intelligent and dedicated public servant who discharged his duties as Secretary of State in a competent manner. They highly recommended Mr. Rusk for a position of trust with the Government. Among those interviewed were the following: Charles E. Goodell and Jacob K. Javits, United States Senators from New York; Robert S. McNamara, President, International Bank for Reconstruction and Development; U. Alexis Johnson, Under Secretary for Political Affairs, Department of State; and Theodore Tannenwald, Jr., Judge, Tax Court of the United States.

VISIT TO MEXICO BY DEAN RUSK,
SEPTEMBER 30, 1966

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency;
it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

It will be recalled that on September 28, 1966, T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that students of the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) at Mexico City were being urged to go to the dedication of the new Foreign Ministry Building on September 30, 1966, to protest the arrival of United States Secretary of State, DEAN RUSK. Sponsors of this activity included the Liga Comunista-Espartaco (LCE - Spartacist Communist League), the Partido Mexicano de Los Trabajadores (PMT - Mexican Party of the Workers), and followers of the Fourth International.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that LCE has recently emerged in Mexico as one of the most important Trotskyist organizations which follows the pro-Chinese Communist line.

T-2 has described the PMT as a Marxist organization of Trotskyite character.

On October 4, 1966, T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a talk by JUAN DUCH COLLEL at 7:00 P.M. on September 29, 1966, at the Law School of the University on the topic of the "political prisoners" held by the Government of Mexico was canceled due to lack of student attendance. On the same evening, however, a similar program at the School of Economics sponsored by several different leftist student groups attracted 250 listeners.

On September 30, 1966, T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that JUAN DUCH COLEL was named as a substitute member of the Central Committee of the Partido Comunista Mexicano (PCM - Communist Party of Mexico) representing Yucatan.

The published statutes of the PCM state "The Communist Party of Mexico has as its final objectives to construct socialism and to build the Communist society in Mexico."

On October 4, 1966, T-2 advised that the leaders of the PCM had contacted the student groups at the University, namely, the LCE, PMT, and the Fourth International, to urge these groups not to stage any demonstration at the Foreign Ministry Building Dedication on September 30, 1966, so as not to interfere with the meeting which the PCM had scheduled for the same time to urge the release of the "political prisoners." T-2 advised that the students readily accepted the request of the PCM because the poor attendance at their own campus meeting of protest had led them to fear that any proposed student demonstration at the dedication site would be a resounding failure.

T-2 advised that on the evening of September 30, at the time of the dedication ceremony, numerous plain-clothes policemen were observed in the area of the Foreign Ministry. Near the site of the PCM "political prisoner" meeting at Solon Union y Concordia, many police panel trucks and helmeted grenadiers were observed in readiness.

There was no disorder or attempt to demonstrate on that evening.

Re Chicago airtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) to the Director dated 10/10/66, and Bureau airtel to Chicago dated 1/13/67.

Enclosed for the Bureau are 11 copies of a LHM dated and captioned as above. Two (2) copies of FD-376 are also enclosed for the Bureau.

Referenced Bureau airtel dated 1/13/67, requested the Chicago Division to ascertain if possible where SCHMITT obtained a copy of Director HOOVER's introduction to the 2/66 FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. Chicago was also requested to make certain that SCHMITT understands that material from the FBI is not to be used in the manner in which SCHMITT had done so and that he should cease and desist this practice immediately.

The subject was contacted and interviewed at his residence on 1/17/67, after unsuccessful attempts had been made to identify his current employment and to locate him away from his residence. The subject was shown a reprint of the Director's article to all law enforcement officials dated 2/1/66, and stated that he recognized this document as one of about 200 which he mailed to various people throughout Illinois in 12/66. He advised he recalled that "two or three" other items were mailed with the above document but he could not specifically recall the name or the contents of these other items. He said all of the above items were furnished to him for mailing by a "friend" who is "strongly opposed to communism" and who feels, as he does, that the comments of J. EDGAR HOOVER as set forth in the above documents should receive wide spread dissemination in order that the general public might have this material available to them.

He stated he has had a bulk mailing permit at the Wheaton, Illinois, Post Office since 4/66 which expired in 12/66. He mailed all of the above items at one time in early 12/66, for his "friend" to save postage through the bulk mailing permit. He stated that inasmuch as neither he nor his "friend" have violated any law in causing the material to be mailed. He would not under any circumstances divulge this party's name. He does not know nor does he have any information as to where his "friend" acquired the Director's article and that he would not divulge this information even if he knew the source.

The subject advised, however, that he now realizes that the Director's article to all law enforcement officials dated 2/1/66, should not have been mailed out in its entirety as was done by him. The subject said he has great respect for the Director and the FBI and he knows that Mr. HOOVER's comments are always widely accepted by the American people. He stated that in the future he would not handle any mailings pertaining to official Bureau publications realizing that there are other proper channels to bring the Director's comments to the American people.

The subject also advised that the FBI is the only existing Federal agency for which he has any respect. He informed that all other Federal agencies, including all Government officials, are currently under the control and domination of "liberal communist philosophy."

Copies of the enclosed LHM are being disseminated locally to OSI, ONI, 113th MI Group, Evanston, Illinois, U.S. Secret Service, Chicago, and USA, Chicago. FD-376 is also being furnished to U.S. Secret Service, Chicago.

