FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

MEMORANDUM:

SUBJECT: Distribution of the "Blauvelt Family Genealogy" folder allegedly showing the first marriage of John F. Kennedy to Durie Kerr Malcolm.

Date of the distribution was Month of June, 1962.

The following named organizations are distributing a four-page folder entitled "The Blauvelt Family Genealogy" a copy of which is attached to this Memorandum:

CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION
530 Chestnut Street
Union, New Jersey

This outfit is run by an aging anti-Semitic propagandist named Conde McGinley. The chief function of the Christian Educational Association is the distribution of a four-page semi-monthly newspaper known as Common Sense. This newspaper has a circulation of 89,500 paid.

NATIONAL STATES' RIGHTS PARTY
Post Office Box 783
Birmingham, Alabama

The National States' Rights Party is known as the NSRP in short and publishes a monthly sheet known as The Thunderbolt. The NSRP is a small but ever persistent faction (exact number of members not known) very pro-Nazi in outlook. Its main thrust is against Negroes and Jews and all those concerned about minority rights.

The RIGHT BRIGADE
Post Office Box 5795
Cleveland 1, Ohio

The Right Brigade is an offshoot of the Cleveland John Birch Society membership. The Brigade's chief Allan Paul Steiger is a militant anti-Semite dissatisfied with the attitude of the John Birch Society towards the Jewish community. The JBS has no position in particular and harbors known anti-Semites in its overall membership providing they stay in bounds and carry forth the program set forth by founder Robert H. W. Welch, Jr. Allan P. Steiger was an early organizer of The John Birch Society in the Cleveland area but has resigned to carry out a militant campaign against Jews and Negroes. Membership in The Right Brigade is limited at present but meetings have been held in Cleveland and elsewhere.

It is entirely possible that Steiger has moved the headquarters of The Right Brigade to Rochester, New York for mailings of the "Blauvelt Family Genealogy" bearing the imprimatur of the Brigade have come out of Rochester, New York in recent weeks.

Although Dr. Gerald B. Winrod is dead his son Gordon, an ordained Lutheran minister, is carrying on with the same brand of anti-Semitism for which the father was famous during and before World War II.

AUG 6 1962

Gordon Winrod pastors the independent St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Little Rock, Arkansas and edits a monthly known as The Winrod Letter. He also serves as "Chaplain" to the National States Rights Party and has addressed a meeting in recent months sponsored by The Right Brigade.

The Winrod Letter is almost totally anti-Semitic and is one year old. Its paid circulation is a bit over 3,000 in better than 40 states.

Independent pamphleteers and mimeograph machine "patriots" are also circulating the "Blauvelt Family Genealogy" but the above four constitute an organized channel of distribution on a reasonably orderly, total mailing list basis.

Also, in Holyoke, Massachusetts, the VALLEY PAPER COMPANY is distributing the "Blauvelt Family Genealogy" to a select mailing of "patriots". The VALLEY PAPER COMPANY is a long time contributor to assorted ultra-nationalist and hatemongering organizations in the U.S. largely through the efforts of George Fowler one of its top executives and owners. The select mailing list is handled by Hubert W. Kregeloh, a local newscaster now on the payroll of the Company and also an activist in the John Birch Society in Belmont, Massachusetts. Kregeloh is an editor (contributing) of American Opinion magazine now one of the official organs of The John Birch Society.

Summary: The distribution of the anti-Kennedy piece is confined for the moment to the hate groups on the extreme Right but even at that the four page "Blauvelt Family Genealogy" has received a June, 1962 distribution well in excess of 100,000. This might bear watching for this is the first seemingly concerted distribution of a document which relates to the widespread rumors of the 1960 campaign.

JOHN'S OTHER WIFE . . .

There has been much speculation and puzzlement concerning the rumor that Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy is the second wife of John Fitzgerald Kennedy, a member of the Roman Catholic Church and currently President of the United States of America. Many, many people insisted that there had been a previous marriage which had ended either in divorce or annulment. However, it seemed that all documentary substantiation had been destroyed or suppressed. Cited were the cases of a "disappearing issue" of the "Saturday Evening Post" and the suppression of certain geneological records held by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Perhaps overlooked was the privately printed "Blauvelt Family Geneology," which contains, on page 884, the record of that previous marriage of John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

"For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops." (St. Luke 12: 2, 3.)

On 9-15-61, Bureau informant 100 made available the enclosed Photostat of excerpts of a family genealogy appearing in "The Blauvelt Family Genealogy," compiled by Louis Leon Blauvelt. As indicated in the enclosure, this material can be located at the Library of Congress, the New York Public Library and the Library of the State Historical Society, Madison, Wisconsin. The informant obtained the enclosure from a confidential source who follows genealogy as a hobby and has many contacts in this field.

Particular attention is directed to the encircled item on the second page which describes the marriages of Durie Kerr. It is indicated that her third marriage was to "John F. Kennedy, son of Joseph P. Kennedy, onetime Ambassador to England."

The informant has advised <sup>MVS</sup> that his source was absolutely certain no such marriage ever took place, but he is at a loss to explain how such information could have been included in the Blauvelt family genealogy. Bureau files are negative concerning captioned individual.

ACTION:

Since this information exists in print and is readily available and possibly could be used maliciously, it is respectfully suggested that consideration be given to having Mr. Evans orally brief the Attorney General or Mr. O'Donnell concerning this matter.
