MISSISSIPPI, INDICATES THAT THE SUBJECT RESIDES AT THAT ADDRESS WITH HIS PARENTS, [REDACTED]

ON DECEMBER 12, 1984, [REDACTED] WAS CONTACTED IN THE PRESENCE OF HIS PARENTS AT THE ABOVE ADDRESS. [REDACTED] ADVISED THAT HE WAS A DEVOTED LISTENER TO THE RADIO PROGRAM HOSTED BY CASEY KASEM. ON TWO OCCASIONS HE HAD WRITTEN TO KASEM REQUESTING THAT KASEM DEDICATE A SONG TO HIM AS KASEM FEATURES THESE DEDICATIONS ON HIS RADIO PROGRAM. WHEN [REDACTED] DID NOT HEAR HIS DEDICATION, HE BECAME VERY ANGRY AND DECIDED TO WRITE KASEM A LETTER TO TELL HIM HOW HE FELT THAT HE HAD BEEN NEGLECTED. [REDACTED] ADMITTED THAT HE HAD GONE TOO FAR IN EXPRESSING HIS ANGER AND NOW REALIZES THAT HE HAD MADE A MISTAKE IN HIS CHOICE OF WORDS. HE FURTHER NOTED THAT HE RESPECTS KASEM AS A RADIO-BROADCASTER AND WOULD NEVER ATTEMPT TO HARM HIM IN ANY WAY.

DURING THE INTERVIEW, [REDACTED] EXHIBITED A SEVERE SPEECH IMPEDIMENT AND ATTEMPTED TO UTILIZE LONG RAMBLING DISCOURSE TO EXPLAIN AND APOLOGIZE FOR HIS ACTIONS. BOTH HE AND HIS PARENTS INDICATE THAT HE IS A VERY ANXIOUS AND NERVOUS INDIVIDUAL, BUT AT THE SAME TIME IS PHYSICALLY NONVIOLENT.

IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT THE SUBJECT AND HIS PARENTS WERE

[redacted] was interviewed in the presence of his parents, at his residence, which is located at [redacted] Mississippi. After being advised of the identities of the interviewing agents and the nature of the inquiry, [redacted] provided the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that he was a devoted listener to the radio program hosted by CASEY KASEM. On two occasions during the spring and summer of 1984, he had written to KASEM requesting that KASEM dedicate a song to him, as KASEM features these dedications on his radio program. [redacted] indicated that his favorite music artists are ROBERT ELLIS ORRALL, CARLEEN CARTER, and KIM WILD and he wished his dedication song to be an original work from one of these recording artists. When [redacted] did not hear his dedication, he became very angry and decided to write KASEM a letter to tell him how he felt that he had been neglected. [redacted] admitted that he had gone too far in expressing his anger and now realizes that he had made a mistake in his choice of words. He further noted that he respects KASEM as a radio broadcaster and would never attempt to harm him in any way. [redacted] further indicated that in his final communication to KASEM he did berate him by indicating that KASEM's stations should drop his program around the country because of his insensitivity. He admitted that he was extremely upset when he wrote these letters to KASEM but could not actually recall using threatening language that would indicate actual bodily harm.

b7C

[redacted] concluded by apologizing for his actions, and indicated that although he is a very anxious and nervous individual, he is physically non-violent and would never hurt CASEY KASEM or anyone in a physical manner.

Attention: [redacted]
Assistant U.S. Attorney

Re: [redacted] Casey Casem - Victim; Extortion
- Threatening Letter

Dear Mr. Bonner:

This letter serves to confirm a conversation which was conducted telephonically on January 25, 1985 between Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] and Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of the Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). During this conversation SA [redacted] advised AUSA [redacted] of the circumstances surrounding the receipt of a threatening letter by television personality Casey Casem. Mr. Casem, a nationally known radio/television personality, received a long rambling and threatening letter from an individual who signed his name as [redacted]. The letter expressed disappointment in Mr. Casem for not playing records which [redacted] had requested be played throughout the United States on Mr. Casem's national radio program. The letter, which was rambling at times, became more threatening with every page. At one point [redacted] suggested that he was going to re-enact the massacre which occurred at a McDonalds Restaurant in San Ysidro, California and Mr. Casem would be one of the victims. Mr. Casem and members of his staff became concerned.