The subject is currently on the Reserve Index - Section B of the Chicago Office. The subject was appropriately reprimanded for his activities regarding the Director's article referred to previously and since he has agreed that he was in error in this matter and that he will not commit this error in the future, no additional investigation is being conducted by the Chicago Division.

the control and domination of the Communist Party. He stated that he personally would assassinate Secretary Rusk, however, "the American people are not worth it". He added that since the United States will in a very short time be taken over by the communists and that all of the American people will be slaves to communism, his only desire is to protect his own personal life and he has no intention of actually assassinating Dean Rusk, Secretary of State. He stated that he did not value his own life, and would gladly die to protect his own personal freedom.

Mr. Leonard Barwig, Chief Security Officer, Chicago Aerial Industries, 550 Northwest Highway, Barrington, Illinois, advised on January 17, 1967, that Wilhelm E. Schmitt, 1830 East Evergreen, Wheaton, Illinois, was employed by the company from November 16, 1965, until November 22, 1965, at which time he "voluntarily quit." He was re-hired on December 6, 1965, and his employment was terminated by the company on April 22, 1966. He stated that Schmitt was employed during the above periods as a research engineer. Mr. Barwig informed that Schmitt's termination by the company was brought about with his refusal to have income tax deductions from his salary. Schmitt had requested that the company pay him on a contract basis to avoid having money taken from his salary for income tax purposes inasmuch as these funds were helping to support a Government which was totally under the control of the communists.

Files of the DuPage County Credit Bureau, Wheaton, Illinois, searched on January 17, 1967, revealed as of February 10, 1966; Wilhelm E. Schmitt, 1830 East Evergreen, Wheaton, Illinois, was employed by the Chicago Aerial Industries, Barrington, Illinois, as a research engineer. Previous employment was listed as Interlake Steel Company, 74th and Ashland Streets, Chicago, Illinois, as "engineer." Also Lockheed Missiles, Sunnydale, California, as senior research engineer. The record also revealed Wilhelm E. Schmitt was divorced from [redacted] under number 2-64-2581.

RE: WILHELM ERNST SCHMITT

Chief of Police Herb White, Wheaton, Illinois, Police Department, advised on January 17, 1967, that the records of his office contained no arrest information regarding Wilhelm Ernst Schmitt. His records do indicate that Schmitt was driving a four-door 1964 Imperial automobile bearing 1966 Illinois License JR 4488, that he carries a gun in a shoulder holster, and that he would not hesitate to shoot anyone who infringes on his rights. There was an indication that Schmitt had also threatened the life of the President of the United States "and others". He was considered "very dangerous".

A copy of this communication is being furnished to the Office of Special Investigations; Office of Naval Intelligence; Region I, 113th MI Group, Evanston, Illinois; United States Secret Service, Chicago; and United States Attorney, Chicago. Sergeant Joseph Fahey, Intelligence Unit, Chicago, Illinois Police Department, was furnished the above information on January 17, 1967. L. A. Charles, Assistant Regional Inspector, Internal Revenue Service, Chicago, Illinois, was also furnished the above information on January 17, 1967.

March 28, 1967

VISIT OF SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK
TO CORNELL UNIVERSITY, ITHACA, NEW YORK
MARCH 24 - 25, 1967

By memorandum dated March 2, 1967, Mr. Keith O. Lynch, Chief, Division of Protective Security, Department of State, Washington, D.C., advised that Secretary of State Dean Rusk was scheduled to visit Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, March 24 through 25, 1967, and that he was scheduled to deliver an Oliphant Fellowship address at Bailey Hall at 8:15 p.m., March 24, 1967.

Contacts maintained with source 1, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who has a knowledge of student protest activity at Cornell University, during the week preceding Secretary Rusk's speech, developed no information concerning any specific student demonstration activity planned while Mr. Rusk was in Ithaca. Source advised that the various Cornell student and faculty peace groups, and in particular, Students for a Democratic Society, were too strongly involved with the Cornell administration in an effort to secure pledges to burn draft cards at the Spring Mobilization in New York City on April 15, 1967, to be able to devote their efforts to Mr. Rusk's visit.

However, on March 24, 1967, the above source advised that he had learned that many of the "peace agitators" at Cornell would attend Mr. Rusk's lecture and would more or less peacefully demonstrate by wearing shrouds and death masks in order to register their feelings concerning U. S. military action in Vietnam.

On March 24, 1967, source 2, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is [redacted] at Cornell University, advised that he had maintained contact with representatives of Students for a Democratic Society at Cornell and that he had been assured that the SDS members planned no unruly demonstration or acts of civil disobedience during Mr. Rusk's visit to the university.

This source stated that Carl S. Hurz, Professor of Mathematics, had planned a silent vigil to be conducted on the Arts College Quadrangle from Noon until 6:00 p.m. on March 24, 1967, as a silent protest to U. S. Vietnam intervention. According to this source, Hurz was also attempting to have faculty and student sympathizers attend the Rusk lecture wearing shrouds and bandages, to stand up and turn their backs on Secretary Rusk when he began speaking, and to then silently leave the auditorium.

On March 24, 1967, Sergeant Ralph Coskey, Cornell University Safety Division, advised that the silent vigil on the Arts Quadrangle began at Noon with 100 persons present. This number gradually dwindled to less than thirty during the afternoon, and to the conclusion of the vigil.

Source 2 and Sergeant Coskey later advised that handbills and arm bands reading, "Shame" were distributed outside of Bailey Hall prior to Mr. Rusk's lecture. These handbills set out sample questions which should be asked of Mr. Rusk concerning the bombings of civilians, the accidental destruction of "friendly" villages, the use of and deaths caused by napalm, and the possibility of the future use of nuclear weapons against the North Vietnamese.

