Police Seek to Track Down Band of Heavily- Armed Thugs

SAN MARCOS, May 23. (AP)— San Antonio officers today were trying to track down a band of heavily-armed robbers who escaped with $7,500 in a daylight holdup
at the First National Bank here.

After hastily collecting all the cash they could get their hands
on, the robbers forced two bank employees and a customer into their car and sped out of town along the Austin highway.

At the Blanco River bridge, miles from San Marcos, the robbers released their hostages. Fred bookkeeper, Walter county treasurer and employee of the bank, and Fayton Taylor, a customer at the bank at the time of the holdup, stated yesterday afternoon.

Kelchman said the three robbers
in the getaway car, which bore no license plates, turned into the Driftwood road after leaving the Blanco River. It was considered likely it was headed in the general direction of San Antonio. Beside plates, the robbers had a submachine gun and a sawed-off shotgun.

A. L. Blair, president of the bank, expressed the belief that a woman, who possibly acted as a look-out and another man, who escaped in a second car, were involved in the robbery.

Blair said one of the robbers threatened to "blow his head off"
if he didn't open the safe. He immediately convinced the man that the time lock prevented his doing so.
The robbers tried to abduct all the employees in the bank but couldn't load them in the car.

Mrs. Vera Brack, an employee, stumbled and fell before the robbers could get her to the car. Blair was ordered to stand on the running board but jumped off as the car lurched ahead.

The robbers in their heavy loaded several thousand dollars in a drawer up

SUSPECT RELEASED TO FEDERAL OFFICERS

Fort Smith, Ark., Aug. 11 (AP). Hubert Elythe, who has been held at Van Buren, Ark., since July 23 as a suspect in the slaying of Marshal Henry Humphrey of Alma, Ark., was released to federal authorities on a warrant charging robbery of an interstate railroad shipment near Muskogee, Okla.

Sheriff Albert Moxey of Van Buren, abandoned his attempt to link Elythe with the Barrow brothers, Clyde and Marvin, in the Arkansas case. He failed to obtain positive identification of Elythe as the man with Marvin Barrow when Humphrey was fatally wounded.

U. S. Marshal Cooper Hudspeeth said he was informed that more than $500 in clothing was removed from a Missouri-Kansas-Texas train near Muskogee by Elythe.

Elythe was first arrested near Seminole, Okla., soon after Marvin Barrow was wounded fatally in an Iowa gun fight.

