SITUATION INFORMATION REPORT # 35DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION (NDC),
AUGUST 1968

Although the Republican National Convention scheduled to begin in Miami, Florida 5 August 1968 will probably be subjected to considerable protest and demonstration type of harassment, it appears at this time that the Democratic Convention in Chicago, Illinois will be the target of considerably more action. The FBI disseminated on 18 July 1968 a preliminary study relative to the anticipated demonstrations at the National Democratic Convention. It has been reproduced and is attached hereto to enable such timely dissemination as may be deemed desirable.

The Youth Socialist Alliance (youth group of the Socialist Workers Party) is sponsoring a demonstration in Washington, D. C. to show Cuban support and anti-Vietnam War sentiment. SDS, SNCC, and the Student Mobilization Committee are to participate with about 150 persons expected to be involved.

Cuban Powers and the Ejercito Secreto Anti-Comunista (ECA)--two anti-Castro groups--are planning to be active in Chicago this weekend. Targets of "explosive materials" are to be the Spanish and Mexican tourist offices and consulates and also a Japanese firm which trades with Cuba. After the "Chicago Plan", the group intends to hit the Spanish and Mexican tourist offices and consulates in New Orleans. In New York City, the group is concentrating on the Cuban representative to the U. N., Ricardo Alarcon QUESADA and the Cuban Mission itself. The plan calls for assassination or kidnapping of Alarcon and placing of explosives at the Cuban Mission.
