Please can you send me (electronically if possible) a copy of the report described in the following Times story (<http://www.timesonline.co.uk/article/0,,2087-2168694.html>) relating to "plasmas" of gas created by charges of electricity that have been linked to supposed UFO sightings.

I am gathering research relating to the brain's interpretation of magnetic signals (via calcite crystals in the brain - <http://homepages.tesco.net/~John.Dawes2/pineal.htm>) that could then influence people in to seeing ghosts/apparitions (and with your findings, UFO's) which are actually just the influence of local magnetic fields which must be present around these plasmas (stored in calcium-based matter - gypsum in plasterboard, limestone in mortar of old buildings/roads, etc).

I am an e-learning and IT manager at the Section 40 and this is a passing interest which I may want to expand in to some interesting research, and I'd like to find out what magnetic signatures are produced around these plasmas, as well as what environmental factors are in play when they occur.

Kind regards,

Section 40

Section 40*From: Section 40*Sent: 19 May 2006 11:11To: Section 40*Subject: Internet-authorized:Freedom of Information 18-04-2006-071259-011Dear Section 40

I am writing concerning your request for information about any operational policies or procedures that the RAF have when informed of a UFO sighting. Your further request concerning a sighting at Gley Ceiriog on 4th October 1996 is being handled separately and we will write to you when our research is complete.

It may be useful if I explain the difference between the handling of UFO sighting reports and the Royal Air Force role of defending UK airspace. As you may be aware from our previous correspondence, the Ministry of Defence examines any reports of 'UFOs' it receives solely to establish whether they provide any evidence that UK airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity. Any which we believe are worthy of further investigation are shown to Air Defence experts within the Department. The defence of UK airspace is not, however, dependent on the MOD receiving UFO sighting reports from members of the public or the Police. The integrity of the UK's airspace in peacetime is maintained through continuous surveillance of the UK Air Policing Area by the Royal Air Force. This is achieved by using a combination of civil and military radar installations, which provide a continuous real-time "picture" of the UK airspace. Any threat to the UK Air Policing Area would be handled in the light of the particular circumstances at the time (it might if deemed appropriate, involve the scrambling or diversion of air defence aircraft). From this perspective, UFO sighting reports received by RAF personnel (from any source) are merely forwarded to this office.

I hope this is helpful. If you are unhappy with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact the undersigned in the first instance. Should you remain dissatisfied, then you may apply for an internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail: Info-XD@mod.uk).

If you are still unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Dear Section 40

I am writing concerning your letter of 9 May in which you requested "the basic package" sent out on the Ministry of Defence position regarding the UFO phenomenon, any reports or files relating to the "Mihame" and a copy of a report recently mentioned in the news. Your request has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

First, I should explain that the MOD does not have packages of information which we send to members of the public. If however, there is specific information which you are seeking we may be able to assist you. With regard to the MOD's position with the UFO phenomenon, I can advise you that the MOD does not have any expertise or role in respect of 'UFO/flying saucer' matters or to the question of the existence or otherwise of extraterrestrial life-forms. We remain totally open-minded, but to date the MOD knows of no evidence which substantiates the existence of these alleged phenomena. Any reports of UFO sightings the MOD receives are examined solely to establish whether they provide any evidence that the United Kingdom's airspace might have been compromised by hostile or unauthorised air activity. Unless there is evidence of a potential threat to the United Kingdom from an external source (and to date no 'UFO' report has revealed such evidence), we do not attempt to identify the precise nature of each reported sighting. We believe it is possible that rational explanations, such as aircraft lights or natural phenomena, could be found for them, but it is not the function of the MOD to provide this kind of aerial identification service. We could not justify expenditure of public funds on investigations which go beyond our specific defence remit.

With regard to your request for any reports or files that can be disclosed, you may wish to look at the Freedom of Information page of the MOD website at <http://www.mod.uk/DefenceInternet/FreedomOfInformation>. The Disclosure Log and the Publication Scheme contain information which has been released in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000. The MOD also releases UFO records into The National Archives where original records are open for viewing. Records currently available date from the 1950s to 1978. Details of these records can be found in The National Archives catalogue on their website at www.nationalarchives.gov.uk.

You also requested information relating to "the Mihame" or containing the symbols you provided. I do not recognise either of these and I am not aware of any relevant information held by the MOD.

Finally, you requested a copy of the report which was mentioned recently in the news. I believe you are referring to the release of a report entitled "Unidentified Aerial Phenomena in the UK Air Defence Region". The full report can be viewed on the MOD website at <http://www.mod.uk/DefenceInternet/FreedomOfInformation/PublicationScheme>.