ONE OF WOMEN WITH BARROWS BELIEVED DEAD

ONLY THREE INSTEAD OF FOUR SEEN IN ARMED AUTO

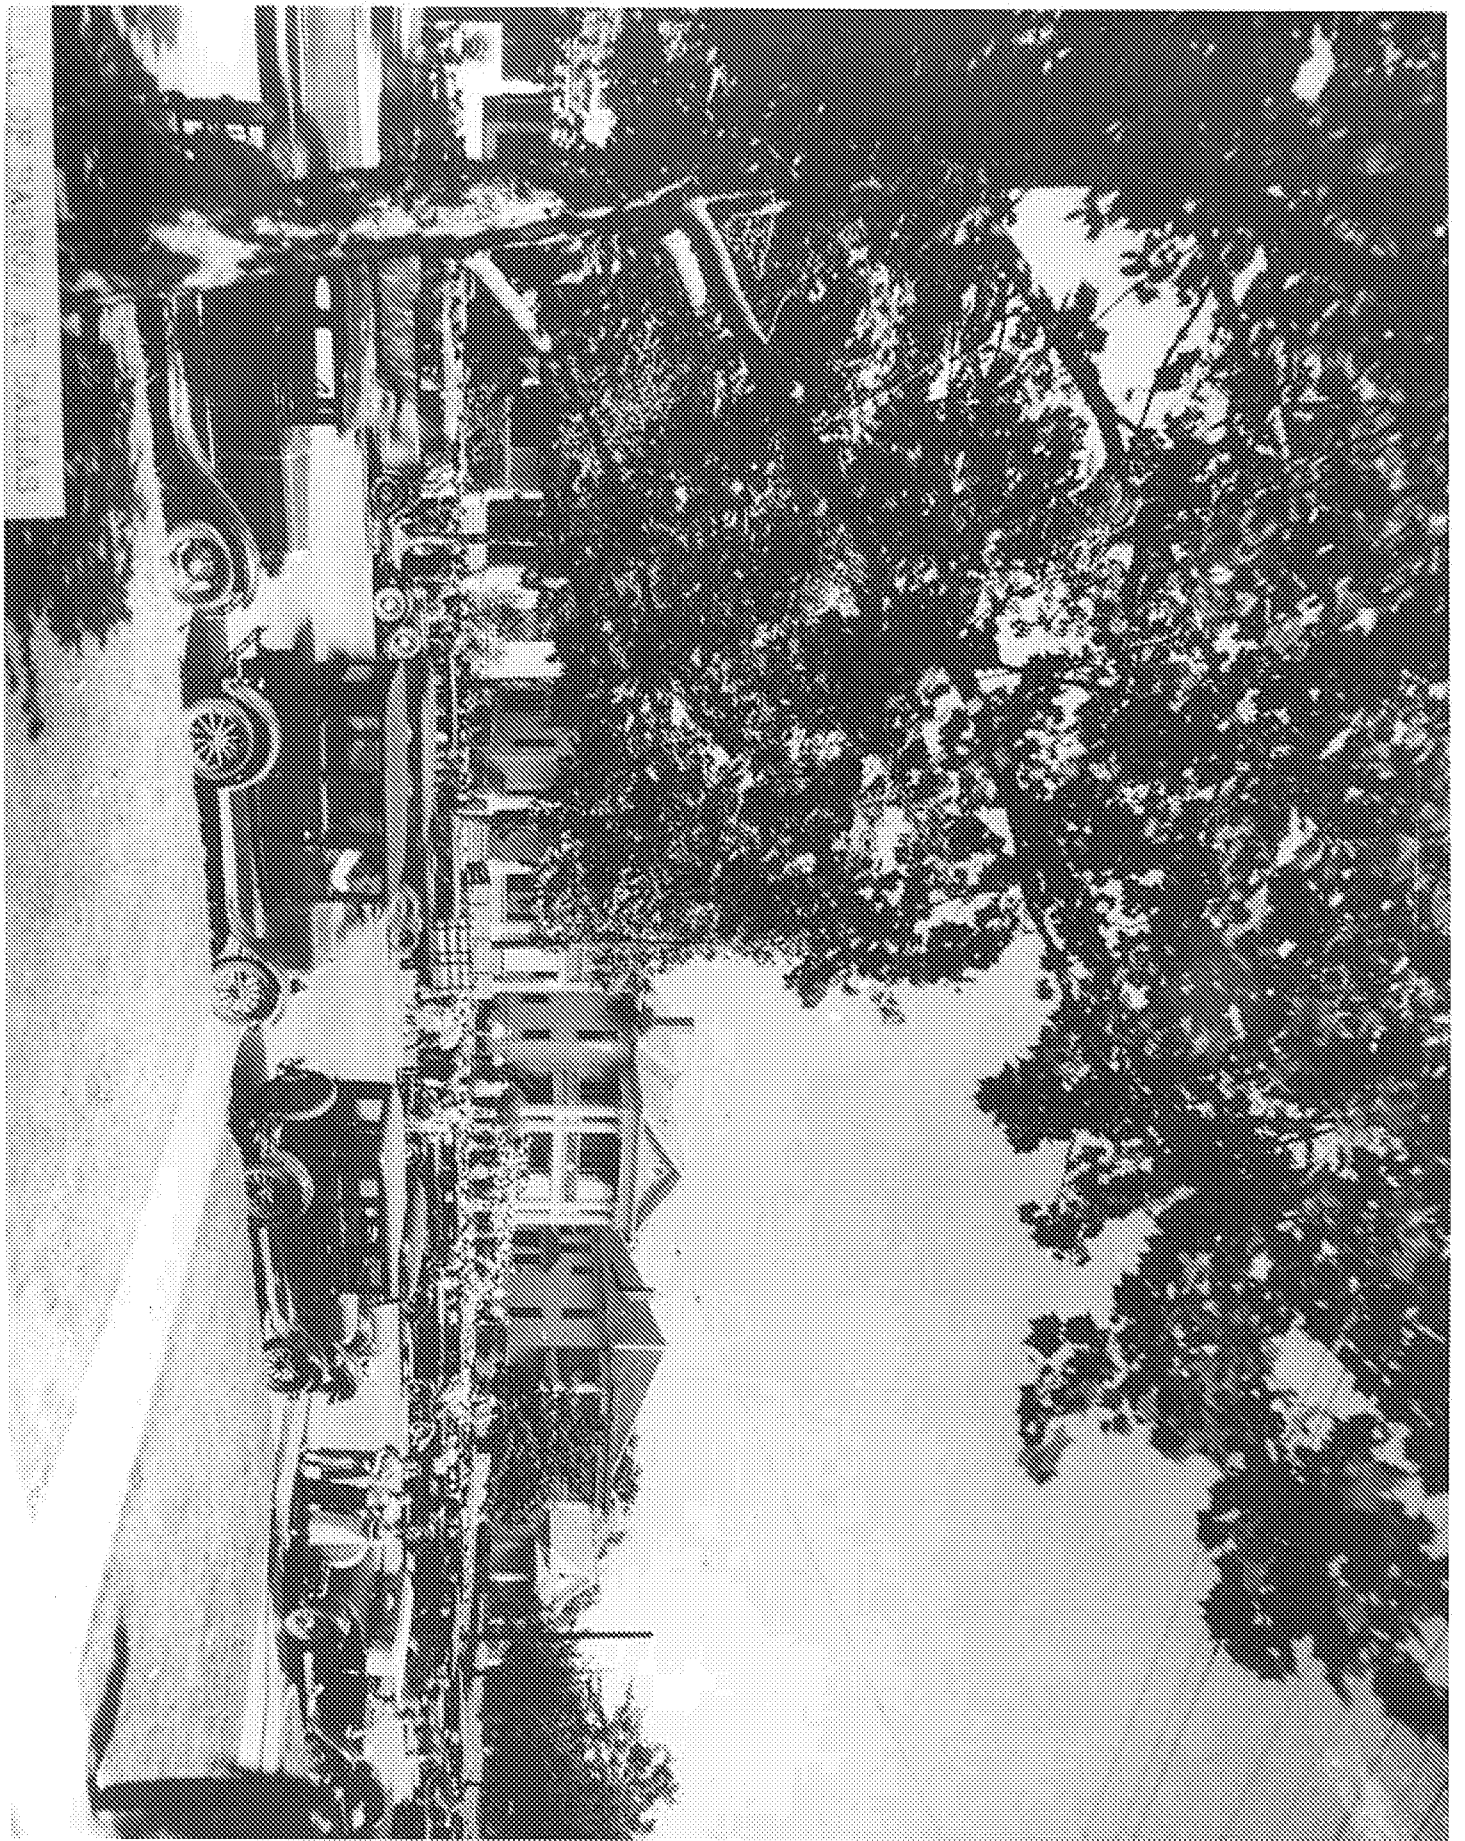

Des Moines, Iowa, July 31 (IND). Two bandits and two women who engaged in a machine gun battle with officers at Platte City, Mo., yesterday, were being sought in Iowa today.

The men are wanted for the murder of two Joplin, Mo., officers. They are Clyde Champion Barrow, 31, and Iva Barrow, 31.

It was believed here today that one of the women may have died of wounds received in the Missouri gun battle. The remains of bloody clothing and bandages were found near Mount Ayr, Iowa, where they had been partially burned.

Frank March of Calsonia, near Mount Ayr, reported seeing two men and a red-headed woman, whom he believed to be the fugitives. They were speeding northward in a small automobile.

The bandits were armed with a submachine gun, a repeating rifle and two revolvers when officers attempted to arrest them yesterday. A Platte City tourist carried three of the thirteen riding officers suffered minor wounds in the gun battle in which the bandits and their women companions shot their way to freedom.

LATTER WOUNDED IN FIGHT WITH IOWA OFFICERS

Des Moines, July 24 (AP).—Park A. Findley, chief of state agents, informed the bureau of investigation by telephone from Guthrie Center today that three suspected members of the Barrow brothers gang had escaped from a hideout in a cabin near there.

