For your information, a search of the indices to our Central Records System reflected there were additional records potentially responsive to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. We have attempted to obtain this material so it could be reviewed to determine whether it was responsive to your request. We were advised that the potentially responsive records were not in their expected location and could not be located after a reasonable search. My dear Senator:

Your letter dated January 29, 1953, has been received.

While I would like to be of assistance in connection with your request, I must inform you that, in the absence of specific authority from the Attorney General, data contained in the files of this Bureau is maintained as confidential and available for official use only. I am sure you will understand the necessity for this regulation and no inference will be drawn because of my inability to be of assistance that we do or do not have in our files the information you have requested.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE ON YELLOW ONLY: Correspondent is newly elected representative to Congress, is not listed in most recent edition of "Who's Who in America" and there is no record of prior correspondence with him. Bureau files reflect recent references to Goldwater, whose name was mentioned at a Progressive Party meeting held in Phoenix, Arizona, on 11/7/52. At that time the outcome of the general election of 11/4/52 was discussed, particularly the manner in which the Progressive Party might influence Senator-elect Goldwater and cause him to support the program and aspirations of the Progressive Party since he was supported by a large percentage of Negro people in the Phoenix area.

At a Progressive Party meeting held at Phoenix on 12/10/52 Frieda Graham, a Security Index subject, stated Barry Goldwater, newly elected Senator from Arizona can be put on the spot and asked to take a stand on the Fair Employment Practices Act both nationally and locally. (100-3-27-328, Page 20; 100-266190-43, Page 12)

One Barry M. Goldwater, probably identical, was elected Phoenix Councilman in November, 1949. Concerning an alleged plan to reopen Phoenix to gambling and vice, Rufus Coulter, former Chief of Police and Special Agent, in October, 1949, stated the plan was that in the near future the City Council would split and Harry Rosenzweig and Barry Goldwater would become part of the minority block of the Council. In his communication correspondent requests subversive data on several individuals but fails to mention the basis for his request. He does not refer to an interested constituent and the information requested may possibly be intended for his personal use. In addition, some of the names furnished by him are not susceptible of accurate file searches in view of the lack of identifying data. In the absence of additional information on which to evaluate the Senator's request and in view of the possible political implications involved, the above reply appears to be in order.

Gentlemen:

The article by Mr. Alan Barth, which appeared in this month's issue of your magazine, and the accompanying editorial endorsement prompted me to make the enclosed speech on the Floor of the Senate today. I am sending you this copy for your own files and you will find that, in substance, it follows the recorded speech in the Congressional Record, with the exception of a few places where I digressed from the text.

As is indicated by the context of my remarks, I feel that you have done an injustice to the FBI and to Mr. Hoover and that you would want to, in the spirit of accuracy which you have maintained, make proper acknowledgment to Mr. Hoover and the FBI.

ment since 1861. They are an invaluable research tool for Members of Congress, foreign service officers, historians, teachers, etc.

I earnestly hope, therefore, that my House and Senate colleagues will provide not only for the continued publication of the series but for acceleration thereof.

The American people are interested not only in where our foreign policy is going but in how it got to its present position.

They are entitled to the facts. The State Department is desirous of giving our people the facts. Our people cannot fully understand the problems of the present and future until they find how we met the problems of the past. I trust that Congress will act accordingly on this appropriations item.

THE BANKRUPTCY MYTH AND NATIONAL SECURITY

Mr. FULBRIGHT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that there may be printed in the RECORD at this point an article which appeared in the Washington Post and Times-Herald on March 26, 1954, entitled "The Bankruptcy Myth and National Security." This article was prepared by Seymour E. Harris, professor of economics, Harvard University.

I also ask unanimous consent, Mr. President, that following this article there may be inserted in the RECORD the introductory marks to a speech which I made in the Senate on March 15, 1954. These remarks of mine quote the text of the report of the Joint Committee on the Economic Report in substantiation of the point made by Professor Harris that the reduction in national defense expenditures made by the new administration is not necessary or desirable, from an economic standpoint.

There being no objection, the article and introductory remarks were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows: [From the Washington Post and Times-Herald of March 26, 1954]

THE BANKRUPTCY MYTH AND NATIONAL SECURITY

In his reply to Governor Stevenson, Vice President Nixon said of the Democrats that "they know that this (the Democratic military program) would force us into bankruptcy, that we would destroy our freedom in attempting to defend it." (Is this not a reckless charge?) In his budget address, the President said, "We cannot afford to build military strength by sacrificing economic strength." Secretary Humphrey and key Republican Congressmen have made similar statements. It is also evident from testimony of General Bradley and General Ridgway and statements by former Secretary of the Air Force Thomas Finletter and the military strategist, Mr. Hanson Baldwin, that nonmilitary considerations played an excessive part in the determination of military policy. In his campaign Governor Stevenson wisely stressed the priority of security over finance.

It is about time that we repudiated this foolish talk about bankruptcy. (This is aside from the surprising statement made by the Vice President that a financial bankruptcy means a loss of freedom in the same sense as a Communist victory.)

I do not know what the Republican leaders mean by bankruptcy, but they certainly cannot mean inability to meet dollar obligations. Every sovereign power can meet the obligations expressed in its currency.

What are the signs of bankruptcy? Are they the rise since 1933 of gross output of 190 percent, of per capita disposable income (after taxes of 99 percent, of personal consumption expenditures of 227 percent, of gross private investment of 1,386 percent? (All of these are corrected for price changes and hence represent genuine gains.)

Is it a sign of bankruptcy that since the depression thirties the 20 percent of households with the lowest incomes increased their real incomes before taxation (dollars of stable purchasing power) by 45 percent, and the next 4 quartiles (from high to low incomes) by 41, 29, 22, and 14 percent, respectively? (Similar results are found after taxes.) Note that this improvement in distribution which strengthens our system was consistent with a great rise in output, consumption and investment.

Is it the heavy tax load that spells bankruptcy for the present administration? On this score note that taxes accounted for 26 percent of our gross product as compared with 33½, 34, and 31½ percent for the United Kingdom, Germany, and France. Yet per capita income in the United States was almost 3 times that of the United Kingdom and France and 4 times that of Germany. Surely the tax burden, however annoying, considered relative to per capita income is not bankrupting us. The vast gains of income belie that position.

Is the national debt the troublesome item? Is the administration aware that the national debt, the heritage of our history over the years, as a percentage of our gross national income for but 1 year, declined from 130 percent of our income in 1945 to 75 percent in 1953, or a drop of more than 40 percent? Is it aware that the rise in the cost of financing this debt has been but 2 percent of the rise of income in the last 20 years ($6 billion against $309 billion)? This growth of debt probably raised income many times the rise in the cost of financing the debt. Incidentally, I am surprised that the President's speech writers inserted in his tax speech the statement that an increase of deficits passes the burden on to future generations.

Is inflation the measure of impending bankruptcy? In the campaign, the Republicans made much of the 50-cent dollar. They failed, however, to note that there were four times as many dollars around and hence that all dollars were worth twice as much as before the war.

They also failed to note that the inflation was a byproduct of a great and medium-sized war; that accompanying the inflation of the last 20 years had been a rise of output of almost 2 times; that the moderation of inflation as measured by the relation of price rise to percentage of income going to war was unprecedented (the inflation on this basis was but one-fourteenth that to be expected from the experience during the Civil War and one-third that to be expected from the experience of World War I).

From all of this I conclude that the administration is endangering our security by overstressing financial considerations. They are reducing our military strength and depending too much on the atomic bomb because they believe we face financial disaster if Truman military policies are continued.

I stress the point that the Government cut military outlays by $4 billion when, according to all forecasts, gross national product in 1954 is likely to fall by 5 percent or more (or at least $17 billion) because of inadequate spending, and besides failing to gain, as it normally does, by $11 billion. Hence, here, because of insufficient spending, is a loss of $28 billion. An increased outlay of ten to fifteen billion dollars for security would save us from unnecessary wastage of resources and add (through secondary effects) ten to fifteen billion dollars of income to our private economy.

The point I make here is not that we should spend for military purposes in order to keep our economy healthy. There are much more productive ways of spending money. What I am stressing is that we should not, in weighing financial considerations excessively, endanger our defense. Furthermore, reduced spending would not bolster our economy now—rather the reverse—for our economy now requires more, not less, spending.

Finally, I note that the National Planning Association showed ("Can We Afford Additional Programs for National Security," October, 1953) that an "additional program of $10 billion by 1956 (above the administration's projected outlays) would not interfere with further business expansion and would not prevent a continuing increase in the standard of living." (Even tax reduction would be had.) A rise of $20 billion of security outlays by 1956 above the administration's proposed outlays "would permit a continuing increase in investment and at least a moderate increase in the standard of living." (Tax rates unchanged.) A rise of outlays by $33 billion "would represent a considerable rise from the peak level of the present program, not only in absolute amount but also in the ratio to total production. It would leave enough resources only for small increases in investments and standards of living. It would require an increase in taxes. * * *

In summary, the administration is being misled by unknowledgeable advisers. We have too many Secretaries of the Treasury and too few Secretaries of Defense. These false prophets of bankruptcy are "the prophets of gloom" because they underestimate our economic strength, and by weakening our military position they increase the probability of world war III and hence of bankruptcy.

SEYMOUR E. HARRIS,

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Mr. President, before undertaking a discussion of taxes and our national economy, I should like to call attention to the following excerpt from pages 5 and 6 of the report of the Joint Committee on the Economic Report:

"ECONOMIC CAPACITY FOR ADEQUATE DEFENSE PROGRAM

"The (President's) Economic Report states that 'Our approach to a position of military preparedness now makes it possible to turn the productive potentialities of the economy increasingly to peaceful purposes.'

"We welcome this opportunity to reduce military expenditures and do not view with pessimism the adjustments involved in making this transition.

"It is beyond the jurisdiction of this committee to pass judgment upon the adequacy of our military preparedness. It is not our function to determine how many air wings, ships, or divisions are necessary.

"However, we do feel it is within our jurisdiction to state that, in our opinion, the economy is capable of meeting safely additional military expenditures if such expenditures are necessary for our military security.

"This is not a recommendation for more spending for national-security purposes. It is rather an assertion that reductions in these programs, which have been made and which are projected for the future, should be justified upon their merits, and not upon the premise that they are made necessary for economic reasons."

To my mind, this section calls for a new look at the New Look, a reexamination of our national-defense program.

We have heard a great deal about the New Look. Much of this discussion has been in terms of assurances from the administration that we are getting "more bang for a buck"

Only the most naive could believe that the reductions in military expenditures, made and to be made, have strengthened our defense. I do not believe anyone seriously questions the fact that substantial reductions were made out of a belief that the economy could not stand greater expenditures.

I do not quarrel with this approach. Obviously, our national security requires that economic as well as military considerations must be taken into account.

What I do quarrel with is the administration's estimate of the strength of our economy.

I believe the administration has seriously underestimated the capabilities of our economy and its fundamental strength. They believed it had to be shaken down; that it was operating at a pace which could not be maintained. They did not appreciate that during the 2 years immediately preceding January 1953 the economy of the United States was—

1. Conducting a great military operation in Korea, halfway around the world;
2. Accumulating a great store of military equipment against the possibility of world war III;
3. Building a broad industrial base for fighting such a war and maintaining the lead in scientific and engineering developments; and
4. Doing all that, we still were maintaining a standard of living for the masses of our people higher than that of any previous time or any other country.

This was the situation as accurately described to the Joint Economic Committee by a sound and conservative economist.

Failing to appreciate the strength of our economy, the administration has proceeded to reduce its preparedness goals to fit its own image of the country's capabilities. This image was too small.

So I suggest that our military planners and the Appropriations Committees and Armed Services Committees of the Congress should reappraise our preparedness programs in the light of this admonition of the Joint Economic Committee's report:

"Reductions in these programs, which have been made and which are projected for the future, should be justified upon their own merits, and not upon the premise that they are made necessary for economic reasons."

I have made these few remarks upon our military program as a prelude to a discussion of taxes and our national economy. I have done so from the belief that our first duty—before considering tax reduction—is to reappraise our military posture. Only as we can satisfy ourselves that our military program is adequate can we afford to consider significant tax reduction.

CALL OF THE ROLL

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will call the roll.

The Chief Clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. COOPER. Mr. President, I move that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. BARRETT in the chair). Without objection, it is so ordered.

ANSWER TO ALAN BARTH'S CRITICISM OF THE FBI

Mr. GOLDWATER. Mr. President, in March of this year there appeared in Harper's magazine an article entitled "How Good Is an FBI Report?" written by Mr. Alan Barth. If I were asked to select one agency of the Federal Government in which the American people have implicit faith, I would choose the FBI. This agency has always conducted itself in a proper manner and has never been brought into the white spotlight of public criticism until the present time. Because I feel a great pride in this institution, and because I feel that I share this pride with all Americans, I cannot let go unanswered this article to which I referred, which was written by an eminent writer for the Washington Post, Mr. Alan Barth. If Mr. Barth had followed a logical path to his conclusions, and if he had substantiated his remarks by way of higher authority, I feel he would have believed his conclusions unjustified and would have withheld publication of his story.

The FBI has been the chief target of attack by Communists, their stooges, and apologists for years. A new effort is now apparent. The Daily Worker, Communist leaders, and apologists have been seeking a way to impede and thwart the FBI in its job of protecting our internal security. Frequently, they overplay their hands and expose themselves as the despicable swindlers that they are. One of the most notorious was the insidious Red master of stealth, Max Lowenthal. Long a friend of persons in high office, he was able to accomplish deeds of staggering proportions which benefited the Red masters of the Kremlin.

The author, Alan Barth, long a top ranking editorial writer for the Washington Post, has come forward with an alibi as to why Communists were not weeded out of the Government. Barth's explanation in his article, How Good Is an FBI Report?, is so simple that it is rather ridiculous and it shows Barth to be either unaware of the truth or unwilling to develop it.

As written, it appears that Barth's purpose is to raise the bugaboo of secret police in an effort to undermine public respect for constituted authority. Like Max Lowenthal, Barth shows himself to be a master of adroit misrepresentation.

He would have his readers believe he is an expert in FBI procedure and security practices when he seeks to place the blame on the FBI for the failure to get Communists out of Government. That is why I feel it necessary to call attention to this new smear campaign against the FBI and expose it for what it appears to be—a deliberate misrepresentation of truth. In doing so, I defend the right of Alan Barth to express his opinions, but I feel it necessary to call attention to the fact that he has no right to mistake the truth.

In the first place, what are the qualifications of the author to sit in judgment on the contents of FBI reports and by virtue of what authority is he able to give the alibi to Government officials who failed to act when warned?

He has been an editorial writer for the Washington Post since 1943. For brief periods, he worked in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury and in the Office of War Information.

The June 1946 issue of Readers Scope contains an article by Barth against the House Committee on Un-American Activities. This publication, it will be recalled, was published by Leverett Gleason, a director of the Peoples Radio Foundation and the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, both well-known Communist fronts.

For years, Barth has denounced loyalty programs, and his heart has bled for Communists, their stooges, spies, and persons whose acts were akin to treason.

The only conclusion I can reach is that the purpose of his Harper's article is intended as a defense for keeping Harry Dexter White, Harold Glasser, Duncan Lee, Sol Adler, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Alger Hiss, Frank Coe, Lauchlin Currie, and others of a similar ilk in the Government. The premise of this defense is the novel one that information in FBI reports is culled sometimes from knaves and nitwits, sometimes from bigots, sometimes from persons whose devotion to the United States ought to be suspect, sometimes from men or women with axes to grind or hatchets to bury in the skulls of employees whom they dislike. He here makes a fraudulent representation, because there is not a Member of Congress who has not time and again furnished information to FBI agents which is recorded in their reports, unless Mr. Barth, who has not been known to evidence much respect for the people's elected representatives, lists us in the category of "knaves and nitwits." Furthermore, the FBI reports have been scrutinized by experts in Government as well as by the courts and have not been found wanting.

By his own admission, he states that FBI reports are confidential and that only in rare instances have FBI reports been made available, but then he proceeds, as though with some omnipotent power, to rule on all FBI reports despite the fact that very few have ever become available. In fact he refers to only four reports in his entire article. What kind of thorough study is this? How is he able to say that FBI reports as a whole are deficient? He cannot honestly make this statement, because he frankly does not know.

At one point, he quotes a former attorney general as saying FBI reports include leads and suspicions and sometimes statements of malicious persons as a reason for not making reports public. But he omits the very next sentence of former Attorney General Jackson's statement which reads as follows:

Even though later and more complete reports exonerate the individuals, the use of particular or selected reports might constitute the grossest injustice, and we all know that a correction never catches up with an accusation. (Opinion of Attorney General, Apr. 30, 1941.)

He furthermore does not quote the major reason for keeping FBI files confidential, namely, that their disclosure would prejudice the national defense and would lend aid and comfort to the very subversive elements against which we must protect our country.

He illustrates his incompetence to pass on security matters when he questions the pertinency of information put into the record of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on Solomon Adler, by asking "What inference is a reader of this report supposed to draw from this information?" after setting forth Adler's connections with high Government officials in China in 1946-47 and the fact that Adler was critical of the Chinese Nationalists.

Mr. Barth literally pleads Adler's case, insisting that, since Adler remained in the Government until 1950, since he was cleared by the same Civil Service Loyalty Review Board which cleared Remington, and since he was not indicted, he must be lily pure. Naturally, Adler stayed in the Government so long as he could be protected by such stalwarts as Harry Dexter White. The FBI could have submitted a dozen reports, and it would have made little difference, for example, if White was sitting in judgment, because his sponsor was White.

Again we find evidence of disregard for the facts. Since he questioned one of the proceedings of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, he must have been familiar with what transpired at that session. Prior to receiving the information he questions, testimony of Whittaker Chambers was presented disclosing that J. Peters, the Soviet agent, had told him that Adler was sending a weekly report to the American Communist Party; and Elizabeth Bentley had testified that Adler was a member of the Silvermaster group, paid his dues through Silvermaster, submitted reports to the Soviets through Harry Dexter White, and made Communist contacts in China. It was further developed at the same hearing that Adler had left the country after leaving his job in the Treasury Department in May, 1950. It was pointed out in the same report that even the American Embassy in London had been instructed to pick up Adler's passport. The Internal Security Subcommittee tried to get Adler's testimony, but obviously could not after he had left the country. The fact that after Adler had been reported to be a Communist certainly makes most pertinent the information that he was a participant in high level conferences in China and kept on the Government's payroll.

As a further illustration of the fraud perpetrated on the reading public by the author in his Harper's magazine article, he makes reference to the Remington case. Here he politely called J. Edgar Hoover a liar because of Mr. Hoover's testimony under oath before the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security that the information furnished by Elizabeth Bentley, which was susceptible to check, had proven to be correct.

This, he says, is not so as far as "her testimony has been evaluated by juries" is concerned. With a display of a deft use of words, always characteristic of one gifted in dialectics, Mr. Barth relates that Miss Bentley made three charges against Remington: that he was a member of the Communist Party, that he paid party dues to her, and that he give her material which she was not authorized to receive. He then claims the Government dropped the first count, there was a hung jury on the second count, and a guilty verdict on the third count.

Mr. Barth is entitled to advance any opinion or conclusion he desires, but when he takes to the pages of Harper's, he has a responsibility to be accurate in setting forth his facts. This he has not done. A court record on a conviction is a public record which Mr. Barth could check. If he did check, then his misrepresentations are all the more reprehensible. The record, contrary to Mr. Barth, reveals the following:

First. Remington was indicted first on June 8, 1950, on the count; namely, his denial of Communist Party membership. On February 7, 1951, he was convicted. Miss Bentley's testimony was believed by the jury. The fact that this conviction was reversed by the circuit court on the basis of error in the judge's charge to the jury in no way detracts from the veracity of Miss Bentley. Furthermore, this count is still outstanding.

Second. Remington was again indicted on October 25, 1951, on 5 counts, not 3 as Mr. Barth states, unless, of course, he was deliberately confusing the 2 indictments.

The five counts charged that Remington perjured himself—

First. When he denied that he had ever, to his knowledge, attended Communist Party meetings.

Second. When he denied that he had ever given Elizabeth Bentley or anyone else any classified information or any information to which they were not entitled for the purpose of having such information sent to Russia.

Third. When he denied that he had paid Communist Party dues.

Fourth. When he denied that he had ever asked anyone to join the Communist Party.

Fifth. When he denied that he had knowledge of the existence of the Young Communist League at Dartmouth College until his preparation for his defense in connection with his 1950 indictment. Remington attended Dartmouth College between 1934 and 1939.

Following his second trial, the jury returned the following verdict:

Count 1: No decision, the jury could not agree. This count is still pending. Thus Mr. Barth is wrong when he said the Government dropped the first count. Miss Bentley's testimony corroborated by other witnesses stands unchallenged.

Count 2: Guilty. Mr. Barth is again wrong as he said there was a hung jury on this count.

Count 3: No decision, the jury could not agree. This count is pending.

Count 4: Not guilty. This in no way detracts from Miss Bentley's credibility.

Count 5: Guilty.

Naturally, Mr. Barth could not be expected to admit he deliberately reported on the outcome of the Remington case falsely but the least he can say is that it resulted through inadvertence, in which case his respect for truth can be judged by whether he apologizes to Mr. Hoover and asks Harper's magazine to correct his inaccuracies.

In his Harper's article, after observing that the FBI makes loyalty investigations, he then states:

The questioning of accused employees in hearings under this program was based on information conveyed by the FBI confidential reports. Some exceedingly odd questions are asked. One Board member inquired, for instance, if an employee favored or opposed the segregation of blood in Red Cross blood banks.

Mr. Barth obviously means to infer that the FBI report contained some such information. But he should have refreshed his recollection. In his book The Loyalty of Free Men—page 116, Cardinal editions—he clearly states that the Board member who asked the question was raising questions not in the interrogative which is based on the FBI report. Thus, any question of segregation of blood banks did not arise with the FBI. Ironically, he does not even take the Post's own editorial page seriously, or he conveniently forgot the letter to the editor published in the Post on May 2, 1951, from Harry W. Blair, who asked the question for which he would blame the FBI. In this letter, Mr. Blair specifically credits the Metropolitan Police department with producing the letter which served as the basis for the question Mr. Barth deplors.

Mr. Barth, in an effort to cast doubt on FBI reports, quotes from the debates on the confirmation of a United States Ambassador to Russia, a statement by an alleged informant who possessed a sixth sense and, without knowing how this statement was used in the FBI's summary, he then proceeds in a clever manner to convey the impression that this might be typical of the contents of FBI reports.

At the time, I made inquiry as to the significance of this statement. An agency, not the FBI, had hired this man who had given the Ambassador's name as a reference. Later, he was discharged as a homosexual. The records of the other agency reflect that the informant had learned to separate the "queer" from the men. He claimed he could spot them and has never made a mistake because he had a sixth sense. Contrary to Mr. Barth, when one claims he can spot a sex pervert by his walk and never make a mistake, it is of greatest importance to know how. If it is by a sixth sense, this at least is a cue to the reliability of the informant and an aid to those who must evaluate the reports. If Mr. Barth were really interested in fair play, as he would have us believe, he would have lauded the above statement which he now ridicules, because it aided the officials in evaluating that report which was admitted as derogatory and gave it the credence it deserved.