I hope this is helpful. If you are unhappy with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact the undersigned in the first instance. Should you remain dissatisfied, then you may apply for an internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail: Info-XD@mod.uk).

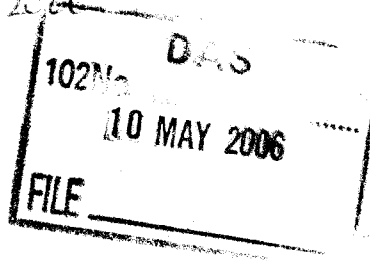

If you are still unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk>.

Dear Sir/Madam,

My name is Section 40 and I am writing to you for help in a project of mine, I am busy doing my own research into the existence of aliens and that they are currently visiting us, preparing us for some event that will happen within the next 15 years.

Could you please send me the basic package you send to 'nuts' like me on the MoD's position with the UFO phenomenon, the type of reports to be filled in etc. Also if you could send me any reports/files that you have that you are allowed to disclose I would be most grateful, perhaps anything that relate to the Michamé or contain text like the following :-

Millions of people

Thank you. As one final request could you send me a report mentioned recently within the news, the one that claims we are all experiencing hallucinations and UFOs do not physically exist. If you cannot send me this recently released document, could you please send me details of where to obtain a copy i.e. the correct department.

Thank You for your time and may all your hopes and dreams be fulfilled.

Yours Sincerely

Hi Section 40

Thanks for the gigantic thud on the carpet and the sterling effort you have put into making this UAP report available. Skimming through, it's encouraging to see little has been withheld in the report and what has, seems to refer to UKADGE and UKADR, an understandable consideration for the continued air defence of our nation. Turgid reading ahead.

There's a question I have regarding a paragraph in your cover letter and from reading about Crown Copyright and the Copyright and Patents Act (and Revisions). I take it that academic reproduction of a small number of the documents from the Condign report for incorporation onto a website would be permissible, so long as they had a (c) Crown Copyright notice and the website was non-commercial and for news purposes only? Is that correct?

Say for example I wanted to freely publish (as news and for non-profit purposes on a non-commercial website) around 18 pages from the 'Executive Summary' (minus the triangle illustration, list of contents and blank page) along with just several pages selected from the various volumes (without including any personal copyright considerations) would that be okay?

Any pages that were placed on a webpage, may not require to be there long anyhow, since the MoD will shortly be publishing all of these documents and it will then be facile to refer and point to the Official MoD Publication Scheme WebPages.

Further to my email of 10 April 2006, I can now inform you that the documents comprising the large report entitled Unidentified Aerial Phenomena in the UK Air Defence Region which you requested last year is now ready for release and will be put in the post to you on Friday 28th April 2006. The parcel will also contain a covering letter which explains the small amount of information which it has been necessary for us to withhold.

I hope this is helpful.

The copyright in this document is administered by OPSI (the Office for Public Sector Information) and not by us within MOD. However, it does appear that the use to which the document will be put is sufficiently substantial as to require a copyright licence.

The licence, called a "Click-Use licence for "PSI" (public sector information), is free and can be obtained very easily on-line from the OPSI website at: <http://www.opsi.gov.uk/click-use/index.htm>. The licence conditions will specify how the document can be used (in fact there are very few restrictions) and what marking is required.

As the enquirer appears to appreciate, if the document happens to contain non-Crown Copyright material (e.g. photographs of UFOs submitted by members of the public) then the licence will not extend to the copying of these.

[By the way, looking at your letter, could I ask that enquirers with queries concerning Crown Copyright are directed to:

A little while ago you gave me some very helpful advice re copyright of material released under FOI and I would be grateful for your advice with the following.

We have recently released in response to two FOI requests, a large (over 460 pages) previously classified MOD report entitled "Unidentified Aerial Phenomenon in the UK Air Defence Region". You may have seen coverage of this as it has (as expected) attracted vast media and public interest. The report is being prepared for release to a wider audience and will appear in full in the MOD Freedom of Information Publication Scheme on Monday 15th May 2006.

When responding to the FOI requests I included the paragraph on Copyright (copy of letter attached), but the requester has now replied asking the following:

" I take it that academic reproduction of a small number of the documents from the Condign report for incorporation onto a website would be permissible, so long as they had a (c) Crown Copyright notice and the website was non-commercial and for news purposes only? Is that correct?. Say for example I wanted to freely publish (as news and for non-profit purposes on a non-commercial website) around 18 pages from the Executive Summary (minus the triangle illustration, list of contents and blank page) along with just several pages selected from the various volumes (without including any personal copyright considerations) would that be okay?. I would be grateful for an early response if possible as the document goes live in the publication scheme on Monday.