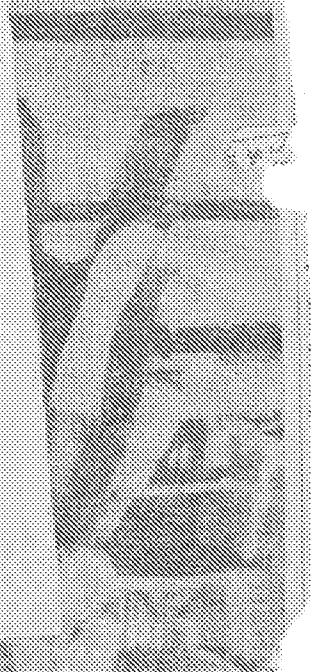

Their trail, Findley said, had been lost momentarily.

returned the area suspect of investigation today that suspects fleeing from them had been sighted near La Verde in Southern Kansas county.

This would indicate that the three believed to be Clyde Barrow and his companions, who escaped officers in a battle at Lincoln, were heading toward the Minnesota line.

Bank and Wife Captured

Deer to July 24 (AP)—Men by check Barrow and his wife, bank suspects, were captured here today in a battle with state and county officers.

Barrow was seriously wounded. He is not expected to live a physician who treated him said.

Two men and a woman, believed to be Clyde Barrow, Bernice Parker and Jack Williams, escaped in a car stolen from Valley Falls, a town.

Three squads of state and county officers surrounded the vehicle where the five suspects were hiding early this morning. As they closed in the suspects began to fire with machine guns. The officers returned the fire, wounding three heavily. They killed one county deputy sheriff, who was shot in the stomach.

The Machine Took

Two Barrow and his wife, the officers found two machine guns and five revolvers.

The three who escaped abandoned their car at Deer City, held up an oil station attendant, and proceeded toward The Mines, in his husband's car. Scroggins or other they are believed to have hit the woman.

The five had been hidden in the woods for five days. Scroggins was arrested when Ed Hunt, farmer, found blood-stained handprints in the woods while he was hunting for hares.

Women in a restaurant became suspicious after one of the men for several days had purchased five times as beer with him.

Officers were notified and the search which led to the shooting today was started.

Barrow gave his address to the police. They were where he and his mother, Mrs. C. E. Barrow, had been wounded in the past. He had been wounded in the past several days ago. Ed Hunt

WORLD PAHLEY ACTIVITIES TO BE PROLONGED

STEERING COMMITTEE TO REMAIN IN PERMANENT SESSION

London, July 24 (AP).—Far from dead, the world economic conference may live many years as a result of today's decision by the steering committee to remain in permanent session here, although the conference will recess Thursday.

Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald insisted that this action be taken. Behind him was the full support of Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Mr. Hull looks upon the conference not as having failed but as a series of conferences of which the London Parley is only the first.

Today's decision calls for the original members of the steering committee to attend meetings, and Governor James M. Cox will be able to represent the United States as he will stay here several weeks after the recess starts.

The national women delegates on the steering committee will not be in London, but will be represented by their ambassadors here.

Dodge Cavalry camp. Barrow said in the battle today, he was shot through the hip and sustained a severe shoulder wound.

Barrow Wounded

Officers were certain that Clyde Barrow and the woman also were wounded seriously. They believed the name Jack Sherman given by the third man, by Marvin Barrow, was an alias.

Identification of the Barrow brothers was established by broadcast descriptions and questioning of Dealer residents, who had seen them.

Marvin Barrow said they had purchased their supply of guns from a soldier at Fort Sill, Okla., in $100. Barrow, who was taken to a Perry hospital, was released from Huntsville penitentiary in March.

Mrs. Barrow also was taken to the Perry hospital for treatment. Shattered pieces of glass penetrated her eyes in the battle.

The Barrows are wanted at Mount Airy for robbery, officers said here.

Clyde Barrow, Sherman and the woman with them escaped by wading a stream running through the woods. They drove northward, stole Folger car and last were reported near between Panama and Guthrie Center.

Wanted in Four Murders

Kansas City, July 24 (AP).—Four murders and the wounding of three officers are charged against the Barrow brothers, Marvin, Roy (Black) and Clyde, desperadoes, Indian Territory killers, one of whom was wounded and captured in a gunfight today with Iowa officers near Dexter.

The search for the Texas gunmen was intensified after their speed was assured from Platte county.

Platte county deputy sheriff, June 19, following a gunfight in which three officers were wounded.