Up to this point, he has merely been laying the foundation for his chief evidence, which consists of several reports which are a matter of public record in the Federal courts in the Coplon case. Anyone who desires to do so can get these reports, and Mr. Barth certainly had access to them.

Mr. Barth errs when he says Miss Coplon had such delectable tidbits of information, which he enumerates, on her person when she was arrested. She did not. She had data slips on which was information of a substantive nature. These data slips are on file in court, and a matter of public record, but Mr. Barth would not have been able to smear the FBI had he stuck to the truth. The so-called frivolous material which Barth makes light of was not among the data slips.

In all, there were 34 such data slips. At least it can be concluded they were of sufficient importance for a spy to copy and endeavor to sneak to the Soviets, as Judy Coplon had them with her when she was arrested. The reports quoted from by Barth were ordered produced by the Federal judge, since the data slips in Coplon's possession were made from these reports.

It seems that Mr. Barth is seeking to minimize Judith Coplon's damage to America, so he tries to discredit the FBI. The files he talks about were actually isolated reports of raw material. The file might contain scores of reports, and anyone who knows anything about security files knows that accusations are proven or disproven in subsequent reports.

Since he represents himself as an expert, his error in confusing files with reports and data slips would not ordinarily be charged to lack of knowledge. His article speaks for itself. Had he been really concerned and had he really wanted to present the truth—like any honest newsman—he would have sought out the facts.

Now, to analyze Barth's evidence:

First, Barth refers to "the statement of an unidentified informant that she had observed her neighbors 'moving around the house in a nude state' and that her 11-year-old boy said he saw one of these neighbors go out on the porch, undressed, to get the morning paper."

The actual report on file with the record in the Coplon case gives a full explanation. Contrary to Mr. Barth's statement, the informant's name and address appear in the report. He, not "she," as he said, went to the FBI because he was suspicious of his next-door neighbor. The neighbor worked at the State Department while his Russian-born wife worked at OSS. They had frequent gatherings at their home of high ranking Army and Navy officers. On occasions, great secrecy was maintained when once a month a foreign-appearing person called at the house. The informant very well could have been suspicious by the marked contrast in his neighbor's behavior, as, on other occasions when there was obviously no need for secrecy, the man and woman moved around the house in the nude and on one occasion the man went out to pick up the newspaper in the nude—defendants exhibit 113 A-6; transcript for June 10, 1949, morning session, pages 6051-6057. So what, Mr. Barth, does this prove; other than a meticulous effort of an FBI agent to report fully, information furnished him which goes into the raw file, by a man whose attention was directed to extreme secrecy on occasions while on others, in marked contrast, the inmates went around in the nude?

Second, Mr. Barth then seems to think FBI reports are of little value because "the files supplied the information that one of the assistants to the President of the United States had given some help in obtaining a passport for a trip to Mexico to a friend with whose wife, according to an informant, the presidential aid had once been in love."

Mr. President, it is very distasteful for me bring these matters to the floor of the Senate, and make the references I have had to make; but they are in reply to an article which appeared in one of the Nation's outstanding periodicals, Harper's magazine. Even though I approach this task with reluctance, my loyalty to the FBI and my desire to have the truth disclosed compel me to make reference to names and situations which I might otherwise not feel appropriate or proper.

The particular piece of information I was discussing was a lengthy report pertaining to Philip Levy, which clearly shows that his passport application was held up because of a possible involvement in a 1934 passport fraud concerning certain Communists, who have long records of involvement with Soviet espionage. The presidential aid was David K. Niles, who wrote a letter to the State Department vouching for the Levys and pointing out he found it hard to believe that they would engage in un-American activities.

Obviously, it was important to find out what Niles' connection was with the Levys. Information was developed that Niles, in fact, was an old friend of the Levys and "fell in love" with Mrs. Levy prior to her marriage. Certainly, this old friendship was relevant to Niles' action, and I would think that Mr. Barth, if he truly were interested in fair play, would have commended the FBI rather than denounce it for supplying a motive for Niles' action. Were it not for this information, one reading a cold report would at once wonder if Niles was acting on behalf of persons who were suspect—defendant's exhibit 119; transcript for June 10, 1949, afternoon session, page 5504.

Third, Mr. Barth then questions a reference to Frederic March in a report, since he was neither an employee nor an applicant for a Government job. He, however, apparently does not question the propriety of the investigation of March, but merely the quality of the report.

Surely, the FBI must investigate allegations of Communist Party activity and affiliations. The information in this 8-page report, which was only one of several reports, is specific and pertinent to such an inquiry, although I hasten to add that it is my understanding that Mr. March, since the date of this report, has made his position clear and denies Communist Party membership or affiliation. The report, however, clearly shows there were other reports, and without all of them, neither Mr. Barth nor anyone else could give a full account of what happened. But, as could be expected, Mr. Barth elected to quote one of the most innocuous bits of information in the whole report—defendant's exhibit 106-A; transcript for June 8, 1948, pages 5235-5250. It is, indeed, regrettable that Mr. Barth should have injected Mr. March's name into the public forum at this late date and without making the full facts available in his Harper's magazine article.

In his article, he refers only to the reports in four cases. An examination shows that even in regard to these four cases, for which he must have searched long and hard, he has given an incomplete and distorted account. Is the FBI to be condemned on this basis alone? Certainly all officials of the Government were not blind to FBI reports—as is evidenced by the fact that, on the basis of FBI reports, literally hundreds of unfit persons were ousted from Government jobs.

Surely Mr. Barth would not say that the FBI's record in World War II was the fault of bad reports, when, throughout the war, enemy espionage was held in check and the usual wartime sabotage did not occur.

Mr. Barth puts great stock in his argument by observing that Maj. Gen. William Donovan retained full confidence in an OSS officer, Duncan Lee, accused of espionage. But how can Barth honestly say Donovan retained Lee in the OSS with full confidence, after the FBI report? It is a matter of record that the FBI report went to the White House on November 8, 1945, while General Donovan left the OSS on October 1, 1945, a full month before the FBI even submitted the report.

At the very outset, Barth directed a heavy blow toward the FBI by quoting from a letter from the Under Secretary of War, Judge Robert P. Patterson, attesting to Silvermaster's suitability for Government service. What Mr. Barth did not say was that the letter was dated July 3, 1942, and Judge Patterson makes no reference to an FBI report. His letter did not clear Silvermaster on an FBI report; it was an Army report. Since Mr. Barth holds himself out as an expert on security, he must have seen part 3 of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee report, dated April 16, 1953, on Interlocking Subversion in Government Departments. On page 122 appears Silvermaster's memorandum dated June 9, 1942, wherein he specifically answers a document signed by Col. J. T. Bissell. Strangely, Mr. Barth is silent on Silvermaster's shameful performance in invoking the fifth amendment, the details of which are set forth in the April 16, 1953, report of the Internal Security Subcommittee, when, for example, Silvermaster—page 130—declined to answer whether he knew or had ever had conversation with Max Lowenthal.

Mr. President, after attempting to discredit FBI reports, Mr. Barth then turns his guns on the grand jury, and would make the reader believe he had clinched his point by pointing out that the grand jury failed to indict Harry Dexter White. He chides the Attorney General for stating "much of this evidence against him was received by wire tap," without making public the content of the intercepted conversations. Mr. Barth knows the answer, but it would not help his case to state that Federal law prohibits the divulgence of intercepted messages. Surely he is not so naive as to think he could bait the Attorney General into that trap. Likewise, Mr. Barth knows that subsequent to the appearance of White before the grand jury, the famed "pumpkin papers" became available, and they included handwritten messages from Harry Dexter White. But by that time, White's death had cheated the grand jury out of an indictment for perjury, if not for espionage.

Mr. Barth then moves to his favorite theme—the police state—which he defines in terms which do not exist. His deft use of words is reflected in his horror, not that the Truman administration was indifferent to Soviet espionage, but that the American public has become indifferent to a dangerous extension of police power.

What Mr. Barth seems to want is an abolition of all security measures and a cessation of exposure of Communist activities.

The truth of this matter is that high Government officials took no action on FBI reports because they did not see fit to, and not because of the contents of the reports. It is time to call a halt to alibis, and it is time to close the ranks, to the end that the American way of life can be preserved for Americans.

Mr. President, there is great danger in writing or saying anything not of a substantive nature about the FBI. Today the FBI stands as one of the great remaining bulwarks in this country against communism. In submitting these observations, I have merely tried to make the record crystal clear, because a magazine of the caliber of Harper's has chosen to publish an article containing half-truths, and it displays either a reluctance to use the whole truth, or a desire not to do so.

At the beginning of the last paragraph of the article, Mr. President, the author asks, "How good is an FBI report?" Because of the loose manner in which the name of the FBI is used in the article and because of the clear indication that the author either was not aware of the truth or was unwilling to develop it, I think the question which really should be asked is, How good is a story written by this author? In view of the article's glaring defects and departure from the facts, it is to be hoped that in the preparation of editorials for the Washington Post, this author will follow more closely the newsman's historic regard for the truth and nothing but the truth, including the full evidence available to him.

Mr. President, that concludes my remarks, and I now yield the floor.

STATEHOOD FOR HAWAII

The Senate resumed the consideration of the bill (S. 49) to enable the people of Hawaii to form a constitution and State government and to be admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the Original States.

Mr. FERGUSON. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. PAYNE in the chair). The clerk will call the roll.

The Assistant Parliamentarian proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. CARLSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. HUNT. Mr. President, after hours, days, and months of debate, it may well be questioned if any new facts can be developed or if there is any information not heretofore made available to the Senate with reference to statehood for Hawaii.

However, as I have listened to the various speeches and as I have read the RECORD from day to day, I fail to find any reference as to the readiness of the Territory of Hawaii for statehood based on the record made by the territorial legislature since Hawaii became an incorporated Territory of the United States.

Most of the Members of the United States Senate—a legislative body—have also served in their various State legislatures and have a very thorough understanding of the tremendous importance of the legislative branch not only of their National Government but of the States and Territories. Therefore, Mr. President, it seems pertinent that we should examine into the record, the character, the accomplishments of the legislative branch of the Hawaiian Territorial government in arriving at a decision pro or con on the question of statehood.

Under the provisions of the Northwest Ordinance which has determined the form and structure of territorial governments of the legislative branch of Hawaii is almost identical with the legislative branch of the respective State governments. In each instance, the members are elected by the people, and procedures follow the traditional pattern of the American legislative system.

If the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii has functioned effectively, if it has promoted the well-being of the people of the Territory and has cooperated with Federal authorities in serving the best interests of the Nation, it follows beyond any reasonable doubt that the legislative branch of the new State government would serve the State and Nation well.

The Hawaiian Legislature was established 54 years ago by an act of Congress which made Hawaii an incorporated Territory. It has held 27 regular biennial sessions and a number of special sessions. Its membership of 15 senators, elected for 4-year terms, and 30 representatives, elected for 2-year terms, has functioned on the same basis as the Territorial legislature of each of the 29 States heretofore admitted.

The most significant fact about the Legislature of Hawaii is that a higher percentage of the registered voters have actually participated in the election of members than has been the case in any of the other Territories. I think it is a significant fact that throughout the years, on the average, 91 percent of the eligible voters of Hawaii have gone to the polls and cast their ballots. I think that contrasts most favorably with the fact that in the United States the average percentage throughout all the years, for all the States, is approximately only 50.

The Legislature of Hawaii has operated under the same limitations as other Territorial legislatures. The organic act adopted in 1900 provided that the Congress might veto any act that was looked upon as being unwise or detrimental to the community or to the Nation. It is a matter of record that during 54 years that Hawaii has been a Territory, Congress has never exercised this power.

The laws enacted have contributed to the social, political, and economic growth of the Territory. It is significant that all during the period leading up to World War II and during the trying years of that war the Legislature of Hawaii cooperated with the armed services and with other agencies of the Nation in carrying out defense plans and in the actual prosecution of the war. It is because of this prompt cooperation that a considerable number of the military leaders of the Pacific area during World War II are on record as favoring statehood for Hawaii.

I read from an article published in the Honolulu Advertiser of September 3, 1945:

ARMY HEADQUARTERS, MIDDLE PACIFIC, FORT SHAFTER, T. H.—Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., commanding Army forces in the middle Pacific, today thanked the people of the Territory of Hawaii for their part in the war, in the following statement:

"This is an appropriate time to express admiration of, and gratitude for, the manner in which the people of the Territory of Hawaii have supported the Army during the war.

"Military necessity required the imposition on the Territory of restrictions, such as the curfew and censorship of civilian communications, that the people of the mainland were not called upon to undergo. These restrictions, as well as the general civilian hardships of war, were accepted in a splendid spirit of cooperation.

"For many months Hawaii was America's last outpost in the Pacific, its people under constant threat of attack as fierce as the onslaught which opened the war on December 7, 1941. Yet the people never faltered. Patiently, courageously, they went about their tasks, supporting the Armed Forces by every means in their power—doing war-production work, buying war bonds, donating blood, providing comforts for those in service.

"Even more, they gave their sons and daughters to the services, in which enviable records were established. In many homes today the joy that peace has come is saddened by the memory that a son or brother will not return, because he paid the full price of freedom on some Pacific island or European hilltop.

"I am therefore very deeply grateful to the people of Hawaii for their unflinching support of the Army and of me as their commander in the discharge of my responsibilities. It is both a duty and a pleasure to make public acknowledgment of the gratitude which I feel."

I should like to read, also, the statement made by Maj. Gen. Charles D. Herron:

I was in command in Hawaii from 1937 to 1941, shortly before Pearl Harbor, when I was retired for age. * * * The people of Hawaii are not only good people but they have long since shown themselves to be wise and fully worthy of full citizenship. It should not be possible for anyone to campaign in the halls of the Interior Department and to be appointed their governor.

In March 1947 the then Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Krug, testified, as follows:

General MacArthur is striving diligently and, I think, intelligently, to establish democracy in Japan and in Okinawa. He told me that the establishment and expansion of our democracy and our system of government to the areas that are held by the United States would aid him greatly to that end; that it would be a definite action, putting American democratic principles into effect; and he was very strong in his views as to statehood for Hawaii. * * * I talked to, I think, every military leader in the Pacific, and I heard not one single word that our military security would be impaired by Hawaiian statehood.

Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz testified:

I have given close study to the islands from a military and naval aspect. I perceive no objection from a military or naval standpoint to the Hawaiian Islands achieving statehood. * * * I had an opportunity to observe the people of the Hawaiian Islands, and I have a great admiration and appreciation of the complete and wholehearted cooperation they gave to the war effort. * * * Hawaii occupies a most important geographical position in the Pacific. Whether it is a Territory or a State, it would still be our main base in the Pacific.

Former Chief of Staff, Gen. J. Lawton Collins, has said:

The splendid part played by Hawaii in the Korean war is entirely in keeping with the distinguished record it established in World War II.

The splendid part played by Hawaii in the Korean War is entirely in keeping with the distinguished record it established in World War II.

In peace and in war, Hawaii's legislature demonstrated its capacity to govern wisely, effectively, and efficiently.

As an indication of this capacity, I wish to review a limited number of fields in which the legislative program of Hawaii has been especially effective and sound.

First, I wish to speak about its support of education.

Hawaii's public-school system was established in 1840 under the leadership of teachers from New England. The legislative branch of government first under the constitutional monarchy, then under the Republic of Hawaii and finally under the Territory has given constructive leadership and liberal financial support to the school program. As a result the school system is recognized as being one of the soundest and most progressive in the entire world.

As a result of legislation the control of schools in Hawaii is more highly centralized than in any State in the Union. This has resulted in a higher degree of quality of educational opportunity for all the children than is generally found. For instance, there is one salary schedule for all teachers regardless of whether they work in city schools or in rural schools; education requirements are the same for teachers in all localities; the same educational supply and equipment items are provided for each school; school systems have been consolidated with the result that practically all small schools have been eliminated, thus giving the better educational advantages that are offered by larger schools.

Of even greater significance is the fact that the legislative branch has provided adequate financial support. For example, a report of the National Education Association for the school year 1952-53 shows that the average annual salary for the instructional staff in the United States was $3,530. Hawaii's average annual salary for that school year was $3,669, which means that the average school teacher in Hawaii received $139 more in salary each year than did a teacher in the United States. Only 14 States paid higher salaries and 34 paid lower salaries. I regret to say that my State is among those that pay lower salaries than are paid in Hawaii.

Liberal support has also been given to other phases of the educational program, such as educational supplies and equipment and to the public school building program, although in Hawaii as in most of the mainland States there is an urgent need for additional school buildings.

The legislature has also authorized sabbatical leave for teachers with part pay, a single salary schedule for teachers which recognizes that the work of teachers in the lower grades is just as valuable as the contribution of teachers on the secondary school level, and a retirement system that is rated as among the best in the Nation.

Mr. President, regardless of what may be said of the economic control being exercised over Hawaii by the so-called Big Five, I can definitely state that the Big Five corporations are very generous in their taxation policy toward public schools.

Liberal provisions have also been made for the University of Hawaii, a land-grant institution with an enrollment of approximately 6,000 students.

Liberal support has also been provided for an adult education program and for a system of free libraries established throughout the Territory.

Second, let us consider the situation with reference to public health.

The Territory has an enviable health record. The death rate is substantially below the national average. The infant mortality is one of the lowest in the Nation. A general hospital support program is regularly maintained. The people of the Territory are proud of the free hospitalization which it provides for all patients suffering from tuberculosis. Free chest X-rays are provided.

The Hawaiian Legislature has always been forward looking in providing funds for this purpose.

For almost a hundred years the Territory has had an internationally recognized program for the care of the victims of Hansen's disease—leprosy—and its treatment. Until last year the cost of this program had been carried entirely by legislative appropriations. The United States Public Health Service now shares in the cost.

Third, labor relations: Hawaii early showed its concern with relation to the welfare of the workingman. It was one of the first to adopt a workman's compensation act. Few sessions have passed where the benefits have not been reviewed and increased to the point where these benefits equal or exceed those of almost every State. Unemployment compensation is provided. A wage-and-hour law regulates the wages and hours of workers including children. The department of labor has been established to enforce certain laws and to protect the workingman. A little Wagner Act guarantees the right of labor to organize. It is one of the few laws of the Nation to guarantee this right to agricultural labor.

Fourth. Public service: Legislation with respect to public employees is modern. Civil Service and classification systems have been established by law. A contributory retirement system on a sound actuarial basis has been in effect for nearly 30 years.

Fifth. General welfare: The legislature has been ready to repel any attack on the peace, happiness, and welfare of its people. It has been alert to the dangers of subversives. A loyalty oath program has been established and covers all government employees. Refusal to testify before a public board, agency, or commission on the ground of privilege against self-incrimination automatically removes the employee and disqualifies him from holding public office or public employment.

A loyalty board as well as a subversive activities commission was created. The legislature has not hesitated to request by resolution the investigation of communism and subversive activities in Hawaii by the Congress. In 1949 it requested the House Committee on Un-American Activities to conduct an investigation in Hawaii. The investigation was made in 1950. A formal report to Congress was made in 1951. This report in part states:

The evidence shows that as of 1951 the people of Hawaii have successfully cast communistic influences out of all phases of their political, social, cultural, and educational activities.

The important consideration here is that the study was made at the request of the legislature.

The proposed constitution for Hawaii reflects the concern of the elected representatives of the people in relation to communism. Article XIV, section 3, provides:

No person who advocates, or who aids or belongs to any party, organization, or association which advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the government of this State or of the United States shall be qualified to hold any public office or employment.

In 1941 a Hawaii Defense Act, since then further perfected and refined, grants emergency powers to the Governor during M-day conditions.

On convening in 1949, because of the interruptions to commerce from the long continued waterfront strike, the legislature promptly evolved legislation enabling the Territory to seize and conduct waterfront operations for the protection of the health and welfare of the people. The problem was squarely and promptly met, although there were no extensive

Dear Barry;

The Republic's March 31st article "Goldwater Scores Writer's FBI Attack" is one of your finest efforts so far. We would be in one hell of a fix now without Mr. Hoover, and his F.B.I.

I am enclosing some Tribune editorials, all of them condensed and reliable and quickly digested for a busy man.

We leave April 12th. via Santa Fe Ry; Chicago and Newcastle, New Brunswick, for the summer. I wish you great health; that you may continue in the Cause of Patriotism.

I hear so many fine things of you and your position of respect and confidence in the Senate. Just going over to A.M. Ward's re the coming elections; we need a good man, in Congress.

Magazine Criticism

Goldwater Scores
 Writer's FBI Attack

By JERRY POOLE

Republic's Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Senator Goldwater (R-Ariz) yesterday denounced a Harper's Magazine article which questions the value of security reports by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The article that drew Goldwater's blistering attack, entitled "How Good Is An FBI Report," was written by Alan Barth, prominent editorial writer for the Washington Post.

GOLDWATER quoted liberally from official records to support his argument that the Harper's article misrepresented the facts and cast aspersion on the agency's famed director, J. Edgar Hoover.

He said the FBI was "one agency of the federal government in which the American people have unanimous faith," and that he felt compelled to defend the FBI and Hoover from the senate floor.

Barth's article voiced fear that millions of FBI reports on individuals—in the hands of a police chief less scrupulous than Mr. Hoover, or in the hands of an ambitious politician — could become "a terrible instrument of oppression."

Goldwater said the article apparently raised "the bugaboo of secret police in an effort to undermine public respect for constituted authority."

THE ARIZONA Republican charged the article's author was trying to blame the FBI for failure to root Communists out of government, then added:

"That is why I feel it necessary to call attention to this new smear campaign against the FBI and expose it for what it appears to be—a deliberate misrepresentation of truth."

Goldwater included in his speech several point-by-point answers from court records to counter charges in the article which he contended is "a fraud perpetrated on the reading public."

Barth owes Hoover an apology, Goldwater declared, and the magazine should correct the inaccuracies in the FBI article.

WHILE CONCEDED Barth's right to an opinion, Goldwater said the author "has a responsibility to be accurate in setting forth his facts. This he has not done."

Much of the article's conclusions were based on analyses of FBI reports in fact books, including the Indian Commission, William Romanoff's report on the Soviet justice department, and a list of whose espionage activities were reversed on arrest.

Referring to the justice department, Goldwater said he was out of his element in discussing affiliations.

Dear Mr. Sheafe:

I have received the copy of your letter of April 4, 1954, to the Honorable Barry Goldwater and the copy of the newspaper clipping from "The Arizona Republic."

Your invitation for me to go salmon fishing in the Hiramichi River is most tempting. You may be sure that I will keep your thoughtfulness in mind; however, the pressure of my official business has been so great that I do not see how it will be possible for me to accept your hospitality.

