SPECIAL INQUIRY

Synopsis:

COLSON served in Marine Corps and was honorably separated. CHARLES WENDELL COLSON was employed with the Navy Dept., Wash., D.C. Terminated by reason of resignation. Additional employments and addresses set forth.

-RUC-

DETAILS: AT ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

A review on November 24, 1969, of the Marine Corps records on file at the National Personnel Records Center, Military Branch, St. Louis, Missouri, indicated CHARLES WENDELL COLSON, service number 061 287, was appointed a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps on June 1, 1953, and entered on active duty on the same date at Providence, Rhode Island. He was honorably discharged on June 19, 1955, as a First Lieutenant at Jacksonville, North Carolina, at his own request to accept appointment in the Marine Corps Reserve and inactive duty. On June 20, 1955, he was appointed a First Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve and he remained on active duty at the Marine Corps Air Facility, New River, Jacksonville, North Carolina, and transferred to the inactive Marine Corps Reserve. He served in the Marine Corps Reserve in an inactive status from June 24, 1955, to April 9, 1965, at which time he was honorably discharged as a Captain by reason of voluntary resignation.

He had foreign and/or sea service for approximately two months, exact dates and places were not shown and was awarded the National Defense Service Medal. His military occupation was shown as Supply Officer. His character and efficiency ratings ranged from average to excellent and there was no record of court-martial or absence without official leave.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

SL 161-NPRC-M

He was granted a Secret security clearance on May 20, 1954, on the basis of a National Agency check. His records indicated under unfinished business that he was indebted to the U.S. Government in the amount of $88.47, and that this amount was certified as being uncollectable in 1962. No other information was shown in the records concerning this matter.

His date and place of birth were shown as: October 16, 1931, Boston, Massachusetts. b6
b7C

A review on November 19, 1969, by IC of the personnel records, National Personnel Records Center (Civilian), St. Louis, Missouri, indicated that CHARLES WENDELL COLSON was employed on July 5, 1955, as a Management Intern, with the Navy Department, Executive Office of the Secretary, Administrative Office, Administrative Operations Division, Personnel Branch, Office of the Head at Washington, D.C. On January 8, 1956, he was promoted to Administrative Intern. This employment was terminated on August 21, 1956, by reason of resignation to accept another position.

He was granted Interim Top Secret clearance on August 30, 1955, based on National Agency check completed April 20, 1954.

The record listed additional employment as Whiting, Weeks and Stubbs, June, 1948, to August, 1948, at Boston, Massachusetts; William Filenes, Belmont, Massachusetts, June, 1951, to July, 1951, and Zarehs, Belmont, Massachusetts, December, 1951, and December, 1952.

Additional addresses were listed as 251 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts, September, 1937, to September, 1938; 47 Carlton Road, Belmont, Massachusetts, September, 1938, to October, 1939; 952 Franklin Street, Melrose, Massachusetts, October, 1943, to October, 1944; 15 Governors Road, Bronxville, New York, September, 1945, to April, 1946; Concord Road, Lincoln, Massachusetts, September, 1947, to June, 1948; and 29 Gothwaite Apartments, Triangle, Virginia, August, 1953 to January, 1954.

The date and place of birth were shown as September 15, 1931, at Boston, Massachusetts.

[redacted] advised he has known the appointee for more than 12 years as a close personal friend and former professional associate. He had not known the appointee's former wife, but had some social contact with his present wife. He considers him an outstanding choice for Federal service. He describes him as a highly intelligent, responsible person, who functioned well as a member of the former staff of Senator SALTONSTALL. His personal contact with him, as well as information available to him provides him with no information which would cause him to question the appointee's character, associates, reputation or loyalty. He recommended him to a position of trust and responsibility in the US Government.

b7C

[redacted] recalled he had had close professional contact with the appointee during the period of the appointee's service as a member of the staff of former Senator SALTONSTALL. His association with him has been primarily professional. He could recall no instance wherein he had reason to question the appointee's character, associates, reputation or loyalty. He recommended him to a position of trust and responsibility in the US Government.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised he has known the appointee for more than 5 years in a close professional and political relationship, having met him during visits made by the appointee to [redacted] office. He had no outside contact with him. His contacts with him convince him the appointee is a loyal American of good character, reputation and associates. He recommends him to a position of trust and responsibility in the US Government.

^{Be LIEU}
KENNETH E. BE LIEU, Deputy Assistant to the President for Congressional Relations, has known the appointee professionally and socially for over fifteen years. Their professional contact was based on the appointee's position with the former Senator SALTONSTALL. BE LIEU recommended the appointee for this position at the White House. He described COLSON as an extremely capable, intelligent and responsible person. He believes him to be a decent, respectable person and knows nothing of an unfavorable nature concerning his personal life or habits. His comments were favorable concerning the appointee's character, associates, reputation and loyalty. He favorably recommended him for a position of trust and confidence.

[redacted], Ferris and Company, 1720 I Street, N.W., advised Special Agent (SA) [redacted] on November 25, 1969, that he has been acquainted with the appointee for about twenty years. He attended Brown University taking some classes during this period with the appointee. He resumed his friendship with the appointee in about 1960, in Washington, D.C., pointing out that in the interim he had occasional contact with the appointee. He described the appointee as a person of unimpeachable character, stable, a person of moderate habits as well as an absolutely loyal American of the finest reputation and associates.

[redacted] remarked he is aware the appointee [redacted] divorced and understands the divorce happened because of their incompatibility. He stated he is not acquainted with the [redacted] but considers his [redacted] to be a very fine person and a loyal American. He stated he recommends the appointee, with the greatest enthusiasm, for a position of trust and confidence with the Federal Government.

[redacted] advised he has known the appointee for approximately 20 years and that he and the appointee were [redacted] further stated that the appointee's character and loyalty are beyond reproach, that he is a very trustworthy individual and he would highly recommend appointee to a position of trust and confidence with the U. S. Government.

He also advised that the appointee married his first wife two days after graduating from college, she having been a childhood sweetheart of his and as a matter of fact, [redacted]

b7C

The appointee and his first wife were married for approximately ten years and mutually agreed to a divorce. He stated it was his understanding that the divorce was simply a case in which the wife "did not keep up" with the appointee. He explained this by stating the appointee is a brilliant type individual, gregarious, and one who likes to entertain socially but that the wife was a quiet, reserved type individual more or less a "stay at home" and in effect they more or less became incompatible. The divorce was obtained in Mexico simply as a matter of expediency. [redacted] also stated he is acquainted with the [redacted] and that the [redacted] are both on reasonably good speaking terms and there is no animosity involved amongst any of the parties involved. He added that there was no scandal whatsoever involved in the divorce and it was simply a matter of incompatibility.