Thank you for your help.

Dear Section 40

Please find enclosed a copy of the report entitled Unidentified Aerial Phenomena in the UK Air Defence Region written in December 2000 as you requested on 11 November 2005, in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000. I apologise for the length of time this request has taken, but the meticulous scrutiny this document has received has enabled us to release the vast majority of the report and I hope you will be pleased with the final result.

The report consists of 465 pages divided into four parts, three Volumes and an Executive Summary. While we have endeavoured to release as much information as possible, it has been necessary to remove some information and where this is the case the appropriate Section of the Freedom of Information Act has been indicated beside the redaction. The Sections and the reasons for their use are given below. Sections 26, and 27 are qualified exemptions and in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act we have looked at the balance of public interest for and against disclosure for each Section. Details of the public interest test and our conclusions are also detailed below.

Section 26 (Defence) – This information consists of details of the operation and performance of UK Air Defence radar. In favour of disclosing this information is the public interest in promoting understanding of the RAF's ability to detect and effectively respond to potential threats in UK airspace. It is important to recognise public anxiety with regard to possible attacks on the UK, particularly from acts of terrorism and the need to reassure the public that everything possible is being done to protect them. However, this public interest has already been served to a considerable extent by the publication of the Sixth Report of the House of Commons Defence Committee in 2002. In the report the Committee outline the measures the Government takes to protect the public from terrorist activity including threats from the air.

Against the limited public interest in disclosure, is a countervailing public interest which favours withholding the information in order to preserve the effectiveness of the UK's air defences. The release of this information could be of significant value to the planning of an attack on the UK, including from terrorism. There is therefore a strong public interest in preserving the RAF's ability to defend the British mainland through the effectiveness of its air defences. and we therefore conclude that the balance of the public interest is firmly in favour of withholding the information in accordance with Section 26(1)(a) & (b).

Section 27 (International Relations) – This information consists of information about or supplied by another nation. In favour of disclosing this information is the public interest in understanding the exchange of information between the UK and other nations.

Against the public interest is the need to maintain the UK's ability to effectively share and receive information from our allies, concerning issues of mutual benefit, with a degree of confidentiality. The release of this information is, likely to prejudice the future exchange of such information and may also damage the UK's relationship with that nation. We therefore conclude that the balance of public interest is in favour of withholding this information in accordance with Section 27(1)(a) & (3).

Section 40 (Personal Information) – This information contains personal data about the author of the report and members of the public who have reported UFO sightings. This information is exempt under Section 40 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and is covered by the Data Protection Act 1998. Section 40 is an absolute exemption and therefore requires no public interest test.

You will also notice that some minor details have been removed because they are not relevant to your request. These consists of office addresses, telephone numbers and unique job titles. This information is not relevant to the contents of the report and we believe its removal does not prejudice the understanding of the report. The titles of significant branches such as DI55 and Sec(AS)2a have not been removed.

I hope you will find this useful. If you are dissatisfied with our decision to refuse this information or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact the undersigned in the first instance. Should you remain dissatisfied, then you may apply for an internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB. (e-mail: Info-XD@mod.uk).

If you are still unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk>.

I should also inform you that the information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other reuse, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the Ministry of Defence will have been produced by government officials and will be Crown Copyright. You can find details on the arrangements for re-using Crown Copyright from the Office of Public Sector Information at: <http://www.opsi.gov.uk/click-use/index.htm>. Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisations, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non Crown Copyright) information. Further to my e-mail of 31 March, I am writing to inform you that there will be a slight delay to the release of the UAP report. In my earlier e-mail I said it would be released before Easter, but I have now been informed by DIS staff that due to staff absences and some reproduction difficulties this will not now be possible. I have been assured that we will be in a position to send the documents to you during the week beginning the 24th April. I apologise for this delay. The whole report including Volumes 1, 2, 3 and the Executive Summary, (a final total of 465 pages) has now been examined and where applicable sensitive information has been removed. DIS staff and myself are currently making one final read through the documents to make sure that we have not missed any sensitive information and then we should be able to release the documents to you. I appreciate that you requested this information in electronic format, but it is currently only held on paper. It is our intention to scan the report and place an electronic on the MOD website in the Freedom of Information Publication Scheme in due course, but we are experiencing some technical difficulties and in order to avoid any further delays we will send you a paper copy. You will, of course, be able to access the electronic version on the MOD website in the near future. I hope you will find this acceptable. We are aiming to send this information very soon and certainly before Easter.