Sincerely yours,

BARRY GOLDWATER

SUBJECT:

Barry Goldwater

Charles Farrington, Administrative Assistant to Senator Goldwater, called and advised of the tremendous mail which the Senator has received as a result of his speech on the Alan Barth article. He has received only one kickback. It was a letter from Lyle Stewart, the Editor of Expose magazine. I told Farrington that if Stewart supported anything then the Senator would have real cause for concern, and furnished Farrington with a brief background on Stewart and Expose magazine. Farrington stated that Stewart criticized Senator Goldwater for referring to Max Lowenthal as an insidious Red master of stealth and the Senator wanted some substantiation.

After I furnished the background on Stewart, Farrington stated they would forget all about it. Nevertheless, I am attaching a personal note to Farrington furnishing him with copies of Dondero's speeches and the recent committee report on Lowenthal.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE;
LETTER TO SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER
REGARDING THE ARTICLE BY ALAN BARTH

By memorandum dated June 7, 1954, you forwarded to Mr. Tolson a letter to you from John Fischer, editor of Harper's Magazine, dated June 3, 1954. Attached to Fischer's letter was a 5-page letter which had been sent Senator Goldwater concerning Goldwater's denunciation of Alan Barth's article on the FBI which had appeared in Harper's.

You noted that Senator Goldwater had told you of his receipt of a letter from Fischer. Goldwater's reaction was that he could do nothing but laugh at it, and he said he must have been right in his criticism of the article if after two months Barth could not come up with a better answer to his criticisms.

You observed regarding Harper's letter to Senator Goldwater that the letter amounts to a quibble and a play on words and does not in any way undermine the validity of Goldwater's speech. You observed that to be absolutely certain, you would have me analyze the letter and document the answers to the various allegations.

Various statements and allegations contained in the 5-page letter which was sent Senator Goldwater by Harper's Magazine are analyzed in the preceding pages of this memorandum. It is to be noted that as you previously observed, Harper's letter to Goldwater amounts largely to a quibble and a play on words. The analysis of the letter showed instances in which Harper's Magazine again was wrong in its facts. Furthermore, the letter to Senator Goldwater contained unsubstantiated presumptions, and in some instances, it avoids the issue in question as a device to prevent admitting that Goldwater was correct in his criticisms.

In summation, it might well be said that the eyes of Harper's Magazine and Barth's were opened by Senator Goldwater, but Harper's and Barth refused to see. It is rather obvious that Harper's and Barth were too concerned with criticizing the Bureau to desire to recognize the facts. It is not felt, therefore, that a reply to the letter from Harper's should be sent.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) That Fischer's letter not be acknowledged.

(2) In your memo of June 7, 1954, you noted that you had not told Senator Goldwater that you had already seen the letter written him by Harper's. It is felt that you may now desire to advise Goldwater that a copy of the letter was sent the Bureau; that the arguments contained in it have been reviewed and that they are equally as ludicrous as Barth's article.

- (1) "In reference to Solomon Adler, you (Goldwater) maintain that 'Adler stayed in the Government as long as he could be protected by such stalwarts as Harry Dexter White.' Since White left the Treasury Department of the U. S. Government in February, 1946, and died in the Summer of 1948, it is difficult to perceive how he could have protected Adler until 1950. Mr. Barth pointed out that the 'stalwarts' who 'protected' Adler were such men as Henry Morganthau, Jr., Fred Vinson and John Snyder."

ANSWER: In refuting Barth's article, Senator Goldwater stated:

"Naturally, Adler stayed in the Government so long as he could be protected by such stalwarts as Harry Dexter White. The FBI could have submitted these reports and it would have made little difference, for example, if White was sitting in judgment, because his sponsor was White."

Senator Goldwater has not stated that Harry Dexter White was the only person protecting Solomon Adler, although Harper's apparently chose to ignore this fact in its reply. It is interesting to note that Adler's efficiency report at the Treasury Department in 1946 was written by Harold Glasser.

You will recall that during the period in question, a controversy was taking place between Edward Foley, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and the Justice Department in regard to the furnishing of information on the Gregory Espionage case. This controversy, of course, was beneficial to the cause of Adler's retention.

On May 19, 1949, it was observed that the Bureau had received a disposition on Adler's loyalty case indicating that Adler was "retained." On August 4, 1950, the Civil Service Commission advised in connection with Adler's case that he had "resigned or otherwise separated from Federal service prior to decision on loyalty." (121-4089-113, 66)

In regard to Harper's claim that Henry Morganthau, Jr., "protected" Adler, it is to be noted Morganthau was Secretary of the Treasury only until July, 1945. Morganthau obviously, then, was not in a position to officially "protect" Adler at the Treasury Department from 1946 to 1950.

(2) "Speaking of Duncan Lee, you ask 'How can Barth honestly say Donovan retained Lee in the OSS with full confidence, after the FBI report?' What Mr. Barth did say is that 'Duncan Lee retained the full confidence of Major General William Donovan, despite the FBI reports.' General Donovan may have left the OSS prior to the FBI report on Lee, but he was thoroughly familiar with Elizabeth Bentley's assertions from which the derogatory information in the report was entirely derived and, in any case, he filed an affidavit attesting his full confidence in Lee's loyalty as late as 1932."

ANSWER: In his reply to Barth's article, Goldwater pointed out that General Donovan left the OSS in October, 1945, a full month before the FBI submitted its report to the White House concerning the Soviet apparatus in Washington, D. C.

Of course the Bureau is not in a position to know how thoroughly General Donovan is familiar with the adverse information which has been gathered--and part of which is a matter of public record--concerning Duncan Lee. The claim that Lee has retained the full confidence of General Donovan, however, apparently is true.

Although the alleged affidavit filed by Major General Donovan in 1932 attesting to his full confidence in Lee's loyalty was not located, a complete check of Bufiles to locate this alleged affidavit was not conducted. Lee's main file contains a notarized, sworn statement by Donovan made in New York on June 30, 1931, in which Donovan states in part, "I know nothing in Mr. Lee's conduct or of anything he has said at any time which would indicate that he is a Communist or a Communist sympathizer, and I do not believe that he was or is a Communist or a Communist sympathizer...he has impressed me as a young man of forthright and loyal character. I do not believe he would knowingly divulge classified information to persons who he knew were not authorized to receive it." (100-364413-188)

As you know, Elizabeth Bentley identified Lee as a Communist and as one of her Soviet espionage contacts. Our investigation of Lee's espionage activities began in November, 1945.

- (3) "About the Nathan Silvermaster case: Representative Mundt in the Un-American Activities Committee hearing on espionage referred to a Civil Service report of 1942 stating 'on the basis of our official investigative bodies of the Government--FBI and Civil Service and Intelligence offices--that the Civil Service Commission felt Nathan Gregory Silvermaster not only was a Communist of long standing but probably a member of the NKVD or OGPU, the Russian Secret Police Society.' Presumably Judge Patterson knew of this report."

ANSWER: In refuting Barth's article, Senator Goldwater pointed out:

"Barth directed a heavy blow toward the FBI by quoting a letter from the Undersecretary of War, Judge Robert P. Patterson, attesting to Silvermaster's suitability for Government service. What Mr. Barth did not say was that the letter was dated July 3, 1942, and Judge Patterson makes no reference to an FBI report....it was an Army report."

Harper's obviously chooses to ignore the dishonesty in Barth's inferring that Judge Patterson, (then Undersecretary of War) was referring to an FBI report.

Research conducted on this matter at the time of the original review of Barth's article disclosed that Patterson obviously was referring to a G-2 report. Harper's now states it presumes that Patterson had seen FBI reports concerning Silvermaster and that his judgement was based upon FBI reports.

It further is interesting to note that in the above quoted paragraph, Harper's readily admits that at least one Federal agency, the Civil Service Commission, obviously became highly concerned about information regarding Silvermaster contained in FBI reports.

In the above quoted paragraph Harper's has voiced a presumption, but it gives no facts to substantiate the presumption.

(4) "On the blood-segregation query: This may have been predicated on information appearing in a police department record, but it seems likely to Mr. Barth and to us that the information came to the loyalty board because it was included in an FBI report. Loyalty boards do not, as we understand it, get reports directly from local police departments but from the FBI which collects what it considers pertinent data. Mr. Barth's comment about your reference to the statement in his book is as follows: 'The interrogative was a set of questions or charges intended to give an accused employee some idea of what he would be asked about when he appeared before a loyalty board. This witness' interrogative gave her no warning that she would be asked about blood segregation. But this does not mean that board members may not have learned about her views on this subject from the FBI report.'"

ANSWER: In refuting Barth's article, Senator Goldwater points out that Barth attempted to attribute questions at loyalty hearings to the FBI. In reference to the questions asked of Dorothy Bailey of the Department of Labor by Harry W. Blair of the Loyalty Review Board concerning segregation in Red Cross Blood Banks, Goldwater pointed out that Blair specifically credited the Metropolitan Police Department with producing the letter which served as the basis for the "blood" question. Goldwater further pointed out that Blair's letter concerning this matter was published in the Washington Post, Barth's own paper, on May 9, 1951.

It is noted that Harper's letter to Senator Goldwater does not specifically say the information on the blood segregation issue was obtained from FBI reports; however, Harper's obviously is "beating around the bush" in its letter to Goldwater simply to avoid admitting that Goldwater is right.

You will recall that when the Barth article originally was analyzed, the issue of Blair's questioning of Miss Bailey on blood segregation was thoroughly analyzed. It was noted that FBI reports did not make any mention of a letter allegedly written by Miss Bailey to the blood bank. It further was noted that the FBI had nothing to do whatsoever with conducting loyalty hearings and obviously we were not responsible for the questions asked at the hearing.

(5) "We do not understand how the Jackson quotation that you give in any way modifies the quotation Mr. Barth used."

ANSWER: The following is a direct quotation from Barth's article in Harper's Magazine of March, 1954:

"Arguing against the surrender of FBI reports to a Congressional Committee in 1941, Robert H. Jackson--at that time Attorney General--said: 'Investigative reports include leads and suspicions, and sometimes even the statements of malicious or misinformed people.'"

In replying to this statement, Senator Goldwater said:

"At one point, he (Barth) quotes a former Attorney General as saying FBI reports include leads and suspicions and sometimes statements of malicious persons as a reason for not making reports public. But he omits the very next sentence of former Attorney General (Robert H.) Jackson's statement which reads as follows: 'Even though later and more complete reports exonerate the individuals, the use of particular or selected reports might constitute the grossest injustice, and we all know that a correction never catches up with an accusation.'"

As you know, Barth's article in Harper's purported to show that the common denominator of the blindness toward subversives in Government was in the nature of FBI reports. Through quoting out of context, Barth showed former Attorney General Jackson making an unfavorable statement about investigative reports. In reality, his statement was not in the nature of criticizing investigative reports, and this would have been shown had Barth not quoted the Attorney General's statement out of context.

- (6) "It seems to us a matter of personal opinion whether the FBI should be lauded or reproached for including the evidence of a man with a 'sixth sense' or the 'information' regarding Mr. Niles and Mrs. Levy."

ANSWER: The reference to the man with a "sixth sense" pertains to the investigation of Charles E. Bohlen in connection with Bohlen's appointment as Ambassador to Russia. Files of the State Department Security Division reflected that George William Davis, who was discharged from the Foreign Service for being a homosexual, stated that he strongly believes Bohlen to be a homosexual. Davis based this upon his "sixth sense."

Barth's article refers to the fact that the Bureau reported this information concerning Bohlen and attributed it to a person who claimed to possess a "sixth sense." Barth then stated, "...if there was much of this sort of stuff in FBI reports, it seems small wonder indeed that responsible administrators tended to discount them." Senator Goldwater, on the other hand, stated, "Contrary to Mr. Barth, when one claims he can spot a sex pervert by his walk and never make a mistake, it is of greatest importance to know how. If it/ by a sixth sense, this at least is a clue to the reliability of the informant and an aid to those who must evaluate the reports."

The reference to "information" regarding Mr. Niles and Mrs. Levy pertains to assistance rendered to Philip Levy by David K. Niles, Administrative Assistant to the President, in obtaining a passport in 1944.

A Special Inquiry Investigation for the Office of Emergency Management revealed that Niles had been in love with Mrs. Levy prior to her marriage and that since her marriage to Philip Levy, Niles was still very friendly with Mrs. Levy and with her husband. In his article in Harper's, Barth stated that the files, made public through the Coplon trial, showed that one of the assistants to the President had given help in obtaining a passport for a trip to Mexico for a friend with whose wife the Presidential Aide once had been in love. In regard to this and other information from FBI reports which were made public through the Coplon trial, Barth stated in his Harper's article, "Truly, the Government came into court exposing itself-- or at any rate exposing the FBI--in a most embarrassing way."

In his answer to this statement, Goldwater stated, "Obviously, it was important to find out what Niles's connection was with the Levys. Information was developed that Niles, in fact, was an old friend of the Levys and 'fell in love' with Mrs. Levy prior to her marriage. Certainly, this old friendship was relevant to Niles's action, and I would think that Mr. Barth, if he truly were interested in fair play, would have commended the FBI rather than denounce it for supplying a motive for Niles's action." Goldwater further explained that Levy's passport application was held up because of his possible "involvement in a 1934 passport fraud concerning certain Communists, who have long records of involvement with Soviet espionage."

Although the matters involving the man with the "sixth sense" and involving Niles and the Levys have been explained in proper perspective by Goldwater, thereby offsetting the criticism of Barth, Harper's desires to consider it a matter of "personal opinion" whether the FBI should be lauded or reproached for having included such information in its reports in the first place.

(7) "You are quite right in charging Mr. Barth with inaccuracy in his reference to Sill as 'she' and 'an unidentified informant.' This does not negate his (Barth's) charge that the information was 'a delectable tidbit' of small value at the protection of national security. Similarly, it is true that Judith Coplon was caught with data slips rather than with actual FBI reports, but the slips were culled from reports to which she had access and which were subsequently introduced at her trial."

ANSWER: In Barth's article, reference was made to the reports introduced in the Coplon trial containing "such delectable tidbits of 'information' as the statement of an unidentified informant that she had observed her neighbors 'moving around the house in a nude state' and that her 11-year-old boy said he saw one of these neighbors go out on the porch, undressed, to get the morning paper."

In reply to this, Senator Goldwater pointed out that the 'actual report on file with the record in the Coplon case gives a full explanation.' The Senator stated, "Contrary to Mr. Barth's statement, the informant's name and address appear in the report. He, not 'she,' as he said, went to the FBI because he was suspicious of his next-door neighbor. The neighbor worked at the State Department while his Russian-born wife worked at the OSS. They had frequent gatherings at their home of high-ranking Army and Navy officers. On occasions, great secrecy was maintained when once a month a foreign-appearing person called at the house. The informant very well could have been suspicious by the marked contrast in his neighbor's behavior, as, on the other occasions when there was obviously no need for secrecy, the man and woman moved around the house in the nude and on one occasion the man went out to pick up the newspaper in the nude."

It would appear from the above, then, that the information reported by Mr. Elvin Sill to the Bureau concerning his neighbors was, contrary to Harper's claim, pertinent when seen in proper perspective.

Additionally, the above quoted statement from Harper's letter reflects an admission that contrary to Barth's article, Judith Coplon was caught with data slips, not actual FBI reports.

(6) In it's letter to Senator Goldwater, Harper's quotes Barth as saying:

"In discussing the Remington case I did not attempt, or pretend, to set forth the technical counts of the indictment. I summarized (and with impeccable accuracy) the three points derived from Bentley's charges on which Remington was accused of perjury. Senator Goldwater sets forth (not altogether accurately) the single count of the first indictment against Remington and the five counts of the second. Counts 1 and 4 of the second indictment had nothing to do with Bentley. These counts were based on the testimony of Paul Crouch and other TVA associates. Bentley never alleged that Remington attended party meetings or asked anyone to join the party. Respecting Count 5 of the second indictment, Bentley never pretended (and obviously could not have pretended) that she knew Remington had knowledge of the Young Communist League at Dartmouth College when he was a student there. The perjury charge in this connection arose out of the testimony by Remington's wife and certain college associates.

"The perjury charges arising out of Remington's contradiction of statements made by Bentley were, as I said, exactly three in number. She said, and he denied, that he was a Communist Party member. He was tried on this count and convicted, but the conviction was later reversed because of error in the Judge's charge respecting the definition of party membership. It cannot fairly be inferred from this, as Senator Goldwater infers, that 'Miss Bentley's testimony was believed by the jury.' The jury may well have convicted because it believed the testimony of several other witnesses. It may have convicted because the judge gave it an erroneous idea of party membership. At any rate, when the Government tried Remington again, it omitted this charge entirely. Yet Senator Goldwater says that 'this count is still outstanding.' In point of fact, the Justice Department told the Supreme Court of the United States in November, 1951, that it would drop this count.

"To sum up: Remington was tried for perjury in denying three allegations by Bentley--apart from his denial of allegations by others:

1. That he was a member of the Communist Party. The charge was omitted when he was reindicted and the Government told the Supreme Court that the charge would be dropped.
2. That he paid party dues to Bentley. The jury could not agree.
3. That he gave Bentley government material which she was not authorized to receive. The jury convicted.

"Senator Goldwater adds to this last charge that Remington was convicted of giving Bentley information 'for the purpose of having such information sent to Russia.' Bentley herself testified that Remington had no knowledge that she was transmitting the information he allegedly gave her to Soviet agents."

ANSWER: Relative to Barth's claim that the indictments of Remington as set forth by Goldwater were not altogether accurate, there does not appear to be any basis for this statement, unless Barth objects to the manner in which Goldwater summarized the indictments rather than exactly copying the wording of the indictments. The first indictment of Remington was returned on June 3, 1950, for his having testified as follows:

"Question: At any time have you ever been a member of the Communist Party?"

"Answer: I never have been." (74-1379-1908)

(Goldwater states "Remington was indicted first on June 3, 1950, on the count, namely, his denial of Communist Party membership.")

The second indictment of Remington was on five counts. It was returned by a Federal Grand Jury on October 25, 1951. The first count charges Remington with false testimony as follows:

"Question: Have you ever, to your knowledge, attended Communist Party meetings?"

"Answer: No."

(Goldwater refers to this count as follows: "When he denied that he had ever, to his knowledge, attended Communist Party meetings.")

The second count of the indictment charges Remington with falsely testifying as follows:

"Question: Did you ever give Miss Bentley or anyone else any secret classified information or any information to which they were not entitled?"

"Answer: I definitely did not."

"Question: Or did you ever give such information to anyone for any other purpose?"

"Answer: No, I did not."

(Senator Goldwater refers to this count of the indictment as follows: "Then he denied that he had ever given Elizabeth Bentley or anyone else any classified information or any information to which they were not entitled for the purpose of having such information sent to Russia." In the event Harper's desires to stretch the point, they might object to the manner in which Goldwater lumped the three questions involved in this indictment into a one-sentence synopsis of the indictment.)

Count three of the indictment charges Benington with falsely testifying as follows:

"Question: Have you ever paid Communist Party dues?"

"Answer: I have not."

(Goldwater cites this count as follows: "Then he denied that he had paid Communist Party dues.")

The fourth count of the second indictment charges Benington with falsely testifying as follows:

"Question: Did you ever ask anybody to join the Communist Party, Mr. Benington...?"

"Answer: No, I didn't."

"Question: You are sure and you are positive of that?"

"Answer: Positive."

(Goldwater sets out this count of the indictment as follows: "Then he denied that he had ever asked anyone to join the Communist Party." Again, if Harper's wants to stretch the point, they can object that Goldwater did not mention the question of Benington being positive that he had not asked anyone to join the CP.)

Count 5 of the indictment charges Remington with falsely testifying as follows:

"Question: Now you have testified here regarding the Young Communist League and your membership in it, or knowledge, or association with it.

"Answer: No.

"Question: You have not, you say?

"Answer: I have testified about my lack of membership in it, my lack of association with it.

"Question: Is it your present testimony that you had no knowledge of the existence of the Young Communist League at Dartmouth until your preparation for your defense in this case?

"Answer: I had no knowledge."

(Goldwater describes this count as follows: "Then he denied that he had knowledge of the existence of the Young Communist League at Dartmouth College until his preparation for his defense in connection with his indictment.")

In quoting Barth in its letter to Senator Goldwater, Harper's makes an issue of the fact that Miss Bentley was not in a position to have testified to all counts of the second indictment against Remington. Senator Goldwater did not state that Miss Bentley testified to all counts of the second indictment against Remington. Rather, he set out the full picture in regard to the indictments against Remington, and he fully explained the disposition of the five counts when the case was tried in court.

In connection with the first indictment of Remington - for denying that he was a Communist Party member - Harper's reply to Goldwater quotes Barth as saying that the conviction of Remington was reversed because of error in the Judge's charge to the jury respecting the definition of Party membership. It should be noted that Barth did not give the readers of his article in Harper's the benefit of the information that Remington had been convicted on this count and that the conviction had been reversed - not because of Miss Bentley's testimony - but because the Judge had erred in charging the jury.

Harper's letter further criticizes Goldwater for stating that the first indictment against Remington is still outstanding. The indictment is still outstanding. On August 22, 1951, the Second Circuit Court reversed the conviction of Remington for denying ever having been a member of the Communist Party. On November 2, 1951, the Government filed a motion with the Supreme Court "for leave to apply to the District Court for leave to dismiss" the indictment of June 8, 1950. On December 11, 1951, the Supreme Court denied the Government's motion.

On August 17, 1953, the New York Office advised that Assistant U.S. Attorney Kilsheimer, who was handling the Remington case, stated he was holding in abeyance any disposition of the first indictment of Remington and the two counts outstanding in the second indictment pending the outcome of Remington's appeal. On February 8, 1954, Remington's petition for writ of certiorari filed with the Supreme Court was denied. On February 19, 1954, the New York Office advised that Assistant USA Kilsheimer stated he intended to take no action with respect to the first indictment and the two counts of the second indictment outstanding against Remington. Kilsheimer opined that if the Government should have the first indictment and the two outstanding counts of the second indictment withdrawn, it might leave the door open for the defense (first) to argue against the validity of the second indictment and (second) to make motions that the defendant should be released from prison pending the outcome of their motion against the validity of the second indictment. (74-1379-2208)

By letter dated May 25, 1954, the New York Office advised that Assistant U.S. Attorney Kilsheimer had resigned but prior to his resignation he advised that there were no new developments in regard to the Remington case. Kilsheimer said he was recommending to the USA's office and to the Assistant USA who had been assigned the case that no disposition be made of the first indictment and of the two counts outstanding in the second indictment until Remington has served his sentence. It was observed that Assistant USA Leonard B. Sand, who now is handling the Remington case, advised on May 24, 1954, that he is following Kilsheimer's recommendations concerning the indictments. (74-1379-2217)

In Harper's letter to Goldwater, Barth attempts to make an issue of the fact that Elizabeth Bentley testified that Remington had no knowledge that she was transmitting the information he allegedly gave her to Soviet Agents. Miss Bentley did testify that she did not discuss the purpose of the information with Remington. As previously noted, however, a part of the second count of the October 25, 1951, indictment of Remington involved his giving information for the purpose of having it sent to Russia. (74-1379-1855)

- (9) ".....Actually, he (Barth) says explicitly, 'we may assume that these are not fair or representative samples of the FBI's work' and that the sample made public 'pretty surely does not constitute the cream of FBI reporting' but -- and this is his point -- 'these glimpses of FBI reports are the best that are available to us.' In other words, he (Barth) cited all the secret personnel reports he knew of that had been made public and, therefore, the only reports that could be used in a public discussion of the subject. His thesis is that a question should be asked, a question which has risen because the available evidence suggests that 'the value of an FBI report depends upon who is evaluating it.'"