[redacted] was located and interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who determined that he is a [redacted] black male who exhibited a severe speech impediment and attempted to utilize long rambling discourses to explain and apologize for his actions. He was interviewed in the presence of his parents and expressed a deep regret for having utilized the choice of words that he did and stated that he respects Mr. Casem and would never attempt to harm him in any way. [redacted] parents were very cordially and cooperative during the interview and at the conclusion advised that they would monitor their son's correspondence and be more observant of his activities particularly those have written correspondence.

[redacted] was arrested by the police in [redacted] for carrying a knife and was given a small fine inasmuch as there were no aggravating circumstance connected with the arrest.

After hearing the circumstances surrounding the receipt of the letter, AUSA [redacted] advised that he would not authorize prosecution in this matter inasmuch as [redacted] had not displayed any criminal intent nor made any overt effort to carry out any threat.

In view of the opinion of AUSA [redacted] the Federal Bureau of Investigation is not conducting any further investigation into this matter. Mr. Casem was advised of this opinion and will immediately notify the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the event that [redacted] should continue the writing of threatening letters to him.

Very truly yours,

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 1/12/93

On January 8, 1993, Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Los Angeles Field Office interviewed CASEY KASEM, date of birth April 27, 1932, at his residence concerning a threatening telephone call received at his home on the evening of January 4, 1993, [redacted]. KASEM had telephoned the FBI on January 5, 1993, after receiving the call.

According to KASEM, two (2) mysterious calls were actually received. The first call, which was automatically taped by his answering voice mail system, was received at approximately 6:00 pm. The caller identified himself as "CASEY's old friend [redacted] and asked KASEM to call him at [redacted]. The caller emphasized that it was urgent that KASEM call him. KASEM did not really give the call much thought as he did not recognize the name [redacted] and knew no one at that number. The second call, also taped, was received at approximately 8:00 pm. The same caller began the call with a "dumb blonde" joke. The caller then said words to the effect, "release Negativland" and "you'd better give the money back to [redacted]. The actual threat stated that unless KASEM authorized the release of a particular record, [redacted].

b6

[redacted]
KASEM's secretary inadvertently erased this second call.

KASEM explained that [redacted]

b6
b7C

Nevertheless, the threat against [redacted] has upset them both very much. [redacted] out of curiosity, had dialed the above number on January 5, 1993, during the evening hours. A male with a thick hispanic accent answered before she hung up. KASEM himself dialed the number on the morning of January 6, 1993. He recognized the person who answered as [redacted]. KASEM stated that just before he said "hello", [redacted] apparently was talking to someone else and appeared to be directing that person to take something "backstage". KASEM, through a personal friend, found out that the number given by [] is located in the [] Ohio area.

b7C

KASEM then explained that he is currently involved in a business dispute with a group which calls itself Negativland Band. According to KASEM, about one year ago, this band included in their album, a cut from the band U2. Interspersed in this cut were outtakes of one of KASEM's old radio shows in which he was recorded while swearing and uttering profanities because of some problems with the show. At the time, KASEM was unaware that he had been recorded. However, the tape has been around for years and KASEM now considers it a joke. He stated that he has never asked any station not to play it. However, he pointed out the distinction regarding this current dispute. Negativland Band sold this record and released it through SST Record Company. Island Records which owns the label for U2, and KASEM, sought a court injunction against Negativland for marketing a product that is not their own for monetary gain without getting permission. KASEM considers it a simple act of theft and copyright violation. Negativland has pursued a publicity campaign making the dispute a free speech issue. The court injunction has forced Negativland to pull all of the disputed records out of circulation and SST Record Company ordered to pay. SST Record Company in turn is suing Negativland to recover its losses.

KASEM feels that legally, the court injunction makes this a dead issue. However, the media push being launched by Negativland in the music industry has resulted in at least twelve (12) letters from different parts of the country being sent to KASEM asking him not to interfere with the band's first amendment right. KASEM showed interviewing agent all twelve letters, none of which are threatening in nature. He has replied to all of them, explaining his side of the story, through his legal firm, Armbruster, Adler, Brickin and Glushon (310) 201-0507. However, he believes that the publicity being generated by Negativland has led directly to the phone call from [] Whether or not [] is associated with Negativland is unknown at this time.

