F. MINUTES OF THE CONCLUSIONS OF THE FIRST INTERAMERICAN MEETING ON NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

In Santiago, Chile, November 28, 1975, the FIRST INTERAMERICAN MEETING ON NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE concluded with the participation of delegates from ARGENTINA, BOLIVIA, CHILE, PARAGUAY and URUGUAY, who agreed to make the following recommendations for future actions.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- 1.- From this date forward, initiate bilateral or multilateral contacts, upon the will of countries participating here, for the exchange of subversive information, opening their own, or new, information files in their respective Services.
- 2.- We recommend the creation of a Coordinating Office, with the purpose of providing information on people and organizations linked to Subversion.
- 3.- We recommend that the matter of establishing a System of periodic contacts among the Intelligence Services be studied through the approval or modification of the proposal to regularize these type of meetings.
- 4.- We recommend establishing a Coordination System through three phases of implementation.
- 5.- The FIRST PHASE we recommend is the following:
  - a.- The establishment of a complete Directory (Register) with the names and addresses of those persons working in Intelligence so as to be able to request directly from them any information on people and organizations directly or indirectly linked to Marxism.

SECRET

- b.- We recommend that the Security Services give priority to the requests for information filed by the Services involved in the System.
- c.- We recommend swift and immediate contact when suspicious individuals are either expelled from the country or travel outside the country, so as to alert the Intelligence Services.
- d.- We recommend the use of a Cryptography System that will be available to member countries within the next 30 days, with the understanding that it may be vulnerable; it will be replaced in the future with cryptographic machines to be selected by common agreement.
- e.- We recommend studying the proposed models of personal information files ("fichas"), informing each other of any needed changes.
- f.- We recommend making available the information held by the Intelligence Services to the Technical Team regarding Telex; Microfilm; Computers; Cryptography, in order to complete what is lacking, make use of what is available and propose new elements.
- g.- We recommend facilitating the presence of National Intelligence personnel or similar agents in the Embassies of our countries for direct and personal liaisons; they will be fully registered by their Service.
- h.- We recommend receiving the people who studied the theoretical aspects of the System regarding a Data Base and Transmission of Information.