ANSWER:

Although it is true that the above statements quoted by Harper's Magazine did come from the Barth article, Harper's would have Senator Goldwater believe that these statements were featured prominently in the article. Actually, this is not so. As you know, these statements imply that there was a fairness in Barth's approach to the article, which fairness certainly does not exist. It certainly comes as a surprise that Barth's thesis was "the value of an FBI report depends upon who is evaluating it."

(10) "We cannot find evidence to support your (Goldwater's) suggestion that Barth either 'was not aware of the truth or was unwilling to develop it.' His article seems to us an example of responsible journalism and we cannot agree that the two minor errors of detail you have noted detract seriously from the validity of his argument." (Apparently the "two minor errors of detail" referred to by Harper's are the fact that Judith Coplon was caught with data slips rather than FBI reports and the fact that Mr. Elvin Still reported the information concerning his neighbors running about the house in the nude.) Nor can we find grounds for his view that the article is part of 'a new smear campaign against the FBI.' Both Mr. Barth and our editorial comment in the Personal & Otherwise column emphatically called attention to the general excellence of the record Mr. Hoover and the Bureau have established."

ANSWER: Despite the numerous errors pointed out in Barth's article by Senator Goldwater, Harper's apparently is blind to these errors. Additionally, Harper's is overly generous in referring to the manner in which Barth and Harper's Magazine praised the Bureau.

On page 4 of Harper's letter to Senator Goldwater, the following statement is made:

"We believe that no public agency should be considered immune to constructive criticism; and we think you should be interested in the comment of Representative (Thomas J.) Dodd of Connecticut--a former FBI Agent--who said in the Congressional Record for April 7, 1954, (page 4549):

"I know the exasperations, the heartbreaks, and the frequent frustrations of law-enforcement work, and I know the temptations that police problems present. The very nature of police power makes it a thing to be feared and those who have lived closest to it and who have worked most intimately with it are usually most concerned about it. Even in the very best of hands and under the greatest of safeguards, the exercise of police power should be constantly restrained."

ANSWER:

The above quotation is from page 4549 of the Congressional Record for April 7, 1954, and is part of a statement made by Congressman Thomas J. Dodd, Jr., during a discussion of H. R. 8649 pertaining to wiretapping. It is noted that in his statement before the House of Representatives, Congressman Dodd identified himself as a former FBI Agent and a former prosecutor. His statement was in opposition to wiretapping bill.

Congressman Dodd entered on duty September 18, 1933, and resigned August 30, 1934. While a Special Agent, Dodd brought considerable pressure from Government officials in an effort to be transferred to Boston or New York City. He continually used the illness of his father as an excuse for such a transfer; however, it was ascertained that his father was an excellent physical specimen. Following his resignation, Dodd was reported to be very much opposed to Mr. Hoover and Mr. Tolson, although giving Mr. Hoover, Mr. Tolson and the Bureau plenty of "lip service." In regard to wiretapping, the Atlanta Office reported in March, 1953, that Lane Hubbard, Georgia Manager of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, had advised in the strictest of confidence that he had been introduced to Congressman Dodd in Savannah, Georgia, on March 17, 1953. According to Hubbard, following his introduction to Dodd, Dodd remarked, "I am certainly glad to meet you. We are going to stop these God-damn FBI agents from tapping telephones." (62-29017-106)

The final paragraph of the letter from Harper's to Senator Goldwater states that Goldwater says the FBI has always conducted itself in a proper manner. Harper's says that it must ask, "How do you know?" Harper's then points out that Goldwater says the FBI has never been brought into "the white spotlight of public criticism until the present time."

ANSWER:

Senator Goldwater was, of course, wrong in saying that the FBI had not been subjected to public criticism before Harper's publication of Barth's article.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. BOARDMAN
MR. BELMONT
MR. ROSEN
MR. NICHOLS

Mr. Nichols called from the Phoenix Field Office to report on the progress he had made in looking into the mishandling of the recent kidnaping of [redacted] Mr. Nichols stated he had just returned from his conference with the Mayor who is head of the City Council.

Mr. Nichols advised me that he had been very favorably impressed with Dr. Carpina (phonetic) during his interview of the Doctor. He stated the Doctor had interrupted him to express apologies for the citizens of Phoenix in this matter; that he supported our position and thought Chief of Police Thomas ought to be fired. Mr. Nichols also stated the Doctor indicated that one member of the City Council by the name of John Sullivan supported Thomas and he, the Doctor, told Sullivan that he was all wrong. Mr. Nichols stated that he then went to see Rabbi Bentner and he had been a little concerned about this contact in view of the Rabbi being mixed up with a few front activities. However, he stated the Rabbi categorically said he was impressed with our Agents at the time they were at the house and interviewed Mrs. [redacted] stating they, the Agents, showed a most humane consideration for Mrs. [redacted]

Mr. Nichols stated that he had established that on June 10, the day of the pay-off, an Agent went over to the Police Department to advise them to come to a conference and the Chief of Police said he did not know whether he could come or not. Mr. Nichols also stated that when an Agent went to meet Clem Hoyt, he observed newspapermen go to Hoyt and heard the newspapermen say to Hoyt when you go over there if you have five cars say you are going to have six cars so they could accompany them. Mr. Nichols stated he used this in his presentation of our case.

Mr. Nichols then indicated that when he saw the Mayor told him that he need not say anything; that he would be inclined to think the FBI's actions were o.k. without any explanation. Mr. Nichols stated he told the Mayor that he thought he would be justified in giving him the basic facts and the highlights. Mr. Nichols stated the Mayor then told him that there was only one member of the City Council, John Sullivan, who was taking the side of the Chief of Police and since

Mr. Sullivan was a thoroughly honorable man and was all right he, the Mayor, wondered if I would mind calling him in during the discussion. Mr. Nichols stated he indicated this would be all right and I agreed. Mr. Nichols stated that when he was through briefing them on the facts Sullivan inquired whether he, Nichols, had a written document on this matter and Mr. Nichols told him that he did not that he merely had an outline for his own use. Mr. Nichols stated that Sullivan then inquired whether he could be given a copy and Mr. Nichols advised him, Sullivan, that there was no need to do this that we were merely giving the background as a matter of courtesy. Mr. Nichols then stated that Sullivan commented he would hate to try to prove we were wrong and Mr. Nichols told him that he would not have to prove anything wrong.

Mr. Nichols advised that the Mayor then stated he would have to do something about this and asked if Mr. Nichols were going to talk to the City Manager and Mr. Nichols told him there was no need to do that; that he, Nichols, had already talked to the highest authority, and the Mayor concurred in this.

Mr. Nichols then stated Sullivan said he would call the City Manager to instruct the Chief of Police that they were to have no further contact with the FBI and he, Mr. Nichols, indicated that Sullivan then wanted to know the implications of no dealing with the Chief of Police by the FBI and whether or not we would accept fingerprint cards for examination. Mr. Nichols told Sullivan that if they send fingerprint cards we would handle them and then Sullivan inquired whether we would accept evidence and Sullivan was advised that we would not. Mr. Nichols stated that he took this opportunity to tell Sullivan that we had heard that the Chief of Police was sending evidence to some private agency in Los Angeles and Sullivan stated he thought this had gone far enough and a halt should be called to it. Mr. Nichols stated that Sullivan then inquired if we would help in police schools and he was advised that we would not as long as Thomas was Chief of Police and Sullivan was given the same answer when he inquired if we would accept anyone for the National Academy. Mr. Nichols stated that Sullivan then inquired what we would do if we had to work with the Police Department and he was advised that if a matter of urgency or of grave public necessity arose we would work with the Chief of Detectives but we would not work with the Chief of Police. Mr. Nichols stated he was now prepared to see the press and would advise me accordingly when this had been done. I told him not to tell the press what he had said to the City Council but he should advise them as I had previously instructed him. I asked him to call me when this had been done.

Mr. Nichols then stated that former Special Agent Lee Pennington was on the same plane as he was when going to Phoenix and Mr. Pennington was also helping our cause through his contacts there. Mr. Nichols stated he had also called on the United States Attorney who was very sympathetic. He stated that he had also learned that Senator Barry Goldwater was in Phoenix but had just left for Washington and he thought he should contact the Senator when he got back to Washington concerning this matter and I told him that would be all right. Mr. Nichols explained that Senator Goldwater was at one time a member of the City Council.

Mr. Nichols then stated he did not know how long Mr. Harbo and he should stay and I told him I wanted everything nailed down before they left. I told him to get in touch with me after he had seen the press and it was possible that he could return then and Mr. Harbo could finish up on the administrative angle. He stated he would do this.

Mr. Nichols then inquired whether it would be all right to let SAC Norris attend a Sheriffs' Convention at Flagstaff, Arizona, if they were through with him. He stated that Norris would be gone over tomorrow. I stated if it worked out that they were through with him it would be all right for him to go.

When Mike Bessie, the son-in-law of Morris Ernst, was in the Bureau several weeks ago wanting to renew his proposition for the Director to do a book for Harper's, I told him off. He apparently went back and made some comment to John Fischer, the editor of Harper's, as Fischer sent me a personal letter on June 3 denying that he had ever received the Director's letter of February 24. He also sent a copy of a letter he had written on June 3 to Senator Goldwater, which is a weak letter, seeking to justify the article and claiming there were only a few minor mistakes which is just so much hog wash.

Goldwater was not too much concerned but sent me the letter from Fischer with the request I return it to him in due time. I have seen Barry on a couple of occasions. He does not intend to answer the Fischer letter. On every occasion I have seen him I have told him his position is sound.

I do not think that we should let Fischer get by without challenging his letter of June 3 and I have written him a personal and confidential letter, for my signature, making it crystal clear this is a personal communication and is not for publication, wherein I set forth an answer to each of the points in the order he makes them in his letter. Undoubtedly, Barth wrote the letter or furnished the material for Fischer's use in replying to Goldwater. I think we should nail Barth and Fischer on this. I am not concerned, however, with Senator Goldwater.

If you approve, I would like to send the attached letter to Fischer. I will then return the original of the Fischer letter to Goldwater which Goldwater furnished me to Goldwater, and will then give Goldwater a copy of my letter to Fischer.

I regret the delay in writing Fischer but this letter come in shortly before I went to Phoenix and I simply have not had the opportunity to write the letter. As it was, I had to do this between midnight and 3 a.m. Monday night.

Honorable Barry Goldwater
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

My dear Senator:

Mr. Nichols has brought to my attention your letter of August 3, 1954, and the letter from Mrs. Stewart L. Barnard, of Phoenix, Arizona.

From time to time during past years, I have made several talks on Communism, and I have also prepared for publication a number of articles on that subject. Enclosed are reprints of some of those articles and speeches. They were prepared with the hope that they might help to alert the American people to the menace of the vicious Communist conspiracy, and I thought you might like to make these items available to Mrs. Barnard.

Regarding subversive organizations, I suggest you refer Mrs. Barnard to the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," prepared by the Un-American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives. Copies of that booklet may be obtained for thirty-five cents each by writing directly to the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Corner of North Capitol and H Streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C. In addition, a copy of the list of organizations cited as subversive by the Attorney General may be obtained by communicating with Mr. G. Frederick Mullen, Director of Public Information, U. S. Department of Justice, Washington, D. C.

With reference to Mrs. Barnard's question as to whether this Bureau has developed some standard with which to deal with the problem of labeling various ideologies sympathetic to the theories of Communism, you might point out to her that the FBI is strictly a fact-finding agency. We do not, therefore, make evaluations concerning the character or integrity of any individual, publication or organization.

In accordance with your request, Mrs. Barnard's letter is returned herewith. I hope that the above will be of assistance to you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Lou:

It occurred to me that, rather than have this letter acknowledged by my own inadequate expressions, you might like an opportunity to comment on the subject which Mrs. Barnard presents therein.

I shall be most grateful to you, therefore, for any helpful information which you can provide, and I shall appreciate your returning the attachment with your reply.

With best personal wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Senator Barry Goldwater:

Recent articles have been published, reassuring the citizens of these United States, that the Department of Defense has been making progress in dealing with Communism within government posts, defense plants, and other facets of our country. Little has been published about the advances made by F.B.I. in relation to the field of education, however.

Can you inform interested parents, like myself, what steps have been taken in that direction, on a state and national level, in regards to the various ideologies, psychologies, and sociologies, sympathetic with the theories of Communism? Under the guise of liberalism and controversial issues, it is hard to label these issues without being accused of "thought control". Can we be assured that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has developed some standard with which to deal with this current problem?

As loyal pro-Americans, we feel it is our duty to protect the minds of today's children and to defend them from the "war on the mind" processes. Our children mean a great deal to us; we must defend their future. I should appreciate any information, pamphlets and publications, relative to the subject in question. It would be helpful to parents, I believe, if the line where "Freedom of Thought" ends, were more clearly defined.

If any information on subversive organizations within the state and national governments are available, I should more than appreciate my name being placed on the mailing list.

Thank you for any help on this subject which you may offer.

Yours respectfully,

Mrs. Stewart L. Barnard

Dear Mr. Nichols:

Barney Goldwater

When I got back from Europe yesterday, Mr. Russell Lynes showed me your letters of August 7th and July 28th. The latter was marked "PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL". May I have your permission to send it along to Alan Barth with a request for his comments?

A number of the points which you raised seem to me well taken, or at least to call for some explanation from Mr. Barth, and I would like to hear what he has to say about them.

We do not, of course, have any facilities for detailed checking on the contents of articles submitted to us. We try to make sure that we accept material only from authors who are known to be careful and reliable reporters. I had every reason to believe that Mr. Barth is a responsible writer; as you no doubt know, his reputation in Washington newspaper circles is quite high. The letter we sent to Senator Goldwater was, of course, based upon material supplied to us by Mr. Barth, and to the best of our knowledge this material was carefully gathered and documented. I must say, however, that your letter of July 28th raises serious questions on several points; hence, my request for permission to pass it along to Mr. Barth.

Sincerely,

John Fischer

Shortly before 6 p. m. tonight, Ed Ethel in Fred Mullen's office advised he was trying to get up some information for Bill Rogers to furnish to Senator Barry Goldwater at the latter's request relative to the total number of photographers retained by the Justice Department. Ethel was asked if he was getting the data for the various agencies, such as Immigration and Naturalization, Prisons Bureau, etc., and as to whether he was interested in all photographic work or just in personnel classified as photographers inasmuch as the Bureau employees in many classifications use photography in their official work, such as Agents in the field, laboratory examiners, etc. Ethel stated he did not know what was behind the request and that he was going to limit his information strictly to those classified as photographers.

Ethel was advised we would have to make a check and call him back in the morning.

Mr. Mohr advised that there are 27 photographers at the SOG and 25 in the field or a total of 52 employees. Accordingly Ethel has been advised that photographic work is handled by technicians here and in the field having other duties as well and we just do not have a figure we can give him.

Dear Boss:

One of the sidelights of the Bioff killing I thought you might like to know came to light in a conversation between Mrs. Bioff and SA Brower of this office. Brower has told me but has not mentioned it to anyone else.

mrs. Willie Bioff Nev. Arizona

Mrs. Bioff told Brower that recently (how recently she did not say and she was not pressed on the matter) Willie, Mrs. Bioff, Senator and Mrs. Barry Goldwater and Harry Rosenzweig spent some time in Las Vegas, Nevada, together. How much time she also did not mention and Brower did not press her for it. She speculated to Brower that possibly some hoodlum or other in Las Vegas might have spotted Willie and taken it from there to here to even up an old score.

mrs. David Goldwater Sheriff's office

I don't know how long it will take the SO boys to find out that Willie was in Las Vegas or with whom he was there, but the way the news is breaking, a story that the Senator was intimate enough with Bioff to spend time with him in Las Vegas would probably not do him any good. It cannot be that the Senator knew nothing about Willie's background because from what I can gather Goldwater at one time was trying to help Bioff get a Presidential pardon.

This for your info and any action you deem appropriate. I am doing nothing here.

Sincerely

Frank Crosby

Senator Goldwater, (R) Arizona, extended his remarks to include an address he delivered before the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at Tucson, Arizona, on October 12, 1955. Mr. Goldwater in speaking on the accomplishments of the Republican administration stated "All instances of encroachment on constitutional rights of Negro citizens anywhere in the United States have been investigated by the Justice Department and action taken to correct these abuses; for example, the quick action and fervor with which the FBI is investigating the murder of Rev. George Lee in Belzone, Miss., has seldom been equaled in its history."

During lunch with Darrell Coover today, Mr. Coover expressed his indignation over Judge Murray's remarks concerning the Director's press release covering the arrest of Communist John C. Hellman in Montana recently. Coover is a native of Shelby, Montana, and is thoroughly disgusted with Murray's conduct, as, he states, is Senator Goldwater. Coover stated that he is sure the Bureau well knows how Senator Goldwater feels about the Director and the Bureau. He said that the Senator is out of town a great deal of the time and that if there is anything the Bureau would like to have the Senator's office do during the Senator's absence, Coover would be only too happy to receive a telephone call or a visit.

Coover recently took a tour through the Bureau with his parents and stated he believes all young folks should see the Bureau's exhibits, as strong object lessons on what happens to criminals. He took his tour during the Easter rush, and was impressed not only by the number of young people going through the Bureau, but by the excellent way the tours were handled, in spite of the crowds.

had a small cocktail party last evening of Congressional people to get some idea as to what they were thinking about a variety of situations. He states that he is confused as to whether Congress is interested in economy, the reaction of the Congress towards the union mess, etc. Accordingly, he had the following at the party: Senator Barry Goldwater, Arizona; Senator Charles E. Potter, Michigan; Senator Styles Bridges, New Hampshire; Senator Andrew F. Schoepel, Kansas; Congressman Thor C. Tollefson of Washington, and Congressman Jack Westland, Washington.

Also specially invited were Inspector my brother, and myself.

Several comments follow made during the course of the affair which are of particular interest:

Senator Goldwater. The Senator knows Mr. Nichols but stated that he wished he had an opportunity to know you better as he feels that you are the only career man in the Government. He has never been through the Bureau and would like to make arrangements to tour it. I told him that I would tell Mr. Nichols and arrange it for some time at the Senator's convenience during the next several months. He noted that he had recently defended the Bureau against comments made by the "Washington Post" newspaper.

Goldwater is a member of the McClellan Committee and orated for some time on the committee. He observed that many of the most effective and powerful union organizers in the early 1930's were Communists. He said that John L. Lewis and other union leaders originally intended to use them as organizers with the idea that they would ultimately dump them. Lewis, Reuther, and the others later on found that it was most difficult to dump these people. He said that was only a front "goon" and that the big effort was to find out who were the principals in back of him. Goldwater noted the committee was doing its best to suppress any political phase to the hearings and that although Dave Beck and Reuther both came out for Eisenhower, nothing much in addition was done by them in support of Ike so no one was concerned on the committee about any political implications.

Goldwater, in a mysterious way, said that the details of the Scranton, Pennsylvania, and the New York City union situation would make what has come out so far mere child's play. He said that the committee had as witnesses five individuals, all out of prisons where they were being held under murder charges, to testify and that from the data gained from these individuals, it was obvious anything went. He described in some detail the physical bombing and destruction of one individual's home and told in general terms about another individual who would not play ball with the union as winding up in a cement casket in the river.

Winding up Senator Goldwater's remarks was the only really new point to me. He said that Reuther brought a new factor to the bargaining tables, i. e., politics. Reuther could get whatever he wanted in the House side of Congress without any trouble at all. He said that as management, anyone could deal with Beck, John L. Lewis, etc., but that Reuther was, to his mind, the most dangerous individual this country has.

Senator Bridges discussed in some detail the problem of cutting the budget. He said that the Republican situation, which worries them, is that if they arrange a tax cut now it will go into effect in 1958 and the Democrats will be enabled to take credit for it. He also noted that in his opinion the 1500-mile guided missile could very well be completely ready within a year and would make B-58's obsolete. He described in some detail the fact that the Eisenhower administration had inherited a debt of $80,700,000,000 from the Truman administration, which the public did not understand would have to be paid off and it looked like the Republicans would have to do it, which puts them in a very poor position to explain the situation at this time to the people.

Bridges went into some detail as to how stupid he thought the Director of the Budget Brundage is. It was his feeling that he did not hold a candle to the general competence of [redacted]. He said that it is positively amazing to him that the President's personal representative did not know that the funds received by the Post Office were not recurring funds but instead went into the general Treasury. It was Bridges who made the remark to the press, when asked by a reporter why Brundage had only received three letters for economy whereas the Senators had received thousands, that --

b7C

Memo for the Director

referring to Brundage -- "who knows the SOB." As a result of this comment, which was rephrased to leave out the "SOB," Brundage at the next morning's White House conference markedly cut Senator Bridges until someone from the White House staff, seeing the situation, talked to Brundage, whereupon Brundage thereafter very reluctantly greeted the Senator.

I might note that the Senator said that the Senate has every intention of maintaining all the cuts, where legal, that the House has put in, but that undoubtedly, because of legality, some of them would have to be changed. He further said that the House didn't do sufficiently in this line and that there would be considerable more cuts originated by the House. (I talked to him later about the Bureau's situation, and he said for the first time he was worried as to hearings on the Senate side for the Bureau. It has been several years since we have had to have them and he said that he would try to see that this situation continued. However, he noted that this is the largest outcry from the public and the Congress for across-the-board cuts that we have had in years. He pointed out also that we must remember that Senator Ellender of Louisiana is a member of the subcommittee that handles us. I will follow this situation with him.)

Senator Potter was very commendatory toward you personally and stated that you were the "savviest administrator in Washington." He noted that he had read the request of the Bureau for its appropriation and that it was set up so that "any sensible man" could understand what was being talked about.

Potter is obviously scared that he will not be re-elected in 1958, but says regardless of who doesn't like it in his home state of Michigan, he feels that the budget should be cut to the bone. It is his opinion that a billion dollars could be cut from the budget of the Defense Department and they would never even feel it.