Mr. Rusk was introduced to a capacity audience of approximately 2,200 persons by Cornell University President James Perkins. Immediately after his introduction, approximately twenty persons got up from their seats and left the auditorium. An additional group of about 100 scattered throughout the audience then donned death masks and shrouds, which they continued to wear during the remainder of his speech. There was no heckling or other form of demonstration during the formal speech; however, during the question and answer period thereafter, there were some jeers and adverse comments by those wearing masks, but there were no disturbances.

TRIP TO MONTREAT, NORTH CAROLINA,
JUNE 10, 1967

Re Department of State memo to Director dated 6/5/67, a copy of which was forwarded to Charlotte by Bureau Routing Slip 6/6/67.

Charlotte has no knowledge of any person, effort, or organization that might attempt to cause any physical harm or embarrassment to the Secretary during this trip.

It is noted that chapters of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) are located at Duke University, Durham, N. C., and University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N. C. The Chapel Hill group picketed Vice President HUBERT HUMPHREY at the time of his visit to the University of North Carolina on 2/28/67. However, due to the fact that students are now out of school and due to the great distance between Chapel Hill and Durham and Montreat, N. C., it does not appear at all likely that either of these groups would engage in any type of demonstration regarding this visit.

It is further noted in case captioned, "COMINFIL, SOUTHERN STUDENT ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (SSOC); IS - C", Memphis airtel and LHM to the Bureau 5/25/67, reflected that an annual conference of SSOC was held at Buckeye Cove, N. C., on 5/5-7/67. However, information was received recently from the caretaker at Buckeye Cove, N. C., that all members of this group have departed. There is no chapter of this group in the Asheville, N. C., area. It is noted that Buckeye Cove, N. C., is only a short distance from Montreat, N. C.

At 3:20 P.M., August 28, 1967, a telephone call was received in this office from a female adult who identified herself as Ernestine Wolf and resides at 3624 Norton Street, Washington, D. C. The caller initially attempted to speak with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, but because of her hostile attitude, the Department of State telephone operator directed the call to instrument DU-3-3896 and it was received by [redacted]. Although the call was received in this Office, [redacted] announced that it was the Secretary's Office. The caller was described as being extremely incoherent and she resorted extensively to the use of obscene language directed at both the Secretary of State by name and [redacted] as an individual. Predicated on the statements made by the caller, the purpose of her conversation was to protest that an American aircraft had been shot down over China and that she allegedly had been attacked on the evening of August 27, 1967, by a person of Chinese extraction. During the conversation with [redacted] the caller made the following first person statements: "I'm going to machine gun him" and at the time was speaking about Secretary of State Dean Rusk and the Department's policies that allowed the shooting down of an American aircraft over China. She also commented that "After I get him (understood to mean Secretary Rusk), I will put the Chinaman who attacked me under the jail". "I don't mean in the jail, I mean under the jail. Do you understand what I mean?". The caller also condemned Secretary Rusk for allowing Chinese to enter the United States. According to [redacted] the caller made no statement which would indicate whether or not she has access to any weapons including a machine gun or if she was capable of using a weapon. He further advised that the caller did not state when, where or how she planned to use the weapon.

Yesterday I received information on a highly confidential basis from [redacted] who is the [redacted] representative in this area. [redacted] stated that Secretary of State Dean Rusk was expected to come to the San Francisco area on September 21, 1967. The reported purpose of his trip is to visit a relative who is recovering from major surgery; however, [redacted] states that the Secretary's 18-year-old daughter who is a student at Stanford University at Palo Alto will be married there on September 21, 1967, to a 23-year-old Negro student. This Negro student's father is supposed to be an employee of the Department of Defense in Washington, D. C. Mr. Rusk commented to Reynolds that, while he knew this interracial marriage would become known, he did not desire any prior publicity as he was concerned about unfavorable comments, demonstrators and others who might cause embarrassment or attempt to disrupt the wedding.

Liaison Supervisor Bartlett has learned that during the past few days, since the marriage of the daughter of Secretary of State Dean Rusk to a Negro, a large volume of mail has been sent to Secretary Rusk from all over the United States. Most of these letters are in the vein of "how could you allow such a thing to happen." A few of these letters are extremely nasty and obscene in expressing the writer's objection to the recent marriage.

Planned Demonstration at Convocation Speech of
Secretary of State Dean Rusk,
Indiana University, Bloomington,
Indiana, October 31, 1967

A confidential source at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana (IU), contact with whom has been insufficient to determine reliability, advised on October 11, 1967 that a high level conference was held in Bloomington, Indiana, on October 10, 1967 to discuss plans for the march on Washington, D. C. October 21, 1967. Participants in this meeting included leaders of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) at IU, IU Committee to End the War in Viet Nam (IU-CEWV) and the IU Chapter W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America (IU-DCA).

Characterization of the SDS, IU-CEWV, IU-DCA and the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA) appear on the appendix pages attached hereto.

At this meeting it was announced that Secretary of State Dean Rusk was scheduled to give a convocation speech in the IU auditorium on October 31, 1967. Discussion was had concerning possible plans for a demonstration against his speech.

[redacted] former [redacted] and [redacted] of the SDS at IU and [redacted] suggested that they possibly could wrap two bricks in a package and hide several packages in the auditorium and then call in an anonymous bomb threat to disrupt the speech. Source pointed out that this was just a suggestion and the suggestion was turned down by the other participants at the meeting as being too dangerous a law violation.