The two men, with two women, were surrounded in a Platte county tourist camp by a dozen officers armed with machine guns and protected by shields. Instead of complying with an order to surrender, the beleaguered fugitives poured a stream of fire on the officers, emerged from their cabins and dashed away in their automobile.

Woman Believed Shot

Officers believe one of the women was severely wounded and that one of the brothers probably was struck by the officers' bullets. The finding of bloody clothing in the neighborhood shortly after the gunfight confirmed the officers' belief.

Wes Harryman, Newton county, Missouri constable, and Harry McGinnis, Joplin detective, were shot to death April 23 when they went to a house in Joplin to search it for liquor. Later a pardon to one of the Barrow brothers, issued by Governor Ferguson of Texas, was found in the house.

Hillsboro, Tex., officers seek the desperadoes for the murder of J. W. Busher, a filling station operator, and they have been identified as the gunmen who fatally wounded H. D. Humphrey, Alma, Ark., officer in a gunfight in June, 1933.

The Texas gunmen are charged with numerous bank robberies and the kidnaping of several officers.

PRESIDENT TO SPEED DRIVE FOR RECOVERY

RADIO SPEECH TONIGHT VITAL ENDEAVOR IN EM- PLOYMENT PROGRAM

Washington, July 24 (AP).—President Roosevelt primed himself today for the supreme endeavor on behalf of his recovery program scheduled in the address to the nation this evening.

Those in touch with him were impressed by the importance he attached to the occasion, coming as it does upon inauguration of the intense national campaign to put more money into pockets of the needy as they can buy.

As to exactly what he planned to say, however, there was no assuredly accurate telling. Some persons in close contact with him spoke as freely of their not knowing his intentions as they did of their knowledge that he deems the speech of dominant nature.

Oil Hearing Opened

The petroleum department, meanwhile, hurried arrangements for expediting to 2,000,000 employees its partnership agreement with the government designed for them to raise wages and restrict working hours, thereby helping buying power and employment.

Hugh S. Johnson, the recovery administrator, took time off from a week on the proposed "blanket" to open the important hearings on proposals by which the oil industry would be reorganized.

"The industrial problem of oil," he said, "and said this meant we need the 'greatest cooperation'."

Factions of strife in the industry piled into the hearing, while labor groups elsewhere followed progress on taking of testimony in connection with the proposed leather and wool codes.

Cap. Hickman telephoned.

Joe Chambliss reported stolen at Wichita Falls yesterday at 2:30 P.M. Ford Model A Coupe. This was recovered at Sunset in an alley.

T. P. Chambliss son of Joe and brother of Mary Chambliss is missing from Wichita Falls. Mary is Mrs. Barney Pitta, former wife of Gene O'Dare and sister of Edell Chambliss. She is believed to be the woman with Hamilton. Hickman believes either T. P. Chambliss or Maledun Bridges drove the Model A to Sunset for Mary to come home in. That the officers were too close to make the switch and Raymond & Mary picked up the one who took the Model A to Sunset. This would account for the story about picking up a hitch hiker. Hickman is keeping the Chambliss case covered.

I received your letter several days ago, it found me in most of a sport. I didn't need no attorney. I had Mr. Rodney but didn't need him.

I see where JO beat his case. He came by here, he wanted to know if I could get in touch of his brother Clyde. Clyde owed him and he wanted to know if you new where he moved to. I am trying to get my estate straightened up, and then I'm going to work at Moore Richolt, and ~~draw~~ my insurance they will owe me, and I'll see McDonald about that farm for you. I'm sure he will let his part go for $250 or $300, so bad don't worry.

Dad and mother are all OK. JO had two of Mr. Rodney address at both places, and he will make some ind. We both can do what we can but it will take time. Let us kno if Clyde will come over and mable can make a trade, so bad write me often quick as you can. Mother said write quick as you can, so love and best wishes.

Sis said she ware madet you for not writing her. She is on lake yet but it's bad time must close.

Hoping to hear from you soon, as ever.

CRIMINAL DIV

Hutchinson, Kas March 6th.

Gentlemen:

With Clyde Barrow on the rampage down our way this afternoon and apparently headed toward Hutchinson after killing two men a suggestion we believe might be worth while.