KASEM advised that as far as he knows, Negativland Band has the address [REDACTED]. He does not know any of the members personally.

His secretary, [REDACTED] heard the threatening call on the answering machine but inadvertently erased it.

b7c

It was agreed that for the time being, KASEM would tape all incoming calls to the pertinent line, instructing the household not to pick up that particular line. This was done in the hope that [REDACTED] might call again and leave another message. The possibility was also discussed of placing a recording device on the pertinent telephone and answering every call in the hope of being able to speak directly with [REDACTED] and eliciting more incriminating statements. For the time being, all incoming calls will be taped automatically and no consensual monitoring will take place.

A copy of the first telephone call was made and has been placed in the 1A section of this file for evidentiary purposes.

As explained in enclosed communication, KASEM is involved in a legal dispute with a group called Negativland Band. The band claims that KASEM is infringing on their first amendment right and preventing them from making money. KASEM, through his attorneys, contends that the issue involves copyright infringement and outright theft. Apparently, Negativland, from their home base [redacted] is promoting a vigorous publicity campaign against KASEM in order to pressure him into allowing them to use the recorded material in question. In fact, KASEM has received letters from across the country, none threatening in nature, questioning him as to why he is denying Negativland the right to make a living. At this point, KASEM considers the matter moot since a court injunction has ruled against Negativland. However, it is this persistent, harassing campaign that KASEM credits with causing the threatening telephone call and he wonders if there will be more such calls if Negativland continues to pursue this issue.

As of this writing, only one threatening call has been received and that one was mistakenly erased. KASEM was told that the United States Attorney's Office in Los Angeles would not prosecute under these conditions. If a case is to be built, then additional calls would have to be received and recorded. In the meantime, Los Angeles wishes to identify the subscriber to telephone [redacted] as well as to identify the members of Negativland Band in order for appropriate investigation to be conducted.

[redacted] states that he does not know who is responsible for the threats and does not know anyone by the name of [redacted] in the [redacted] Ohio, area. [redacted]

[redacted] explained that the NEGATIVLAND BAND had released a record that utilized an excerpt of a tape which had CASEY KASEM speaking out in obscenities. The release of this record has been in dispute, however, NEGATIVLAND BAND has published a pamphlet of all relevant information generated by the people involved in this matter and the conflict with CASEY KASEM.

At first KASEM had spoken out that he supported the release based on the free speech issue, then KASEM's lawyers said there will be no second release or we will sue.

NEGATIVLAND BAND received a lot of media regarding this release and asked for the public's support through the pamphlet the band published. Included in the pamphlet were KASEM's work address and fax number.

[redacted] feels that this [redacted] is an outraged fan who is taking the issue too far. Title marked "Changed" to reflect true identity of subject previously carried as "UNSUB".

For information, on 8/16/93, writer contacted Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] Complaint Unit, Los Angeles, concerning captioned matter. It was explained to AUSA [redacted] that the case was predicated on a telephonic complaint by victim CASEY KASEM in early January, 1993, whereby he claimed that a death threat was made against [redacted]. The threat was related to an ongoing legal battle KASEM has been waging with Negativland Band based out of Oakland, California. The issue revolves around copyright infringement and the first amendment.

b7C

Investigation by the FBI determined the identity of the person who placed the call from Ohio and appropriate interviews were conducted. This person admitted calling the KASEM residence during the time in question but denied issuing any threat. Members of the band were also interviewed with negative results.

There was only one alleged death threat made by phone and no recording of that call exists. Consensual monitoring of the KASEM residence phone was done, also with negative results.

Based on the fact that only one call was received, AUSA [redacted] cited insufficient evidence as the reason for declining federal prosecution.

Attention: AUSA [redacted]

Dear Mr. Bowers:

This letter will serve to confirm in writing a telephonic conversation which took place on August 16, 1993 between AUSA [redacted] and Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of our office.

During this conversation, the facts of referenced matter were made known to AUSA [redacted]. She was told that the case involved a telephonic death threat against [redacted] radio personality Casey Kasem. The threat was related to an ongoing legal battle Kasem has been waging with members of Negativland Band revolving around copyright infringement and the first amendment. She was also told that the FBI had identified the caller in Ohio and had interviewed him as well as members of the band to which he had no affiliation. The individual admitted making the call but denied issuing a death threat. There was only one call involved.