Other plans discussed were to give IU officials a list of nine speakers from which to choose one anti-administration speaker as an equal time speaker on the IU campus. They would demand the university schedule a speaker of their choice or they would disrupt the speech of Secretary Rusk. Also under discussion were methods of demonstrating inside and outside the auditorium to disrupt the speech. The plan most liked by the participants was to buy Halloween skull masks for their militant people and pack the auditorium during the speech. On a signal from leaders immediately after the introduction, they would don these masks and start a rhythmic clapping and chanting to keep Secretary Rusk from speaking. No specific plans were decided upon during this meeting and it was decided to wait until their return from the march on Washington for further decision.

On October 24, 1967 this same source advised that over 200 people from IU attended the march on Washington, D.C. on October 21, 1967 and most of them returned from this march with a more militant attitude than they had before. On October 23, 1967 leaders of the above mentioned organizations at IU decided that they would continue with the plan to demand IU schedule an anti-war speaker if Secretary Rusk was to speak.

This demand was born out of a letter to the IU Convocation Committee from the IU-CEWV and from [redacted]

[redacted] This letter was printed in the "new Left" newspaper at IU, "The Spectator" on Page 16 dated October 23, 1967. This letter stated that if IU did not arrange an appearance of such a speaker to appear before January 1, 1968 and arrangements made before October 31, 1967, "intellectual responsibility demands that Dean Rusk not be allowed to speak at IU."

This source further stated that current plans call for the faculty group of militants of these organizations at IU to hold the usual demonstration in the usual place around Showalter Fountain in front of the IU auditorium to draw attention. Meanwhile militant student and faculty members will enter the auditorium with the rest of the audience, hoping to get 300-500 militants into the audience. The auditorium holds 3300 people. After the introduction of Dean Rusk by IU President Elvis Stahr, Jr., these militants will remain standing and continue a rhythmic clapping and chanting to prevent Secretary Rusk from speaking. They feel that even if they are removed by the police it will take the police so long to remove them that this will disrupt his entire intended speech.

No further specific plans have been formulated by these clubs at this time.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIETNAM

A source advised on June 9, 1967, that the Indiana University Committee to End the War in Vietnam (IU-CEWV) was officially registered as a campus organization at Indiana University with 15 members on March 17, 1966, by Stephen Michael Cagan, a graduate student of Indiana University. The source stated that the constitution of this Committee filed with the University stated, "We shall be represented on the National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NCCEWVN) and shall work with any organizations or individuals sharing our goals. Excepting the National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Vietnam, we have no connection with any previously constituted political, religious, educational, or social group."

A second source advised on July 10, 1967, that Stephen Michael Cagan was the organizer and secretary of the Indiana University Chapter of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (IU-DCA) when registered at Indiana University on February 7, 1966. Cagan subsequently left his position as secretary of the IU-DCA in order to organize the IU-CEWV. Cagan stated that IU-CEWV will be used as a "front organization" for the IU-DCA for the purpose of holding demonstrations without organizational involvement of this organization. Activity continues at the present time.

A source advised on April 11, 1966, that the Indiana University Chapter, W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (IU - DCA) was officially registered at Indiana University on February 7, 1966, with 15 members.

Source advised [redacted] on February 1, 1966, made application for registration, at which time he made available an official written statement to the Director of Student Activities, Indiana University, as follows. "The Indiana University Chapter is a full chapter affiliate of the National organization -- the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America. We can initiate our own action or decide not to carry out a particular action project of the national, but are bound by national policy. The above source further advised that although [redacted] Chairman, applied for University recognition of the IU - DCA, [redacted] was actually the organizer and secretary of this group [redacted] subsequently resigned this position from the IU - DCA in order to organize the Indiana University Committee to End the War in Viet Nam.

A second source advised on May 3, 1966, that the IU - DCA sponsored the appearance at Indiana University on March 10, 1966, of Hugo Sterling Fowler, National Chairman of the W. E. B. W. E. B. DUBOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

The second source advised on May 1, 1967 that the current officers of the DCA, as well as all members of the DCA National Executive Committee, are members of the CP and that the CPUSA furnishes the major financial support for the DCA national office.

The second source advised that in September, 1966 FRANKLIN ALEXANDER, DCA National Chairman, stated that the DCA is now in fact a functioning young communist league. Also, in September, 1966, MIKE ZAGARELL, CPUSA Youth Director, stated that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base through the DCA.

SUBJECT: Secretary's Trip to Bloomington, Indiana

On October 17, 1967, the Writer received a telephone call from a person who identified himself as Jim Clark, a Reporter for the Bloomington Tribune. Mr. Clark advised that he was preparing an article on the Secretary's proposed trip to Indiana University on October 31 and was interested in getting a run down as to the security precautions that would be in effect for the visit. He went on to explain that in view of the proposed demonstration, which he understood was to take place, he was desirous of obtaining information on the security precautions.

Mr. Clark was advised that it was against the policy of the Department to discuss security precautions with anyone, and it was suggested that he call the Public Affairs area for any information that they may care to release.