Dear Section 40

Further to my e-mail message of 14th November, I am writing before the Christmas break to give you an update on progress with your request for a copy of the UAP Report mentioned in my letter of 11 November.

Defence Intelligence staff have now examined the UAP report and the Executive Summary from a Security / technical perspective and their Freedom of Information focal point is now checking the information from an FOI perspective. We hope this task will be completed in early to mid January 2006 and we should be in a position to release the information by the end of January. Although it was first thought that it may be possible to release the Executive Summary ahead of the full report, it has now been decided to look at all the papers together and have one release. Early indications are that most of these documents are likely to be released.

I apologise for the length of time this is taking, but we are keen to release as much of the report as possible and great care needs to be taken to consider each document. I will, of course, contact you as soon as I know anything more definite about when and how this information will be released.

Dear Section 40

The Executive Summary is 20 pages long and I have been advised by DI staff that they expect to be able to release it this week. The full report is likely to take a while longer due to the volume of papers to be examined and I am afraid I have no indication at present as to how long this is likely to take. I will, of course, keep you informed of progress.

As well as yourself we currently have one other applicant interested in these documents and we do expect they will be of interest to others in the UFO community. Following release it is our intention to explore ways of making these documents more widely available via the MOD FOI Publication Scheme.

Have you any idea when the executive summary and subsequently the larger document/s will be available? As you'll appreciate from the many enquiries received by your office, there's likely to be much interest in these documents, despite the fact that they probably just stress that MOD Defence Intelligence have found no real priority for investigating UFO sightings.

UFO Information Request

Dear Section 40

Thanks for acting on my enquiry dating from last April and graciously providing all the information requested. Here is a subsequent new Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request? Indeed I welcome any interim correspondence, to clarify ambiguities prior to any searches and processing, wherever necessary, especially in narrowing down this request. Please note all questions refer to after year 1990, when computer data retrieval systems became much more widely used, also my use of the term 'MOD' is broad, and you may consider this as covering any department you think relevant to this request, in addition to DAS, or indeed separate from DAS. The term 'UFO' may also be considered broad, encompassing any possible term for this kind of reported phenomena.

1. Has the MOD utilised a data retrieval system to store and access information on UFO type sightings since 1990? If so could you please answer the following supplemental questions?
2. Is there more than one data retrieval system?
3. a) Can you indicate if such hypothesised data retrieval system or systems have names and classifications, what are these? b) Were such data retrieval systems internally developed (and also if not) can you briefly elucidate what their background and circumstances are and what their purpose is or was? c) Which departments of the MOD had or have access to such data retrieval systems, please briefly indicate which and what their specific role is or was in relation to the processed data? d) Have any external bodies outside the MOD, had or currently have access to such a MOD data retrieval system, if so please indicate which and what were or are their specific roles in accessing this type of data? e) What software do these systems employ and are any still in use by MOD? f) If any such data retrieval system or systems, or information relating to them are still classified, can these now be downgraded for FOIA purposes of requesting data?
4. a) Has any statistical or other analyses been undertaken by the MOD (or anyone else) from the use of such a MOD data retrieval system as hypothesised in question 1 and

3. b) Did any such data retrieval system result in any type of conclusive report or outcome? (c) If so please indicate what and any conclusions reached?
5. a) Would the MOD supply a software copy of a data retrieval system on UFOs, or similarly described phenomena, in ASCII or other simple text format with sensitive data removed? b) and a paper copy of any report, statistics, or analytical conclusions stemming from the use of such a data retrieval system? c) If it's not possible to permit all requested here, can you please answer as many questions as possible on a preliminary basis and please suggest what can feasibly be obtained, specifically referencing this subject matter 'MOD data retrieval systems with UFO type data' and utilising this request under the current allotment for MOD and FOIA to it's limit? (Especially with priority regard to questions 3, and 5).

If it's not possible to obtain a complete software copy of data from such a retrieval system, with sensitive information removed, can you explain why or stipulate a time when the MOD may consider putting a converted database/text file or files of aforementioned data onto CD ROM, any other portable computer storage media or website? Particularly with current FOIA assessments of improving supply of wide-ranging information more efficiently (add emphasis) to the public, in mind. (Because it occurs, large amounts of sensitive data might possibly be removed from a data retrieval system in relatively little time by someone competent in Information Technology, (IT) by first making a copy of the database and subsequently processing and editing sensitive database fields and then converting them into simple text file format for dissemination or varied later uses)?

