RE: Grand Jury No. 2010A-97-02

Dear Custodian:

You have been served with a subpoena requiring that you produce to the Grand Jury the described records on the date specified. We request that the documents be produced in an electronic format and that no hard copies be produced at this time. We will consider you in compliance with this subpoena if you provide the records to a Special Agent or if you mail the records by certified mail to the Grand Jury, in care of this office. Please complete and return the enclosed "Transmission" letter to us at the time of your compliance. This letter will give us the date and method of your compliance. We are enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your convenience in returning this letter to us.

Because the enclosed subpoena calls for evidence that may be used in a federal criminal trial, a custodian of records may be called to testify at trial concerning the records. Pursuant to Rule 902(11) of the Federal Rules of Evidence, however, a custodian witness is not required at trial for purposes of authenticating records if the documents are accompanied by an appropriate written declaration containing the certifications required by the rule. Enclosed is a draft declaration that complies with the rule. In order to avoid the necessity of testifying at trial as a record custodian, please complete and return the declaration to this office along with enclosed Transmission Letter.

Please also return a copy of the subpoena with the records and note the "G.J. No." on the envelope. Upon receipt of the records, we will make the necessary presentation of the records to the Grand Jury and it will not be necessary for you personally to produce the records to the Grand Jury.

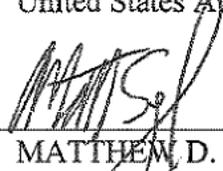

You shall insure that the documents called for by this subpoena are maintained and produced in the same form and order in which the original file or files have been maintained, including any segregation of the originals by fastener or any other means. Moreover, if you attempt to comply with the subpoena by producing copies of your original files, you shall continue to maintain those originals in the same form and order in which they were maintained before you made the copies.

The records requested by this subpoena are for use in a criminal investigation pending in the Eastern District of California. Disclosure of the existence of this subpoena could seriously hamper the investigation and interfere with this office's duty to enforce the laws of the United States. While you do not have a legal obligation to keep the service of this subpoena a secret, we request that you not disclose the fact that you have been served with this subpoena or the fact that you have made any efforts to comply with it. If at any time you decide to make such disclosure, or if such matters are inadvertently disclosed, please contact me immediately.

If you have any questions with respect to your obligations resulting from your service with this subpoena, please feel free to call me at Sacramento at (916) 554-2700.

Very truly yours,

BENJAMIN B. WAGNER