Mr. Clark then volunteered that information had come to his attention that at the University of Indiana there was a new Left Movement for Peace in Vietnam, and that the students belonging to this organization were planning to demonstrate against the Secretary when he came to the University to speak. One of their demands was that they would have one of their own people on the speaker's platform along with the Secretary or else he would not be allowed to speak. Mr. Clark advised that he did not have any further information on this organization, and was wondering if we were aware of the situation. I again advised Mr. Clark that we could not release any of that information and referred him to the Public Affairs area. Mr. Clark thanked the Writer and hung up.

The PHOENIX GAZETTE is a daily newspaper of general circulation published at Phoenix, Arizona. On February 1, 1968, Mr. Jon Foreman, staff writer for the PHOENIX GAZETTE, made available a copy of some material which had come to him through the mail unsolicited. It consisted of a one-page mimeographed letter reading as follows:

Phoenix Committee on Vietnam
P. O. Box 3066

January 29, 1968

Dear Friend,

The peace movement is quite concerned about the recent indictment of Dr. Benjamin Spock, Reverend William Sloane Coffin, Jr., and three other men, for conspiring to counsel young men to refuse to fight the war in Vietnam. This is a very serious attack not only on the peace movement, but also on our fundamental civil rights. If opposition to the war is not to be intimidated into silence, we must fight these indictments and the others like them to come. The ACLU, Dr. Martin Luther King, and many others have already indicated full support for those indicted. We urgently solicit your financial support to aid in the legal defense of local protesters and resisters under threat of indictment. We also solicit your active participation in opposition to the indictments already handed down. Please endorse one or both of the enclosed public statements. Be assured that these statements will not be made public until we have contacted you for a decision as to how and when they will be made public. The other two statements on the enclosed sheet are self-explanatory. Please sign either or both of them.

Yours for peace,

Morris J. Starsky, Chrmn.

P.S. Rusk speaks in Phoenix on February 23rd. Let's give him a welcome he will never get over or rationalize away.

1. I join Dr. Spock and Reverend William Sloano Coffin, Jr. in recognizing that the U.S. war in Vietnam is illegal and immoral. I also call upon all young Americans to refuse to be drafted or, if already in the armed forces, to refuse to obey orders to fight in Vietnam.

2. I protest the indictments of Dr. Spock and the others. Believing that the war in Vietnam is illegal and immoral, they spoke out against it and urged young Americans not to take part in it. I am convinced that such action on their part is Constitutionally protected.

3. You have my permission to give my name to any political party, organized or attempting to organize, that will campaign against Johnson and the war in Vietnam.

DEMONSTRATION TO PROTEST
PUBLIC APPEARANCES OF
SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK

On January 18, 1968, confidential informant PX T-1 related that Morris J. Starsky, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, seems to have become increasingly preoccupied with opposition to the war in Vietnam and to the military involvement of the United States in that conflict. On January 16, 1968, Starsky stated that he and Donald W. Gieschen, also an Assistant Professor of Philosophy at ASU, had written and distributed a document in this connection which might result in their arrest.

Starsky indicated that this material was directed to faculty members and was in support of Dr. Benjamin Spock and others who had been indicted for counseling young men to defy Selective Service laws and evade military service. Starsky talked as if he actually wanted to be arrested. He said that persons sincerely involved in the peace movement must now be prepared to engage in actions which will cause their arrest, thereby dramatizing their views on the war and achieving publicity and public sympathy.

In connection with a prior investigation, T-1, on September 24, 1965, stated that Morris J. Starsky was a controversial figure from a personality standpoint in that he was generally regarded as somewhat eccentric but he had not previous to that time been publicly identified with matters of a political nature. The source also advised that prior to coming to ASU in September, 1964, Starsky had taught philosophy at the University of Washington. It was determined in September, 1965, that Starsky had not previously come to the attention of the Seattle or Phoenix Divisions of the FBI.

On August 4, 1967, the source recalled that in the 1966-67 school year during which period the ASU Committee to End the War in Vietnam gained official recognition on the campus, Starsky acted as the faculty adviser.

CONFIDENTIAL

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

DEMONSTRATION TO PROTEST
PUBLIC APPEARANCES OF
SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK

On January 25, 1968, T-1 advised that Donald W. Gieschen freely admits to participating regularly in vigils and demonstrations against the war in Vietnam. He recalled that during previous years at ASU when the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was endeavoring unsuccessfully to gain official recognition on the campus, Gieschen was unofficially the faculty adviser to that group.

A characterization of the SDS is contained in the appendix hereto.

In the course of a prior investigation on October 16, 1967, eleven persons, including and seemingly led by Morris J. Starsky, were observed to be present from 6:30 a.m. to 7:15 a.m. in front of the Armed Forces Examining and Entrance Station, 545 East Moreland Street, Phoenix, Arizona. During this period 58 men reported to the station, 32 of them being armed forces volunteers and 26 being men ordered to report for physical examination under Selective Service. Demonstrators handed each of the 58 men a leaflet consisting of a typewritten mimeographed message taking up both sides of one sheet of paper. The document was captioned "A Call to Resist Illegitimate Authority" and indicated that further information could be obtained from "ARC (Arizona Resistance Committee) P. O. Box 3066 Scottsdale, Ariz."

Also, on October 16, 1967, confidential informant PX T-2 advised that Post Office Box 3066, Scottsdale, Arizona, has been rented since September 15, 1965, to the "Committee on Vietnam." [redacted] signed for it and indicated that Morris Starsky was also entitled to receive mail from the box.