Looking forward to hearing from you, I remain

Sincerely

Indeed I welcome any interim correspondence, to clarify ambiguities prior to any searches and processing, wherever necessary, especially in narrowing down this request. Please note all questions refer to after year 1990, when computer data retrieval systems became much more widely used, also my use of the term 'MOD' is broad, and you may consider this as covering any department you think relevant to this request, in addition to DAS, or indeed separate from DAS. The term 'UFO' may also be considered broad, encompassing any possible term for this kind of reported phenomena.

1. Has the MOD utilised a data retrieval system to store and access information on UFO type sightings since 1990? If so could you please answer the following supplemental questions?
2. Is there more than one data retrieval system?
3. a) Can you indicate if such hypothesised data retrieval system or systems have names and classifications, what are these? b) Were such data retrieval systems internally developed (and also if not) can you briefly elucidate what their background and circumstances are and what their purpose is or was? c) Which departments of the MOD had or have access to such data retrieval systems, please briefly indicate which and what their specific role is or was in relation to the processed data? d) Have any external bodies outside the MOD, had or currently have access to such a MOD data retrieval system, if so please indicate which and what were or are their specific roles in accessing this type of data? e) What software do these systems employ and are any still in use by MOD? f) If any such data retrieval system or systems, or information relating to them are still classified, can these now be downgraded for FOIA purposes of requesting data?

4. a) Has any statistical or other analyses been undertaken by the MOD (or anyone else) from the use of such a MOD data retrieval system as hypothesised in question 1 and 3. b) Did any such data retrieval system result in any type of conclusive report or outcome? (c) If so please indicate what and any conclusions reached?
5. a) Would the MOD supply a software copy of a data retrieval system on UFOs, or similarly described phenomena, in ASCII or other simple text format with sensitive data removed? b) and a paper copy of any report, statistics, or analytical conclusions stemming from the use of such a data retrieval system? c) If it's not possible to permit all requested here, can you please answer as many questions as possible on a preliminary basis and please suggest what can feasibly be obtained, specifically referencing this subject matter 'MOD data retrieval systems with UFO type data' and utilising this request under the current allotment for MOD and FOIA to it's limit? (Especially with priority regard to questions 3, and 5).

If it's not possible to obtain a complete software copy of data from such a retrieval system, with sensitive information removed, can you explain why or stipulate a time when the MOD may consider putting a converted database/text file or files of aforementioned data onto CD ROM, any other portable computer storage media or website? Particularly with current FOIA assessments of improving supply of wide-ranging information more efficiently (add emphasis) to the public, in mind. (Because it occurs, large amounts of sensitive data might possibly be removed from a data retrieval system in relatively little time by someone competent in Information Technology, (IT) by first making a copy of the database and subsequently processing and editing sensitive database fields and then converting them into simple text file format for dissemination or varied later uses)?

Looking forward to hearing from you, I remain

Sincerely

Date

Dear Section 40

Further to your e-mail message of 8th November, I can confirm that I have received your request for information. I apologise for not replying sooner.

I can advise you that this Department (DAS) currently have two electronic databases containing information about the UFO sighting reports we have received. These databases do not have names and are not classified. The first of these was started in 2000 purely in order for us to track incoming reports and correspondence. It contains only details of the date and time of a reported sighting, name, address and telephone number of the individual making the report, our file reference and the date we responded to the individual. It contains no details of the actual reports and is not used in order to investigate or analyse any sightings, but for administration purposes only. It is held electronically on an internal MOD system that can only be accessed by myself and my colleague who also deals with UFO correspondence. Personal data about those who made UFO reports or corresponded with the MOD will not be released in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. The only meaningful information that could therefore be released is the date and times of sightings and the town / village and county. These details are contained in the second database as detailed below.

The second database is still under construction and is being developed in order to assist with public enquiries. Following the introduction of the FOI Act in January 2005, this department received a large number of requests for information about UFO sightings in particular areas of the UK or on particular dates. Our paper records are not constructed in this way and we therefore decided to create a database containing brief details of all the UFO sightings for which we currently hold records, divided into the years in which the sightings occurred. As we hold records from 1985 to date, I am sure you will appreciate this is a large project which is still on going. We have, however, completed the database for the years 2002 up to 2005 and I enclose details from those years. Extracts of the database have also been released in response to specific Freedom of Information requests and these can be viewed in the Reading Room of the MOD FOI Publication Scheme at www.foi.mod.uk. Once completed it is our intention to put the whole database into the MOD FOI Publication Scheme.