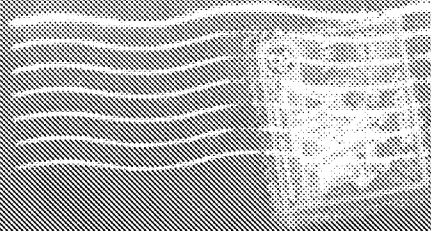

Vern Waggoner notorious local racketeer and "fence" for stolen bonds has been harboring some very undesirable s of late. During the past week two men with bandaged heads and tough lookers were hanging out at his farm near Hutchinson. Waggoner is of boastful nature and justly so as far as conviction is concerned by local authorities. Local Chief of police is a partner in a gambling game-thing we know to our personal knowledge. He also has a few so called higher-ups within his ring and of late somewhat careless.

It would be well worth while to place right know. Waggoner is also

yours truly,

SEARCH REDOUBLED NEAR WINSLOW, ARK., WHEN OFFICER DIES

Fort Smith, Ark., June 23 (AP).—
H. D. Humphrey, Alton town marshal, shot down by two machine gun desperadoes identified as the notorious Barrow brothers of Texas, died in a hospital here today and search for the killers immediately was redoubled in the Ozark mountains near Winslow, where they were last reported.

The Barrow brothers—Clyde and Melvin of Dallas—already were sought for the slaying of two officers at Joplin, Mo., and a long list of crimes in the Southwest before they appeared in Northwest Arkansas to have a trail of violence during the week-end.

Marshal Humphrey and half a dozen other persons who saw the gunmen identified them through pictures yesterday. The marshal said Clyde fired the machine gun
that sent three bullets into his body
in a gun battle near Alton when Humphrey and a deputy came upon the scene a few minutes after the gunmen's car had collided with another machine as they were fleeing from a store holding at Fayetteville.

Trailed to Near Winslow.

The gunmen were trailed to near Winslow Saturday, and later to the farm home of Mrs. John Rogers, where they bast her with a heavy chain when she refused to give them the keys to her car. Mrs. Rogers told Sheriff A. D. Marcy they attempted to strand her, then fled into the hills on foot. They were carrying a machine gun and two automatic pistols.

Police said they learned the Barrows, with another man and three women, had been staying at a tourist camp here for a week. Two of the men left Friday morning, and the other man and the women departed hurriedly a few hours after.
The marshal was shot Friday night.
It was believed the Barrows fled into Kansas after trying up a sheriff
and a deputy at Wellington, Tex.,
June 11, stole a car at Hutchinson June 13, then came here. The Hutchinson car was abandoned by the gunmen in the shooting.

Humphrey, 52 years old, had been an officer since May 1. Two nights before he was shot he was tied up by men who robbed the Commercial bank at Alton of $3,000. Police are investigating a theory the Barrows were connected with this robbery.

TULSA KIDNAPED PAIR BELIEVES DALLAS FLOYD ABDUCTOR

7/11/33 - 1/29/33

Muskogee, Okla., June 23 (AP).—
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Myers of Tulsa reported to Muskogee police today
that they were kidnaped last night between Tulsa and Claremore by four men, one of whom resembled pictures of Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, much-sought outlaw, and held prisoners all night.

They were released, they said,
on a detour between Warner and Webbers Falls about 5 a. m. The outlaws stealing the Myers' automobile.

Myers said he was positive one of the men was Floyd. Another was an Italian and was addressed by his companions as "Dago." These two talked, Myers said, about the kidnaping last week of Sheriff Jack Killingworth at Bolivar, Mo.

(Killingworth was kidnaped by Floyd and Adam Blochwell when the sheriff appeared at a Bolivar garage, where repairs were being made on Floyd's car. Killingworth was released unharmed near Kansas City, Mo.) 26-4/14-

Women Bandits Spray Crowd With Bullets in Holdup

Lacarne, Ind., May 12 (AP).—

Two women bank robbers, one of them a blonde armed with an automatic rifle, sprayed a crowd with bullets during a spectacular but unsuccessful attempt by a bandit gang
to hold up the Lacarne State bank
here today.

Bullets fired by the young bandit queen wounded slightly Miss Ethel Wittars, 23, and Mrs. Doris Minor, 24.

The gang, consisting of two women and two men, all between the ages of 20 and 25 years, and all heavily armed, escaped without loss
in a sedan.