[redacted] in long rambling and somewhat incoherent letter criticized Senator Goldwater for a statement attributed to the Senator in Pittsburgh newspapers on 9-2-57 that the world would have been better off if Walter Reuther had stayed in Russia. He accused the Senator of "low level of intelligence" in making such a statement. Mr. Barry Goldwater.
U.S. Senator.
My Dear Sir:-

According to Pittsburg, Pa. Press, September 2, 1957, you stated that the world would be better off if he, Walter Reuther, President Of United Auto Workers, had stayed in Russia when he was there. You said you made the statement "facetiously" because you thought he, Reuther, "with his beliefs, would be happier there." Mr. Goldwater, your "facetiousism" is neither jocular; jocose; witty; funny or humorous.

You, as a Senator, by such statements places you in the realm of a very low level of intelligence, or an intoxicated distorted mind, when dealing and discussing International trends and events, regardless of membership of the Senate Investigating Committee.

Your statement on TV "Meet The Press" of: "I don't trust Reuther because of his Socialist beliefs." "I don't want a Socialist heading our (?) labor movements." poses the question: What do you want, a Mussolini, a Hitler, a Tojo, or the U.S. Chamber of Commerce with flying, flitting and fiddling Dulles, as their Ambassador?

The above two statements coming from a U.S. Senator as realities are idiotic, assinine and hypocritical in their entirety and if not recognizable by you. The suggestion of a self analysis would be in order, even tho it be non-beneficial.

It is utterly ridiculous as well as laughable listening to the bombastical mouthings of the present conglomeration of brains (?) located in Washington, D.C.--some people calling it, Washington, D.C. "Robber's Roost" what they would like the "grass roots" to think they know about Socialism and Communism and Superstition garbed in the cloak of--Religion. Is it, or can it be possible, you legislatures really think the people of this country all moronic Homo-Sapiens, and do not read anything but the daily sewer, misnamed, Public Press? Better get your feet on Terra-Firma. Brother.

The late reception given to the Russian TU-104 by this country and the press in general certainly did, and has, shown up the bigotry and hatred of the so-called leaders of this country. No wonder the peoples of the world hurl the charge of "War-Mongers" at the U.S.

All you legislatures, with a few exceptions, rail at, and about that country. But nary a peep of recognition, that that country has more Schools, Colleges, Universities and Academies than all the rest of Europe combined, while this, the richest country in the world --supposed to be--is sending many, many of its children to school in barns, wash-rooms, outdated buildings, and listed as fire-traps; without toilet facilities, old barns; coal bins; converted storage rooms; quonset huts, even old rail-road coaches, have been pressed into service placing an old locomotive along side to furnish heat in the cold weather.

TRUE COPY

ENCLOSURE 62-98961-12

Nary a word or peep do the people hear from thier legislatures about how the children, young men and women in that country go from the kindergarten up and thru the Colleges, Acadamies and Univerities without a penny cost to them. A large number being given stipends while learning, and employment waiting for them as they leave to door of learning. While in this country, if you don't have the money or a pull, your dreams of the future are blasted while you are dodging booms, busts and unemployment and soup kitchens with the extra tabloid of "To Old" at 35.

Nary a chirp from any of you about how all medical, hospital and sanitorium care and medicene in that country is absolutely free to all its citizens regardless of race, creed or color. While the N.M.A. in this country by and thru the lethergy of our legislatures, pump the populace full of dopes and seriums and skinning the hides off them at the same time thru day light--robbery, diplomatically termed Fees.

Not even the ligt of an eye-brow of you legislatures to the fact, that in that country today the minnimum "Old Age Pension" is $75.00 up to $300.00 per month. Elgibility? From 45 in some occupations up to 65 the maximum. For the blind, crippled, incapaciated, and mentally retarded, including hospital, medicene and appliances needed. After 65 and on pension, if able, you may continue in your employment at no reduction in compensation and hold the right of Health protection. Not like they do in this country. Kick you out on the scrap heap of unemploymnt and grudgingly give you from 18.00 to 100.00 dollars (which is rare) no medical assistance unless you happen to drop on the public street from disease and exhaustion due to the lack of some where near proper food. And set you and your few belonging out in the street because you don't get enough pension money to satisfy the greedy and goulish Real Estate Co's. While the country you hate, gives, in many instances, a home free of rent, taxes, heat and light as long as you may live. Of course I realize that is an Atheistic country that does such things. Something that would destroy our Christian Religion if it was instituted here.

Never a speek from any of you legislatures about how that country will in 1960, harvest enough wheat and grain to give four one pound loaves of bread to every man, woman and child in the whole world every week. Thereby demonstrating to the peoples of the world, that hunger and want can be wiped from the face of this globe, providing the War Idiots in this and some other countries do not depopulate the earth by thier Christian bombs and missiles coupled with thier fervent prayers for God and country.

You don't like them because they don't believe in God, or a God. What has the God's in existance in the world today, done for the billions who blindly, stupidly and glibly bow the knee of servility, wear the yoke of conformity which produces want, disease, ignorance terminating in the blessing called death?

Now, Please, don't expose more ignorance by asking: Why don't I go to Russia? I don't intend to go any where outside this country. But I intend to agitate and work for a more humane, intellegent way of life in this country. And, Mr. Goldwater, if that be Socialism, Communism, Anarchy, Taoism, Buddism, Cathoicism, Protestantism or what have you, my answer is, may evolution speed the day of birth.

Respectfully Yours.

SUBJECT: INQUIRY OF SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER
ENCLOSING LETTERS CONCERNING THE BOOK, "THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA,"
BY JOHN BEATY

By letter of October 10, 1957, Dean Burch, Administrative Assistant to Senator Goldwater, wrote you enclosing a letter to Lieutenant General George E. Stratemeyer dated October 4, 1955, from Henry Edward Schultz, the National Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League. This letter advised Stratemeyer that his name was being used to promote the captioned book which is anti-Semitic and has the approval of Gerald L. K. Smith. A copy of Stratemeyer's letter to Schultz dated October 12, 1955, is also enclosed wherein Stratemeyer stated he authorized Beaty (the writer of the book) to use his letter to Beaty and stating he does not consider the book anti-Semitic, but rather believes it defends all loyal American Jews. Stratemeyer uses scorching language in criticizing Schultz stating that Schultz's letter is the most outrageous communication he has ever received and he intends to give it the widest possible publicity, including his many Jewish friends. Senator Goldwater wanted to know who is distributing copies of these letters.

Bufiles reveal that General Stratemeyer sent the same two letters to the Director without cover letter in a envelope postmarked October 27, 1955, containing the handwritten notation, "For your information. G. E. S." Copies of the letters were made and the originals were returned to Stratemeyer by letter from the Director on November 4, 1955. (100-530-330) Information in Bufiles re General Stratemeyer is favorable and reflects no close contact with him. (94-4-4660)

The Bureau has received previous inquiries concerning this book which has been branded anti-Semitic by B'nai B'rith. The general theme of the book is that the "Iron Curtain" of America is Jewish in nature, although the author claims not to be anti-Semitic. Inasmuch as the book is controversial, the Director has declined comment on it. (100-353384-7)

Bufiles disclose that the Director has had cordial correspondence with the author, John Beaty, dating back to at least 1940. Beaty is a Professor at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, and has served with Military Intelligence Service for five years during World War II. He is the author of a number of additional books. (94-4-4660)

RECOMMENDATION: That the attached letter be sent to Senator Goldwater's Administrative Assistant, Mr. Dean Burch.

Your letter to Mr. L. B. Nichols of October 10, 1957, with enclosure, making inquiry as to who is distributing the letters regarding the book, "The Iron Curtain Over America," has been referred to me.

While the FBI is unable to answer your inquiry, it would appear quite probable that either General Stratemeyer or the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith may possess the information you desire.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

On Friday, December 20, 1957, I paid a courtesy call on Senator Barry Goldwater (Republican) of Arizona, at which time he assured me that any time he or his office could be of assistance he would be most happy to do so.

During the conversation with Senator Goldwater, he stated that he had not had too much contact with the Bureau except from time to time to try to get the Bureau to relent concerning its attitude toward the Phoenix Police Department. He stated he had not been successful in this respect but that he could not blame the Bureau for its feelings toward Chief of Police Thomas. He did state that he hoped to see the matter cleared up eventually.

I thought you would be interested in his remarks since this is a matter of concern to most of the officials in the Phoenix area.

 SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER (Republican,

 ALLEGED THREAT OF PHYSICAL HARM
 United Press News Release 10-24-58

Pursuant to your request re captioned matter, ASAC E. J. VanLoon, Phoenix, was telephonically contacted 10-25-58 at 1:58 p.m. ASAC VanLoon was furnished contents of United Press news release 10-24-58 (attached) which indicated that "Senator Barry Goldwater today refused to 'take seriously' a threat of physical violence phone to his mother." ASAC VanLoon advised Phoenix had received no complaint re captioned matter; that he would make discreet inquiry and would immediately advise Bureau if information known to Phoenix police.

At 3:05 p.m., 10-25-58, ASAC VanLoon telephonically advised that Phoenix police were aware of complaint, that no positive information had been developed and that no information of interest in this matter to the Bureau was available.

ASAC VanLoon advised that Senator Goldwater made a political speech in Phoenix 10-23-58 which was broadcast by television; that as a result, Phoenix newspapers had carried charges that AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE) was involved in Arizona politics and was sending labor representatives into Arizona in an attempt to influence the election. ASAC VanLoon mentioned the United Press news release 10-24-58 and its reference to "an out of state labor hoodlum . . ." may possibly relate to [redacted] a California COPE agent in Arizona organizing votes for COPE supported candidates on the Democratic ticket. [redacted] reportedly has criminal records in California Criminal Identification and Investigation Bureau, criminal number [redacted] California, arrest number [redacted] Data regarding [redacted] and his role in Arizona politics furnished Bureau in Crimdel airtel from Phoenix 10-22-58.

Phoenix was advised to promptly bring to Bureau's attention any further information it receives in captioned matter.

Bureau files contain numerous references to COPE in "The Victor Riesel Column" by Victor Riesel in which COPE is identified as the AFL-CIO's own national political committee which concerns itself in directing and getting the labor vote on a national scope.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

When Peggy and I returned from our vacation, I found your thoughtful letter of November 5th, and I want to take this opportunity to express my deep satisfaction at having merited such a statement from you.

Some day, I would like to sit down and tell you how men trained by you helped me in this election. I think there is much to be learned from what they exposed, and I know that you would be interested in some of the revelations.

I've always enjoyed working with your organization, and I look forward now to six more years of that pleasure.

With best personal wishes,

Wilson White was contacted and informed that we wanted to call this case to his attention as our investigation had been completed. White said he was glad he had been contacted and to know that the investigation was finished as the Attorney General had asked him earlier this week about the case and when the investigation would be finished. White said he had told the Attorney General it would probably take another week or so and he was glad to know it was completed.

White was also informed that information had been received indicating the State of Arizona AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education had filed a petition with the Senate asking that Senator Goldwater not be seated until this investigation had been completed. No mention was made to White of the fact that Senator Hayden had called the Bureau since the action by the Arizona Committee on Political Education had been published in the newspapers. Despite this White said he had not heard of the petition and asked whether it would be possible for us to obtain a copy of the petition for him. It was pointed out to White it was not known whether a copy might be available and that it might be inappropriate for the Bureau to make such an inquiry.

White's attention was specifically directed to our previous memorandum of December 8, 1958, pointing out the refusal of [redacted] a union official whose fingerprint was found on one of the cartoons of cartoons, to furnish information and suggesting that consideration be given to bringing him before a grand jury. He was also informed that others involved in the Committee on Political Activities in Arizona had refused to furnish information and it appeared that it would be necessary to bring these individuals before a grand jury to furnish information under oath concerning this case.

Memorandum to the Director

White said that he recognized the importance of this matter and that it required prompt attention.

With regard to White's request that we endeavor to secure a copy of the petition filed with the Senate it is suggested that he be telephonically informed that no copy of the petition has been furnished to us; that it would be inappropriate for the Bureau to make inquiry in this regard and suggest the Department may desire to secure such a copy through its own sources on the Hill.

A suggested letter to the Attorney General with copies to Deputy Attorney General Walsh and White is attached.

Mr. [redacted] of Senator Goldwater's office called at 5:34 PM, February 6, 1959, and stated that Senator Goldwater was very interested in obtaining copies of approximately seven checks which he had turned over to Agents of the Washington Field Office on January 30, 1958, in connection with the activities of the International Union United Automobile, Aircraft, and Agricultural, Implement Workers of America. [redacted] stated that the checks had been endorsed by an individual by the name of [redacted]. He stated the Senator planned to leave Washington by plane at 11:30 AM, Saturday morning, February 7, 1959, and desired to take copies of the checks with him.

After considerable checking on the part of the Investigative Division, it turned out that [redacted] actually meant 17 checks rather than seven checks and that the checks were endorsed with the name [redacted] rather than [redacted]. A letter from the Washington Field Office dated February 18, 1958, reflected that Senator Goldwater had turned Photostats of these checks over to the Washington Field Office explaining the Bureau might desire to put them in its files. He stated that the Photostats were made from other Photostats which had been furnished to the Special Committee to Investigate Activities, Lobbying and Campaign Contributions. Senator Goldwater was serving on this committee at the time these checks were turned over to the Washington Field Office.

Mr. [redacted] called by my office on Saturday morning, February 7, 1959, at 11:00 AM and was given Photostats of the checks in question. He was most appreciative. He was, of course, specifically advised that the Senator should make no mention of the fact these checks came from FBI files. He was told that we were merely returning the property of the Senator's.

There is attached a memorandum from the Investigative Division which reflects that an investigation was conducted in this matter in the early part of 1958 at the request of the Civil Rights Division. By memorandum dated July 2, 1958, the Civil Rights Division advised that no further investigation was desired in this matter.

According to a news item which appeared in a local newspaper, Peoria, Illinois, Senator Goldwater, at a press conference prior to a speech before the Peoria Bar Association, stated that Local 974, UAW, had violated Federal law by spending $7,000 to support political candidates from 1952 to 1954. The Senator then exhibited 17 Photostats of checks which he claimed came from the files of the FBI. This matter also appeared on the United Press International ticker on Sunday, February 8, 1959. The Senator, of course, if he did make the remarks attributed to him, is wrong in his assumption inasmuch as we were merely returning his checks to him.

ACTION:

Although we have received no press inquiries as yet on this matter, it is recommended that I call upon Senator Goldwater today and in a tactful manner inform him that if he did make the remarks in question, he might desire to remember that we were merely returning checks which represented his original property. He will be told that in the event he receives any inquiries regarding his statement, he might desire to set the press straight in so far as the true facts are concerned. In the event we receive any inquiries, it is recommended we advise the press that Senator Goldwater referred this matter to us in January, 1958. We furnished all the facts to the Department and the Department indicated no further investigation was desired in the matter. The press will be told that we merely returned the Senator's property to him.

SUBJECT: SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER (R. - Ariz.)

My memo 2-9-59 reflected the return of 17 checks to Senator Goldwater on Saturday morning, 2-7-59. Mr. [redacted] of the Senator's Office had specifically requested these checks, the Senator having previously given these checks to an Agent of the Washington Field Office on 1-30-58. In a press conference, Peoria, Illinois, on Saturday night, 2-7-59, Senator Goldwater was quoted as making the statement, "I obtained these checks from the files of the FBI." The Director approved a recommendation that I call upon Senator Goldwater Monday, 2-9-59, and tactfully remind him that we had merely returned checks which represented his original property. We also desired to point out to the Senator that he might desire to straighten out the press in the event the opportunity presented itself.

b7C

I talked with [redacted] the Administrative Assistant, on 2-9-59 and he advised that Senator Goldwater would be out of town all week on a speaking tour. He stated the Senator would be talking to his office during the late afternoon of 2-9-59. The circumstances of this matter were explained to [redacted] and he indicated that he felt certain the Senator would straighten this matter out immediately. I told [redacted] that the Director felt very close to Senator Goldwater and was, of course, not displeased. However, we were getting a number of inquiries with respect to the Senator's statement and it was felt that the Senator might desire to give out the correct facts. [redacted] agreed and stated he knew the Senator would want to do this.

b7C

Mr. [redacted] called me at 4:30 p. m., 2-9-59, to state he had discussed this matter with Senator Goldwater and that the Senator was most apologetic. The Senator told [redacted] that what he had actually said to the reporters was, "I got these checks back from the FBI." The Senator told [redacted] that the Director should be advised and he will straighten this matter out with the press and will, of course, be on his guard not to repeat like statements in additional speeches he is making this week against Reuther and the United Automobile Workers.

b6
b7C

I told [redacted] we certainly were appreciative of the way this matter had been handled and that the Senator's comments would be given to the Director immediately.

SUBJECT: SENATOR BARRY M. GOLDWATER
(REPUBLICAN - ARIZONA)

PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND:

Per Director's request there is set forth below pertinent information appearing in Bufiles concerning captioned individual.

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA:

Goldwater, a Republican of Phoenix, Arizona, was born in January, 1909, in Phoenix. He attended the University of Arizona for one year. Goldwater served with the U. S. Air Force in World War II. He was a member of the City Council of Phoenix prior to being elected to the Senate in November, 1952.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

We have had very cordial correspondence with Goldwater over the years. In March, 1954, on the floor of the Senate, Goldwater denounced Alan Barth's article criticizing the FBI which appeared in the March issue of "Harper's Magazine." The Director thanked him by letter dated 3-30-54.

In connection with a kidnaping case during late 1954, Senator Goldwater contacted the Bureau at the request of the Mayor of Phoenix concerning our refusal to cooperate with the Phoenix Police Department. Former Assistant Director Nichols explained to the Senator the unreliability of the Chief of Police of Phoenix and Goldwater advised the Mayor that he felt the FBI was entirely right in this matter.

Goldwater was an associate of Willie Bioff, the racketeer who was killed when a bomb blew up his truck on 11-4-55 in Phoenix, Arizona. Goldwater reportedly had been trying to help Bioff get a Presidential pardon.

66 MAR 13 1959 Goldwater has referred numerous inquiries and letters of information received from constituents to the FBI over the years. By letter dated 2-24-58 the Director congratulated Senator Goldwater on receiving an award from Freedoms Foundation on his essay, "The Liberal and The Conservative." Senator Goldwater was among those Congressmen who received a copy of "Masters of Deceit." We sent Goldwater a letter of congratulations upon his re-election to the Senate on 11-5-58.

Jones to DeLoach memorandum

According to a news item which appeared in a local newspaper, Peoria, Illinois, on 2-7-59, Senator Goldwater, at a press conference prior to a speech before the Peoria Bar Association, stated that Local 974, United Auto Workers, had violated Federal law by spending $7,000 to support political candidates from 1952-1954. The Senator then exhibited 17 Photostats of checks which he claimed came from the files of the FBI. Actually, we had conducted an investigation on this matter in the early part of 1958. During the course of the investigation, Senator Goldwater was contacted by an Agent of the Washington Field Office in connection with another investigation. At that time, Senator Goldwater furnished Photostats of 17 checks which pertained to the United Workers matter. These checks were later returned to him and are the checks that he mentioned at his press conference.

It was recommended and approved that Mr. DeLoach call on Senator Goldwater and in a tactful manner inform him that if he did make the remarks attributed to him he might desire to remember that we were merely returning checks which represented his original property and that he also might desire to set the press straight insofar as the true facts were concerned. Mr. DeLoach did take this matter up with the Administrative Assistant to Senator Goldwater as the Senator was out of town. His Administrative Assistant later called, advised he had taken the matter up with the Senator and the Senator was most apologetic. He assured that he would straighten the matter out with the press.

On 2-17-59 we wrote a cordial letter to Senator Goldwater congratulating him upon being selected to receive the annual award of the American Jewish League Against Communism.

I received a telephone call late yesterday afternoon from [redacted] in Senator Barry Goldwater's office in which I was advised the Senator was considering appointing [redacted] and Dr. [redacted] to a new subcommittee of the Labor Committee which will deal with the problem of the aged and the aging. [redacted] advised the Senator was interested in receiving any guidance we could give him on the associations of either [redacted] or [redacted] is presently [redacted] of the clearinghouse on the aging for the Council of State Governments and has written several books on the problem of dealing with older people. He originally is from Illinois and has taught political science at the University of Chicago and is a member of the National Committee on Aging and the Illinois Board of the Gerontological Association. Dr. [redacted] is a professor of sociology, Wayne University, Detroit, and has previously served at the University of Michigan and the University of California at Los Angeles. [redacted] is to be the research director for the new subcommittee and [redacted] is to be the head of the new subcommittee.

The Bureau has not conducted any investigation of either [redacted] or [redacted]. Apparently, [redacted] is identical with one Lieutenant [redacted] a member of the Navy against whom allegations were made in 1951 by Dr. [redacted] Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, who alleged that [redacted] one of his former students, had admitted to him that he was a communist. The Bureau opened a file on [redacted] but investigation was discontinued when [redacted] indicated he was no longer interested in Government employment. The Navy subsequently, on completion of its check, advised the Bureau that [redacted] name was being submitted to the Naval Reserve Officer Disposition Board for consideration of possible discharge due to inactivity.

Dr. [redacted] according to Bureau file 100-16-16 (Socialist Workers Party - Detroit Division), is described as a strong advocate of civil rights and though his name has appeared several times in years gone

After checking, I called the Senator back and told him that we could not identify these individuals by name and apparently had never investigated them; consequently, we could be of no assistance. He expressed appreciation.

The Senator's call gave me an opportunity to mention several matters of legislation; in which the Director had indicated an interest. I am to have lunch with the Senator one day this week and will at that time bring up further matters in connection with the Freedom Academy, the Fugitive Felon Act, etc.

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages 13170-13178. Senator Thurmond, (D) South Carolina, spoke again on the attack carried on by the Communist Party, U.S.A., in its official news organ, the Worker, against the anti-Communist indoctrination of the American public and military personnel. Senator Thurmond included with his remarks the text of a memorandum dated March 10, 1961, from the Deputy

Secretary of Defense to the Secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force with regard to the film "Operation Abolition" and the establishment of centralized procedures for evaluating materials designed for indoctrination of personnel of the Defense Department in the general area of international affairs and related fields. This memorandum mentions a film produced by the Office of Armed Forces Information and Education covering the tactics employed by Communists seeking to manipulate youth. The memorandum states "This film is being produced within the framework of material set forth in the House Committee on Un-American Activities print entitled 'Communist Target-Youth,' a report by J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation." On page 13174, Senator Goldwater, (R) Arizona, pointed out "I think it is high time those in high positions in the U. S. Government began to learn the nature of communism. - - - They ought to read some books that are pretty tough reading, but are honest reading. Some of them ought to learn more about what is taking place in our own country—people of influence, who see no insidious danger from the some 13,000 Communists whom John Edgar Hoover has to watch 24 hours a day." Page 13177, Senator Thurmond submitted an article from the Washington Post entitled "Pentagon Clears Communism Film." The article deals with the Defense Department's position in connection with the film "Operation Abolition." The article stated "A recent Defense Department directive, however, put the service-owned copies of 'Abolition' in an 'on call' status which means that servicemen cannot be ordered to attend showing of the film." Mr. Thurmond stated "I have previously stated, an investigation of this matter is badly needed. By all means, the investigation should include an inquiry into the reasons for and the origin of the Defense Department's action on the film 'Operation Abolition,' to the accuracy and validity of which the FBI has certified."