Finally, you may be aware that in the past a few other Departments within the MOD received copies of 'sighting reports' of unexplained phenomena and one of these was Defence Intelligence 55 (DI55). DI55 felt there was nothing of Defence Intelligence value in these reports, so during a policy review in 1997, in order to back up this view, they conducted a small study of historical records from 1987 to 1997 to determine if there was any reason for them to continue receiving these reports. A database was constructed and a report written. The conclusion was the sighting reports do not demonstrably provide information useful to defence intelligence and DI55 therefore should no longer receive copies. Once the study was complete the database was destroyed. The final report has survived and it is our intention to release as much as possible of this document. However, as it is some 334 pages in length it will take a while for DI55 staff to read through it to check for any sensitive information. This document is not held electronically, but I will send you a paper copy of the released documents as soon as possible. In the meantime, it may be possible to release the Executive Summary of the report in advance and if so, I will write to you again.

I hope this is helpful. If this information does not address your requirements or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact the undersigned in the first instance. Should you remain dissatisfied, then you may apply for an internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB.

If you are still unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk>

Yours sincerely,

AUTHORISATION FOR THE RELEASE OF INFORMATION

Applicant: Section 40

Case Number: 10-10-2005-141913-003 Expiry: 7 November 2005

The Applicant has made the following request for information:

All questions refer to after year 1990, when computer data retrieval systems became much more widely used, also my use of the term 'MOD' is broad, and you may consider this as covering any department you think relevant to this request, in addition to DAS, or indeed separate from DAS. The term 'UFO' may also be considered broad, encompassing any possible term for this kind of reported phenomena.

1. Has the MOD utilised a data retrieval system to store and access information on UFO type sightings since 1990? If so could you please answer the following supplemental questions?
2. Is there more than one data retrieval system?
3. a) Can you indicate if such hypothesised data retrieval system or systems have names and classifications, what are these? b) Were such data retrieval systems internally developed (and also if not) can you briefly elucidate what their background and circumstances are and what their purpose is or was? c) Which departments of the MOD had or have access to such data retrieval systems, please briefly indicate which and what their specific role is or was in relation to the processed data? d) Have any external bodies outside the MOD, had or currently have access to such a MOD data retrieval system, if so please indicate which and what were or are their specific roles in accessing this type of data? e) What software do these systems employ and are any still in use by MOD? f) If any such data retrieval system or systems, or information relating to them are still classified, can these now be downgraded for FOIA purposes of requesting data?
4. a) Has any statistical or other analyses been undertaken by the MOD (or anyone else) from the use of such a MOD data retrieval system as hypothesised in question 1 and 3. b) Did any such data retrieval system result in any type of conclusive report or outcome? (c) If so please indicate what and any conclusions reached?
5. a) Would the MOD supply a software copy of a data retrieval system on UFOs, or similarly described phenomena, in ASCII or other simple text format with sensitive data removed? b) and a paper copy of any report, statistics, or analytical conclusions stemming from the use of such a data retrieval system? c) If it's not possible to permit all requested here, can you please answer as many questions as possible on a preliminary basis and please suggest what can feasibly be obtained, specifically referencing this subject matter 'MOD data retrieval systems with UFO type data' and utilising this request under the current allotment for MOD and FOIA to it's limit? (Especially with priority regard to questions 3, and 5).

If it's not possible to obtain a complete software copy of data from such a retrieval system, with sensitive information removed, can you explain why or stipulate a time when the MOD may consider putting a converted database/text file or files of aforementioned data onto CD ROM, any other portable computer storage media or website? Particularly with current FOIA assessments of improving supply of wide-ranging information more efficiently (add emphasis) to the public, in mind. (Because it occurs, large amounts of sensitive data might possibly be removed from a data retrieval system in relatively little time by someone competent in Information Technology, (IT) by first making a copy of the database and subsequently processing and editing sensitive database fields and then converting them into simple text file format for dissemination or varied later uses)?

Case for release of information

DAS currently have the following two electronic databases concerning UFOs.

The first was started for administration purposes in 2000 to record incoming reports and correspondence and contains only the dates and times of UFO sightings, names and addresses of those making reports, our file reference and the date of response.

The second database is currently under construction and is being created specifically for release of information into the public domain. When complete it will contain brief details of all the UFO Reports we hold. To date this has been fully completed for the years 2002 to 2005 (to date) and details of these can be released to the applicant. Extracts of these have already been sent in response to other FOI requests.

In 1997 during a policy review into the handling of UFO reports, DI55 decided to conduct a small study into the value of these reports to the work of DIS to determine whether it was worth them continuing to see the reports. They looked at UFO reports they had received between 1987 and 1997. A database was created and a report of the outcome was written. The conclusion was that the sighting reports did not provide any information useful to defence intelligence and this lead to DI55 no longer receiving UFO sighting reports. The database has been destroyed, but the final report has survived. DI55 are examining the report (some four volumes, 334 pages) and considering whether to release. Early indications are that most of the report can be downgraded (it is currently SECRET) and released. Some information may be withheld as it contains details of Air Defence Radar. DI55 have indicated that they may be able to release the Executive Summary of the report (20 pages) in advance of the full report, maybe early next week. Copies of these will be sent to the applicant as soon as possible.