Two Are Held As Gunwomen In Bank Robbery

Logansport, Ind., June 2 (INS).

Two pretty Chicago women were indignant in the Cass county jail here today when they were accused of operating an automatic rifle like veteran gangsters.

They were Mrs. Josephine Gray
and Miss Olga Bernaka.

Despite the fact that at least three persons allegedly identified them as steady nerved women who fired shots from an automatic rifle into a crowd during the unsuccessful attempted robbery of the Lacarne State bank at Lacarne near here on May 12, they continued to maintain their innocence.

Bullets from the gun struck and slightly wounded Miss Ethel Wittars, 23, and Mrs. Doris Minor, 24, of Lacarne.

"We didn't do it; they can't hang the job on us," the women protested.

They denied emphatically that one of them after firing a volley into the crowd, screamed: "This'll tear you!"

Mrs. Gray is a petite blonde and the wife of Jack Gray, who was captured after robbing the State
Exchange bank of Orver, and Miss Bernaka is Gray's sister. Olga is a brunette, slightly taller than her sister-in-law.

CLYDE BARRROW RECOGNIZED ON TERRELL VISIT

HIDEOUTS WATCHED BUT GUN MAN AND GIRL SLIP THROUGH NET

Clyde Barrow, notorious West Dallas desperado, with a woman believed to be Bonnie Parker and three men companions, were seen at Terrell, Tex., Monday evening about dark. It was revealed at the sheriff's office Wednesday.

All known places in Dallas county where Clyde or Bonnie might visit were watched all Monday night, all day Tuesday and all Tuesday night.

A filling station operator at Terrell reported Clyde drove an Auburn sedan bearing a North Carolina license into his place shortly before dark Monday. A complete change of oil, check of tires and filling of the gasoline tank was ordered.

At first the station attendant was not suspicious. He reported one of the men helped the woman from the car. She walked to the rest room. The suit of one of the women was apparent. The station attendant

W. CLYDE KILL

Voluntary Statement- Under Arrest. B-71

THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF DALLAS

Date November 10th, 1933.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

After I have been duly warned by Winter R. King, Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas that I do not have to make any statement at all, and that any statement I make may be used in evidence against me on the trial for the offense concerning which this statement is herein made, I wish to make the following voluntary statement to the aforesaid person:

My name is W. D. Jones

My address is.....

I am 17 years old. I was born May 10th, 1916 in some little town in east Texas, but do not know the name of the town, nor the name of the County where the same is located.

I know Clyde Barrow and have known him for about 11 years. I had met Bonnie Parker two or three times before the occasion when I left Dallas with Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker a day or two before Christmas, 1932, and went to Temple, Texas, where Clyde killed a man who tried to interfere with us when we were stealing a Ford car off the street there. We hid out in east Texas for awhile, returning to Dallas on the night of Friday, January 6th, 1933, when some officers tried to arrest us at Lillie McBride's house on County Avenue in East Dallas, and Clyde Barrow killed one of the officers with a shot-gun and Bonnie Parker also fired two or three times at the officers with a pistol.

We escaped from Texas then, and rambled through Oklahoma and Missouri, and hid away for some weeks at Joplin, Mo., where we staid, until we had a pitched gun battle with some officers who tried to arrest us there. I was shot and unconscious, but the others shot their way out and carried me with them, and we escaped in a Ford car. We hid out for a time, visiting various states including Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Indiana and Louisiana.

While we were in Louisiana, and before Clyde and Buck kidnaped the man and woman there, they put me out of the car to steal a Chevrolet automobile for them. I saw this was my chance to escape and I jumped in this car and made my get away and came back to Dallas, Texas.

I got back to Dallas about a month or a month and a half after the gun battle at Joplin, Mo. I cannot be any more definite as to the time. I staid around Dallas several weeks. I staid at my mother's at 2410 Henry Street in West Dallas. I saw and talked to Clyde Barrow's mother during this time. But I didn't tell any of the Barrows anything about what all had happened.

Late one afternoon--or rather about two o'clock in the afternoon I was out at Jackson's Inn. I was walking along the road intending to go down to the lake and to go to a dance at the Five Point Baseball that night. Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow drove up from behind me and stopped. They were in a '28 Coupe.

I hadn't heard from them since I saw them last in Louisiana and did not know they were back in town until this time.