My dear Senator:

Please accept my sincere thanks for your kindness in having my Introduction to the September, 1961, edition of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin reprinted in the September 6 issue of the "Congressional Record."

If more information of this type could be brought to the attention of our people, I feel it would engender the support necessary to insure more effective law enforcement in all parts of the Nation. Your continuing interest in the work being performed by the FBI is, as always, a source of great encouragement to all of us. Your efforts constitute a very worthwhile public service, and I earnestly hope this statement will help lead to a better understanding of some of the problems facing police officials who are constantly striving to fulfill their responsibilities in their respective communities. It is indeed a pleasure to express my appreciation for your action in this regard.

LETTER WRITTEN BY JOHN EDGAR HOOVER TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS

Mr. GOLDWATER. Mr. President, the burdens of legislative work being what they are, the demands on our time being so great, we in the Congress are prone to overlook the great accomplishments of some of the other agencies of our Government. One of these, I might suggest, is the Federal Bureau of Investigation which, under the inspired leadership of that great American John Edgar Hoover, has just compiled another outstanding year of giving protection to all our people. With its title including the world Federal, it is easy to forget that this organization reaches its strong and helping hand into every State of the Union and into most of our cities and towns as it stresses the word "cooperation" in the constant battle against crime in our country. This record is ably and concisely presented in a letter appearing in the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin of September 1961, written by Mr. Hoover to all law enforcement officials, which I ask unanimous consent to be printed in the RECORD at this point in my remarks.

There being no objection, the bulletin was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION,
Washington, D.C., September 1, 1961.
To All Law-Enforcement Officials:

As America stands on the threshold of daring and remarkable scientific achievements which promise to dwindle the universe about us, the law-enforcement profession may be proud of the equally giant strides it has made in crime-fighting techniques during this century.

The FBI is most fortunate that in an era of progress never before witnessed in the law-enforcement field, it has the honor of being associated with this great and forceful movement for the betterment of mankind in this Nation. Nothing so graphically illustrates why our profession has grown than the one word "cooperation," and achievements such as those recorded below are indeed symbols of the peace officer's acceptance and utilization of joint crusades against the lawless:

During the fiscal year 1961, local enforcement officers in all 50 States and the District of Columbia availed themselves of the services of the FBI Laboratory. The Laboratory reached new records with the receipt of 40,662 requests for assistance involving 224,183 scientific examinations of 186,378 specimens of evidence.

More than 13,000 law enforcement agencies, substantially every one in this country, submitted in fiscal year 1961 an average of just under 22,000 fingerprint cards a day to the FBI resulting, among other things, in the identification of over 1,500 wanted persons each month for local, State, and Federal law enforcement agencies.

Fiscal year 1961 brought another record for the eighth consecutive year when FBI agents located for local authorities 1,418 criminals who had fled across State lines in violation of the Federal Fugitive Felon

Act. Working shoulder to shoulder with the FBI, local authorities continue to make this act work as Congress intended it should.

In the same fiscal year, more than 88,000 local law enforcement officers attended 3,464 police training schools in which the FBI assisted.

June 1961 brought a milestone in our profession's advancement with the graduation of the 67th session of the FBI National Academy which increased to over 4,000 the number of local officers who have graduated from this specialized training school.

At the same time, information obtained by the FBI from informants was used by local, State, and other Federal agencies to arrest 2,640 wanted persons and to recover $1,605,047 in stolen and contraband merchandise.

Between January and July of 1961, more than 50,000 pieces of criminal intelligence obtained by the FBI from varied sources were disseminated to local, State, and Federal agencies resulting in untold disruption of underworld schemes.

This is but a part of the score in the mortal contest against the criminal marauders who have too long believed they can plunder our country unchallenged. FBI agents, just as they lend all possible aid to their colleagues in law enforcement, receive invaluable assistance daily from fellow officers throughout the Nation. Every day which passes imbues the law-enforcement officer with the knowledge, the inspiration, and the confidence which will topple the empires of criminals as fast as they try to build them. This knowledge, this inspiration, and this confidence are born of a growing brotherhood among law enforcement agencies.

Realistic analysis of the above figures makes it evident that there are today in actual operation national clearing facilities for the exchange of vital information of mutual interest among local, State, and Federal law enforcement agencies.

Crime cannot long withstand such a rising tide of cooperative effort, and we in the law enforcement profession must nurture this idea, this philosophy, so that it may reach even greater heights. Mutual accomplishments can bring mutual satisfaction in a job well done.

Very truly yours,
JOHN EDGAR HOOVER,
Director.

I talked with Scott McLeod, who was on the Floor of the Senate at 10:40 a.m. this morning. He had previously called the Director's Office and had given a brief fill-in concerning passage of the captioned resolution. I also talked with Senator Styles Bridges' office to get this matter confirmed inasmuch as Senator Bridges was responsible for originating this resolution. (Attached)

Senators Dirksen and Mansfield jointly introduced the resolution at approximately 10:15 a.m. this morning on the Floor of the Senate. Senator Dirksen asked for unanimous consent of the Senate to have the resolution brought on the Floor of the Senate immediately without referring it to the Committee. This request was granted. It was then placed in the form of a Senate bill and immediately introduced to the Senate. It passed unanimously without a single dissenting voice or dissenting vote.

This is a Senate resolution and, of course, does not need to go to the Floor of the House.

A copy of the resolution is attached. The resolution is very commendatory. In time, the resolution will be forwarded to the Director by the United States Senate.

ACTION:

Letters are being prepared immediately to Senators Styles Bridges, Everett Dirksen, and Mike Mansfield. A letter is also being prepared for Barry Goldwater inasmuch as Goldwater confidentially advised me on 8-2-61 that he and Styles Bridges successfully introduced and guided this resolution through the Republican Policy Committee.

Edna Coerver, Senator Goldwater's Executive Secretary, called 1-2-62. The Senator had called her from Phoenix, Arizona. He asked her to ascertain if the Director would favorably consider an invitation to speak in Phoenix, Arizona, in March or April, 1962, on the occasion of a two-day symposium regarding crime and communism.

I told Miss Coerver that unfortunately the Director's commitments at that particular time would simply not permit him to accept this invitation. She stated that she thought this would be the case, however, wanted to check anyhow.

SUBJECT: INQUIRY FROM OFFICE OF SENATOR BARRY M. GOLDWATER (R-ARIZ.)

On the afternoon of 1-23-62, [redacted] Administrative Assistant to Senator Goldwater telephonically contacted my office and spoke with SA Hanning.

b6

[redacted] advised that the Senator is getting a number of letters from constituents asking for the Senator's opinion of Dr. [redacted] of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade. [redacted] advised that the Senator would appreciate some guidance so that he could formulate an intelligent reply to answer these letters. [redacted] was advised that we would recontact him.

The Bureau is well aware of the self-serving motives of Dr. [redacted] and others affiliated with the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade. When a Special Agent of the Bureau spoke before the Dallas Freedom Forum in Dallas, Texas, on September 19 and 20, 1960, (which sponsored a school on communism at that time directed by Dr. [redacted] the Special Agent commented that [redacted] made several "pitches" for articles and a book which he had written on communism and his publications were prominently displayed. In view of [redacted] opportunistic activities in promoting his own writings, we have been very circumspect in furnishing speakers so that [redacted] will have no opportunity to capitalize on the Bureau's reputation. We have also not been granting requests for publications from persons who are under the influence of Dr. [redacted] since he was obviously capitalizing on our reprint material.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that I orally brief [redacted] or the Senator concerning Dr. [redacted] along the above lines.

To
Hon Senator Barry Goldwater
Senate Bldg, Washington D. C.

Dear Senator Goldwater -

Since you no doubt know I am tremendously interested in politics, at least, judging from the many letters I have written to you, you have a good idea of my thinking. However, this time I am not asking a favor for I know you will always vote just as I would vote were I in your place. This letter more or less personal, is to make a suggestion if I may be so bold.

Most people here in Arizona love you as I do. And, friends of mine in New York, Florida & California also love you and all the things you stand for. But, I also know some who are anti-Semitic as well as Anti Catholic. I know a few who never voted any way but Democratic until J. F. K. ran. Because J. F. K. was, or rather is, Catholic they voted Republican in 1960. Now I thoroughly believe your place is in the White House, and I am holding fast to the faith that you will one day be there to save our country. You don't only richly deserve the honor, but we need you badly in that spot.

My idea is this - Everybody I know adores J. Edgar Hoover. Personally, regardless of Mr Nixon's remark, "J. F. K. will be a hard man to beat in 1964," I believe J. Edgar Hoover could win in a walk. With you as Vice President in 1964 that, to my mind, would be the unbeatable team. You are still young & you will eventually have your chance. By the time you will have served your country eight years as Vice President, everybody will realize how fine you really are.

Thanking you for taking the time out of-your-busy-life-to read me, I am,

Faithfully yours,

MR. MOHR:

Senator Barry Goldwater (R-Arizona) called. He has a nephew in Tucson, Arizona, who will enter his senior year in law school next year. The young man desires Summer employment as a radio operator. The Senator was advised we did not have a headquarter's office in Tucson and as a result there would be little likelihood of employment. He was also advised of the conditions surrounding Summer employment and the fact there was no vacancies.

The Senator asked for literature regarding the position of Special Agent and this was delivered to him.

This matter will be followed.

Respectfully,

Dear Senator Goldwater:

I enclose the text of my recent remarks before the Western Democratic Conference in Seattle. There is some evidence in your column today in the Los Angeles Times that you did not have the full speech before you when you wrote. Otherwise I presume you would have commented on my effort to defend the American people against Mr. Hoover's slurs on their intelligence and spiritual resources. Nor can I believe that you have as low an estimate as he appears to have of the institutions and traditions of this nation.

As you will see from the full text, I am wholeheartedly in favor of catching and convicting and imprisoning spies and anyone else who breaks the laws. I only queried why there was so much talk about espionage and such a small production of certified spies, considering the number said to be roaming the country. This is an important point, and I am disappointed that you failed to discuss it.

Sincerely,

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Barry

Pages 15886-15898. Senator Goldwater, (R) Arizona, spoke concerning the recent meeting of the Western States Democratic Conference held in Seattle. He stated "First they were harangued by Mr. W. H. 'Ping' Ferry, vice president of the Fund for the Republic, who amused the audience with irresponsible and slanderous statements concerning the career of that distinguished American, Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Other peculiar individuals then mounted the rostrum and contributed equally preposterous comments concerning American affairs. The high point in sheer schizophrenia was ultimately reached by Mr. Theodore C. Sorensen, who holds the title as Special Counsel to the President of the United States." Mr. Goldwater included Mr. Sorensen's speech.

On 7/15/63 Mr. [redacted] in the office of Senator Goldwater called my office and asked that someone stop by to pick up a letter received by the Senator. On the same afternoon, Mr. [redacted] turned over to Special Agent Thomas F. The letter also contains a handwritten note "Im going to shoot u!!"

Mr. [redacted] said that he knew nothing could be done about this letter but since it was one of the few of this type received by Senator Goldwater, he wanted to make it available to us.

Reference memorandum from Mr. C. D. DeLoach to Mr. Mohr dated 7/16/63, forwarding an anonymous threatening letter addressed to Senator Barry Goldwater to the Laboratory for search in the Anonymous Letter File.

The typewriting and handwriting on the anonymous letter and envelope were searched in the Anonymous Letter File without effecting an identification. Copies of this material will be added to this file for future reference. The typewriting on the letter and envelope most closely correspond to a standard for Corona pica style of type spaced ten letters to the inch. The writing in red ink on the letter "I m going to shoot U!!" was prepared with a ball-point pen. The letter and envelope were examined for watermarks and indented writing with negative results.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memorandum and the anonymous threatening letter and envelope be forwarded to the Crime Records Division for any action deemed necessary.

Mr. [Redacted] Administrative Assistant to Senator Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) called my office and spoke to [Redacted]. He said they had a letter addressed to Miss Peggy Goldwater which was obscene and he would like very much if we could look it over and see if we could be of any assistance.

[Redacted] called at the office of Senator Goldwater, saw Mr. [Redacted] and Mr. [Redacted] made available the attached letter addressed to Miss Peggy Goldwater, U. S. Senate Office Building, 1st and Constitution Avenue, Northeast, Washington, D. C. The letter is postmarked Washington, D. C., but it gives the name of [Redacted] and the address as indicated above.

From limited information, it was not possible to identify [Redacted] in Bureau files; however, the Baltimore Office was checked and they stated that [Redacted] is owned by [Redacted]. A pretext call was made to the home and they asked for Mr. [Redacted]. The party answering the phone said that he would call Mr. [Redacted]. The call was, of course, then terminated. Baltimore checked its indices and could not identify anything with a [Redacted] or [Redacted]. The letter itself contains no threats but it is obscene.

b7c

At the time of his call to Goldwater's office, [Redacted] read the letter and said that the letter would be within the jurisdiction of the Post Office Department and did Mr. [Redacted] desired that we pass it on to them. He said no that he would prefer if we could check and see what we could find out about this individual and that he would not want to give it to the Post Office without first consulting with the Senator.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

SEP 12 1963

1. That this letter be forwarded to the Laboratory and it be searched against similar obscene writings.

SUBJECT: SENATOR BARRY M. GOLDWATER (R - ARIZONA)

b6

BACKGROUND:

Ovid Demaris was recently forwarded some public source material in connection with the preparation of his forthcoming book on the FBI. Our cooperation with him is limited to merely a gesture of cooperation so as to preclude what could be a derogatory story about the FBI. His initial request revealed a somewhat questionable format as he desired to do a book between the extremes of Don Whitehead, pro-FBI, and Fred Cook, anti-FBI. At the time Demaris was furnished the material by an Agent of the Los Angeles Office on 9-13-63, Demaris advised that his forthcoming book, "The Green Felt Jungle," which is coming out in November, 1963, and will be an expose of Las Vegas gambling, contains a portion dealing with Senator Barry Goldwater. It will be alleged that he was formerly associated with a Tucson, Arizona, hoodlum and that the hoodlum and the hoodlum's wife were killed by unknown persons cutting their throats. Demaris claimed that revelations will not help Goldwater. The Los Angeles Office suggested that Demaris has reference to Gus Greenbaum of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Phoenix, Arizona.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

Bufiles reveal we have had very cordial relations with Senator Goldwater over the years.

The bodies of Gus and Bess Greenbaum were found with their throats slashed in their home in Phoenix, Arizona, on December 3, 1958. Until shortly before his murder, Gus Greenbaum had been the operator of a casino in the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, and he had also operated the casino of the Flamingo Hotel in that city which was reportedly owned by slain racketeer, Ben Seigel. No suspects were developed in connection with the death and murder of the Greenbaums and the name of Senator Goldwater never came up in connection with our contact with sources in following the Greenbaum case as an anti-racketeering matter.

RE: Senator Barry M. Goldwater (R - Arizona)

Bufiles do reveal a constituent type inquiry from Senator Goldwater on April 3, 1957, to former Bureau official Louis B. Nichols regarding a possible presidential pardon for Willie Bioff, then deceased. Bioff, too, was killed in gangland style when his pickup truck was blown up by a bomb on 11-4-55. The letter from [redacted] to Senator Goldwater indicated the Senator might have been personally acquainted with Willie Bioff, also known as William Nelson.

b6
b7c

When Demaris first contacted the FBI in his request for assistance, he indicated he had completed a book about gambling in Nevada in which he was seeking to obtain a foreword for it by Attorney General Robert Kennedy.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) In view of our prior cordial relations with Senator Goldwater, a representative of your office should confidentially inform him about the possible derogatory information which is to be revealed in Demaris' book, "The Green Felt Jungle."

SUBJECT: SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER (R. - ARIZONA)
REQUEST FOR PROTECTION

[Redacted box]

b6
b7C

[Redacted] Administrative Assistant to Senator Goldwater, called me at approximately 4:40 p.m. today. He stated that since the news of the President's assassination had been announced that Senator Goldwater's Office had been literally flooded with telephone calls and telegrams. A number of the incoming calls and telegrams and specifically reflected threats upon Senator Goldwater's life. One telegram read, "Congratulations, a job well done." Another telegram read, "You have accomplished your job. We will now get you." [Redacted] stated he was very much afraid that some attempt might be made by a fanatic on the life of Senator Goldwater. He said that the Senator was currently en route by plane from Chicago, Illinois, to Muncie, Indiana, where he was to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law to be held tomorrow, 11-23-63. [Redacted] wanted to know if we could meet the Senator in Muncie and offer protection to him.

I told [Redacted] that the FBI had no jurisdiction to protect Senator Goldwater, ~~however~~, that, as a matter of fact, we had only one man assigned to Muncie; however, by all means he should immediately alert the Senator and should notify appropriate law enforcement authorities in Muncie, Indiana. [Redacted] specifically asked if we could make this notification.

b7C

After checking with Mr. Tolson and the Director, I called the Indianapolis Office and in the absence of SAC Howard, who was out of the office on official business, and ASAC Meech, who is in the hospital, I talked with Special Agent [Redacted] who is the Senior Resident Agent at Muncie. He happened to be in the office dictating at the time. I asked [Redacted] what were his relationships with the police in Muncie and he indicated they were excellent inasmuch as the Chief of Police was a National Academy graduate. I asked him to contact the Chief immediately and on a confidential basis advise him of the information received from Mr. [Redacted] He stated this would be done immediately.

Approximately 10 minutes later Supervisor Teller of the Indianapolis Office called back and stated that Chief of Police James Carey (NA) had been advised and would contact Senator Goldwater immediately. The Chief stated that no publicity would be given this matter.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It has been called to my attention that Chief of Police, Elmo Maxwell of Flagstaff, Arizona, has applied for admission to the National Academy for its 1964 training program, and I would like to offer my endorsement in his behalf.

The Police force of Flagstaff is one of the finest in the entire State and this is largely due to the ability and efforts of Chief Maxwell. From personal knowledge I can attest to his integrity and courage, and I urge you to give favorable consideration to his application.

Sincerely,

Hon. Barry Goldwater

Dear Senator Goldwater:

It is very important that conservative constitutionalists recover the administration of the affairs of the United States at the earliest possible opportunity. The most appropriate time for such recovery appears to me to be our November 1964 elections. You are a powerful polarizing force for conservative constitutionalist support; perhaps the strongest such force which has wide-spread public attention.

Surely by now you have read the most recent U. S. / FRANCE REPORT. Its author impresses me as one of the most competent analysts of communist conspiratorial strategy and tactics in print today. I consider that it is vital for conservative constitutionalists to succeed through you in recovery of our country, but that it is equally important to keep both the Vice Presidential and the Presidential running mates who champion our cause alive. It is clear to me that if U. S. / FRANCE REPORT is correct you would have very little chance of survival if your running mate were other than a staunch constitutionalist, of which there are very few indeed prominently displayed by the Republican Party.

To tremendously reduce the chances of your liquidation by the communists and to greatly strengthen the chances of actual recovery of the administration of the United States you should have a widely acclaimed American Patriot as your running mate, regardless of his nominal party affiliation. A wonderfully well accepted American Patriot who would make a great running mate for you is J. Edgar Hoover; while another of different nominal party, but unquestioned devotion to America and especially to constitutional principle is Senator Strom Thurmond. It would not surprise me if either of these men would join you in such a team as I have proposed.

Before charging me off as a crack-pot I sincerely hope that you will take time to read No. 11 of U. S. / FRANCE REPORT.

cc: Strom Thurmond; J. Edgar Hoover

My dear Senator:

I have received your letter of January 22, 1964, with your endorsement for Chief of Police Elmo Maxwell of Flagstaff, Arizona, who has submitted his application for attendance at the FBI National Academy.

In view of a long waiting list of applicants, it is not possible to guarantee the attendance of Chief Maxwell at any particular session of the FBI National Academy; however, I assure you that his application will be processed as soon as it is possible to do so.

I appreciate your interest in writing to me concerning Chief Maxwell.

Honorable Barry Goldwater
United States Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Honorable Barry Goldwater:

With every good and sincere wish for your decisive victory in Illinois today and with the hope that you will be our next President, I am writing to say that anything within my power or ability to see this aim accomplished will be done immediately upon your calling on me. You could not possibly remember back to September of 1960 but if you did you would recall a brief note I scribbled in your office telling you that "-----There are more of us pulling for you than you realize" and I am sure that this is even more true now than then. Please do not get discouraged and do not give up the good fight.

November, 1964, will, without a doubt, see the most decisive political event perhaps of all time in the history of this country and you know far better than I the implications and probable future turn of events that will hinge on this election.

We have all heard and read of the subterranean rift between I and II Democrats and as far as some of the other side are concerned, it does not even appear to be quite clear who is in first position -- Bobby or Lyndon. We have long admired, respected and honored our Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and I recall in my days of young manhood that hardly a more worthwhile or heroic calling could be imagined than to "Join J. Edgar Hoover's F.B.I." It is not necessary for us to go into his background here but just to consider his stature as "Mr. Americanism" and as the foremost scholar and deadly foe of both crime and communism. What I am suggesting, Senator, is that with one bold stroke you announce support of and desire for this finest of Americans as your Vice-Presidential choice and that in such capacity he would head-up, very actively and capably the American peoples' fight for survival against these two evils.

With a team with all of the stature and capability of you two, we would certainly feel more at ease about the future of freedom in our beloved country and as a result throughout the entire world.

There would be those who would say that you might be presumptuous to advance a potential Vice-Presidential candidate but it is a fact of life that the choice will rest in your hands when you are successful in obtaining the nomination in June.

They say that a man is known by his friends and they sometimes say that a man is also known by his enemies. It would be most interesting indeed to see just who lines up on the other side.

The man who was with Mr. [redacted] identified himself as [redacted] and showed his identification reflecting him to be a Deputy Sheriff from Plainfield, New Jersey. This man, according to [redacted] was an elderly, heavy set man, who did not tell [redacted] his complete name. Mr. [redacted] at all times, referred to this man merely as [redacted]. This meeting took place on either the 8th, 9th or 10th of February, 1964, at the Captain Shreve Hotel, Shreveport, Louisiana. [redacted] and [redacted] registered at this hotel. Neither [redacted] [redacted] registered at the hotel. A drinking party ensued that night and [redacted] on that same night, went to Bossier City, Louisiana, to drink in a bar there. This place was selected by [redacted] because he had frequented the place previously.

[redacted] telephoned [redacted] in [redacted] Texas, the next day and [redacted] suggested to [redacted] [redacted] that they all meet at the airport in Longview, Texas.

[redacted] took a taxi cab from Bossier City, Louisiana, to Longview, Texas, and on the morning of February 10, 1964, they met [redacted] at the airport in Longview, Texas. They all went to a motel, name unrecalled, located right across the street from the Holiday Inn Motel in Longview. [redacted] and [redacted] registered at this motel but [redacted] and [redacted] did not register. The conversation which ensued in this motel room lasted from about 10:00 AM until about 4:30 PM on the same day. Only [redacted] and [redacted] were present.

