Data Concerning Another Possible Candidate for Indoctrination

[REDACTED]

C

[REDACTED] had more than three years active duty in this capacity during the war and recently was recalled for either thirty or sixty days active duty. This man is an able linguist in French and Spanish. He is a college graduate and did some teaching at [REDACTED] as well as being a linguist.

B

This man recently took training at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He has given up all connection with dianotics because we do not consider dianotics medically ethically but the technique of so-called dianetic auditing is an interesting one in that the subject, lying on a couch with his eyes closed, is regressed in such a way as to relive incidents, either pleasant or unpleasant at various times of his life. This is accomplished, usually without medication, and is said to be non-hypnotic.

[REDACTED] would like to be re-called to active duty in his rank. I feel sure that his personality is such that he would be adaptable to indoctrination. At present, he knows nothing of what might be desired of him.