Dear Sir:

I understand that on your staff, you have an announcer by the name of Casey Kasem. I am familiar with the man's work on his radio and television programs. I want to give my opinion about the man.

I met him at a Hollywood party about a year ago while I was visiting friends on the West Coast. I was disappointed because he seemed to be drinking most of the time and behaved like an ill mannered boor. He also admitted how he enjoyed abusing his own children. Naturally I could not believe my own ears because I had always believed that he loved children. Now I will tell you that Mary my girlfriend who did not go with me to California, adored Mr. Kasem because he seemed on his show to be a very kind and decent man. Sadly she became disillusioned and depressed when she read that he deserted his wife and three kids to marry a girl young enough to be his own daughter. Mary was so upset that she killed herself with a shotgun blast. I feel that Mr. Kasem by not being honest with his fans about his true feelings about his children and life, somehow caused Mary's death. I would like to make a simple request. I want Casey Kasem fired.

If he is not let go by the end of June the following things will happen; 1. I will make sure that viewers boycott your network. I know that right now you can not afford that ; 2. I would have Mr. Kasem blackballed from all media- I have some influential friends who could see that it happens. 3. He and his new wife and his three offsprings may suffer serious physical Consequences. I am sorry but I am not going to stand by and let a murderer be kept on your payroll. Either justice is done, or else you and Mr. Kasem will pay.

Thank you for reading this

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing to say that I am truly sorry about all the trouble I have caused Mr. Kasem the last few months. I will admit I have been extremely depressed since Christmas when I found out that Mr. Kasem remarried since I knew he had three kids from his first marriage and I was concerned for them. But there was absolutely no excuse for my acting the way I did. I even wrote the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce to protest the star that he was given because I could not accept the fact that his children were not there, to share it with him. I also sent a copy to Watermark and mentioned that I would most likely kill myself by the time you receive this letter. I really regret sending these two letters not because I could be sent to jail., (I was warned by the FBI that I would be arrested if I threatened Mr. Kasem again,) but because I was so blind to the fact that I was hurting myself more by writing these terrible things about him. I have decided to pick up the pieces of my life and try to start over again. I did feel bad about his kids and hope that they are okay and that they do not hate their father. I hope he loves them.

But I know now that the main thing is me-I have to gain back my self respect and confidence. This afternoon, I am going to talk to a priest and I hope he can straighten me out. I need it. I regret the things I did because you all were very nice to me. If you want me to send you back all the things you sent me (the record set, the T shirts, the pictures) I will. I meant it at the time when I said I enjoyed the show. I was very sincere when I sent the cake because I did enjoy the show. I am very sad that this happened and I hope you accept my sincere apologies. I am especially sorry about the mean things I said about Mr. Kasem and his family. If you all can not forgive me for my actions, I will understand. I just want to stop dreading life to the point where suicide seems the only alternative.

Thank you.

I did not write this to Mr. Kasem because I know that he wants no part of me - I can't blame him for that. But I hope one day he can forgive me - I have forgiven him now. I'll admit I also acted out of spite and jealousy but I know now that it was no good to have a foolish infatuation which will never go anywhere. I promise you you'll never hear from me again.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 1/23/81

[redacted]
[redacted] Missouri, telephone [redacted] was interviewed at her place of employment, the Federal Records Center, 9700 Page Boulevard. She was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the purpose of the interview, and she provided the following information:

She advised that she went to California on a vacation in July of 1980. While she was in California, she met Casey Kasem and fell in love with him. She has been in love with him since that time, and she became extremely angry at him when he was married just prior to Christmas of last year, and left his three children with a former wife. She was very concerned because she thought he did not love his children. She was so angry at him that she wanted to "destroy him".

She sent approximately six or seven threatening letters to Casey Kasem and the first letter was sent on December 24, 1980. The last letter was sent on January 19, 1981. She also sent approximately four letters to radio stations in California, and one letter to a television station in New York. She could not remember the names of these radio stations or the television station. She said the reason she sent the letters to these stations was that she wanted them to not use Kasem's program anymore.

She said that the first letter she sent on December 24, was a very bad letter and she said some "horrible things" in it. In this letter she pretended she was a guy named [redacted]. She said [redacted] was fictitious and she imagined him to be a "rough-tough black guy".