At the outset of the conversation [redacted] said that he wanted to talk to Senator BARRY GOLDWATER personally, after which [redacted] replied, "You are talking to GOLDWATER when you talk to me." [redacted] told [redacted] that he had the authority to deal on behalf of Senator BARRY GOLDWATER and that he had the authority to assure [redacted] of a full pardon, after GOLDWATER's election as President, if [redacted] would reveal his tie-in with President LYNDON JOHNSON.

[redacted] without mentioning any specific sum of money, assured [redacted] that he would make it well worth [redacted] while if he received the information he desired from [redacted] asked [redacted] if it were true that President JOHNSON's wife really owned a substantial stock interest in Commercial Solvents Corporation. [redacted] replied, "I stand on the Fifth Amendment" and [redacted] refused to give an answer to this inquiry. [redacted] did not enter into the conversation. [redacted] asked [redacted] many other questions concerning any favoritism which might have been shown [redacted] by President JOHNSON but [redacted] denied that he had received any favoritism or any other consideration from President JOHNSON. [redacted] also stated that he could neither implicate President JOHNSON nor anyone else in the political world in any of his activities. [redacted] asked [redacted] many questions about [redacted] activities and his politics but [redacted] again refused to commit himself. Finally, [redacted] told [redacted] "I really can't help you on this LYNDON JOHNSON thing because he is not involved with me in any way."

[redacted]

The conversation terminated, but before its termination, [redacted] indicated to [redacted] that he would be willing to talk further with him at a later date.

[redacted] left this meeting and got a plane at the airport in Longview, Texas.

b7C

[redacted] according to [redacted] stated that he was quite upset because he was unable to obtain from [redacted] the type of information he desired. [redacted] then proposed that all three of them, namely, [redacted] and [redacted] execute affidavits stating that they had heard comments from [redacted] stating that President LYNDON JOHNSON was involved with [redacted] in many of [redacted] activities, that there was a close personal relationship between [redacted] and JOHNSON, and that Mrs. JOHNSON, the President's wife, did in fact own a substantial share of the stock in Commercial Solvents Corporation. [redacted] was all in favor of furnishing an affidavit to this effect. [redacted] told [redacted] and [redacted] that he was [redacted] had been in all the trouble that he wanted, and absolutely would not furnish any such untrue affidavit.

The meeting ended, [redacted] and [redacted] left for New Jersey, and [redacted] left to rejoin [redacted] and [redacted] to do some fishing.

While in Bossier City, Louisiana, [redacted] ran short of cash and [redacted] gave him a $50 bill until [redacted] could cash a check. The next day [redacted] cashed a check for $150 and insisted on repaying [redacted] but [redacted] refused to accept the money stating "this is my deal and I'll pay for it."

b6

Sometime in March, 1964, while in [redacted] Texas, [redacted] received a telephone call from [redacted]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] that Senator RALPH YARBOROUGH had contacted [REDACTED] and told him that he had listened to a tape recording in which the names [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were mentioned. That JOHNSON actually was for GOLDWATER and that JOHNSON was not really in favor of civil rights. [redacted] gave no indication of why or when he intended to carry out this threat. He further said that he had to be careful as he did not know the person to whom he was talking well enough. [redacted] claimed that he is willing to die for his beliefs.

INFORMATION CONCERNING
THREAT TO ASSASSINATE
SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER

On June 22, 1964, the following letter was received by the Bakersfield Resident Agency, FBI, Bakersfield, California:

"James Wightman
Box 23, Lone Pine, Calif.
June 17

"Federal Bureau of Investigation
Resident Agency
Habersfield Bldg.
Bakersfield, Calif.

"Dear Sir:

I am employed by the U.S. Forest Service, in charge of camp grounds.

While talking to another man working here, he told me that the Forest Service just hired a young man to work in the back country, and this man is part of a group or club that are sworn to kill to assassinate Mr. Barry Goldwater if he gets elected.

This stupid deal of STOP BARRY GOLDWATER has entered in the minds of good and crazy alike; There are 50 men in the club and the main hang out is SAN FRANCISCO; and that is where the convention will be held next month, so time is running outfast if this vile deed is to be stopped.

It took all day Sunday for this to seep into my mind, and there are lots of goof ball and kooks running loose as we all know. This convention is being held next month, and with every one all packed into a large building it would be very easy to crowd in and shoot, maybe not wait until he got to be President.

RE: INFORMATI~~ON~~ CONCERNING
THREAT TO ASSASSINATE
SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER

I am meeting the man that talked to me this evening, as I told him to get all the dope he could before the man packed into the back country.

I hope to see and talk to some of your men, or you in the very near future, as time is of the essence. I work from Friday thru to Tuesday five days work; taking off Wensday & Thursdays. If you call at the office in town you might ask the clerk where I might be working, she will tell you, No one knows any thing about this in the office.

I am interested in mining as a side line, so if you call the office tell them you want to see me about the BLACK EAGLE MINE, I own that, or about fishing and camping up on Mt. Whitney.

A reply will kindly oblige.

Yours Truly

James W. Wightman"

By letter dated 6-24-64 Administrative Assistant to U. S. Senator Barry Goldwater, forwarded a post card which had been received in Republican Headquarters, Beverly Hills, California. Mr. felt the Bureau would want to make the card a matter of official record.

Postmarked 6-9-64, at New York City, the entire card is type-written and signed who indicates his return address as Washington, D. C. The contents of the communication ^{are} nonsensical in that it is apparently meant as an attack on Senator Goldwater, but accuses him of being a subversive, a traitor and an atheist among other things. It also calls him an accessory to the assassination of President Kennedy and claims he is plotting the loss of the election for the Republican Party. It ends by calling for the saving of the film stars.

OBSERVATIONS:

Undoubtedly, the typed signature is bogus and was probably derived from the fact that General Douglas MacArthur died in Walter Reed Hospital. The General Investigative Division was contacted regarding the statement about the assassination, and it was determined there was nothing in the contents of interest to them. It is felt that receipt of this referral can be made orally.

RECOMMENDATION:

That someone from your office, Mr. DeLoach's, drop by Senator Goldwater's Office and orally acknowledge receipt of the postal card forwarded by his administrative assistant.

In response to a written request that he be contacted by the FBI, Agents of our Los Angeles Office, on July 2, 1964, interviewed [redacted] a Los Angeles businessman, who advised that a former acquaintance of his, Dr. [redacted] an [redacted] during a political discussion about [redacted] ago had stated that if Senator Goldwater was elected President he would personally assassinate him. Mr. [redacted] advised that at the time he dismissed this as a heated remark; however, since President Kennedy's assassination by an individual with Communist leanings and knowing that Senator Goldwater's life has recently been threatened, he felt it should be reported.

[redacted] described Dr. [redacted] as an admitted socialist who has expressed great praise for such Communist leaders as Fidel Castro and Mao Tse-Tung, and who, until [redacted] maintained an office in [redacted] California. [redacted] speaks [redacted] and has traveled extensively through Europe and [redacted] to which he intends to return some day to live. [redacted] advised that [redacted] has his offices in the [redacted] California, and is presently residing in the Bay area. Neither [redacted] nor [redacted] is identifiable in Bureau files.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. BELMONT
MR. ROSEN
MR. SULLIVAN
MR. DE LOACH

I called President Lyndon B. Johnson and told him I had just talked to Nelson Rockefeller, Governor of New York, who was in Wyoming. I stated Mr. Rockefeller had told me that the State Highway Patrol has been maintaining close relations with the Commissioner of Police; that the Commissioner of the State Highway Patrol is a former Agent of the Bureau and I had recommended him to the Governor several years ago.

I stated Mr. Rockefeller had told me quite confidentially that they can muster 5,000 men in two hours if necessary, but he is very reluctant about using the National Guard and has been resisting it; that he had received wires from Farmer demanding troops be brought in and he has resisted it and does not intend to do that. I stated Mr. Rockefeller is returning from Wyoming on Wednesday. I stated that is significant as Farmer has claimed that they have not heard from the Governor. I stated the Mayor of New York when he left Madrid this morning stated he did not think it was necessary to call in the Federal troops as he had full confidence in the New York Police. I stated my New York Office has told me that the New York Police have gone back on regular 8-hour duty which indicates that they think the worse is over.

I stated Mr. Rockefeller also told me confidentially ~~and by personal~~ information that when he was in California for the primary he was ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ 1964 some of the Goldwater followers that there were going to be some race riots this fall and Rockefeller told them there may be but not in New York and the reply was to wait and see as there would be plenty in New York also. I stated he feels there may be some of these extremists of the right who are not particularly satisfied with the way things are and may get mixed up in some of these riots. The President said for us to watch it. I stated I have notified ~~my~~ office to keep an eye on both the communists and the right.

I told the President I have a call in for Commissioner Murphy and the Mayor when he arrives back in New York. I mentioned that Mr. Rockefeller hoped the statement also mentioned the State and I told him that I thought it did.

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECT;
ALLEGED THREAT TO MURDER
SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER,
SPOKANE, WASHINGTON,
JULY 14, 1964

At 4:28 PM, July 14, 1964, Mr. [redacted]
Spokane County Chairman for GOLDWATER, [redacted]
Spokane, Washington, telephonically reported that a man, giving his name as [redacted] and claiming to be an [redacted] from [redacted] had just called him. He said [redacted] told him he had been talking to a "hoodlum" who said there was a plan to assassinate GOLDWATER. The only other information [redacted] obtain was that [redacted] was calling from [redacted]

b6
b7C

An immediate call to Spokane telephone number
[redacted] determined that this was the number of the Chungking
Inn, a restaurant and cocktail lounge, W. 710 Sprague, Spokane. Mr. [redacted] was called to the telephone and arrangements were made for his immediate interview.

[redacted] stated he went into the cocktail lounge of the Chungking Inn about 1:10 PM on July 14, 1964, and finished about one-half of a bottle of beer when a man, unknown to him and who was sitting a couple of stools away, moved over next to him. This man said he wanted to talk and then said, "You don't know what might happen to BARRY GOLDWATER." [redacted] said he asked him what he meant and the man replied, "He's going to be killed." [redacted] advised that he asked the man if he was dreaming or crazy, to which the man replied, "No, I'm not crazy, it's going to happen and NIXON will be the nominee." [redacted] said the man appeared serious and did not appear to be under the influence of alcohol. The man left when [redacted] went to the telephone.
This man was described as white, about [redacted] or [redacted] years of age, [redacted] about [redacted] to [redacted] pounds, [redacted] hair, thinning on top, and wearing sport clothes. [redacted] could not describe him more accurately.

b6
b7C

[redacted] said he then spent the afternoon drinking beer and trying to get telephone calls through to General EISENHOWER, whom he claimed to know personally, and to the GOLDWATER headquarters in San Francisco, California. He stated that no one would accept his collect call so he called the Spokane County Goldwater Headquarters and reported the incident.

b6
b7c

[redacted] bartender at the Chungking Inn, said he recalled a man as described by [redacted] talking to [redacted] a short time after lunch on July 14, 1964, but he did not hear any of the conversation. This man was unknown to [redacted] and [redacted] never recalled his ever having been in the lounge before. He stated that the man had three drinks and as he appeared to be under the influence, he got him a cup of coffee and after drinking it the man left.

A check of all taverns in the vicinity of the Chungking Inn was made along with [redacted] in an effort to locate or identify this unknown individual on the late afternoon and evening of July 14 and on July 15, 1964, with negative results.

Re: LOUIS SAMUEL WEINER

Information has been received by the Phoenix Office that during the course of a press conference held on behalf of U. S. Senator BARRY GOLDWATER at the Valley Ho Hotel, Scottsdale, Arizona, on July 19, 1964, LOUIS SAMUEL WEINER appeared uninvited at that function and generally made a nuisance of himself to all in attendance. It has been advised that WEINER gave the impression of attempting to get press recognition by forcing an incident that would result in his arrest.

It has been advised that WEINER was in possession of numerous documents which vilified, among others, Senator GOLDWATER, Judge McCARTHY, Maricopa County Superior Court, and the Phoenix Police Department. He claimed, among other things, that he was intending to sue Senator GOLDWATER for $250,000.00 for a claimed illegal arrest which had resulted in his being confined to the Arizona State Hospital as a psychopath. Statements against the Phoenix Police Department were based on the so-called harassment of WEINER by officers of that department.

WEINER was induced by those in attendance to leave peaceably on one occasion but he subsequently returned and continued to make himself obnoxious.

EDWARD NELLOR, Press Secretary for Senator GOLDWATER, was finally persuaded to swear out a citizens complaint charging WEINER with disturbing the peace and based on this complaint he was taken into custody by the Scottsdale, Arizona Police Department.

WEINER was released immediately after posting $100.00 bond pending his appearance in Scottsdale Justice Court on July 22, 1964.

Re: LOUIS SAMUEL WEINER

b6
b7C

Lieutenant [redacted] Scottsdale Police Department, as well as a source of this office who was in attendance, have described WEINER as being an extremist and a person who might possibly be capable of inflicting bodily harm on Senator GOLDWATER or others who are subjects of his particular displeasures.

WEINER is described as a white male, American, 53 years old, 5'8" tall, 200 pounds, brown graying hair, brown eyes and wears glasses. He listed as his closest relative at the time of his most recent arrest [redacted] Virginia. WEINER claims to have been a lawyer in the State of New Jersey and his present residence is listed as 612 N. Third Avenue, Phoenix. It is noted that WEINER has, in the past, been booked by the Phoenix Police Department on three occasions for investigation of sanity. Following the first of these bookings on July 12, 1958, WEINER was committed to the Maricopa County Hospital, while subsequent to similar bookings on January 4, 1959, and on April 3, 1960, he was committed to the Arizona State Hospital, Phoenix, Arizona.

b7C

Lieutenant [redacted] also reports that he has also been committed to a California mental institution.

Barry Goldwater

I called President Lyndon B. Johnson and told him I wanted to give him a report on my conversation with Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City. I stated I had talked to the Mayor this morning as I could not reach him last night and the Mayor told me he had just talked to the President.

I stated I told the Mayor that we are working with his police authorities. I stated the Mayor said he had taken a trip through Harlem last night with Commissioner Murphy and things seemed to have quieted down there but to have shifted to Brooklyn. I stated I thought the Brooklyn situation is more in the nature of looting of stores rather than a racial problem. I stated there is no doubt a great deal of communist influence in the situation in Harlem and that is what the New York police are concentrating on and we are giving them every assistance we can.

I told the President that we got Martin Luther King through the evening safe and sound; that some plane had flown over and dropped Klan leaflets but there was no attempt on his life.

The President stated he saw an article in the New York News entitled "Who Is Whipping Up the Riots; Mayor Home; LBJ Assigns FBI," and he suggested I get a copy and read it. The President stated he thought the FBI going in there helped the situation last night and he thought it would continue to improve when they know that somebody who is competent, objective, and fair is going to be looking over their shoulders as whoever is crooked gets concerned when the FBI goes in. The President stated the story was by Jack Mallon and proceeded to read part of it.

The President stated someone told him yesterday that this is one of a series of six or eight cities and that following Governor Wallace getting out, they had a deal sometime back that the Alabama man would take control high in the echelon of the other party, a fellow named [redacted] (phonetic). The President stated that Wallace did get out and that then there would be some ultra move in with Negroes to agitate in cities from New York to Los Angeles.

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Rosen, Sullivan, DeLoach

The President stated he thought that we have got to get in there and see about the communist groups and the right wingers, too, because both apparently are playing on the weaknesses of those people and he does not believe anybody can get the information but the FBI and he thinks we have to have it to know how to handle it. I stated we will dig into it right away. The President stated he thought we can get in there and he thinks it is important. He continued that Senator Goldwater has been talking about wanting to talk to him and keep this out of politics. He stated he thought he would say to Goldwater, if Goldwater wants to talk to him publicly, that we are not going to do anything to inflame the people but just try to investigate and if any Federal laws are violated, to prosecute them without fear or favor, without any partisanship whatever and if it is a local problem, going to cooperate with the local people because we are not a national police. The President stated as far as he is concerned, he is going to give me full authority and independent authority, and he will support me, and that I am going to work with the Governors and the local people as I have been for years; so my only instruction from him is to proceed without fear or favor, without any partisanship, as he knows I would anyway, to get the facts and put it on top of the table to look at.

I told the President I would dig into it at once.

Very truly yours,
J. E. H.

Louis Samuel Weiner, a former mental patient, appeared at a press conference held on behalf of Senator Goldwater at Scottsdale, Arizona, 7-19-64. He made a nuisance of himself and gave the impression he was attempting to get himself arrested to get press recognition. Weiner claimed to possess documents vilifying Senator Goldwater, the Phoenix Police Department and a local judge. He claimed he intends to sue Goldwater for $250,000 for illegal arrest, which resulted in Weiner's being confined to a mental hospital. Senator Goldwater's press secretary brought charges against Weiner for disturbing the peace and Weiner was arrested by Scottsdale, Arizona, Police Department. He was released on $100 bond and is scheduled to appear at Scottsdale to answer this charge on 7-22-64. Secret Service and local authorities have been advised of the above information. Secret Service headquarters and Senator Goldwater's Washington office being advised.

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI

FROM: SAC, PHOENIX (9-585)

SUBJECT: LOUIS SAMUEL WEINER POTENTIAL THREAT TO SAFETY OF
U. S. SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER

Remyairtel instant date.

At 3:40 p.m., this date, WEINER appeared at the Phoenix office and asked to see the SAC. He entered the SAC's office in a peaceful manner. He related the following information which he alleges to be factual.

He claims to have first met Senator Goldwater in 1952 and thereafter over the years has been associated with him off and on. He claims to know the Senator "very well" although he considers him a "buzzard" and a ruthless individual who is a fascist, communist, and one who would utterly destroy American democracy if elected President of the United States.

Following this recitation, WEINER advised that he had been arrested at Scottsdale, Arizona, during the course of an attempt to furnish the press there the "true facts" showing Senator Goldwater to be the "buzzard" that he is. At this point in the conversation, WEINER stated that he was to be afforded a hearing in Scottsdale the following morning (7/22/64) and stated to the SAC, "You are going to represent me." My reply to Mr. WEINER was that "I was not going to represent him at the Scottsdale Police hearing." At this point, WEINER arose from the chair in which he had been sitting, came over to my desk where I was sitting and with his right arm started toward me. I did not know his intentions and thereafter immediately arose from the seat. He stopped his progress at that point, however, he pointed his finger toward my face, stating, "You are a servant of the people and will represent me in Scottsdale."

At this time WEINER was obviously completely irrational, was yelling, and I asked him to leave the office. He continued to yell remarks, such as "You are going to represent me," "I am going to see Bobby Kennedy." "Your job is to defend liberty,....."

WEINER was making such a commotion that by the time I got him to the reception room several of the agents who were in the rear of the office heard his loud noises and entered into the reception room. At this point, I had WEINER to the door of the office and he subsequently left (at 4 p.m.), after having made several threats that he would see that we represented him at the hearing.

At no time during his stay in the office did I touch him, nor did any of the agents who appeared, after having heard the commotion, touch him. At one time during my discussion with him when it appeared that he might lay hands upon me, I cautioned him not to do so, stating that I was a Federal officer and that if he did so, he would be subject to arrest. He never laid hands on either me or any of the agents, or other employees of the Phoenix Division.

Inasmuch as data concerning WEINER is covered in the letterhead memorandum submitted with reftel, the data set forth in this airtel is not being included in the letterhead memorandum for dissemination.

From the actions and conduct of this individual, it would appear that his sanity is questionable, and in this respect it is noted he has been committed to the Arizona State Hospital on a previous occasion.

For the information of the Bureau, I do not intend to allow this individual into the Phoenix office area again, inasmuch as I consider him to be a potential hazard to the safety of our employees.

RE: LOUIS SAMUEL WEINER

The following information concerning the above captioned person was obtained from the files of the Veterans Administration, Phoenix, Arizona: 612 NORTH 3RD AVE, PHOENIX, ARIZ. CALIF. WYOMING

Weiner was born October 12, 1910 at Long Branch, New Jersey. He served in the United States Army from February 5, 1942 until December 4, 1945, when he received an honorable discharge due to demobilization. His closest relative is listed as a sister, Mrs. [redacted] Virginia. Weiner is not married and lists no dependents. His current residence is 612 North 3rd Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona.

Weiner is currently receiving a pension from the Veterans Administration of $85.00 per month, which was effective May 27, 1964, and he is classified by the Veterans Administration as being one hundred percent disabled, which disability is not service connected.

Weiner's apparent first confinement in a mental institution was on November 24, 1954 when he was committed to the Camarillo State Hospital in California, from Los Angeles County. He was released from that hospital and transferred to the Arizona State Hospital in Phoenix on February 7, 1955. His diagnosis at Camarillo State Hospital was schizophrenia. Weiner was confined in the Arizona State Hospital until April 7, 1955 where his diagnosis was manic-depressive - manic-type. Weiner was given a complete discharge as recovered on April 7, 1955.

Weiner was again committed to the Arizona State Hospital on July 25, 1958, where he was confined until December 1, 1958, on which date he was given a "conditional discharge." Weiner was then readmitted to the Arizona State Hospital on January 5, 1959 until the next discharge on November 18, 1959.

This report and its contents are loaned to you by the FBI and are not to be distributed outside of agency to which loaned.

RE: LOUIS SAMUEL WEINER

Weiner was again committed to the Arizona State Hospital on April 4, 1960 where he remained until July 6, 1960, at which time he was transferred to the Veterans Administration Hospital (Mental) at Sheridan, Wyoming. He was confined to that hospital continuously until his discharge on February 14, 1964.

The records of the Phoenix Police Department contain information indicating Weiner has been arrested by that department on eight occasions for disturbing the peace, public nuisance, and obscene remarks. These records reflect that Weiner was booked by that department on July 12, 1958 for Investigation of Sanity and was transferred to the Maricopa County Hospital on July 12, 1958. He was also booked on January 4, 1959 for Assault and Investigation of Sanity and was transferred to the Arizona State Hospital on January 5, 1959. He was again booked on April 3, 1960 for Investigation of Sanity and Disturbing the Peace and was again transferred to the Arizona State Hospital.

The records of the Scottsdale, Arizona Police Department reflect that on July 19, 1964 Weiner appeared at the Valley Ho Hotel, 350 West Main Street, Scottsdale, Arizona. At that time Weiner confronted Mr. Edward K. Nellor, Press Secretary to Senator Barry Goldwater, and attempted to involve Mr. Nellor in an argument concerning the Senator. Weiner called Mr. Nellor and the Senator "cowards" and demanded that Nellor take several papers he had which he said would result in a lawsuit against Senator Goldwater. Weiner also shouted that he was "going to get Nellor and Senator Goldwater." ARIZ.