Authorisation

I hereby give authorisation for the release of the aforementioned information to the Applicant.

Section 40

I have looked at the questions below and can offer this paragraph which sweeps up most of the issues. Please check to see if the sighting reports are in the PRO.

DI55 (apart of the MoD), along with a number of other MoD departments, used to receive copies of the 'sighting reports' of unexplained aerial phenomena. The majority of these sighting reports are now in the PRO. It was felt that the reports contained nothing of value to defence intelligence but to back up this feeling a small study into the historical record was conducted. Thus reports held from 1987 to 1997 were examined as a reasonable statistical sample to determine if there is any reason to continue receiving these reports. A database was constructed and a report written. The conclusion was the sighting reports do not demonstrably provide information useful to defence intelligence and the department no longer receives copies. Once the study was complete the database was destroyed. It is planned to release the report into the public domain. The final report contains some 334 pages, mostly at the restricted level so it will take some time to check.

Hope this helps

TO Ref No 3503 /2006

Date 10/5/06

The Prime Minister/SoS/Min(AF)/Min(DP)/USoS/MOD* has received the attached correspondence from a member of the public, which this office has neither retained nor acknowledged. Please send a reply on behalf of the PM/Minister/Department.

Ministers attach great importance to correspondence being answered promptly, and your reply should be sent within 15 working days of the above date. If, exceptionally, this should prove impossible, an interim reply should be sent within the same timescale. You should be aware that No 10 periodically calls for a sample of letters sent by officials on the PM's behalf for his perusal.

Most correspondence involves some form of request for information -- even if it is only a request for clarification of Government policy -- and is therefore covered by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) from January 2005. In general, if you meet the deadline for responding to correspondence, and comply with any requests for information, there is no need to do anything differently as this will meet the requirements of the Act. However, if the correspondence requests information which is not already in the public domain, and which might need to be withheld, then you should treat it as a FOIA request, track it using the Access to Information toolkit, and comply with the separate FOI guidance from DG Info (see <http://aisportal/default.aspx> for details). However, the deadline for responding to correspondence will still apply. If you are in any doubt as to whether a piece of correspondence should be treated as a FOIA request, you should ask your FOI Focal Point or refer to the guidance produced by DG Info.

It is vital that branches ensure they have simple systems to record and track correspondence received from members of the public. This information should be regularly monitored and reviewed against the targets for answering correspondence published in the Spending Review 2000 Service Delivery Agreement for the Ministry of Defence.

As part of our monitoring procedure, random spot checks on the accuracy of your branch records on correspondence will be performed throughout the year.

Dear Section 40

I am writing concerning your Freedom of Information request in which you asked a number of questions relating to the recent release by the Ministry of Defence of a report entitled "Unidentified Aerial Phenomena in the UK Air Defence Region". Your request has been passed to this Department as we are the focal point within the Ministry of Defence for correspondence regarding UFOs (also known as UAP) and we are the Department responsible, in conjunction with the Defence Intelligence Staff (DIS), for the release of this report. I will answer your requests in the same order as your letter.

1). The report will be available for viewing in the Ministry of Defence Freedom of Information Publication Scheme on the MOD website from Monday 15th May 2006. This can be accessed at <http://www.mod.uk/DefenceInternet/FreedomOfInformation/PublicationScheme>.

2). The project was conducted by one person who was initially employed as a contractor and commenced work on the report in December 1996. He was employed on a part-time basis and divided his time between working for the DIS and working on his company's business. He left his company on early retirement in April 1998 following which he was employed as a consultant for the DIS until completion of the report in March 2000. During the period December 1996 to March 2000 producing the report was only one of several tasks in which the author was engaged.

3). The MOD received two Freedom of Information requests for copies of this report. The first of these was from Section 40 who made his request on 26 September 2005. The other request was from Section 40 who originally made a request concerning databases on 8 November 2005. In my reply to Section 40 request on the 11 November 2005, I informed Section 40 that the report still existed and offered to send him a copy of the report when it was released. Section 40 confirmed that he would be interested in receiving these document in an e-mail to this office on 11 November 2005. The report was provided to both Section 40 and Section 40 on 28 April 2006.

4). Please see attached a copy of Section 40 Freedom of Information request and the e-mail from Section 40 confirming he wished to receive the report. Personal information has been removed. Section 40 and Section 40 have not made Freedom of Information requests concerning this report.