In some of the letters she sent to Kasem, she included photographs of his wedding, which she had cut out of People magazine. On these photographs, she wrote "death to pigs". She felt that Kasem and [redacted] were pigs. She was very jealous of Kasem's new wife and she feels that she was jealous because Kasem's new wife is younger than she is.

She said that she did not think Kasem would take the letters seriously, and she also did not think anyone would ever find out that she had written them. When the interviewing Agent asked her why she had put her Post Office Box Number on the envelopes, she replied that she did not know, but she thought that maybe she secretly wanted people to know that she had sent the letters.

She said she has not been happy with herself since she sent the letters and she feels "terrible" about everything. She said the last letter she sent was last Monday, and she sent it against her better judgment. She said that this was going to be the last letter she would send.

She said that since she began sending the letters, she has had a recurrent nightmare, which takes place in a courtroom. Casey Kasem has sued her for liable because of the things she has written about him in the letters and she has been found guilty. Kasem has sued her because he lost his job because of her letters. When she was sentenced, Kasem came up to her and said "I hope you burn in hell for what you did." At this point in her nightmare, she wakes up.

She said she was so angry at Kasem that she had considered calling the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) and telling them that one of their announcers was going to be killed. However, she did not go through with this because she was afraid the telephone call would be traced. She said she had also considered buying a gun and going to California and shooting Kasem. She was influenced in this thinking by the shooting of John Lennon. However, she never purchased any weapon, and she said that she has no intention of going to California and shooting Kasem. She said that she is sure she could not shoot anyone.

She advised that approximately nine years ago, she sent some threatening letters to television celebrity Monty Hall, because she was in love with him. She was very angry at Hall because he had stated that he was going to vote for George McGovern, and she was a big Nixon fan.

She said that in one of the letters which she sent to Casey Kasem she had mentioned something about [redacted] being at a party. However, her fictional friend, Mary, was not at this party. Casey Kasem was at the party and he got very drunk and made abusive comments about his family. She said that this party was something she made up in her mind and she had almost convinced herself that the party actually occurred.

She reiterated that she feels terrible about sending the threatening letters to Casey Kasem and she promised that she would never do it again. She advised that she is planning on seeing a psychiatrist in Granite City, Illinois, and she will do this within the next few weeks.

On January 28, 1981, he was advised that a letter had been received which was addressed to Mr. Casey Kasem, care of American Top 40, P.O. Box 2000, Hollywood, California, 90028. The letter which was postmarked St. Louis, Missouri, 8 Jan, 1981 was handprinted and similar to other letters received by Mr. Kasem which had been signed by [redacted]

This letter stated in part, "Kasem - if you think my previous threats were pranks - so did she, and look what happened to her -" The letter also contained an article which had been cut out of a newspaper which had a byline from the "Globe - Democrat" staff writer which reported the murder of a 75 year old woman in her home on Christmas Day. The article related that the woman had received telephone threats over the past several years which advised her that she was going to be killed on Christmas Day. The woman was found strangled to death in her home at 4:00 p.m. on Christmas Day. The paragraphs concerning threatening phone calls and the woman trusting in God rather than telling the police about the calls and the actual murder itself were underlined in pen. The article which was, "Continued on page 4-A", was missing the continuation.

RE: [redacted]

Extortion - Threatening
letter

Attention: AUSA [redacted]

Dear Ms. Ordín:

This letter serves to confirm a conversation which was conducted telephonically on January 26, 1981, between Special Agent [redacted] of the Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] of your office. During the conversation, Special Agent [redacted] advised AUSA [redacted] of the circumstances surrounding the receipts of numerous letters which threatened the life of television notable Casey Kasem, his present wife, his ex-wife and his three children.

Mr. Kasem recently married for the second time and the details of the wedding were carried in the December issue of "People" magazine including a photograph of he, his bride, the Reverend Jesse Jackson and the best man Lieutenant Governor Mike Curb. Shortly after the article appeared in "People" magazine, a series of letters which were addressed to various television stations, NBC Television Studio, the Watermark Corporation which is Kasem's corporation producing the "American Top 40" radio program which is syndicated to 600 stations, and the "American Top 10" television program which is also widely syndicated. The letters make reference to Kasem's recent marriage and accuse him of physically abusing his three children and wishing that the children were dead. The author signed the letters [redacted] and indicated that he, Kasem, was responsible for [redacted] recent suicide because of disillusionment with Kasem's reported behavior toward his first wife and their three children.