At this time the Scottsdale police were summoned to the Valley Ho Hotel at which time their report reflects the police officers talked to Weiner and departed. The police were again called to the Valley Ho Hotel about two hours later and while they were there Mr. Nellor made a citizens arrest of Mr. Weiner. Following this, the officers took Weiner to the Police Department and booked him. He was released at this time under $100.00 bond.

RE: LOUIS SAMUEL WEINER

On July 22, 1964, Weiner appeared in City Court in Scottsdale, Arizona at which time he acted in such a manner that he was held in contempt by the judge and was again booked at the Scottsdale City Jail on this charge.

RE: LOUIS SAMUEL WEINER
THREAT AGAINST
SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER

On July 21, 1964, WEINER appeared at the Phoenix office of the FBI, at which time he was interviewed by the Special Agent in Charge.

WEINER claims to have met Senator GOLDWATER in 1952, and thereafter has been associated with the Senator. He claims to know the Senator "very well," although he considers Senator GOLDWATER to be a "buzzard," a ruthless individual who is a fascist, communist, and "one who would utterly destroy American democracy if elected President of the United States."

WEINER advised that he had been arrested in Scottsdale, Arizona, on July 19, 1964, at the time that he had attempted to furnish the "true facts" showing Senator GOLDWATER to be a "buzzard." According to WEINER, his arrest was a citizen's arrest made by the Press Secretary of Senator GOLDWATER, who was holding a press conference at the Valley Ho Hotel in Scottsdale.

At this point, WEINER told the Special Agent in Charge that the Special Agent in Charge was going to represent him, WEINER, at the hearing in Scottsdale which was to be held July 22, 1964, relative to WEINER's arrest in Scottsdale. After having been informed that no one from the FBI was going to represent him, WEINER became irrational, insisting that the FBI was going to represent him as counsel. It was necessary to order WEINER from the FBI Office.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Thank you for your letter of July 24th. Was certainly under the impression that the Presidential nominees of both parties were protected by the United States Secret Service until election results. Am amazed that only the President is so protected. This to me seems highly unfair - in fact in this day and age, almost diabolical.

After Dallas, I read somewhere that steps were being taken either to bring the Secret Service into the F.B.I. or else to add protective duties of this type to the F.B.I. in a more active way than merely co-operation.

However, sincere thanks to you and your organization for outstanding services of the past and those you will give us in the future.

As of possible interest enclose copy of my telegram to Barry of July 21st.

Sincerely,

Senator Barry Goldwater

So far so good Barry. Congratulations and thanks. The real fight now starts. You are going to be smeared, lied about, knifed, misquoted and double-crossed as no one has ever been before. The internal and external commies, leftwingers, socialists, political and undercover demagogues, confused do-gooders, bleeding hearts, one-worlders and foreign free loaders knifing us are fighting for their lives STOP Am praying there are enough good Americans regardless of party, creed or race to elect you and help you return us to sanity STOP I believe there are STOP You are leading a fight every bit as important to the future of this country and the world as in your words was Ike when he practised the ultimate in extremism, invading and freeing Europe STOP Extremism so-called is always necessary to salvage the wreckage of weakness, compromise, moral decay and failure to firmly grasp the nettles before they grow and develop deadly needles STOP These nettles have been nurtured and allowed to spread and grow for so long they are now highly dangerous and bulldozers are necessary to root out the most virulent plus repeated and prolonged simple honest education STOP Expose, Expose, Expose; Attack, Attack, Attack. God bless and help you and all of us.

SUBJECT: THREATS AGAINST
SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER
INFORMATION CONCERNING

b7c

During the past several weeks, as a result of the political climate, a number of threats have been made against Senator Barry Goldwater some of which constitute violations of the Federal Extortion Statute and others which are not violations within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction. Due to the public office held by the Senator the field has been submitting information so received and the Bureau has been disseminating letterhead memoranda to Secret Service as well as promptly advising Senator Goldwater's Office in Washington, D. C.

On July 16, 1964, the Bureau received information of three threats against Senator Goldwater and these threats were reports of conversations overheard by the complainant or anonymous telephone calls with no indication of a violation within Bureau's jurisdiction.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

1. Violations of the Extortion Statute are supervised by the Criminal Section, General Investigative Division and any threat against Senator Goldwater involving use of the mails or interstate communications is handled by the Criminal Section. Accordingly in those instances where threats are made against Senator Goldwater which do not constitute a violation of the Extortion Statute, it is recommended that incoming communications from the field be directed to the Criminal Section for purposes of coordination and processing.

2. That the General Investigative Division handle dissemination of letterhead memoranda in this regard to Secret Service Headquarters and that Mr. DeLoach's Office handle dissemination of such information to the appropriate individual in Senator Goldwater's Office.

SUBJECT: SENATOR BARRY M. GOLDWATER (R- ARIZONA)
REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

In view of Senator Goldwater having been named the Republican Party Presidential candidate at the Republican Convention yesterday, the following is a summarization for the Director's information of data in Bufiles relating to Senator Goldwater:

BIOGRAPHICAL:

Senator Goldwater was born 1-1-09, at Phoenix, Arizona, the son of Baron and Josephine Williams Goldwater. He attended the University of Arizona for one year in 1928, and in 1934, was married to Margaret Johnson Goldwater. They have four children.

In 1929, Senator Goldwater went with Goldwaters, Incorporated, a retail store in Phoenix owned by his family. He became president of this company in 1937, and served in this capacity until 1953, when he became chairman of the board. He was elected United States Senator from Arizona in 1953. He served on the Phoenix City Council from 1949 until 1952, and was very active in civic affairs. During World War II, he was a pilot in the U. S. Army Air Force, achieving the rank of Colonel. He has been a member of the U. S. Air Force Reserves since the war and currently holds the rank of Major General. He has written a number of books including "The Conscience of a Conservative" in 1960, which purportedly set out his political philosophy.

INFORMATION IN BUREAU FILES:

EX-109 REC-120 62-98961-115

We have had cordial correspondence with Senator Goldwater over the years, and he has been a strong supporter of the FBI and the Director. In March, 1954, he denounced, on the Senate floor, an article by Alan Barth entitled "How Good is an FBI Report?" which appeared in the March, 1954, issue of "Harper's Magazine" and was critical of the FBI. The Director thanked him by letter of 3-30-54. (62-98961-2)

By letter of 2-24-58, Mr. Hoover congratulated Senator Goldwater on receiving an award from Freedoms Foundation for his essay, "The Liberal and the Conservative." A letter of congratulations was also sent to the Senator in November, 1958, on his re-election to the Senate, and he has received copies of "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism" from the Director.

M. A. Jones to DeLoach Memo
RE: SENATOR BARRY M. GOLDWATER

In recent years, Senator Goldwater's office has reported a number of anonymous letters received containing threats to the Senator's life, and we have conducted investigations as appropriate. We have also received information of this nature concerning the Senator from time to time and passed it on to him and local authorities.

By letter of 4-8-64, Senator Goldwater enclosed a letter from a Tucson resident named [redacted] who had complained that investigations by FBI Agents had interfered with his employment opportunities. We checked on this matter with the Phoenix Office and subsequently advised Senator Goldwater that no information was obtained to substantiate [redacted] allegations against the FBI and that it had been determined that [redacted] was under psychiatric treatment. b6 b7C

Files indicate that Senator Goldwater associated to some degree in the early 1950's with Willie Bioff, a labor racketeer who was assassinated in November, 1955, Goldwater [redacted] Goldwater has been very interested in labor matters during his Congressional career and has been strongly critical of the excesses of some labor leaders such as Walter Reuther.

Prior to the publication of the book entitled "The Green Felt Jungle," a book on Las Vegas, we learned that it would contain derogatory information concerning the Senator's alleged association with hoodlums. We advised the Senator of this. We subsequently reviewed the book and it claimed Goldwater was a close friend of Gus Greenbaum, hoodlum-controlled gambling casino operator in Las Vegas and Willie Bioff, "convicted randerer, extortionist and celebrated stoolie." Greenbaum had operated the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas and he and his wife were assassinated at their Phoenix home in 1958. Bioff, too, was assassinated in a bombing in 1955. It had been reported that Senator Goldwater had made inquiry concerning a possible Presidential Pardon for Bioff.

In connection with the [redacted] case, [redacted]

[redacted] a New York writer, had a meeting at Shreveport, Louisiana, with [redacted] allegedly told [redacted] he had the authority on behalf of Senator Goldwater to assure [redacted] a full pardon after Goldwater's election as President if [redacted] would reveal his tie in with President Johnson. Files contain no other information reflecting on this matter, but it was noted that [redacted] has been employed by Senator Barry Goldwater's Headquarters in Washington, and he has indicated that he was writing a book on the [redacted] case. b6 b7C

Senator Goldwater's 1963 Corvette Stingray was stolen from Dulles Airport parking lot on 10-3-63, and recovered in the parking lot of the Army Map Service, Bethesda, Maryland, on 10-5-63. We have conducted extensive investigation to identify the thieves and investigation is continuing.

RECOMMENDATION:

For information.

[redacted] Wash.
[redacted] was possibly [redacted] of [redacted] Manager of [redacted] in Honolulu. He described her as a brunette, age [redacted] to [redacted] height [redacted] to [redacted] B. App. [redacted] to [redacted] pounds, and attractive. 100 H22611

[redacted] said he wanted an Agent to contact him immediately at the bar of the Outrigger Canoe Club on Kalakaua Avenue. I told Mr. [redacted] that as a matter of policy we did not normally contact people in bars in a situation of this type, and if he had anything to say he could give me the gist of the information over the phone and we could then decide whether a personal contact on an emergency basis would be necessary. He was told this at the outset of the conversation, after he made the request to have someone meet him at the bar and stated specifically that he was not intoxicated. He was told that if an FBI Agent contacted him at the bar this might only tend to add some official color to the incident and possibly create an embarrassing situation. He was informed that if there was anything that involved the personal safety of any members of the group, [redacted]

[redacted] we would be glad to have an Agent contact him immediately, but since this was essentially purely a social matter it did not appear to require any immediate action. He then agreed that it would be satisfactory to have an Agent contact him the following morning between 9 and 10 a.m. at the Kahala Hilton Hotel so that he could provide the FBI with any information that he felt was pertinent.

[redacted]
[redacted]

At 8:34 a.m. 7/29/64 an individual who telephonically identified himself as [redacted] called the switchboard in the Honolulu Office and said that it would not be necessary for Agents to meet him at the Kahala Hilton Hotel on this date.

b6
b7C

It appears entirely possible that this is a situation where three young men were out on a vacation and became involved with some unknown quantity in the form of a feminine companion, and [redacted] desired some background information concerning this woman after he realized that she may have been "planted" with the group for the purpose of creating an embarrassing incident. Since [redacted] and [redacted]

[redacted] were holding a press conference on the morning of July 28 at the Kahala Hilton, it was not considered feasible to endeavor to make any contact with the group, as the presence of an Agent might have only attracted some attention from the news media.

b7C

Shortly after the press conference I called the hotel and left a message for [redacted] to contact this office, in view of the fact that there was no positive way of determining that it was [redacted] who made the call earlier in the day. As of 4:30 p.m. Honolulu time 7/29/64, the call had not been returned. I am inclined to believe that Mr. [redacted] would probably like to forget that he ever called the FBI or anyone else concerning this matter, as it could only lead to some embarrassment for him.

For information of the Bureau, a credit check on 7/29/64 disclosed that there is a man by the name of [redacted] who has been manager of [redacted] in Honolulu since [redacted]. His date of birth is [redacted] and he is a graduate of the [redacted].

[redacted]
aka [redacted] was formerly employed by [redacted] as a hostess supervisor from the latter part of [redacted] through [redacted] as a hostess for eight months, and at the [redacted] as a representative in [redacted]. She attended the University of Washington, majoring in [redacted]. Her [redacted] Mrs. [redacted] resides on [redacted], Washington. There is an indication in the file that she had been married to [redacted] divorced him sometime in [redacted] and then remarried [redacted] as of [redacted].

[redacted] may still be curious as to the background of the woman with whom he became associated in Honolulu and it is entirely possible that he may make inquiry of the Bureau concerning this matter. For that reason the Bureau is being advised as a matter of information.

No further action is contemplated by the Honolulu Office.

ADDENDUM:

At about 8 p.m. 7/29/64 I received a telephone call from [redacted] who stated he was returning my call of earlier in the day. He advised that he was going to leave for the airport in about an hour and had been tied up earlier in the day and therefore had not returned my call.

b6
b7c

I told him informally that he was correct about the identity of this woman, and in general terms indicated to him that she was possibly [redacted] the manager of [redacted]. I told him of course we were not in a position under the circumstances to make any inquiry as such, because there was nothing here over which we had any jurisdiction. He said he appreciated our position, and thanked me in a very friendly manner for having the courtesy of returning his call.

I gained the impression that this individual is possibly an immature young man who must be dealt with in a most circumspect fashion.

TRUDEAU, U. S. ARMY (RET.)
AT PITTSBURGH, PA., 8/1/64

Lt. General Arthur G. Trudeau, U. S. Army (Ret.) and President of Gulf Research and Development Corporation, Harmarville, Pa., advised on August 4, 1964, that he desired to furnish information which his wife had telephonically received and which he believed constituted a potential threat to the life of U. S. Senator Barry Goldwater and himself.

General Trudeau related that he had been on a business trip to the West Coast of the United States during the period September 25, 1963, through August 2, 1964; that during this trip he attended a social function held at Bohemian Grove, Calif., which function was also attended by U. S. Senator Barry Goldwater. General Trudeau stated that upon departing this function on August 1, 1964, and prior to emplaning for Pittsburgh, Pa., he telephonically contacted his wife at their residence in Pittsburgh, Pa.; that Mrs. Trudeau at this time informed him that she had received two telephone calls from an unidentified male with a cultured voice which calls appeared to be of a local nature; that the caller stated, "We know where your husband is and we are going to get him and Barry Goldwater if it is the last thing we do." General Trudeau stated the caller had immediately hung up the phone after this comment and at approximately ten to fifteen minutes subsequent again called Mrs. Trudeau and repeated the original message without further comment. Mrs. Trudeau had informed her husband that the voice of both callers appeared to be the same.

THREAT AGAINST SENATOR BARRY GOLDWATER
RECEIVED BY SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS PD,
12:52 PM, CDT, 8-19-64
INFORMATION CONCERNING (CRIMINAL SECTION)

*Call to Springfield PD
8/19/64*

Attached hereto are the original and 7 copies of a letterhead memo, which sets forth facts concerning a threat against the life of Sen. BARRY GOLDWATER received at 12:52 PM, by the Springfield, Illinois PD, 8-19-64, while Sen. GOLDWATER was making a speech at the Fairgrounds during the Illinois State Fair, Springfield, Ill.

Copies of this memo have been disseminated locally to the Illinois State Police, Secret Service, and Federal Aviation Agency. No copy has been disseminated to the Springfield, Illinois PD since they were the originators of the information and furnished it to the FBI.

Since the threatening call indicated that Sen. GOLDWATER would be shot between 3:30 and 4:00 PM, it was deemed necessary and advisable to disseminate to Federal Aviation Agency locally as Sen. GOLDWATER's plane left Springfield at 1:45 PM, en route Washington, D.C., and would be in the air during the critical time.

Illinois Bell Telephone Co., Springfield, Ill., was unable to trace the source of the call. The Chicago office of the FBI likewise contacted Illinois Bell at Chicago and they were unable to trace the origin of the telephone call.

The Chicago and Washington Field offices were immediately advised of the threat and copies of the letterhead memo are attached for these offices in the event dissemination is deemed necessary.

Since there is no evidence that this telephone call emanated from outside the State of Illinois, there appears to be no violation within the Bureau's jurisdiction and no further action is being taken by the Springfield office and this matter is considered closed.

Dear Rep. Celler:

I think you will be interested in the enclosed photocopy of death threats from Goldwater partisans received by my fellow editor Mr. Sam Pevzner, and myself.

Since one of these was mailed in Kingsburg, Calif., and one in Chicago, and since both are postmarked the same day, July 8, I assume that there is some national network that is sending out these threats.

I know that they have also been received by Rabbi [redacted] by Negro trade unionist [redacted] of the Afro-American Heritage Foundation, by the Reverend [redacted] by Pearl Hart, attorney, and by [redacted] [redacted] writer, all these in Chicago, by the office of [redacted] and [redacted] attorneys in Detroit, and by others in Los Angeles.

That the temper of the current political campaign has reached the stage where persons throughout the country are being designated as hostages in case some crackpot injures Mr. Goldwater, may be worthy of public notice and discussion.

Sincerely yours,

OPEN LETTER TO COMMUNISTS & THEIR SYMPATHIZERS

It has come to our attention that threats have been made against Sen. Goldwater's life, and that your Soviet Communist UN delegate Fedorenko called for Goldwater to be "put into a strait-jacket".

The patience of American patriots is not unlimited. If any violence is directed against Senator Goldwater, Communists in the U.S.A. hereby stand advised that their corpses will then fill the morgues.

There is also a growing sentiment among patriots to require a Communist life for every American boy killed by your colleagues in Asia or elsewhere.

COMRADES: You and your fellow vermin have enslaved a billion human beings by means of terror, murder, rape, and torture.

FREE MEN are calling a halt to Communism—NOW!

Dear Mr. Hoover,

With reference to the enclosed letter and editor's reply, there has been much discussion on this matter.

I am hoping that perhaps you can clarify the question
"Is he, or is he not, a card-carrying member of the NAACP?"

It's always best to get these type of facts from the best qualified source and I seem to feel that you are that source.

I would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

(Recently, Gov. John McKeithen of Louisiana said in a public statement: "I don't think we are going to be hoodwinked by Sen. Goldwater. His record, in effect, all through his public life has been that he has been a strong advocate of civil rights. He is a card-carrying NAACP member.")

(Our Washington bureau reports that files of the Democratic National Committee show Sen. Goldwater was for "several years" an NAACP member with the last record of dues paying in 1954.

(The Congressional Quarterly in a 1964 issue reported: "Not only had Goldwater backed an end to segregation in his native Arizona, but he has been a member of the Urban League since 1950 (and still is) and was on record as having given $500 to the NAACP at one time.

(Washington sources close to the Urban League report that the senator this year increased his annual contribution to the league from $3 a year to $50 a year. — Editor.)

gerous man, Goldwater.
The other night I heard you say you don't own a million dollars, you do to. You say our defence is inadequate, well I have news for you, you are in no position to state that; we have the best defense system in the world today. You're just a 2nd Hitler. You act like Khrushchev, you look him, too. Goldwater don't blame the Democrats

for the Cuban Crisis
After all it was under a Republican adminis-

things and then take them back.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. BELMONT
MR. ROSEN
MR. SULLIVAN

Cop 4-1

I called Honorable Walter W. Jenkins, Special Assistant to the President. I told him I wanted to give him a little background on the matter of the protection of Senator Barry Goldwater about which the President made some inquiry yesterday, whether I had received a letter asking for this. I stated no such letter, of course, has been received here, but I do know that the Senator has hired a rather substantial squad or security detail to protect him. I stated the Senator had procured the services of a Deputy Sheriff from the Los Angeles Sheriff's Office. I stated this man is a good man and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy and he has, in turn, built up a substantial squad that furnishes the Senator protection on his travels. I stated I thought he, Mr. Jenkins, might want to know this in case the President raises the question again.

Mr. Jenkins stated they had checked into the law yesterday and it does not authorize the President to do this. I mentioned that there is presently a bill in congress to give protection to Presidential and Vice Presidential candidates. I stated that the Senator has received threats of bombs, none of which has materialized, and in those instances we immediately notify the security man in charge of the Senator's detail, so the information is promptly passed on just as we do for the Secret Service if there is a threat against the President.

Mr. Jenkins stated he would tell the President and he appreciated my calling.

RACIAL MATTERS

Information developed at Charleston, W.Va., reflects that the Congress Of Racial Equality (CORE) may picket the visit of Senator Barry Goldwater, Republican candidate for President at the time of his visit to Charleston, W.Va., on the evening of September 18, 1964.

Senator Goldwater is to arrive at the Charleston, W.Va., Airport, about 6:00 P.M., that day and will hold a conference at the Daniel Boone Hotel immediately after his arrival there. At 8:00 P.M., he will speak at a Republican rally at the Charleston Civic Center for about 45 minutes and will then proceed to the airport for immediate departure from the city. His visit is to last between three and four hours on September 18, 1964. CORE is sponsoring an appearance at 8:00 P.M., at the Charleston Municipal Auditorium of Dick Gregory, well-known comedian. It is understood that CORE will peacefully picket only the arrival at the airport of Senator Goldwater and will thereafter attend their own affair, featuring Dick Gregory, which will be held at the same time as Senator Goldwater's speech and continue beyond Senator Goldwater's speech.

No violence is anticipated.

SENATOR BARRY M. GOLDWATER
Albuquerque, New Mexico Tour
September 22, 1964

On September 17, 1964, a confidential source at Albuquerque, New Mexico, informed that an unidentified officer of an organization known as Action Committee on Human Rights (ACOHR) was overheard during the evening of September 15, 1964, to say that this organization was planning to demonstrate when Senator BARRY M. GOLDWATER came to Albuquerque, New Mexico, to make his campaign speech. The source also heard that it had not been decided what kind of demonstration there would be.

This source furnished an undated pamphlet, which indicates it was prepared after May 17, 1964, concerning the Action Committee on Human Rights. This pamphlet, along with other things, states:

"The first meeting of ACOHR was held in mid-March, 1964. It was the result of a sincere conviction on the part of a few students that all Americans should have the opportunity to exercise the civil rights which have been granted them on paper, but not in fact...

"Signatures of 1500 students were gathered on a petition to Senator MECHEM indicating student support of the Omnibus Civil Rights Bill, then in debate in the U. S. Senate. In April ACOHR organized a demonstration in which 80 students picketed Senator MECHEM who has consistently taken an adverse stand on the Civil Rights Bill...."

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ENCLOSURE

SENATOR BARRY M. GOLDWATER

"During the Fall Semester of 1964, ACOHR will concentrate its efforts on racial discrimination problems in Albuquerque..."

An application for membership blank on the bottom of the pamphlet indicates membership fee is $1.00 for the academic year, and has the following:

"I believe in civil rights for all Americans and will support this belief with my active membership in the Action Committee on Human Rights."

This source informed that to the best of his knowledge the Action Committee on Human Rights was a group of students on the University of New Mexico campus who have started this organization.

A second source informed that he is aware that there is an organization on the campus of the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque named the Action Committee on Human Rights. This source informed that he has no information indicating that the organization has complied with University regulations concerning student organizations on the campus.

The September 17, 1964, issue of The Albuquerque Journal, a daily newspaper, has an article indicating that BARRY M. GOLDWATER, candidate for the office of President of the United States, will make a campaign speech at the University Stadium at Albuquerque, New Mexico, around 2:00 P.M., September 22, 1964.

On September 17, 1964, the Albuquerque Police Department, the University of New Mexico Police Department, and the Special Agent in Charge of the 112th INTC Group were advised of the foregoing information.
