21 February 1968

TO: [REDACTED]

FROM: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

The writer met [REDACTED] at the Key Bridge Marriott Hot Shoppe at 1245 hrs on 20 February 1968 and the two proceeded to [REDACTED] residence at [REDACTED].

We were very cordially received and were served coffee soon after sitting down. [REDACTED] explained in very precise words that the Bureau was vitally interested in Subject because of her reporting and the stature she had gained in WSP. He emphasized that he in particular was very interested in the "Peace Movement" and was desperately seeking good sources of information. The meeting lasted over an hour and a half and proved to be productive in many ways. It is believed the spectrum was covered without leaving anything unanswered and it ended with [REDACTED] stipulation that she was willing and happy to work with [REDACTED] and the Bureau providing "that my activity will in no way prejudice or hamper [REDACTED] work or association with what he has done in the past. She further said that if [REDACTED] was cut out and no longer used in the Project, she too would bow out and quit her activity. She asked the question, "Do I understand that if I do not work for you [REDACTED] then I do not work for [REDACTED] or anyone else?" To which [REDACTED] replied, "That is my understanding. The writer said nothing to this. However, when she asked me if I objected to her working with the Bureau, I told her I thought it was the proper thing to do because it was their delegated responsibility and they would be able to better target and direct her and anything she reported would be disseminated to interested authorities. At the end, she asked that she be given assurance that [REDACTED] activities "as in the past" would not be affected, and if she were given this assurance, then she would call [REDACTED] for further guidance and instructions.

[REDACTED] reiterated that [REDACTED] would be working for the Bureau exclusively and would not be answering to anyone else. That he (speaking for the Bureau) had no use for [REDACTED] at this time, and further, had no objection to [REDACTED] continuing his activity - "whatever that is" - or his being used in any capacity the PO saw fit.

The meeting was very amicable, most surprising to this person, and certainly ended in a good note of accomplishment for all concerned.

NOTE: There appears to be no reason why these arrangements will not work and in a very satisfactory manner to all concerned. ~~He~~ is well motivated, does an outstanding job in whatever activity he engages and without question would be very difficult to replace.