In March, 1963, a winter visitor to Arizona advised the Phoenix Office of the FBI that at a Methodist Church in Chandler, Arizona, he had heard a sermon by a guest minister, Reverend Walter A. McCleneghan, which "went right down the the Communist Party line." One John D. Van Kilsdonk, in August, 1966, informed the Phoenix Office of the FBI by letter that he was the vice chairman of the Phoenix Committee on Vietnam. He described this committee as "a mixed group of persons from all walks of life who do not agree with the morality, legality or wisdom of our foreign policy in Asia and elsewhere." Van Kilsdonk pointed out that the Reverend Walter A. McCleneghan, a retired minister, was the chairman of that committee.

Current local newspaper stories have related that Secretary of State Dean Rusk will address a foreign policy conference at the TowneHouse at Phoenix on February 23, 1968, co-sponsored by the U. S. Department of State and the World Affairs Council of Phoenix. The program will be repeated February 24, 1968, in Grady Gammage Auditorium at ASU.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students.

Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome.

The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

"An anti-war protest will greet Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other top State Department officials at a Foreign Policy Conference on Feb. 24 at Gammage Auditorium.

"The conference, beginning at 9:30 a.m. and ending about 4:30 p.m., will be sponsored by the State Department and the World Affairs Council of Phoenix and will be challenged by the Phoenix Committee on Vietnam.

"MORRIS J. STARSKY, chairman of the Committee on Vietnam and assistant professor of philosophy, said Rusk will be challenged to 'tell the truth about the war.'

DEMONSTRATION TO PROTEST
PUBLIC APPEARANCES OF
SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK

"By 'the truth about the war,' Starsky said he seeks more information concerning more aspects of the war, the truth about the kind of government the South Vietnamese are trying to set up and the kind the State Department says they are trying to set up, the truth about U.S. policy and the reason for the war.

"Starsky made it clear that the committee would make no attempt to interfere with the conference nor would there be any personal interference with Rusk.

"There would, however, be demonstrations protesting the war in the form of picketing, 'leafletting,' silent vigil and draft card burning.

"Rusk is also scheduled to speak at the World Affairs Conference at the TowneHouse on Feb. 23.

"Starsky said that picketing will begin downtown at 8 a.m. on Feb. 23 and the same time at Grady Gammage on Feb. 24. The silent vigil is scheduled for noon downtown and at Gammage on the respective days.

"When asked whether the United States should end the war by escalating to the point of utter defeat of the enemy or by pulling our troops out with a hope for peace negotiations, he said we should pull out. 'We have no moral right to be in the war, we can't win the war, and we shouldn't want to win,' Starsky said.

"Starsky also expressed the peace movement's concern about the recent indictment of Dr. Benjamin Spock who allegedly conspired to incite young men to violate the draft laws.

"This is a serious attack not only on the peace movement but also on our fundamental civil rights," Starsky said.

"He said the Spock incident violates the civil right of free speech in that when a student or other person of draft age asks a member of the peace movement for counsel, that member should be allowed to present his views and give appropriate counsel.

"He went on to say that when a person of draft age decides that he does not want to serve, he should be given the same right to dissent as a pacifist.

"Another civil right that Starsky said is being violated is the right of individuals to establish the limits of the war-making machine rather than the government.

"He clarified this position by saying that the authority to join the military or not to join should be vested in the individual and not the state."

On February 8, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, said that Starsky claimed he was misquoted in the STATE PRESS; that he had made no mention of draft card burning and that no draft card burnings were anticipated.

The Department of State advised under date of February 9, 1968, that Secretary of State Dean Rusk will fly to Phoenix, Arizona, on February 23, 1968, and return to Washington, D. C. the same date.

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECTS (2) THREAT AGAINST PRESIDENTIAL

On August 22, 1968, [redacted]
[redacted] Kansas City, Missouri, advised that on Sunday, August 18, 1968, he and his father, [redacted]
[redacted] Kansas City, Missouri, between 2:00 and 4:00 pm, overheard two men conversing over two General Electric walkie-talkie type radios with which they were his father's home at the above address when they heard an older man and younger man conversing. The younger man said, "Do you know that they got $50,000 for the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy. They got $50,000 for the assassination of John F. Kennedy, too?" Then according to [redacted] the younger man also said, "Do you know Mc Carthy is next?"

[redacted] believes he then said, "Dean Rusk is next in line after him."

[redacted] states the unknown subjects then dropped this conversation and discussed Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton and other movie stars in general conversation nothing the conversation and asked some questions of these two men about Elizabeth Taylor going to the hospital.

[redacted] advised that they monitored the conversation of these two men for approximately 45 minutes to one hour and felt that they were just rambling on in general conversation and although they did not feel that it was right to talk like this he did not think it serious enough to contact any

The New Haven Journal-Courier, a daily newspaper published at New Haven, Connecticut, in its issue of September 12, 1968, on page four contained an article captioned, "Protest Rally Planned". The article revealed that "RENNIE DAVIS, a key figure in the Chicago Democratic National Convention anti-war demonstrations is to speak tonight at a rally protesting Secretary of State DEAN RUSK's appearance here.

"DAVIS is a leader of the militant National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NMC) and figured prominently in the organization of the violence-racked Chicago protests. Protesters say they plan to ring Woolsey Hall with a 1,000 man picketline beginning at 5:30 p.m., and then stage a competing anti-war rally in nearby Beinecke Plaza, during the RUSK address."

