

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY BRIEF

50X1

17 AUGUST 1966

~~TOP SECRET~~

23

50X1

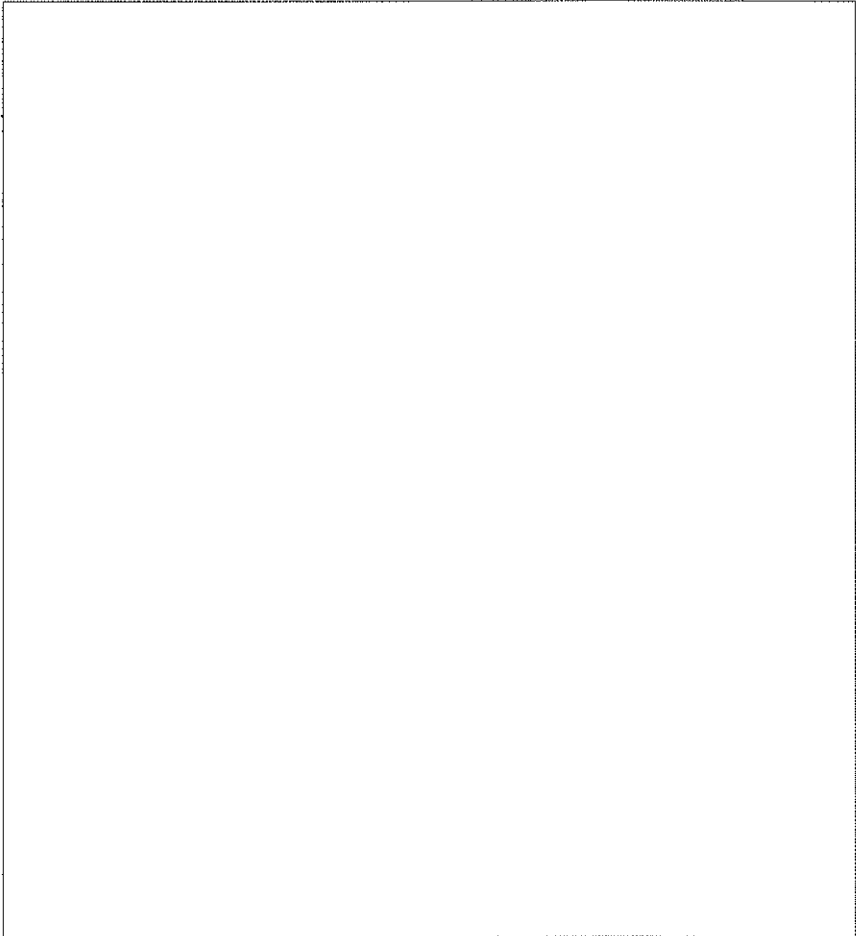

3. Soviet Union

The Soviets seem to have finally made the grade in weather satellites. Moscow announced today that data from Cosmos 122, launched 25 June, would be provided to weather services in other countries. The Soviets have had an agreement to exchange satellite weather information with us since 1962 but, until Cosmos 122, none of their experimental weather satellites had worked properly.

50X1

4. Iraq

17 Aug 66

50X1