5). It is the MOD's intention to put the report in the Freedom of Information Publication Scheme on the MOD website and as explained at paragraph (1) the full report will be available for viewing from 15th May 2006. The report was sent to those who had made Freedom of Information requests and then prepared for release into the Publication Scheme. As Section 40 and Section 40 had requested this information and had waited a number of months for the documents, it was considered reasonable to allow a short period from when the documents were sent to allow for them to receive the documents and read them before they went into the Scheme. This also allowed the Department time to scan this very large paper document and enter it on the MOD website in a format that could be downloaded by members of the public. With regard to your question about why the requests are not listed amongst the FOI requests on our website, I can inform you that all requests for information are listed on the MOD website. However, as only a summary of each request is provided it may not be obvious which requests these are. Section 40 request is listed on 26 September 2005 under reference 26-09-2005-091240-001 and Section 40 is listed on 10 October 2005 under reference 10-10-2005-141913-003.

6). There was no agreement between the MOD and either of the requesters to withhold information until both parties were ready to release information to the media. The MOD released information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act and we are pleased to be able to make this information available to a wider audience via our MOD Website. Any comments made to the media by Section 40 and Section 40 regarding these documents are their own views and are not made on behalf of the MOD.

I hope this is helpful. If you are unhappy with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of this request, then you should contact the undersigned in the first instance. Should you remain dissatisfied, then you may apply for an internal review by contacting the Director of Information Exploitation, 6th Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail: Info-XD@mod.uk).

If you are still unhappy following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk>.

FOI Request - UFOs

Dear Section 40

I wish to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act as follows. Please provide me with paper copies of the following material:

1. A copy of the Executive Summary, Unidentified Aerial Phenomena (UAP) – DI55 Report, referred to in DIST letter, D/DIST/11/10 dated 4 December 2000
2. A copy of Volumes 1, 2 and 3 of the UAP Report, referenced in the DIST letter (1).
3. A copy of the terms of reference for the UAP Report, referenced in DI55/108/15 22 January 1997 as follows: D/DI55/108/15 dated 11 December 1996 and D/DI55/108/15 dated 16 November 1993.

With reference to request (2) please could you provide an advance summary of the title and table of contents of the three individual volumes. This will enable me to narrow my request should it exceed the £600 limit allowed under the FOIA.

Please could you also provide a list of all data fields possible for a UAP entry in the project database?

I understand these documents may be classified and will need to be downgraded before they can be released to me. I would be grateful therefore if you could provide me with an estimate of the likely timescale involved in this process. I look forward to hearing from you,

Dear Section 40

Thanks very much for your informative reply and for the Word documents. It is the DI database/report that you mention in paragraph 4 that I am primarily interested in and the executive report that stemmed from it, so of course I'll wait patiently for your fuller reply and the release of these documents.

Have you any idea when the executive summary and subsequently the larger document/s will be available? As you'll appreciate from the many enquiries received by your office, there's likely to be much interest in these documents, despite the fact that they probably just stress that MOD Defence Intelligence have found no real priority for investigating UFO sightings.

infosubject: Sir/Madam,

I was interested in obtaining any information on the possible recovery of a craft that crash landed in Lyminge Forest in Kent at 9:45pm on the 20th March, 1984. Supposedly, the recovery and removal of the craft and its occupants was conducted by RAF Woodbridge and a department known as a "Photo Wing" from an RAF base in Cambridgeshire was supposedly involved in this incident.

If you could provide me with any information on this enquiry, I would be extremely grateful as I know you are very busy.

Sir/Madam,

I was interested in obtaining any information on the possible recovery of a craft that crash landed in Lyminge Forest in Kent at 9:45pm on the 20th March, 1984. Supposedly, the recovery and removal of the craft and its occupants was conducted by RAF Woodbridge and a department known as a "Photo Wing" from an RAF base in Cambridgeshire was supposedly involved in this incident.

Papers about a UFO Landing

Now this is a real mystery, these papers came someone I used to work with, years ago, they apparently found them in a hole in a tree in the middle of nowhere in Kent !

They are apparently about a UFO Landing near Lyminge Forest, Kent.

There are maps, course of 'saucer', plans of the saucer, list of components, some sort of 3D star map, and...

a page in code that has "R.A.F. Huntingdon Wyton" on it !!

Now, I don't know how genuine any of this is, the plans seem farfetched, but the code looks interesting and the maps have genuine places on them, and there is a R.A.F base at Huntingdon Wyton - intriguing, don't you think...

There are six pages, so I can scan them and email them free of any P&P cost