A flier distributed on and about the Yale University Campus and the downtown New Haven, area reflected that "DEAN RUSK 'Secretary of War' is speaking at Yale to the Manufacturers Association of Connecticut. ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE VISIT OF
SECRETARY OF STATE RUSK TO
YALE UNIVERSITY TO ADDRESS THE
MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION OF
CONNECTICUT, SEPTEMBER 12, 1968

The sponsoring groups were identified as the American Independent Movement, Connecticut Peace Coalition, New Haven Draft Action Group - Resistance, Yale Students for a Democratic Society.

Shortly after 5:00 p.m., on September 12, 1968, a crowd estimated at between 1,000 and 1,500 gathered in the vicinity of Woolsey Hall and proceeded to march around the block encompassing Woolsey Hall and Beinecke Plaza, Yale University. Secretary of State RUSK entered Woolsey Hall at about 6:00 p.m. amid shouts of "Stop the war", "Stop the bombing", and "Peace now", but the crowd remained otherwise orderly and presented no threat to security. Demonstrators carrying anti-war and anti-RUSK signs continued to march around the block until 6:30 p.m., at which time they retired to Beinecke Plaza at the rear of Woolsey Hall for a rally featuring anti-war and anti-administration speeches. The rally ended at 7:40 p.m., and the crowd dispersed. No demonstrators were present when Secretary RUSK departed Woolsey Hall at 9:45 p.m. en route to the New Haven airport.

About 6:45 p.m., September 12, 1968, an anonymous telephone call was received by the New Haven Police Department reporting that a bomb had been placed in Woolsey Hall. The New Haven Fire Department arrived at the scene and conducted a search of Woolsey Hall but no bomb was discovered.

The September 13, 1968, issue of the New Haven Journal-Courier, on page one contained an article captioned "Anti-RUSK Rally Is Orderly". This article revealed that "RENNIE DAVIS, a leader of the militant National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam Thursday night urged a crowd of more than 1,000 protesters at Yale University's Beinecke Plaza to help 'create a lot of little Chicagos everywhere' during the week of November 5." According to the article, DAVIS was the principal speaker at an orderly anti-war rally sponsored by local militant groups and planned to coincide with Secretary of State DEAN RUSK's address to the Manufacturers Association of Connecticut in Woolsey Hall.

ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE VISIT OF
SECRETARY OF STATE RUSK TO
YALE UNIVERSITY TO ADDRESS THE
MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION OF
CONNECTICUT, SEPTEMBER 12, 1968

The article quoted DAVIS as calling the November Presidential election as "hopelessly rigged". He suggested that "the election should be postponed until there is a meaningful choice", and he announced he was going to Washington this weekend to plan "direct demonstrations for the week of November 5". The NMC has proclaimed the week "GI Week".

According to the article, DAVIS said that further plans for the "rigged and fraudulent election" week included enlisting "hundreds of church services" to leaflet the country's airports and bus stations with anti-war literature.

DAVIS said on election day polling places where the principal candidates vote "will be turned into armed camps by massive anti-war demonstrations."

According to the article, DAVIS claimed victory for the violent Chicago demonstrations because "We destroyed the overkill security", and "We dramatized to the world that the Democratic Party can be destroyed."

The article further revealed that following the election week demonstrations, NMC will seek "to organize a massive convergence on Washington for the inauguration in January", DAVIS announced.

Other speakers included LEE WALLACE, McCarthy Campaign Co-ordinator for New Haven; MICHAEL PARENTI, a visiting professor at Yale from Sarah-Lawrence College and a leader of the Peace Coalition; Southern Connecticut State College Professor IRVING STOLBERG, a former McCarthy Convention delegate; LAZ EKWUEME, a Biafran student at Yale who charged that "The State Department is working for genocide in Biafra"; and ROBERT M. COOK, American Independent Movement (AIM), Congressional Candidate in the Third District.

ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATION IN CONNECTION WITH THE VISIT OF
SECRETARY OF STATE RUSK TO
YALE UNIVERSITY TO ADDRESS THE
MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION OF
CONNECTICUT, SEPTEMBER 12, 1968

Other protest speakers included ORIN GROSSMAN of the New Haven Draft Action Group-Resistance and MIKE SANDS of the Yale Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

The article quoted New Haven Police Chief JAMES F. AHERN as saying the protest rally was "very orderly and very cooperative". "It went according to pre-arranged plans".

WILLIAM AVRELL HARRIMAN, former Governor, State of New York, and former United States Ambassador At Large, Department of State, was interviewed on May 19, 1969, concerning RUSK by SA THOMAS A. MENDENHALL.

HARRIMAN, who resides at 3038 N Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., advised that he first met RUSK during the Truman Administration in about 1950 when RUSK was Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs. HARRIMAN at that time was a Special Assistant to the President of the United States. HARRIMAN also stated that he had contact with RUSK when the latter was connected with the Rockefeller Foundation thereafter, and had worked closely with him during the past eight years of the JOHN F. KENNEDY and LYNDON B. JOHNSON administrations.

HARRIMAN stated that the character of RUSK was beyond question. He described RUSK as a man of high character and principles. HARRIMAN further stated that RUSK had an excellent personal reputation, except among people who did not like his stand on the Vietnam war. He said that there is absolutely no question as to the loyalty of RUSK to the United States.

HARRIMAN stated that he knew of no questionable associates or associations of RUSK, and is certain that he was never affiliated with subversive or unpatriotic groups. HARRIMAN said that he had frequent social contacts with RUSK in connection with social gatherings of friends in Government, including small dinner parties, mentioning that RUSK and his [redacted] had been among guests in the HARRIMAN home on many occasions. HARRIMAN said that he did not know any associates of RUSK outside of Government circles.