Investigation at Burbank, California, and St. Louis, Missouri determined that [redacted] was in fact a [redacted] year old woman named [redacted] who was a long-time fan and admirer of Kasem.

[redacted] had written the Watermark Studios in the early summer of 1980 and inquired of the studio if she would be permitted to visit the taping of one of Kasem's programs since she was a fan and considered herself to be President of the Missouri chapter of the Casey Kasem Fan Club. The studio sent back a form letter advising her that if she ever visited Los Angeles, California that she would be welcome to sit in on one of the programs. The next day she arrived and was permitted to visit the studio and was introduced to Kasem. She was extended the usual courtesies and allowed to have her picture taken with Kasem and she departed the studio heading back to Missouri.

b7C

Upon interview by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at St. Louis, Missouri, [redacted] admitted that she had written the letters threatening the life of Kasem and members of his family. She stated that she was in love with Kasem and when she learned that he had married a woman who was younger than her she was bitterly disappointed and decided to ruin Kasem's reputation. She regretted sending the letters and has been bothered by the fact that she wrote and did in fact mail the letters. She stated that she created [redacted] whom she envisioned as a large black man who would give her information about Kasem. She stated that all the accusations about Kasem's behavior toward members of his family were created by her and were in fact untrue. She stated that she was intending to seek psychiatric help in view of the fact that the most recent letters that she mailed, and, which probably had not been received by Kasem at the time of the interview, were the most vicious of all the letters she sent. She stated that she was disgusted with her behaviour in sending the last several letters. She stated that she did not want her mother or father to know what she had done and she was greatly fearful that her employer, the Federal Government at the National Record Processing Center at St. Louis, would find out what she had done and dismiss her. She stated that she had no intention of actually carrying out the threats, but after the death of the musician John Lennon, she thought about getting a gun and shooting Mr. Kasem, but she really knew that she could not do that and would never attempt it.

b6

Casey Kasem was alerted to the facts that it was [redacted] who sent the letter and the admissions that she had made inasmuch as he was greatly concerned that she would, in fact, attempt to harm his wife and his three children.

b6

After hearing the circumstances surrounding the mailing of threatening letters by [redacted] AUSA [redacted] advised that he would decline prosecution of [redacted] for violation of the Extortion statute at this time. AUSA [redacted] stated that in view of the fact that [redacted] was seeking psychiatric help and that she had not made any overt attempt to carry out the threat and in no way actually harmed Mr. Kasem or members of his family, that justice may not be most equitably served by prosecution of this woman if in fact the threatening letters and all other efforts by her to contact Kasem have stopped. However, AUSA [redacted] stated that in the event that [redacted] continues her letter writing activity or commits any overt act in an effort to carry out her threats against Mr. Kasem, he would very seriously entertain the idea of prosecuting [redacted] for violation of the extortion statute. He stated that [redacted] should be made aware of the declination of prosecution with the stipulation that all activities on her part toward Mr Kasem or members of his family should immediately stop.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

Based on the opinion of AUSA [redacted] the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Los Angeles, California, will request the St. Louis Federal Bureau of Investigation Office to advise [redacted] of the AUSA's opinion and maintain contact with Kasem for a 30 day period to determine if [redacted] activities have indeed ceased. In the event that she persists in continuing the threats, the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Los Angeles will reopen the matter and immediately advise AUSA [redacted]

As an attorney, he represents a well known television personality named Casey Kasem who is a television announcer, actor, and television producer. Kasem has a syndicated radio show known as the, "American Top Forty", and a television syndicated program called, "American Top Ten". Mr. Kasem is extremely well known in the entertainment industry across the nation and is highly respected as a professional and as a individual.

The National Broadcasting Company, located at Burbank, California, received a type-written letter postmarked the eighth of January, 1981, at St. Louis, Missouri, with a return address of NPRC, St. Louis, Missouri 63132. The letter, which was signed [redacted] tells NBC that the author met Casey Kasem at a party and that Kasem after drinking a lot admitted how he enjoyed abusing his own children. The author then states that [redacted] adored Kasem and after reading how Kasem deserted his wife and three children, [redacted] was so upset that she killed herself with a shotgun blast.

b7C

The author wanted Kasem fired by the end of June or he would make sure that the viewers boycott the network, would have Kasem blackballed from all the media, and that Kasem's new wife and three offsprings, "may suffer serious physical Consequences".