They spoke to us and told us to get in the car and I got in. They asked me if I wanted to go with them, and I told them I did not, and Clyde said I was going any way, and I did.

We drove on in the direction of Wichita Falls, going mostly on country roads. We staid that night at the first little tourist camp on this side of Vernon, Texas. We left there early the next morning. He hadn't told us where we were going or anything-- just said we were going "up the country".

We drove on all day and into the night, I went to sleep and while I was asleep we had a wreck. A bridge was out and Clyde drove off into the river. I was knocked out. Bonnie was burned on her right leg from the thigh on down. A pretty bad burn.

Bonnie told me afterward that the next thing she remembered was that she came to and we were all in a farmhouse and she didn't know how we got there, and that I brought a rifle in the house, and she told me to take it to Clyde and I went out of the house with it. Bonnie told me I fired a shot-gun there which you had a wound in the hand. I don't know about anything that happened at this farmhouse, because if I did any of those things I was still out of my head from the injuries I had received in the wreck and knew nothing about them.

Bonnie also told me two officers came to the house in a car and we captured them and took their car and the officers with us and started for Oklahoma. I still don't remember this. But I came to while we were in this car. Clyde Harrow was driving and Bonnie Parker and myself and the two captured officers were in the car.

A few minutes after I came to we met Buck Harrow, in the edge of Oklahoma on a bridge. He was driving a Ford V8 convertible coupe. Blanche Harrow his wife was with him. Clyde drove up on one end of the long bridge and blew his horns and stopped, and we sat there a few minutes and we heard another horn at the far end of the bridge. Buck stopped his car there and came running up towards us. Clyde got out of the car with the two officers, and told me to drive the Chevrolet down towards Buck's car and put Bonnie in it. I did that, and staid there until Buck and Clyde came back and I got in the Coupe with Buck and Blanche and Bonnie Parker, and Clyde got in the Chevrolet we had taken from the officers.

We headed on North into Oklahoma. On this trip I learned from their conversation that they had hold up a bank somewhere and had lots of money. We went on into Arkansas from there.

STEAL AUTO AND ABDUCT PURSUERS NEAR TEXAS LINE

Dallas police Friday guarded all roads into the city for a red-covered sedan bearing the two notorious Barrow brothers and their two women.

It was learned that in the auto were two machine guns, three pistols and several pistols, squad officers were prepared to stop the car and ask questions.

The kidnaping occurred yesterday after a fifth bandit had stolen Darby's car off the streets. Darby and Miss Stone were chased to Miss Stone's automobile. When they approached Niles, La., they were halted by the two men and two women and forced to accompany them into Arkansas.

Dallas police were notified
day morning that Clyde and Buck Barrow, brother Clyde and Buck of Dallas, were desperadoes of the kidnapers of a man and woman
in Niles, La., Thursday

In telephone conversation with the sheriff of Ruston, police were told that the Barrow brothers were the ones who abducted D. J.
Stone, a prominent Niles, La., after midnight after a drive

The victims had identified the Barrow brothers from photographs which had been sent to police departments in all parts of the country by Dallas police.

Three Men, Two Women

According to services from Ruston, the kidnaping party consisted of three men and two women. Dallas police suspected the women were Bonnie Parker, Dallas sweet-wife of Clyde Barrow, and Buck's wife. Identity of the third man was not known.

Darby, Ruston undertaker, and Miss Stone, 27, home demonstrator agent, were abducted when they gave chase to a man who had stolen Darby's car. The abduction occurred near Niles, 12 miles northwest of Ruston, and the couple was released six miles south of Wadley, Ark.

Identification of the Barrow brothers as the Louisiana kidnapers was the first word of the much-sought bandits since the killing of two peace officers in Joplin, Mo., two weeks ago. In police raiding a combination garage and house, were met by a man (he that took the lives of a constable and a deputy police officer). Searching the house, Barrow brothers, Bonnie Parker and Buck's wife, as well as a newspaper issued by Gov. Ferguson to Buck Barrow.

The Missouri murders brought the number for which Clyde Barrow was sought to six.

Dallas police were given a description of a 1932 model Ford sedan bearing the Louisiana license No. 282-21, in which the Barrow were said to be traveling.

The car, according to the Ruston sheriff, was covered with white mud.