HARRIMAN described [redacted] as a "delightful" person, and a most loyal and hardworking partner. He said he recalled that [redacted]

b6
b7c

[REDACTED]

HARRIMAN said that he may have met the RUSK [REDACTED] on some occasion, but did not specifically recall this, and stated that he could best answer the question about them by stating that he did not know them.

Concerning the ability of DAVID DEAN RUSK, HARRIMAN stated that he differed seriously with RUSK about Vietnam. HARRIMAN said that the difference was one of judgement, in that he felt that RUSK overestimated the importance of Vietnam as compared with other national interests of the United States. HARRIMAN stated that it was difficult to judge the over all ability of RUSK, because the Vietnam policy of the United States was so fundamental, and he disagreed with RUSK on it, and therefore felt that he lacked judgment in this matter.

HARRIMAN stated that of course he couldn't differentiate between RUSK's personal convictions concerning Vietnam and those of President JOHNSON's, which RUSK may have felt he had to espouse out of loyalty to the President. Nevertheless, according to HARRIMAN, in conversation he had with RUSK, the latter appeared to have his own convictions about Vietnam which he expressed to HARRIMAN. HARRIMAN therefore assumes that these were the personal views of RUSK. HARRIMAN stated that his own views on Vietnam paralleled those of ROBERT S. McNAMARA, former United States Secretary of Defense, and CLARK M. CLIFFORD, former United States Secretary of Defense, succeeding McNAMARA. HARRIMAN explained that after CLIFFORD became Secretary of Defense, CLIFFORD's views on Vietnam changed to coincide with the views of McNAMARA.

Continuing his comments on the ability of RUSK, HARRIMAN stated that RUSK had the great faculty of getting along well with officers of foreign states. He described RUSK as having an international reputation of being a persuasive speaker. HARRIMAN advised that he was with RUSK when the latter visited twenty different Latin American countries, and sat with him when RUSK sat in the United Nations, and noted that RUSK had a great facility and unusual ability for dealing with officials of foreign governments, with the exception of the Far East, particularly Vietnam.

HARRIMAN summed up his feelings about RUSK by stating that he would recommend him for his judgment and ability having to do with anything except ending the war in Vietnam. HARRIMAN recommended RUSK highly with regard to his being able to handle matters concerning the European countries, Latin America, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and International Development. He ended by reiterating that he definitely would not recommend RUSK for any position with the United States Government, having to do with ending the war in Vietnam.

SUBJECT: DAVID DEAN RUSK
SPECIAL INQUIRY - STATE DEPARTMENT

gale

The Department of State has today requested a background investigation of captioned individual. It is indicated he is being considered for a Presidential appointment, but the exact position is not stated.

Rusk served as Secretary of State during the Kennedy and Johnson Administrations. Our relations with him during that period were cordial. After leaving State in January, 1969, he went back with the Rockefeller Foundation, New York, New York, of which he had been President prior to his appointment as Secretary of State in 1961.

We conducted previous investigations of Mr. Rusk in 1948, 1953, 1960, and 1965. It was developed that he was associated with Alger Hiss and had been a member of the Institute of Pacific Relations. One person stated he was favorable toward the Chinese communists. Investigations were otherwise favorable and persons interviewed recommended him for a position of trust and responsibility.

ACTION: 1. The case has been ordered separately to the field for immediate attention and the field has been instructed to conduct no neighborhood investigations without prior Bureau approval.

2. SAC New York has been instructed to contact Mr. Rusk and advise him that we have been requested to conduct an investigation of him.

ARTHUR A. HARTMAN, Special Assistant to the Undersecretary advised SA [redacted] he has known the appointee since 1961, and has had almost daily contact with him during that period. The appointee's loyalty is unquestionable and his character is above reproach. He is respected by everyone who knows him and enjoys an outstanding reputation. Mr. HARTMAN recommends.

THOMAS L. HUGHS, Director, Bureau of Intelligence and Research, advised SA [redacted] that his comments would be the same to day as when he was interviewed in 1964.

Pending additional professional associates and U. S. Senators ^{ADDITIONAL} FROM NEW YORK

The following investigation was conducted on 5/20/69 by SA MAURICE A. TAYLOR:

COVEY T. OLIVER, U. S. Executive Director, World Bank, Room A-1044, World Bank Building, 1818 H Street, NW, advised he has known DEAN RUSK since 1954 and knew of him since shortly after World War II. COVEY explained from 1945 to 1949, he was employed at the Office-Director level in the State Department at a time when the appointee was Assistant Secretary of State for Near East and Asian Affairs. At that time, OLIVER heard from Department officials that RUSK was a high-grade officer, having a good mind and high-efficiency level. In 1944, OLIVER went to the University of California and learned more about RUSK and the fact that appointee had attended law school there for two years while teaching political science at the University.

OLIVER advised in 1954 he met DEAN RUSK who then headed the Rockefeller Foundation and dealt with him from 1954 to 1956 as negotiator for funds for the University of California. He found the appointee a penetrating, cooperative and very courteous and likable person. OLIVER stated he was next associated with RUSK after the latter became Secretary of State in January, 1961. In February, 1964, RUSK called him on behalf of the President and asked him to become Ambassador to Colombia. He was sworn in on 5/1/64 by RUSK and during his tenure as Ambassador until his resignation 9/28/66 he had consultations and correspondence with the appointee.