[redacted] stated that none of the people involved with Mr. Kasem had any idea of what the writer was talking about or who the writer was.

b7C

On January 14, 1981, a second letter which was addressed to Watermark, Incorporated, North Hollywood, California, was received and was signed, [redacted] and below that was typed [redacted] Overland, Missouri 63114. This letter states that the writer still wants Kasem fired because of remarks made at a party. The writer included the Post Office Box and stated that it belonged to a lady who adores Casey Kasem but who has no idea of what the writer is doing by sending these letters.

[redacted] states that Kasem is extremely concerned for the safety of his former wife and three children. He stated that Kasem was divorced some time ago and has just recently remarried. He stated that the marriage was the topic of an article in a December 1980 edition of "People" magazine and this may have spurred the author to write the letters.

Casey Kasem, [redacted]
[redacted] Los Angeles, California, 462-6266, was advised of the identity of the interviewer as being a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and was advised as to the purpose of the interview. Mr. Kasem furnished the following information:

Over the recent three weeks he has been the recipient of numerous vicious and threatening letters. The letters which are all signed [redacted] have been sent to various radio and television stations as well as to the Watermark Company and NBC Studios. The letters accused him of mistreating his three children and threaten his life, the lives of his children, and the life of his wife.

During December of 1980 he was married and a photograph of the wedding ceremony was published in "People" magazine and that is when the threatening letters started. Along with one letter was the photograph which had been cut out of "People" magazine with threats inked across the face of the photo.

In the early summer of 1980 the Watermark Studio received a request from the girl in Missouri which asked that she be allowed to visit the studio if she ever came to Los Angeles inasmuch as she was a fan of Casey Kasem and the American Top Forty radio program. The studio wrote back and told her that if she ever did come to Los Angeles she would be a guest at one of the programs. The next day she arrived from Missouri, met him, and was present during one of the taping sessions of his program. She requested that she be allowed to have her picture taken with him and he agreed. During the picture session she attempted to kiss him but he backed away from her and asked that she be looked after by someone else during the taping session and he insured that she was put in a cab and sent back to the airport. He did not have, nor has not since had, any contact with his woman.

He is greatly concerned for the safety of the members of his family and fears that the girl who wrote these letters may come to Los Angeles and attempt to carry out the threats that she has made.

Two more letters were received in the mail which were addressed to Casey Kasem and were signed, [redacted]. The letters were more vicious and more menacing than those previously received. They instruct Kasem to quit his radio and television show and his NBC job, "By the end of June or else - I'll come out to California and kill you, your 'wife' and your three kids - this is a promise. - I'll do it too - because I know where you work...". The letter was block printed in red ink. The other letter was written on six small pieces of paper and was handprinted and signed by [redacted]. Among other threats the writer states "...as for you - you're ugly anyway so a bullet thru your heart will be first and then I'll pour kerosene on your dead body and torch you until its charred...".

The letters bore the return address on the envelope NPRC, St. Louis, Missouri, and were postmarked St. Louis, Missouri.

In January, 1981, the victim, a nationally known radio and television personality, began to receive threatening letters from an anonymous writer. Investigation determined the identity of the subject and an interview elicited a confession and that matter was presented to the United States Attorney (USA) at Los Angeles.

On January 26, 1981, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) declined prosecution of the subject inasmuch as she had no prior criminal record and was submitting herself to psychiatric treatment. The opinion of the AUSA recommended that the matter be followed for a 30-day period to determine if any other criminal activity was carried on by the subject. As of 4/27/81, the victim advised that he had not received any additional threatening letters or any contact from the subject whatsoever.

Based on the opinion of the AUSA, who declined prosecution in this matter, is recommended that this matter be closed.

[redacted] Missouri, telephone [redacted] was contacted at the Federal Records Center, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, where she is employed as an [redacted]. After being advised of the identity of the Agent, she provided the following:

b6

She recalled having been interviewed by Special Agent [redacted] earlier in the year concerning some letters she had written to Casey Kasem and again in June, 1981 concerning letters she had written to the Hollywood, California Chamber of Commerce and Kasem. During the latter contact she said she would not write any more letters and since that time insisted she had not. Regarding the letter sent to Hollywood, [redacted] said she wrote it on May 10, 1981 after she had seen Kasem on television with his new wife and during which he did not mention his former wife. [redacted] became upset with Kasem, but waited until May 27, 1981 to mail the letter. She also mailed a copy of the letter containing a suicide note to Kasem's production company. Because his shows seemed to bother her, [redacted] indicated she has ceased watching and is coping much better.

On May 28, 1981, [redacted] penned her letter of apology to Kasem and mailed it the same day.

As a result of the letters, [redacted] said she has continued to have the nightmare which was described during a prior interview. [redacted] advised she recognizes she has problems and did go to see a psychiatrist, [redacted] on June 8, 1981. However, she did not feel he helped her and did not return. She has intentions of locating another psychiatrist through [redacted] St. Raymond's Maronite Church, 931 Lebanon, St. Louis, Missouri, within the next week and said she would contact the writer when she did.

[redacted] noted in April, 1972 she went to Chicago to meet [redacted] as she had fallen in love with him much as she fell for Kasem. However, she began writing anonymous threatening letters to him because they supported different political candidates. She estimated she sent five or six letters in all.

Letter

Attention: AUSA [REDACTED]

Dear Ms. Ordín:

This letter serves to confirm a conversation which was conducted telephonically on June 23, 1981, between Assistant U. S. Attorney [REDACTED] of your office and Special Agent [REDACTED] of the Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

During this conversation Special Agent [REDACTED] advised Assistant U. S. Attorney [REDACTED] of the circumstances surrounding the receipt of a letter by the Hollywood, California Chamber of Commerce which concerned television notable Casey Kasem which accused Mr. Kasem of rape, alcoholism and sexual abuse of members of his own family.

The letter was a continuation of a series of events which began in January of 1981, wherein Mr. Kasem received numerous threatening letters which were not signed. Investigation determined that the author of the letters was [REDACTED] an employee of the Federal Records Center at St. Louis, Missouri. [REDACTED] was interviewed and admitted writing the letters and stated that she would not make any further contact or write any letters with Mr. Kasem.

b6

On January 26, 1981, Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] of your office declined prosecution of [redacted] [redacted] for violation of the Extortion Statute inasmuch as she was seeking psychiatric help and had not made any overt attempt to carry out the threats to Mr. Kasem or his family. However, Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] stated that in the event that [redacted] continued her letter writing activity or committed any overt act in an effort to carry out her threats against Mr. Kasem, he would very seriously entertain the idea of prosecuting her for violation of the Extortion Statute. [redacted] was made clearly aware of the conditions attached to the declination of prosecution concerning the cessation of all her threatening activities.

b7C

The letter which was received at the Hollywood, California Chamber of Commerce did not threaten but made allegations against Mr. Kasem that [redacted] had made in the past and had herself refuted.

b6

On July 8, 1981, [redacted] was again interviewed and stated that she did write the letter and that she was sorry that she had. She stated that she did visit a psychiatrist in St. Louis, Missouri, but did not feel that the doctor had helped her. She was attempting to locate a different psychiatrist through the help of a Catholic priest at St. Louis, Missouri, and felt that she would receive appropriate consultation.

She again stated that she would not make any additional efforts to contact Kasem or anyone else concerning him and that the allegations that she had made were false.

Prior to [redacted] interview, Assistant U.S. Attorney [redacted] stated that inasmuch as the stipulation made by Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] was that [redacted] should not contact Casey Kasem again, he felt that the writing of a letter to the Hollywood, California Chamber of Commerce was not a violation of the conditions.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

Assistant U. S. Attorney requested that [redacted] be interviewed and again warned about her letter writing activities insofar as violation of the Extortion Statute were concerned.

Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] stated that he would not authorize prosecution of [redacted] inasmuch as this does not appear to be the type of matter which would best be resolved in Federal Court. He stated that after [redacted] was interviewed, contact should be maintained with Mr. Kasem to determine if her letter writing activities ceased.

b6
b7C

On October 17, 1981, inquiry determined that no further contact had been made by [redacted] in connection with Casey Kasem.

In view of the opinion of Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Los Angeles is not conducting any further investigation.
